

Iowa
DB2K

1. His first son died after 52 days. His oldest lived son, Henry Fitzroy, was born illegitimately to Elizabeth Blount, and died at the age of 17. His brother, Arthur, died sixth months after getting married. Arthur's widow later became his first wife, and bore his first surviving daughter. FTP, name the man whose last son, Edward, succeeded him as king of England after his death in 1547.

Answer: Henry VIII of England (prompt on Henry Tudor)

2. "The Sisters" opens this loose collection of short stories with common strands of structure and setting. Other stories included in this 1907 work are "An Encounter," "Eveline," "A Little Cloud," and "Clay;" although they can be read alone, they interweave thematically, each depicting a small moment the author called an epiphany, before coalescing in the final story, the longest and most famed. FTP name this collection of short stories, including "Araby" and "The Dead," the first major work published by James Joyce.

Answer: Dubliners

3. Twice he has played Henry Drummond: once in 1966's "A Big Hand for the Little Lady" and again in 1988's "Inherit the Wind." Other roles include Earl Partridge, Franklin D. Roosevelt, Lew Wallace, Abraham Lincoln, and U.S. Grant - again, twice - and Andrei Sakharov. FTP name this veteran of stage and screen, a two-time Oscar winner who got his start on Broadway in "Long Day's Journey into Night" and "The Iceman Cometh."

Answer: Jason Robards Jr.

4. A 1943 Harvard degree in aeronautical engineering was what ~~it~~ got him involved in the Army and, subsequently, politics, the subjects for many of his works. "Miami and the Siege of Chicago" documents the 1968 conventions. "Harlot's Ghost" tracks two generations' involvement in the CIA. "Armies of the Night" is a Pulitzer-winning account of the peace movement. FTP name this key figure in modern American literature, the author of "The Executioner's Song" and "The Naked and the Dead."

Answer: Norman Mailer

5. They are a logical extension of a basic physical principle to circuitry; specifically, the conservation of energy and conservation of charge. The algebraic sum of the potentials encountered in a complete circuit, or loop, must be zero, and the sum of the currents entering a junction must be the same as that leaving the junction. FTP name these two electrical rules, named for the German physicist who devised them.

Answer: Kirchoff's rules (acc. equivalents for "rules")

6. Gay is a mechanic that frequently is in trouble with his wife. Dora runs the Bear Flag restaurant. Henri is a local artist, and although he isn't French, he keeps up with all the Parisian trends. Frankie is mentally handicapped and lives at Western Biological Laboratory. Hazel, along with Gay and Eddie, lives at the Palace Flophouse and Grill with Mack. FTP, identify the titular place they all live, the setting of a novel by John Steinbeck.

Answer: Cannery Row (accept Palace Flophouse and Grill before Dora)

7. After having an encounter with a prostitute in his youth, this man castrated himself because he felt "unclean." He joined the Union Army in the Civil War and was a member of the unit that attempted to apprehend the man who shot President Lincoln. FTP. Name the man credited with shooting and killing John Wilkes Booth.

Answer: Boston Corbut

8. He won just .9% of the vote this last Sunday's elections, well behind the 55% garnered by Aleksander Kwasniewski. It was his second loss to Kwasniewski, as he lost to him previously in 1995. He won the election in 1990, becoming his country's first post-communist president. FTP name this Nobel Winner and founder of Polish Solidarity.

Answer: Lech Walensa

9. As a young boy he was afflicted with tuberculosis, making it a daily struggle to take in every breath. Nevertheless, this boy forced himself to run every day, eventually becoming a superb athlete and soldier by his pure "Will." After graduating from Fordham Law School, he joined the FBI, later became a local prosecutor in the State of New York, and after that a stint in politics. FTP. Name this Watergate co-conspirator and nationally syndicated radio talk-show host.

