TOSSUPS

1. This actor appeared on the Ricky Gervais show Life's Too Short and claimed to have "full-blown AIDS." He also claims on that show that he received one of his most famous parts because of his love of making lists, in a reference to (*) Schindler's List. He voices a talking lion in the Narnia series, as well as Good Cop/Bad Cop in The Lego Movie. In perhaps his most well-known role in recent years, this man tells a villain that he has a "specific set of skills" after his daughter is kidnapped. For 10 points, name this actor who starred in the Taken trilogy.
ANSWER: Liam Neeson

2. While reprising a character from a different show, Bryan Cranston said on this show that he wanted to fill the nation with "red, white, and a whole lot of blue." In one appearance on this show, Melissa McCarthy used stuffed animal toys as props for a press conference. Bill Hader FaceTimed a spin-off of this show as a man who lasted in a new job for 11 days, Anthony (*) Scaramucci. On this show, Walter White was appointed by Trump to head the DEA, Sean Spicer warned of "radical moose-lambs," and Kate McKinnon has portrayed Kellyanne Conway, Betsy DeVos, and Jeff Sessions. For 10 points, name this sketch comedy show on which Alec Baldwin won an Emmy for his portrayal of Donald Trump.
ANSWER: Saturday Night Live*

3. A fan theory states that the island of Sodor is a dystopian nightmare populated by these things. Harry Potter first sees a Thestral after leaving one of these things. Hercule Poirot solves his most famous mystery in one of these things, where he realizes the culprit is everyone else with him. Gladys Knight and the Pips sing about (*) taking one of these things at midnight to Georgia, while Journey is willing to take a midnight one "going anywhere." The Polar Express is one of these things that goes to the North Pole. For 10 points, name these modes of transportation that utilize railroads.
ANSWER: trains [antiprompt on locomotives or engines]

4. An original song for this movie by Danger Mouse features both Run the Jewels and Big Boi. The soundtrack for this movie has 30 songs, and is over an hour and a half long. The lead actor of this film, Ansel Elgort, entered a new genre when he took the role for this film, as he is better known for teen films like (*) Divergent, not comedy action crime movies. This movie is the highest-grossing film Edgar Wright has directed. Music is constantly playing through this movie due to the main character's tinnitus. For 10 points, name this 2017 film about a young man who excels at escaping from crime scenes in dramatic car chases.
ANSWER: Baby Driver

5. With 47 straight victories, this team holds the longest-winning streak in Division I history. Two players from this team finished 3rd and 4th in voting for the 2016 Heisman Trophy behind Lamar Jackson and DeShaun Watson. One of those players from this team was a receiver drafted by the Jacksonville Jaguars and is Dede Westbrook. The other tried and failed to plant a flag of this team on the Block "O" turf at the Horseshoe after defeating OSU in 2017; that man is quarterback (*) Baker Mayfield. Lincoln Riley was promoted this season to succeed retiring longtime coach Bob Stoops. This team plays annually at the Cotton Bowl in the Red River Showdown with the Texas Longhorns. For 10 points, name this Big 12 team from Norman.
ANSWER: Oklahoma Sooners [accept either underlined portion]

6. To save in this game, you need to call your father. The cities in this game are named after numbers, and are creatively visited in numerical order. An item from this series in Super Smash Bros does a large amount of damage to shields. A common game theory states that the protagonist from (*) Undertale is also the protagonist of this game. Enemies in this game include hippies and members of the Happy Happyist cult. This game features unusual weapons like baseball bats and yo-yos alongside psychic powers known as PSI. For 10 points, name this cult classic Super Nintendo RPG that stars Poo, Paula, Jeff, and Ness.
ANSWER: EarthBound

7. One song by this band was remade by Frank Farian with the title "Felicidad America (Obama Obama)." Another song by this band includes the lyrics "She's crazy like a fool / Wild about Daddy Cool." That song, "Daddy Cool," was also the title of a musical based on this band's music, which also included the song (*) "Brown Girl in the Ring." One of this band's best-selling albums was entitled Nightflight to Venus, and that album included a song with the lyrics, "Lover of the Russian Queen / There was a cat that really was gone." For 10 points, name this band who wrote the song "Ra Ra Rasputin."
ANSWER: Boney M.

