SNEWT II: Grandson of QOTC, 1998

Tossups by Matt Bruce of Boston University (and some things by Robert Whaples)

1. The aspiring playwright Konstantin Treplyov [tre-PLYOF] loves aspiring actress Nina Zarechnaya [zar-ech-NEYE-a]. When a private performance of his play ends with the audience's derisive laughter, however, he kills a bird at the lake and places it at her feet. She leaves him for the successful writer Trigorin, but when Trigorin casts her aside, she compares herself to the title animal, destroyed by a man's whim. For 10 points, identify this Anton Chekhov play.

Answer: The _SEAGULL_

2. Paul Newman and John Wayne were offered the chance to play this character, but they didn't want to. Frank Sinatra did want to play the role, but he had to turn it down because he had a sprained wrist and couldn't hold the .44 Magnum convincingly. This character appears in five movies made over a period of 17 years, and is famous for his tough-guy lines, one of which Ronald Reagan borrowed to intimidate Libya. For ten points name this character, SFPD Inspector 2211, played by Clint Eastwood.

Answer: _DIRTY HARRY_ or Harry _CALLAHAN_

3. Isolated by Sir Humphrey Davy in 1807, this element is manufactured by the Kastner Process, in which six parts fused caustic soda are mixed with one part carbon. Answer: _SODIUM_

4. Political thought was dominated by the Legalist School. Great emphasis was placed on standardization: weights and measures were made uniform, and the emperor's adviser proposed the burning of all books but technical manuals. Szechuan was conquered, the Great Wall was constructed, and China became a unified empire. FTP, all these events took place during what short-lived third century BC dynasty, which followed the Chou and preceded the Han?

Answer: _CHIN_ or _QIN_

5. From the Guiana Highlands it flows northwest until dividing near La Esmeralda. Its main branch receives the Guaviare [gwa-ve-AH-ray] River, meets the Apure River, then flows into the Atlantic Ocean through the Llanos [ya-nos], or plains, of Venezuela. For 10 points, name the world's third largest river by drainage.

Answer: _ORINOCO_ River

6. Not actually related, they were born in Beaver Dam, Wisconsin, and Santa Ana, California. On such shows as Shindig and Hullabaloo, they sang such hits as "Little Latin Lupe [LOO-pay] Lu"; "You're My Soul and Inspiration"; "Unchained Melody" and "You've Lost That Lovin' Feelin'."

Bobby Hatfield and Bill Medley were--for 10 points--what blue-eyed soul siblings?

Answer: The _RIGHTEOUS BROTHERS_

Answer: _A_nna _FREUD_

13. During his 1945 trial he kept talking to himself and reading dime store novels while important witnesses testified against him. Many thought that this was a ploy to fake insanity and win pity from the international panel of four judges. If it was, it worked, because unlike 12 of his co defendants, he wasn't sentenced to death by hanging, but only life imprisonment. For ten points, name this war criminal who, after being convicted at Nuremberg, spent the rest of his life in Spandau prison.

Answer: Rudolf _HESS_

14. He entered a London hospital as a medical student in 1815 but gave up medicine to write poetry. In September 1818, as his brother Tom was dying, he met Fanny Brawne and was engaged to her by Christmas. In 1820, however, ill from consumption, he sailed to Italy with the artist Joseph Severn and died in Rome the following February. For ten points, name this Romantic poet who wrote The Eve of Saint Agnes and Endymion.

Answer: John _KEATS_

15. Some tribes treat nosebleeds with the smoke from this animal's burning skin. Their genus name means "one who walks swiftly." Their species name shows that they were once thought to be a cross between camels and leopards. Featured in African cave art, they begin life with a six-foot fall to earth. For 10 points--name these sub-Saharan tall creatures.

Answer: _giraffe_
