

This Tournament Goes To Eleven III: Smell The Glove

Hosted by the University of Iowa, October 12-13, 2001

Rock & Roll (by Vic D'Amico [Wichita State])

1. Formed in 1968, the name for this rock group was taken from the opening line in the contemporary hit "The Weight" by the Band. This group's major distinguishing feature, besides its Rod Stewart-esque lead singer, Dan McCafferty, has been its penchant for inventively arranged, pile-driving versions of quieter songs by writers like Joni Mitchell, Woody Guthrie, Bob Dylan, and the Everly Brothers. FTP, identify this group, all of whose members were born in Scotland, that produced such notable '70s songs as "Hair of the Dog" and "Love Hurts."

Nazareth

2. "The Queen of Light took her bow / And then she turned to go, / The Prince of Peace embraced the gloom / And walked the night alone. // Oh, dance in the dark of night, / Sing to the morning light. / The dark Lord rides in force tonight / And time will tell us all..." FTP, what is the title of this song that comes before "Stairway to Heaven" on Led Zeppelin's 4th album and describes a medieval conflict?

The Battle of Evermore

3. Following a "battle of the bands" in Philadelphia in 1967, they met while sharing an elevator to escape a gang fight. In 1973, their second LP, Abandoned Luncheonette, yielded a single that became a #1 hit for the Tavares six months later. That song, "She's Gone," would ultimately reach #7 for the duo in 1976. Released in the summer of 1976, Bigger than the Both of Us was only moderately successful upon its release, but took off in early 1977, when "Rich Girl" became their first number one single. The #1 charting duo in rock & roll history, FTP, identify this pair whose other hits include "Kiss On My List," and "Private Eyes."

Daryl Hall & John Oates

4. "Come down off your throne and leave your body alone. / Somebody must change. / You are the reason I've been waiting so long. / Somebody holds the key. / But I'm near the end and I just ain't got the time / And I'm wasted and L..." FTP, complete the line to supply the title of this classic tune from 1969 by Blind Faith.

Can't Find My Way Home

5. Originally called the Misfits, they debuted in Hollywood's punk club the Masque with a 1 1/2 song set in 1978. They played the punk circuit for nearly a year before going to England where they opened a tour for Madness. In early 1980 bassist Margot Olaverra became ill and was replaced by Kathy Valentine completing the band's final lineup. Despite their "safe" image, they were more than able to give the average all-male group a run for their money when it came to on-the-road excesses which ultimately led to their breakup. FTP, identify this group whose hit albums include Talk Show, Vacation, and Beauty and the Beat.

The Go-Go's

6. "She keeps her Moët et Chandon / In her pretty cabinet / 'Let them eat cake' she says / Just like Marie Antoinette / A built-in remedy / For Kruschev and Kennedy / At anytime an invitation / You can't decline // Caviar and cigarettes / Well versed in etiquette Extraordinarily nice..." FTP, identify this title individual that's "guaranteed to blow your mind" in a 1975 top-20 hit by Queen.

Killer Queen

7. Originally formed in 1981 in Bradford, England, the words "Southern" and "Death" were removed from the band's name when Billy Duffy joined the group for their debut album Dreamtime. After that album's release they went through a succession of drummers, both onstage and in the studio, including Mickey Curry, Big Country's Mark Brzezicki, and future Guns n' Roses drummer Matt Sorum. The group's 1985 major-label debut album Love spawned two U.K. Top Twenty singles, "Rain" and "She Sells Sanctuary." FTP, name Ian Astbury-led group whose 1989 platinum LP Sonic Temple featured the single "Fire Woman."

The Southern Death Cult

8. "Good sense, innocence, cripplin' mankind / Dead kings, many things I can't define / Occasions, persuasions clutter your mind..." FTP, identify these two "meaningless nouns" that are the "color of time" as well as the title of the 1967 flower-power anthem by the Strawberry Alarm Clock?

Incense and Peppermints

9. This heavy-metal group was cited as an influence for Metallica and Guns n' Roses and, in fact, was the opening act for G n' R's 1992 U.S. tour. Between 1976 and 1982 they became the most famous trio in hard rock, releasing such albums as Overkill, Iron Fist, and No Sleep Till Hammersmith. The lead singer made his acting debut in the Comic Strip film, Eat the Rich, followed by other film appearances including the role of taxi driver in Hardware. FTP, identify this band whose hit singles include "Ace of Spades," and is led by distinctive front man Lemmy Kilmister.