8. This arcade game features a rotary dial, which is used for aiming in three of its four subgames. Those four subgames are Battle Tanks, I/O Tower, MCP Cone, and the most famous subgame. Sales of this arcade cabinet actually grossed more than the movie on which it was based. The most iconic subgame in this arcade is similar to (*) snake, but instead of a trailing tail growing longer, the entire trail remains for the game's duration as the player tries to force their opponent into a wall. That subgame is titled Light Cycles. For 10 points, name this 1982 arcade game featuring a titular program fighting to free the grid and based on a Disney movie released the same year starring Jeff Bridges.
ANSWER: Tron

9. This company was recently banned from operating in London, due to lack of adherence to regulations. One of the fastest growing companies in the 2010s, this company recently forced its CEO to step down due to poor workplace culture. That CEO, Travis Kalanick, once faced a 250 billion dollar lawsuit over (*) peer-to-peer sharing. This company is said to have kickstarted the "sharing economy", and has introduced X and POOL as more and less expensive variants, respectively. In 2014, this company introduced its namesake "Eats" as a food delivery service. For 10 points, name this ride-sharing app whose primary competitor is Lyft.
ANSWER: Uber

10. One of these animals is featured in a Vine wearing a red dress and pearls. In that same vine, this animal stands under the pale moonlight while "Summertime Sadness" plays in the background. Another Vine featuring these animals features a young girl wearing a red jacket who falls over while trying to feed these animals. A man presses down on a metal bin full of (*) screaming toy varieties of these animals. In another Vine, Kylie Jenner incorrectly labels a pig as one of these animals, and in yet another Vine, a young girl points to a flock of white birds and says, "look at all those [this animal]." For 10 points, a man cries as he realizes that 69 cents aren't enough to purchase nuggets of this variety.
ANSWER: chicken

11. This player became the first player since Super Mario to win the Conn Smythe Trophy in two consecutive years. In his second season, this man captured the Art Ross Trophy, becoming the only teenager to win a scoring title in any major North American sports league. This (*) hockey player was unanimously voted MVP at the World Cup of Hockey in 2016, where he captained Canada to gold. For 10 points, name this captain of the Pittsburgh Penguins, who led his team to consecutive Stanley Cups in 2016 and 2017 and is nicknamed "The Kid."
ANSWER: Sidney Crosby [prompt on Sid the Kid]

12. The music video for this song begins with a shot of West 79th Street in Chicago and unnecessarily features DJ Khaled and Young Thug, as they were not in the actual track. One singer claims he "got a pocket full of money, and a mind full of ideas." Another guest rapper in this song claims that he has "half a milli' in the safe, another in the pillowcase," and that codeine has him "movin' slower than a caterpillar race." Primarily, the main artist of this song warns if a (*) label tries to stop him, he will send some people to their offices to make the message clearer, including the two guest rappers featured on this track, 2 Chainz and Lil Wayne. For 10 points, what Grammy winner for Best Rap Performance of 2017 by Chance the Rapper notes, "you don't want" its title phrase "with me?"
ANSWER: "No Problem"

13. This TV show, first aired in 2001, was NBC's response to the smashing success of CBS's Survivor, which was released in that year. Joe Rogan was the host of this game show while on CBS; however, Ludacris was announced as the new host when this game show was moved to (*) MTV. The standard version of this show usually involves four teams of two, usually those in a romantic relationship. In each episode, there are three rounds, with the second one meant to disgust participants and viewers. For 10 points, name this game show sensation, in which teams compete for fifty thousand dollars by completing tasks such as dangerous stunts and eating odd foods.
ANSWER: Fear Factor

14. Part of this song's music video was filmed in Kim's Café in London. In that video, this song's lead singer, Morten Harket, is chased by two men armed with pipe wrenches. Later in the music video for this song, another character is seen lying next to a trash can, to the confusion of several bystanders. This song received major attention thanks to its music video's unique use of (*) rotoscoping. The vocal line of this song hits a high E with the line "I'll be gone, in a day or two." The music video for this song starts with comic-book-style drawings of a motorcycle race, after which the winner invites a woman into a pencil-drawn world. For 10 points, name this 1985 Billboard Hot 100 song by the band A-ha.
ANSWER: "Take On Me"