Answer: George (G.) Gordon Liddy

10. At 4:45 PM, the whistle that ended the workday went off, and the workers at the Asch building began to leave, when someone noticed smoke coming from the building's 8th floor. The arrival of the fire engines was hampered by the crowd in front of the building, and the workers who had jumped from the higher floors onto the street. 146 were killed in the fire and panic, and today the building is a part of the New York University campus. FTP, name this March 25, 1911 disaster, which led to the establishment of the New York division of Fire Prevention.

Answer: Triangle Shirtwaist Company fire

11. This temple was named because the goddess to whom it was dedicated was a maiden (or, yes, a virgin), and sat on the citadel of the city to which this goddess gave her name. The Greeks who lived in the city and the surrounding area, called Attica, gave a lavish festival to her involving many sacrifices, libations, and, as any self-respecting goddess with fashion sense would want, a new robe to clothe her statue. FTP, name this famous temple to Athena in Athens.

Answer: Parthenon

12. A lesser-known unit of this property is employed by engineers and is called a slug. This property of a solid can be compared with that of other solids using Newton's second law of motion. Antoine Lavoisier established that it was invariably conserved until the notion of it was revised in 1905 by Albert Einstein. FTP, identify this quantitative property of inertia that is commonly confused with weight.

Answer: mass

13. Born Hiraoka Kimitake, his first novel, Confessions of a Mask, was partly autobiographical and dealt with issues of homosexuality and otherness. In his The Temple of the Golden Pavilion, an acolyte burns down a Buddhist temple because he feels he could never attain such beauty. On the same day that he delivered the final installment of his four volume The Sea of Fertility, FTP, what Japanese novelist seized control of a military headquarters, appealed to an assembly of troops to overthrow the government, and then committed ritual seppuku?

Answer: Mishima Yukio

14. The unit for the amount of energy received from a radioactive dose is equal to 8.4×10^{-3} joules per kilogram of air, producing 1000 electrostatic units of either positive or negative ionization. It specifically deals with gamma and X radiation; fitting, as its namesake revolutionized medicine and technology through his experiments with radiation. FTP name this man, the first recipient of the Nobel Prize for Physics and the discoverer of the X-ray.

Answer: Wilhelm Conrad Roentgen

15. This state mines about 2/3 of the country's coal and one of the world's richest silver and zinc deposits is located at Broken Hill. Achieving statehood in 1901, it began as a penal colony in 1788. Later, it ceded Canberra to the federal government. FTP name this Australian state that recently hosted the Olympic Games.

Answer: New South Wales

16. Marti Frederiksen does the lead vocals for this band. Mike McCready, Peter Frampton, and members of the Lovemongers do the instrumental work. With Tour 74 being called No More Airplanes, this band consists of Mark Kozelek, John Fedevich, Noah Taylor, Billy Crudup, and Jason Lee. Nancy Wilson and her husband cowrote the band's top single, "Fever Dog." FTP, name the band William Miller travels across the country with throughout the film "Almost Famous", a name shared with the city that is home to Oklahoma State University.

Answer: Stillwater

17. After its 1848 formation, Thomas Woolner, Frederick Stephens, William Rosetti, and James Collinson were recruited to join; Collinson left in 1850 and was replaced by Walter Deverell. Its guiding philosophy was to avoid the stale formulas being taught at the Royal Academy; instead of improving on nature in their art, they sought to depict their subjects in the most realistic light possible. To do this, the founding members - John Millais, W. H. Hunt, and Dante Rosetti - of FTP this group felt that it was necessary to go back to an earlier period in painting and named themselves accordingly.

Answer: Pre-Raphaelite Brotherhood

18. Before its opening on October 2, ticket prices ranged from 400 pesos up to 6,500 pesos for what has been termed "the grandest social event in Manila for decades." The big draw is likely the large number of Filipinos featured; in fact, most who have performed in the show since 1989 have been from the Philippines - ironic, given that it takes place in another Southeast Asian nation. FTP name this award-winning musical which recently opened in Manila after a nine-year run on Broadway that made Filipina Lea Salonga famous in the role of Kim.