Motorhead

10. "Living on a lighted stage / Approaches the unreal / For those who think and feel / In touch with some reality / Beyond the gilded cage. / Cast in this unlikely role, / Ill-equipped to act, / With insufficient tact, / One must put up barriers / To keep oneself intact." FTP, identify this tune from 1981 off of the Moving Pictures album by Rush.

Limelight

11. He swept floors at New York City's Power Station recording studio before getting his big break when Billy Squier agreed to produce his demo tape. When Polygram signed him, they had him de-ethnicize the spelling of his name for the release of his band's self-titled debut album in 1984. When he and his band temporarily retired in 1989, he focused on his solo career and married his high school sweetheart, Dorothea Hurley, in Las Vegas. FTP, name this man whose group reformed in 1992 at the height of the grunge revolution to record their fifth album, Keep the Faith, and whose latest album, Crush, was released in June 2000.

Jon Bon Jovi or John Francis Bongiovi

12. "After all the jacks are in their boxes / and the clowns have all gone to bed / You can hear happiness staggering on down the street / footsteps dressed in red..." FTP, either complete the next line or supply the title of this song from 1967 off of the "Are You Experienced?" album.

And the wind whispers Mary or The Wind Cries Mary

13. Their two EPs, Screaming Life and Fopp attracted major-label interest, but the band decided to stay true to their indie roots, signing to SST for their debut album Ultramega OK. Formed in 1984, this group named themselves after a noisy pipe sculpture in a local park. In 1991, a tribute to the late Mother Love Bone singer Andrew Wood was produced by band members in collaboration with members of Pearl Jam titled Temple of the Dog. FTP, one of the first bands to come out of the Seattle grunge scene, identify this group fronted by Chris Cornell that released hit albums such as Badmotorfinger and Superunknown.

Soundgarden

14. "Well, I heard some people talkin' just the other day / And they said you were gonna put me on a shelf / But let me tell you I got some news for you / And you'll soon find out it's true / And then you'll have to eat your lunch all by yourself..." FTP, name this Eagles' song from their 1974 album "On the Border" and also included on their first greatest hits CD.

Already Gone

15. They were formed in 1967 as a Beatles cover group based around two brothers, Derek and Alan Longmuir. Their wholesome image was tarnished somewhat in the late '70s with the disclosures that they had all regularly taken Valium to help them cope with superstardom and life on the road that led to overdoses by two band members. Group manager Tom Paton named the group by arbitrarily sticking a pin in a U.S. map and hitting a town in Michigan. Clad in tartan uniforms highlighted by knicker-length pants, identify this band that inspired a genuine frenzy as Rollermania spread to the U.S. with their 1975 #1 single "Saturday Night."

The Bay City Rollers

16. "Now if you're feelin' kinda low 'bout the dues you've been paying / Future's coming much too slow / And you wanna run but somehow you just keep on stayin' / Can't decide on which way to go / Yeah, yeah, yeah / I understand about indecision / But I don't care if I get behind / People livin' in competition / All I want is to have my..." FTP, complete the line to supply the title of this song from 1976 off of Boston's debut album.

Peace of Mind

17. This group replaced departed guitarist Paul Reynolds with a pair of American musicians, but when their 1986 album Dream Come True failed to chart, the group disbanded. They made their recording debut with a British EP that included the jet-paced single "Telecommunication" featuring a mix of Eurodisco sequencer beats and sleek dance-rock rhythms that found a home in new-wave rock-disco dance clubs. The lead singer, Mike Score, was a former hairdresser with no real musical training when the band was formed. FTP, identify this group remembered as much for Score's bizarre "waterfall" haircut as for the hits "Space Age Love Song," and "I Ran (So Far Away)."

A Flock of Seagulls

18. "Gold Coast slave ship bound for cotton fields / Sold in the market down in New Orleans / Scarred old slaver knows he's doin' all right / Hear him whip the women just around midnight..." FTP, name this classic tune by the Rolling Stones that inquires "How come you taste so good, / Just like a young girl should."

