

Toss Up 7

SM 1. Bill May had a major breakthrough at the 1998 Goodwill Games. May, one of the best in his sport, finally got a chance to prove it in international competition and he did it in style, winning a silver medal with partner Kristin Lum in the duet event. For 10 points, name this aquatic sport that has, up until now, been totally a woman's sport.

Answer: Synchronized Swimming

2. Little known Isaiah Sellers was the first to use this pen name derived from steamboat piloting terminology. The more famous man to use the name was Samuel Langhorne Clemens. For 10 points, what's the name of the author who wrote The Adventures of Huckleberry Finn?

Answer: Mark Twain

3. Also known as Fuzzy Tongue disease, cases are so rare of it now a days, that should an individual get it, they will be transported immediately to the CDC. However the CDC wasn't in existence when Helen Keller contracted it at the age of 19 months. For 10 points, what is this malady which describes one turning red and getting very hot at the same time?

Answer: Scarlet Fever

4. He coined the controversial term Osteodontokeratic to describe the kinds of materials in their natural state that may have been used as tools by early hominids such as bone, tooth and horn. For 10 points, name this man who was also received by skeptics when he made public his discovery of the Taung Child in the 1920's.

Answer: Raymond Dart

5. One was stolen and went on the market for $900. Others have been bought with forged checks and then sold to fund a heroin habit. The most expensive one will cost you $4,800 and is named Peanut the Royal Blue Elephant. FTP, what are these obsessive toys distributed by Ty inc?

Answer: Beanie Babies

6. She took her first name after her conversion to Christianity and explained that she did so "Because I was to travel up and down the land showing people their sins and being a sign to them." For 10 points, name this woman born with the name Isabelle, freed from slavery in 1827 who worked as an abolitionist until her death in 1883.

Answer: Sojourner Truth

7. They are divided into 20 books. The first one states, "To learn & at due times to repeat what one has learned, is that not, after all, a pleasure?" The last one says, "He who does not understand words, cannot understand people." These guides to behavior that stress piety & filiality were compiled during the Zhou dynasty. FTP, name these sayings by Kung Fu Tze.

Answer: Analects or Lun-yu

8. It was published in 1888, supposedly one year after the book ends, and 112 years before it begins. For 10 points, identify this Utopic novel featuring the protagonist Julian West, written by Edward Bellamy.

Answer: Looking Backward

9. Binyamin Netanyahu just named him foreign minister, which has alarmed some, for, when he was Defense Minister in the early '80's, he overawed the invasion of Lebanon & the settlement of the West Bank & Hebron. FTP, name this Israeli.

Answer: Ariel Sharon

10. Exposition Park in Los Angeles houses many of the finds made here. They lie in Hancock Park, & in 1906, the preserved skeletons of many prehistoric animals were found within the remnants of these asphalt bogs. FTP, name them.

Answer: La Brea Tarpits

11. This phase usually happens 20 days into a 28 day cycle. Just having passed Full Moon status, more than half of the moon is still visible -- but that amount is declining with every day. For 10 points, name this stage of the moon's visibility right before it reaches Last Quarter.

Answer: Waning Gibbous (Prompt on Partial Answer)

12. This architect lived from 1573 to 1652. He introduced the Renaissance neoclassical style into England. FTP name the architect of such buildings as Queen's House in Greenwich and the Banqueting Hall in Whitehall.

Answer: Inigo JONES

13. After a long hiatus for winter, fighting resumed in the Revolutionary War and this man was the leader of the first colonial victory in 1777, defeating the British at Ridgefield, Connecticut. He later played a crucial role in the victory of Saratoga but a belated promotion and accusations of improprieties ultimately led to his career as a British informant. For 10 points, name this eventual traitor.

Answer: Benedict Arnold

14. This African capital city was adopted as the name for an international agreement by which many former French colonies became associates of the European Community. For 10 points, name this city, home to several thousand Cameroonians.

Answer: Yaounde

15. Gaston Lachaille is a rich young man who falls in love with her, Her mother is Andree, a singer in musicals, and she is primarily supervised by her maternal grandmother Madame Alvarez. This 15 year-old originally spurns Lachaille's advances but changes her mind within a day. For 10 points, who is this vibrant Parisian girl, the title character of a 1944 work by Colette?