15. The twist of this movie is somewhat ruined for modern audiences, as the last survivor is now the most famous of the cast, instead of the least. Besides the main character, the only survivor in this movie is a cat named Jones. According to a 1985 cartoon, this movie passes what has become known as the (*) Bechdel test, since Lambert and Ripley talk about a monster. The logo of Weyland-Yutani corporation appears in several places in this movie, and it is revealed that they sent an android to capture the titular villain of this film. That villain was designed by H.R. Giger. For 10 points, name this sci-fi horror film that features a monster with a signature "chestburster" attack.
ANSWER: Alien

16. This person played a violin rendition of the theme to Schindler's List at the Israeli Bonds Banquet in 1996 and was introduced by Larry King as one day "wanting to perform in Carnegie Hall." New York Magazine reported that this man was a frequent target of anti-Semitism from the alt-right during the 2016 Presidential election cycle. This man, former editor-at-large at (*) Breitbart, gave a September 14, 2017 speech at a prominent west coast college, where violent riots prevented Ann Coulter from doing so just months earlier. This Harvard Law School graduate currently hosts a political podcast bearing his name. For 10 points, name this editor-at-large of the Daily Wire, a prominent Jewish conservative whose speech at UC Berkeley generated great controversy and was prominently featured in national news.
ANSWER: Ben Shapiro

17. This man was succeeded by Orlando Antigua as head coach of the Dominican Republic men's basketball team. An appearance by one of this man's UMass teams in the 1996 Final Four was vacated because Marcus Camby had accepted money from an agent. A season of another of this man's teams was also vacated partially because his star point guard did not actually take his SAT. That player at Memphis was (*) Derrick Rose. This man may have taken the aforementioned Dominican Republic job to recruit Karl-Anthony Towns. For 10 points, name this basketball coach who has recruited blue-chip, one-and-done players like John Wall, DeMarcus Cousins, and Anthony Davis to the Kentucky Wildcats, often known as Coach Cal.
ANSWER: John Calipari [accept Coach Cal before mentioned]

18. In a magazine comic parody of A Christmas Carol, this man plays the role of Ebenezer Scrooge. A portrait of this character can be found in the mirror room of the second floor of a castle. In a hidden codec conversation, it is revealed that this character eats whole cloves of garlic day and night. This man gets around Diamond City with his namesake (*) bike, which also appeared as his side special move in the Super Smash Bros series. This character destroyed his house to found a microgame corporation, as he believed it would be profitable. For 10 points, name this greedy, fat antihero who may be more famous for being Mario's rival.
ANSWER: Wario

19. This person played varsity football at both Purdue and Georgetown, graduating in 1988 from Georgetown with a degree in finance. This person's "breakout" performance was a stand-up routine on The Late Show with David Letterman. This clean observational comic often talks about his own life, including bits on his (*) Catholic faith, Hot Pockets, and pale skin. This person has been featured recently playing Colonel Sanders in commercials for KFC and as himself in commercials for the Chrysler Pacifica minivan. For 10 points, name this comedian, author of the memoir Dad is Fat and whose specials include "Mr. Universe," "Obsessed," and "Beyond the Pale."
ANSWER: Jim Gaffigan

20. Louis C.K. once accused Donald Rumsfeld of being one of these people, and took his refusal to answer as a confirmation. Theorists point to Hillary Clinton spitting out cough drops as proof she is one of these people. David Icke has done the most to advance this theory, something 4% of the United States have admitted to believing. Though these people may have originated on the lost worlds of Atlantis and Lemuria, Icke states that these people come from (*) the Draconus Alpha system, and that they drink human blood. For 10 points, name this race of usurpers who secretly control the government.
ANSWER: lizard people [or reptillians or reptoids or reptiloids or saurians or Draconians]

[TIE-BREAKER]: This movie starts with a flashback of a young lion growing up in Africa, where his father is alpha lion of the herd. Later in this film, there is a scene where a penguin marries a bobblehead on a crashed plane. In this film, a supposedly terminally-ill giraffe attempts to sacrifice himself in a volcano, only to be saved by his (*) love, played by Jada Pinkett Smith. Will.i.am appears in this film as a smooth-talking hippo named Moto Moto. For 10 points, name this DreamWorks sequel that follows the famous gang of a lion, hippo, giraffe and zebra as they explore Africa after crashing on their way back to the Central Park Zoo.
ANSWER: Madagascar: Escape 2 Africa* [do not accept or prompt on Madagascar]