Answer: Miss Saigon

19. Freud first encountered this psychotherapeutic phenomenon in the case study of the woman he called Dora-in fact, he claims that he failed to cure Dora precisely because he did not recognize that this phenomenon was affecting Dora's interactions with him. In therapy, Freud proposed, a patient can misinterpret the therapist's actions because she is conflating him with another, more threatening person from a remembered occurrence. FTP, give this psychoanalytic term, named for the process that the patient performs in applying old memories to a new situation.

Answer: Transference

20. It contains the Palace of Facets, the Teremnoi, the famous Mausoleum, and the Church of the 12 Apostles. The settlement's first wooden fortifications were erected in 1156. After a 1365 fire destroyed the entire city, new walls were built from white stone; at this time, it also became the official royal residence. In 1480 its walls were strengthened with the trademark red stone that remains to this day. FTP identify this landmark, located on Borovitsky Hill across Red Square from St. Basil's Cathedral, home of the Soviet and Russian governments since 1917.

Answer: Kremlin (accept "kreml")

21. In recognition of his outstanding work, Case Western Reserve University awarded him his Master's degree upon the completion of his undergraduate studies. He started what he calls his "life's work" while pursuing his Ph.D. at Caltech, formalizing Omega, Theta, and Big-Oh notation and developing the TeX (TEK) type-setting system along the way. FTP, name this venerable computer scientist, the author of The Art of Computer Programming.

Answer: Donald E. Knuth (KA-NOOTH)

22. When he was born in Thebes, a loud voice was heard to proclaim him "Universal Lord." After his father, Geb, died, he became king of Egypt, teaching his people to worship, to make tools, and to not to eat each other. He then spread his gifts of civilization around the world. When he returned, his jealous younger brother had him murdered, but his wife was able to use her powers of sorcery to bring him back to life. By this time, he had decided he liked being dead; FTP identify this Egyptian god of the underworld, the husband of Isis.

Answer: Osiris

Iowa DB2K
Boni

1. Jelly Bellies rule! Given the flavor, identify its corresponding color according to the company FTPE.

Strawberry Daiquiri

Answer: Speckled Pink

Raspberry

Answer: Maroon

Very Cherry

Answer: Red

2. Name these poems from lines F15PA, if you need an author, you will receive 5.

For 15: Continuous as the stars that shine/ And twinkle on the milky way/ They stretched in never-ending line/ Along the margin of a bay.

For 5, William Wordsworth

Answer: I Wandered Lonely as a Cloud

For 15, But oh! that deep romantic chasm which slanted/ Down the green hill athwart a cedarn cover!/ A savage place! as holy and enchanted/ As e'er beneath a waning moon was haunted/ By woman wailing for her demon lover!

For 5, Samuel Taylor Coleridge

Answer: Kubla Khan

3. Given a French king, name the ruling family to which he belonged, FTP each.

Louis XIII

Answer: Bourbon

Henry I

Answer: Capet

Francis I

Answer: Valois

4. Name the following poems of Edwin Arlington Robinson from lines.

"We people on the pavement looked at him: He was a gentleman from sole to crown, clean favored and imperially slim."

Answer: Richard Cory

"[He] loved the Medici, Albeit he had never seen one; He would have sinned incessantly Could he have seen one."

Answer: Miniver Cheevy

"Alone, as if enduring to the end A valiant armor of scarred hopes outworn,
He stood there in the middle of the road."

Answer: Mr. Flood's Party

5. Identify the following 20th-century composers given their works which revolutionized classical music by making it unlistenable FTSNOP.