Answer: Gigi

16. The first authorized use of this service occurred in 1911 between Garden City and Mineola, New York. Agreements at the International Postal Convention in 1920 and at another conference held in 1927, decided on a uniform cost was established so countries could carry mail from other countries. FTP, identify this method of transporting mail which uses vehicles made by, in part, Boeing.

Answer: airmail

17. His festival usually consisted of exchanging copper coins since he was the porter of the Roman gods. In Rome, a covered passage was dedicated to this god of beginnings and endings. FTP name this two-faced deity.

Answer: Janus

18. The Greek word for "dough" enters geological circles as a term to refer to the hot, molten material that originates in the Earth's crust and when extruded onto the surface of the Earth, becomes known as lava. For 10 points, what is this stuff that when cooled, forms igneous rock?

Answer: Magma

19. The FAA recently announced that they were going to inspect these jets' bulkheads, because older ones seem to be cracking in places. Boeing has promised cooperation in checking out this plane, the most commonly used passenger jet. FTP, name this plane.

Answer: 737 (prompt if early buzz with Boeing)

20. They were passed for the first time in 1793 but not very well enforced by the North which led to southern consternation. The second time around, they were nullified by the North in 1860 which was a cause of South Carolina's secession. "All Good Citizens" were required to obey them and to help capture and jail slaves that had escaped from their masters. For 10 points, what were these laws strengthened by the Compromise of 1850?

Answer: Fugitive Slave Laws

21. Besides such standbys as the giraffe, African elephant and Siberian tiger, your first set includes a guide to major environments, index cards arranged by phylum, and a handsome blue plastic organizer. FTP name these collectible items beloved by many young aspiring College Bowlers.

Answer: Safari Cards

22. The term is sometimes used to describe the song of a bird or light-hearted laughter, but in music it is the technical instruction for a player to move rapidly between the written note and the note immediately above. FTP, name this term signified by a wavy line or the letters "t" and "r" above the note.

Answer: Trill

23. This 1939 play depicts unfavorably the rise of industrialism in the south and condemns the new breed of Southerners as rapacious and ruthless. For 10 points, name this chronicle of the fictional Hubbard family crafted by Lillian Hellman.

Answer: The Little Foxes

24. During his tenure as secretary of state he issued the writ making William Marbury a justice of the peace in the District of Columbia. During his Supreme Court term, he wrote majority decisions in Gibbons v. Ogden and McCulloch v. Maryland. FTP name this justice who violated ethical standards by ruling on and writing the decision for Marbury v. Madison.

Answer: John Marshall

Bonus 7

1. Given a work of Dada art, name the artist FTP each.

A. The painting Tum

answer: Marcel Duchamp

B. The sculpture Torso

Answer: Hans/Jean Arp

C. The film Ballet Mecanique

Answer: Fernad Leger

2. Two successive Nobel laureates in Chemistry were Ultra-cool for their inventions. Identify each for 15 points a piece:

A. This 1925 laureate furthered the studies of colloidal solutions in the field of biochemistry with his "ultramicroscope."

Answer: Richard Zsigmondy

B. This 1926 laureate developed the "ultracentrifuge" and has the unit of sedimentation velocity named after him.

Answer: Theodor Svedberg

3. Note these North Sea island groups: Jan Mayen (YON MAI-en). The Faeroes. The Orkneys. The Shetlands. The Hebrides. Which one, for the stated number of points?

10 Is completely uninhabited?

IAN MAYEN

5 Has its own Celtic language?

HEBRIDES

5 Declared independence from Denmark in 1946, but accepted home rule in 1948?

THE FAEROES

10 Which is the northernmost possession of the United Kingdom?

SHETLANDS

4. Recently, the South Korean president welcomed both the new Japanese Prime Minister & the Emperor to Seoul.

A. FTP, name that South Korean President.

Answer: Kim Dae-jung

B. FTP, name that new Japanese Prime Minister.

Answer: Obuchi Keizo

C. FTP, it's rude to say that the Emperor is "Akihito". Give his reign name.

Answer: Heisei

5. These buildings are collectively known in Arab as "The Red Castle" and the entire complex is considered one of the finest examples of Moorish architecture in Spain. For 10 points a piece:

A. Name this collective group of structures, built by Moorish kings that overlooks Granada and name any year in the 124 year range when it underwent its original construction.