BONUSES:

1. Animal names, part three! Answer the following about terms for the male and female of the given species, for 10 points each:
[10] This is the term used for a female dinosaur. It is also used for dolphins and giraffes, and like most bred bovines, the complementary male term for these animals is a bull.
ANSWER: cow
[10] Though male donkeys are called jacks, female donkeys are given by this term which is also a human first name.
ANSWER: jenny [or jennet]
[10] This is the term for a male seahorse. For comparison, a baby seahorse is known as a seafoal.
ANSWER: seastallion

2. Snapchat has some pretty cool features. Answer some questions about them, for 10 points each:
[10] A recent trend on Snapchat stories involved attaching a link to this website, where friends can give honest, anonymous comments about the person.
ANSWER: sarahah.com
[10] A new update included this controversial Snapchat feature, in which friends can see the location of their friends. Users can avoid showing up in this feature by going into Ghost Mode.
ANSWER: Snap Map
[10] This emoji, when next to a contact in your Snapchat, indicates that they are one of your best friends but you are not one of theirs.
ANSWER: smirk [accept obvious equivalents that look like this: 😏]

3. Answer the following about memes originating from Dragon Ball Z, for 10 points each:
[10] Vegeta exclaims this awkwardly-translated phrase when detecting that Goku has powered up in rage after hearing about the killing of his friend Piccolo.
ANSWER: "It's over 9000!"
[10]The creator of the Over 9000 meme, Kajetokun, also created this other Dragon Ball Z meme that became popular on 4chan and Urban Dictionary for its potential for sexually suggestive jokes.
ANSWER: The Balls are Inert [answer must be exact]
[10] A GIF of Michael Phelps celebrating a victory during an Olympic swimming relay race and transforming into one of these was one of the most notable incorporations of this meme, a transcendent state that can be achieved by members of a certain race in Dragon Ball Z.
ANSWER: Super Saiyan

4. Answer the following about NFL draft steals, for 10 points each:
[10] Perhaps the greatest all-time draft steal, this man took over for the Patriots when Drew Bledsoe had a lacerated spleen and never looked back.
ANSWER: Tom Brady
[10] This Steelers wide receiver was also a 6th round choice, but his ongoing dominance proved the team made the right choice when they re-signed him over Mike Wallace.
ANSWER: Antonio Brown
[10] This undrafted free agent secured a spot with the Chargers despite only playing basketball in college. Since then, he's become the all-time touchdown leader among tight ends.
ANSWER: Antonio Gates

5. Did you like doing comp math before? Let's do it again! Pencil and paper ready, for 10 points each:
[10] What is the product of the number appended to the title of the 2014 animated film Big Hero, multiplied by the number of minutes in a professional soccer game (not counting overtime)?
ANSWER: 540 [6 * 90]
[10] Take the number of contestants found in a typical game of Jeopardy! and add the number of continents on Earth. Then, add the calendar day of the month of Valentine's Day. What is the resulting sum?
ANSWER: 24 [3 + 7 + 14]
[10] Take the time that Rebecca Black says she's waking up in the morning to get fresh and get downstairs. Then, add the number of minutes which title a famous CBS show created by Don Hewitt. What is the resulting time?
ANSWER: 8:00 AM [7 AM + 60 minutes]

6. Answer some questions about superhero TV, for 10 points each.
[10] This show faced criticism for pushing the Olicity relationship in Season 4. The shared universe with The Flash and other DC TV shows is frequently dubbed this show's "verse."
ANSWER: Arrow
[10] The Flash once accidentally ran into the dimension of this other superhero's show. He later enlisted her to defend his earth from aliens under the "takes one to beat one" principle.
ANSWER: Supergirl
[10] The second season of Supergirl joined the Arrowverse shows on this channel, which is also home to "Riverdale." This channel's name is derived from its two parent networks, CBS and Warner Bros.
ANSWER: The CW Television Network