For 5, The Fairy's Kiss, Petrushka, The Rite of Spring

Answer: Igor Stravinsky

For 10, Five Orchestral Songs, Lulu, Wozzeck (VOTE-sek)

Answer: Alban Berg

For 15, Hyperprism, Density 21.5, Ionisation

Answer: Edgard Varese

6. Answer these questions about January of 1911 FTPA.

For 10, this man created the National Progressive Republican League on Jan. 21. This Senator was an opponent of fellow Republican President Wm. H. Taft and hoped to nominate a progressive for president in 1912.

Answer: Robert M. LaFollette

For 10, on the 26th, this premiered at the Dresden Opera House. It was received as "less offensive and lascivious" than the author's earlier operas, Elektra and Salome.

Answer: Der Rosenkavalier

For 10, Ned McClean bought this for his wife on the 28th. She will wear it on her head, and a former Secret Service agent will guard her, and he will be guarded by two private detectives.

Answer: Hope Diamond

7. 30-20-10, identify the body of water.

30: It was discovered by the French explorer Pierre du Gua, Sieur de Monts, in 1604.

20: Its tides rise up to 60 feet tall, because divides into two arms: Chignecto Bay, and Minas Channel.

10: Separating New Brunswick and Nova Scotia, it is one of the most unnavigable bays in the world.

Answer: Bay of Fundy

8. In Greek mythology, many characters devised creative and devious ways of avenging wrongs. 5-10-15, answer these questions about revenge in Greek myth:

For 5, in return for being slighted by Jason for the daughter of Creon, this woman killed her two children by him and his future bride.

Answer: Medea

For 10, these three goddesses, euphemistically known as the Eumenides, were relentless pursuers of the wicked and protectors of justice.

Answer: Furies (Erinyes acceptable)

For 15, because Polymestor, the king of Thrace, had killed her youngest and last living son Polydorus, she killed his sons and blinded him.

Answer: Hecuba or Hecabe

9. Answer these current events questions taken from page 4 of the Daily Iowan, the University of Iowa's award-winning student news-paper, FTPA.

On October 6, an earthquake with magnitude 7.3 struck this country. It was followed by a 5.2 8 hours later. 120 people were hurt; none are believed to be Iowan.

Answer: Japan

The European Union is clashing with French farmers over the hygiene and production standards of this product. Buy Iowa pork.

Answer: Cheese

Former communist party boss Algirdas Brazauskas led the Social Democrats to a parliamentary "win" in this country last Sunday, garnering 33% of the vote. A photo shows President Valdas Adamkus casting his vote; a smile on his face reflects the joys of democracy and elation over the University of Iowa's 92s homecoming win a day earlier.

Answer: Lithuania

10. Identify the writer from descriptions, 30-20-10.

30: Her many romances included R. H. Brabant, John Chapman, Herbert Spencer, George Henry Lewes, and John Walter Cross.

20: Many view her analytic descriptions of Gwendolen in Daniel Deronda to be the finest achievement in a literary career that included novels, philosophical tracts, and translations of works by Feuerbach and Strauss.

10: By focusing on the psychology of her characters in works like Adam Bede and Silas Marner, she paved the way for psychological realism and the development of modern literature.

Answer: George Eliot (Mary Ann/Marian Evans)

11. 30-20-10, identify the album from tracks.

30: Mother Nature's Son

20: Glass Onion

10: Revolution 1

Answer: The Beatles or White Album

12. FTSNOP, answer these questions about a spectacular Roman military defeat:

For 10, name the battle in 9 A.D., the most devastating defeat for the Roman Empire, in which three legions were wiped out by Arminius and his German allies.

Answer: Teutenberg Forest

For 15, name the commander of these legions who fell on his own sword rather than face such a terrible defeat.

Answer: Publius Quintilius Varus

For 5, name the emperor at the time, also the first emperor of Rome.

Answer: Caesar Augustus

13. Recently, the mammalian order Edentata has fizzled out, due to the fact that few species actually had no teeth. Answer these questions about former edentates 5-10-15.

For 15, This nocturnal African mammal now makes up the order Tubulidentata.