Answer: Alhambra
Accept Any Answer between 1230 - 1354 C.E.

B. What author, then an attache at the American delegation in Madrid in 1826 wrote a well-known volume of sketches and tales called Legends of the Alhambra?

Answer: Washington Irving

6. Answer these questions about the film of Beloved FTP each.

A. Who is playing the title roel?

Answer: Thandie Newton

B. Beah Richards is playing a matriatrchal figure. For which film did she garner a Best Supporting Actress nomination in 1967?

Answer: Guess Who's Coming to Dinner?

C. What is the name of the character being played by Oprah Winfrey?

Answer: Sethe

7. While the Holy Roman empire was on a decline, several small cantons started to emerge on its western boundary. By 1291, three cantons took the first step towards breaking away. These cantons decided to defy feudalistic loyalty to the empire and govern themselves to maximize their own benefit. For 10 points a piece:

A. All or nothing -- what was the first name given to this union, also known as the League of <Blank> <Blank> that ultimately became the Swiss Confederation and then, Switzerland?

Answers: Upper Germany

C. Name any two of those original three cantons that unified.

Answer: Uri
Schwyz
Unterwalden

8. Given characters, name the author who created them, 15-5.

A. 15 pt clue: Jarvis Lorry and Rosie Maylie
5 pt clue: Sydney Carton, Uriah Heep

Answer: CHARLES Dickens

- B. 15 pt clue: Amelia Sedley, Arthur Pendennis
5 pt clue: Becky Sharp, Henry Esmond

Answer: WILLIAM MAKEPEACE Thackeray

9. The students chosen as prisoners were arrested one night without warning and were locked up wearing prison uniforms. The students chosen as guards were instructed to maintain order. Despite the fact that everyone knew it was an experiment, everyone assumed their roles for real. Within a few days and due to the brutality of the guards and the anguish of the prisoners, the experiment was cut dramatically short. For 10 points a piece, this was what experimenter's "Prison" study conducted at what University that resulted in what landmark 1972 paper?

Answer: Philip Zimbardo
Stanford
"Pathology of Imprisonment"

10. You can call me Al -- but only for this bonus. Identify the class of organic compounds given the functional group of the class for 10 each:

A. Two carbon atoms sharing a triple bond

Answer: Alkyne

B. Two carbon atoms sharing a double bond

Answer: Alkene

C. One Carbon sharing a double bond with an Oxygen and a single bond with a Hydrogen atom.

Answer: Aldehyde

11. 30 - 20 -10 Name the man:

30 A 4-time tony winner, he earned an Emmy for his TV version of Peter Pan and later adapted it for Broadway.

20 With Robert Wise, he won a directing Oscar for West Side Story

10 This master dancer and choreographer put his stamp on dozens of plays, musicals and movies before his death in 1998.

Answer: Jerome Robbins

12. Answer the following related questions from Greek mythology, 5-10-15.

A. Derived from the Greek word for ibreastless,î they were warrior-women from Scythia.

Answer: Amazons

B. Married to the son of Theseus, she was the Amazon queen whom Hercules killed while attempting to take her girdle.

Answer: Hippolyta

C. This queen led the Amazons into battle on the Trojan side during the Trojan War.

Answer: Penthesilea

13. Given titles of poems written in the 17th Century, identify the author, 10 each.

A. How Soon Hath Time and On the Late Massacre in Piedmont

Answer: John Milton

B. The Author to Her Book and To My Dear and Loving Husband

Answer: Anne Bradstreet

C. To Lucasta, Going to the Wars

Answer: Richard Lovelace

14. The $54 billion dollar agreement was the largest industrial merger ever. For 10 points a piece:

A. Identify these two companies, one based in the U.S. and one based in the U.K. who announced their merger in 1998 to become the world's largest distributor of gasoline and other petroleum products.