7. Those darn Nazis don't know when to give up! Answer some questions about where they might be hiding, for 10 points each:
[10] A common theory is that Hitler fled to this South American country. Magneto is shown hunting Nazis here in X-Men: First Class.
ANSWER: Argentina
[10] Iron Sky, a 2012 film, depicts Nazis who fled to this location to bide their time.
ANSWER: the Moon
[10] Another conspiracy claims that the Nazis built a secret UFO base underneath the ice in this location. Some Flat Earthers think this place goes on forever, or that there is a giant wall here.
ANSWER: Antarctica

8. Answer the following about solo projects made by members of music groups, for 10 points each:
[10] This singer made his first solo single release with "Sign Of The Times," released in April 2017. His original group, One Direction, is on an indefinite hiatus.
ANSWER: Harry Styles
[10] Having released two solo albums, Mr. Bad Guy and Barcelona, this lead singer of the band Queen died tragically at the age of 45 due to complications from AIDS.
ANSWER: Freddie Mercury [or Farrokh Bulsara]
[10] Alexander Ebert, the frontman for this band, completed and released his first and only solo album Alexander in 2011. Besides his solo work, Ebert and this band have released popular songs such as "Home" and "40 Day Dream."
ANSWER: Edward Sharpe and the Magnetic Zeros

9. Answer the following questions about a specific movie, for 10 points each:
[10] Name this Holocaust movie based on a book by Australian author Thomas Keneally, in which a German enamel manufacturer saves the lives of thousands of Jews by employing them in his factory.
ANSWER: Schindler's List
[10] Schindler's List is shot in completely black and white except for a little girl who wears a coat of this color.
ANSWER: red
[10] This city bought Oskar Schindler's Enamel Factory in 2007 to create a museum about the German occupation of Poland.
ANSWER: Krakow

10. It doesn't matter if you call them soda, pop, or coke; name these fizzy beverages, for 10 points each:
[10] Popular with brands such as Big Red and Jelly Belly, this carbonated drink is one that's been flavored with vanilla.
ANSWER: Cream Soda
[10] This caramel-colored soda with a spicy cherry variant is Coca-Cola's answer to Dr. Pepper.
ANSWER: Mr. Pibb [or Pibb Xtra]
[10] This alternative to Diet Dr. Pepper is named for the number of calories it contains. It crashed and burned after its ads were deemed sexist for stating "It's not for women."
ANSWER: Dr. Pepper TEN

11. Answer some questions about confusingly-named D&D monsters, for 10 points each:
[10] The monster known as a Gorgon in D&D is not a lady with snakes for hair, but instead is a metal fire-breathing one of these based on the mythological Khalkotauroi.
ANSWER: bull [prompt on cow]
[10] Snake-haired ladies are in the game, but instead are referred to by this name, the most famous of the Gorgons from mythology.
ANSWER: Medusas
[10] Despite sounding like a delicious dessert, the black variation of this monster is a dangerous, acidic ooze.
ANSWER: Pudding

12. Identify the organization based on its logo, for 10 points each:
[10] This organization's logo consists of an incomplete jigsaw sphere with glyphs of different scripts on each piece.
ANSWER: Wikipedia
[10] Imagine the St. Louis arch, but made of gold. Then, add a second one right next to it, and you have this company's logo.
ANSWER: McDonald's
[10] This organization's logo consists of a black and white blot picture of a frontward-facing panda, consistent with its goal of wilderness preservation.
ANSWER: World Wide Fund for Nature [or World Wildlife Fund]

13. Answer the following about soccer managers, for 10 points each:
[10] This Portuguese manager was named among the 10 greatest coaches since the foundation of UEFA. He led Internazionale to become the first Italian club to win the treble, he's nicknamed "The Special One," and he currently coaches Manchester United.
ANSWER: Jose Mourinho
[10] This manager replaced Luis Enrique and currently manages the club that plays its home games at Camp Nou. He also was a former player at the current club he coaches.
ANSWER: Ernesto Valverde
[10] This man was sent off after headbutting Marco Materazzi in the 2006 World Cup Final. He took over his current job from Rafa Benitez and used to manage his son Enzo.
ANSWER: Zinedine Zidane