Answer: Aardvark

For 15, Armadillos, anteaters, and sloths now make up this order, so named for the adaptations in the spine to support the back during digging.

Answer: Xenarthra

14. Answer these questions about the atmosphere FTPE.

The ozone layer lies in what section of the atmosphere?

Answer: Stratosphere.

At an altitude of 90 km, what is the coldest section of the atmosphere?

Answer: Mesopause (prompt on mesosphere)

This layer of the ionosphere lies above the Heaviside layer and its reflection of short waves helped develop radar.

Answer: F layer or Appleton layer

15. Given the leader and name of the local between-the-wars Fascist movement, identify the European nation FTPE.

Leon Degrelle, of the Rexist movement.

Answer: Belgium

Vihtori Kosola, of the Lapua movement.

Answer: Finland

Rolao Prieto, of the National Syndicalists.

Answer: Portugal

16. Answer these questions about magnetic fields FTSNOP.

5 for 1, 15 for both, which two scientists independently discovered that a change in magnetic fields induces a current in a wire?

Answer: Michael Faraday, Joseph Henry

For 5, what law states that the induced emf and induced current are in such a direction as to oppose the change that produces them?

Answer: Lenz's Law

For 10, What is produced when a changing electric or magnetic field induces a moving charge entirely within a conducting material?

Answer: eddy current

17. Given the planet, identify its second largest moon FTSNOP.

For 5, Jupiter

Answer: Callisto

For 10, Saturn

Answer: Rhea

For 15, Neptune

Answer: Proteus

18. Identify these diseased works, FTPE.

For 10; the tale of an epidemic in Oran, the author uses the situation to question the meaning and extent of freedom and suffering.

Answer: The Plague

For 10; during an outbreak of the Bubonic Plague in 1348, the characters are forced to entertain one another with stories during their 10-day quarantine. The stories that are shared in turn serve as social commentary describing Italian life in the Middle Ages.

Answer: The Decameron

For 10; through a gay couple, a Mormon man, and Roy Cohn, this award-winning dramatic series explores the politics and cultural meaning of sexuality and AIDS in modern society.

Answer: Angels in America

19. Answer these questions about the discovery of chemical elements 5-10-15.

For 5, who discovered the element hydrogen in 1766?

Answer: Sir Henry Cavendish

For 10, although the Greeks used a sulfide of this element, it wasn't isolated until 1250 by Albertus Magnus.

Answer: Arsenic

For 15, Over 400 years later, German alchemist Hennig Brand discovered this element.

Answer: Phosphorus

20. Give the composers of the following operas FTPA.

La Boheme

Answer: Giacomo Puccini

Boris Godunov

Answer: Modest Mussogsky

Billy Budd

Answer: Benjamin Britten

21. Name the artist, given a brief description, F15P each.

This Russian-born painter is generally credited with painting the first completely nonobjective works, around 1910. His theoretical writings had a great influence on the development of modern art.

Answer: Wassily Kandinsky

Born in 1879, this Swiss artist spent most of his active career in Germany. A leading 20th century artist, he was at once whimsical and profound as he sought to capture the essence of reality by portraying its inner nature.

Answer: Paul Klee

22. When a person felt he had suffered an injury in medieval England, he had to go to the proper court to have a writ issued to force that person to perform a certain act. FTPA, name these English writs which derived to our American form of jurisprudence.

In this writ of action, the plaintiff had lost a piece of property to the defendant who converted it to his own use. If ruled in favor of the plaintiff, he did not get the property back, but rather a "forced sale" was made in which the defendant had to pay full market value for the property.

Answer: Trover

Limited to cases of bailment, this writ gave the plaintiff back his property which he gave defendant to hold for a specified time, if defendant refused to surrender it.

Answer: Detinue

This writ allowed for the recovery of damages for the breach of a sealed contract, not just simple debts on unsealed promises to owe a person a sum of money.

Answer: Covenant