Answer: Amoco
British Petroleum

B. This merger superseded the earlier 1998 merger of Daimler-Benz and what car company as the largest merger ever?

Answer: Chrysler

15. Born in Scotland in 1747, he made a name for himself by killing a mutinous crew member in self-defense and for his proud statement "Sir, I have not yet begun to fight." When he was asked to surrender.

A. First for 10 points, name this valiant seaman.

Answer: John Paul Jones

B. For 10, give the name of his ship that he commanded during the Revolutionary War.

Answer: The Bon Homme Richard

C. When the Bon Homme Richard shattered and sank, Jones captured what enemy ship for his own personal use and then traveled to Holland?

Answer: The H.M.S Serapis

16. Answer these questions about a goddess FTP each.

A. This fiery goddess is the Hawai'ian goddess of fire & of the volcanoes there.

Answer: Pele

B. Pele was born on Honua-Mea, which is part of what other Polynesian island?

Answer: Tahiti

C. Name either her mother or father.

Answer: Haumea (mother) or Kane Milohai (father)

17. Using his law, one can state with confidence that the emf induced in a wire loop is proportional to the rate of change of the flux through the loop. For 10 points a piece:

A. Whose law is that?

Answer: Faraday's Law

B. What Greek letter is used in mathematical expressions of emf -- at least in the equation that emf equals minus N times delta phi over delta tau?

Answer: Epsilon

C. In that equation, what does the minus sign signify?

Answer: The polarity of the induced emf

18. FTP each identify the state east of the Mississippi in which each of the following is the highest point.

A. Clingmans Dome

Answer: Tennessee

B. Mt. Washington

Answer: New Hampshire

C. Brasstown Bald

Answer: Georgia

19. Gases have laws. So do bureaucracies. Given a parts or some parts, identify the law of bureaucracy that it applies to -- for 10 points each:

A. In every hierarchy, each employee tends to rise to his level of incompetence.

Answer: Peter Principle

B. In a bureaucracy, accomplishment is inversely proportional to the volume of paper used.

Answer: Fowler's Law

C. (1) Never use one word when a dozen will suffice. (2) If it can be understood, it's not finished yet. (3) Never do anything for the first time.

Answer: Smith's Principles of Bureaucratic Tinkertoys (Prompt on Partial Answer)

20. Iowa City is a great town. Or not. So -- maybe you'd rather be elsewhere. What other authors wrote about these places on a 5-10-20-30 basis?

A. Quality Street

J.M. Barrie

B. The New Grub Street

George Gissing

C. Penguin Island

Anatole France

D. State Fair

Phil Stong

21. Based on a murder trial that the author had covered as a reporter, it features George Henderson, the county attorney, Henry Peters the Sheriff and Lewis Hale, A Neighboring Farmer. For 15 points a piece -- name this play set in an isolated midwestern farmhouse in the dead of winter and it's Iowa-born author.

Answer: Trifles
Susan Glaspell

22. The TNN Music City News Country Awards winners were announced in June of 1998. Identify these winners 10 each:

A. The Best Vocal Group and Best Vocal Duo both won for the 6th straight time. Name these two music acts:

Answers: Sawyer Brown
Brooks and Dunn

B. This Lee Ann won for female star of tomorrow but it wasn't Lee Ann Rimes. Name her.

Answer: Lee Ann Womack

23. Pencil and paper ready. The Era of Good Feelings. The Great Society. Reconstruction. The Gilded Age. The Roaring Twenties. The Investiture Controversy. Arrange these periods in order for five points each.

INVESTITURE CONTROVERSY
ERA OF GOOD FEELINGS
RECONSTRUCTION
GILDED AGE
ROARING TWENTIES
GREAT SOCIETY

24. A recent oil spill along the Northern California coast has been tracked to a certain vessel called the Command. FTP each.

A. What country is the homebase of registry of the vessel?

Answer: Liberia

B. This Central marican country was its destination.

Answer: Panama

C. this bay near San Francisco was apparently the origin of the spill.

Answer: Half Moon Bay