14. I don't have time to explain why I don't have time to explain. Answer these questions about Bungie's newest series of video games, for 10 points each:
[10] Destiny is a game that has earned heavy criticism for various design choices. Among those choices was this system that directly affected the player's level based on stats on armor. It was removed in The Taken King add-on.
ANSWER: Light
[10]These colorful dodecahedra were also a heavily-disliked mechanic in the first year of Destiny. When taken to be decoded, the item yielded would sometimes be of a quality worse than the original, and earned a communal hatred of the cryptarch Rahool.
ANSWER: engrams
[10] Some mistakes in Destiny were humorous. This particular enemy had an incorrect health bar, causing him to have a massive amount of health points. Eventually he was fixed, but references to him can still be found. His community-given name rhymes, and he has four arms.
ANSWER: Randal the Vandal

15. Answer some questions about songs from the hit show Hamilton, for 10 points each:
[10] This Hamilton song is named for an actual folk song sung after the British surrender at Yorktown.
ANSWER: "The World Turned Upside Down"
[10] In this song, featuring Lafayette, Mulligan, and Laurens, Hamilton insists he will not throw the title thing away. Ironically, at the end he does.
ANSWER: "My Shot"
[10] This killer of Hamilton sings the introduction of the play.
ANSWER: Aaron Burr

16. Answer some questions about movies that borrow from Shakespeare, for 10 points each:
[10] This animal-themed Disney movie actually gets a lot of plot from Hamlet, with an evil uncle killing the king, that king reappearing as a ghost, and a prince being sent away.
ANSWER: Lion King
[10] This musical moves Romeo and Juliet to New York City, and replaces the Montagues and Capulets with the Jets and the Sharks.
ANSWER: West Side Story
[10] This crossdressing soccer flick starring Amanda Bynes and Channing Tatum is an adaptation of Twelfth Night.
ANSWER: She's the Man

17. Identify these mononymous people, for 10 points each:
[10] This musical artist with the surname Sarkisian was known as the Goddess of Pop. During her approximately fifty-year-long career, she released such hits as "Gypsies" and "Half-Breed," and she has a namesake effect involving autotune.
ANSWER: Cher
[10] This Icelandic singer and composer released her first album called Debut, which went platinum in 1992. As of late September, 2017, she announced in her own words that her newest album Utopia "will be out very soon."
ANSWER: Björk
[10] This soccer player is the all time top scorer for Brazil and is the only soccer player to have ever won three FIFA World Cups.
ANSWER: Pelé

18. Answer some questions about a certain critically-despised comedian, for 10 points each:
[10] This actor played both Jack and Jill in the movie Jack and Jill, one of the least funny movies ever.
ANSWER: Adam Sandler
[10] Sandler recently did this Netflix original film, whose name suggests it is a parody of The Magnificent Seven.
ANSWER: The Ridiculous 6
[10] Back when Sandler actually made funny movies, he starred in this movie as the namesake golfer with anger issues who must save his grandmother's house.
ANSWER: Happy Gilmore

19. Answer the following about a disco song that you've probably heard before but don't know the name of. For 10 points each:
[10] Name this 1979 song by American R&B band Chic that is one of the most-sampled songs in music history. The bassline motif of this song inspired later basslines in many songs including "Rapper's Delight" and "Another One Bites the Dust."
ANSWER: "Good Times"
[10] This member of Chic played the famous bassline in Good Times and was heavily featured on Daft Punk's most recent album "Random Access Memories."
ANSWER: Nile Rodgers
[10] "Good Times" ranks #229 on this magazine's "List of 500 Greatest Songs of All Time." A Bob Dylan song that ranks #1 on that list gives this magazine its name, and the plural form of its name gives an English rock band with Mick Jagger.
ANSWER: Rolling Stone

20. Answer some questions about famous game mods, for 10 points each:
[10] Aeon of Strife, credited as the first game in the multiplayer online battle arena, or MOBA, genre, is a mod for this game.
ANSWER: Starcraft
[10] Team Fortress originated as a mod for this shooter, which was id Software's follow up to the Doom series.
ANSWER: Quake
[10] A still-in-development mod for Skyrim aims to port the island of Vvardenfell in a modern update of this previous Elder Scrolls game.
ANSWER: Morrowind