Brown Sugar

19. His left pupil was paralyzed as the result of a fight with a friend in high school. At age 16 he started playing in bands including the Konrads and the King Bees before changing his name in 1966 to avoid confusion with a member of the Monkees. He told Melody Maker magazine in 1972 that he was gay and started work on a new, theatrical stage production of a doomed messianic rock star. FTP, the Spiders From Mars were the backup band of what consummate musical chameleon whose hits included "Young Americans" and "Fame."

Ziggy Stardust or David Bowie or David Robert Jones

20. "Feeling down n' dirty, feeling kinda mean / I've been from one to another extreme / This time I had a good time, ain't got time to wait / I wanna stick around till I can't see straight / Fill my eyes with..." FTP, name this title track from Foreigner's 2nd album that went to #2 on the charts in 1978.

Double Vision

END ROUND

21. In 1960 he began releasing ballads using the name Paul Raven, and his rendition of Burt Bacharach's "Walk On by" became a big hit in the Middle East. In 1970 he sang on the soundtrack to Jesus Christ Superstar, and under the name Paul Monday, recorded a version of the Beatles' "Here Comes the Sun." After considering such monikers as Terry Tinsel and Horace Hydrogen he settled on his present identity in 1971 and eventually moved to the forefront of the English glam-rock phase along with David Bowie, T. Rex, and Slade. FTP, identify this rocker who inspired regular crowd hysteria with his release of "Rock and Roll Part II."

Gary Glitter or Paul Francis Gadd

22. "We skipped the light Fandango / Turned cartwheels 'cross the floor / I was feeling kind of seasick / But the crowd called out for more / The room was humming harder / As the ceiling flew away / When we called out for another drink / The waiter brought a tray // And so it was that later / As the Miller told his tale / That her face, at first just ghostly..." FTP, turned what color, the title of a 1967 worldwide smash by Procol Harum.

A Whiter Shade of Pale

Bonus Questions

1. "If the doors of perception were cleansed, everything would appear to man as it is, infinite." Answer the following questions about the Doors FTPE.

A. Originally by an English poet, and later used in another English author's book on mescaline titled "The Doors of Perception," the above quote was an inspiration for Jim Morrison. FTP, name either of these two English authors.

William Blake and Aldous Leonard Huxley

B. The Doors were fired by the timid club owners of the Whisky-A-Go-Go following a performance of this controversial song, Morrison's chilling, explicitly Oedipal composition. The song is also featured in the 1979 film Apocalypse Now.

The End

C. The Doors' 1968 album Waiting for the Sun marked the first appearance of Morrison's mythic alter ego. Name this persona revealed in a poem printed inside the record jacket entitled "The Celebration of the [blank]."

Lizard King

2. 30-20-10, name the band from clues:

30: This band's most elaborate tour was in 1978, when they traveled with a laser-equipped "spaceship" (some said it looked like a giant glowing hamburger) that opened with the band playing inside.

20: With the band's popularity waning, a member of the group joined the Traveling Wilburys in 1988. By 1990, a new lineup was formed and an album released in 1991 titled "Part Two" reflected the change in the band's name.

10: Between 1976 and 1981 they scored an unbroken run of 15 UK Top 20 singles, including "Living Thing," "Telephone Line," "Mr. Blue Sky," and "Don't Bring Me Down."

The Electric Light Orchestra or E.L.O.

3. Given a description of a censored album cover, identify the album FTPE. You'll get 5 points if you need the name of the band.

10: Released on November 1, 1994, this album cover featured a closeup of a woman wearing a bikini bottom made from a U.S. flag. Because some pubic hair was showing, the cover was changed after some chains refused to carry the album.

5: The Black Crowes

America

10: Released on April 27, 1988, this album cover depicted a devilish figure with an extraordinarily long tongue. Due to objections, an edited version that only showed a small cross-section of the eye area was released in its place.

5: Poison

Open Up & Say...Ahh!

10: Released in 1984, this black and white cover featured a man and woman locked in an intimate embrace while the man is tattooing a figure representing the band on her thigh. Unfortunately, the side of her breast was exposed so the cover was replaced with one merely depicting the band members.

5: The Scorpions

Love At First Sting

4. Given descriptions of multiple tragedies in a band, identify the group for 15 points each. You'll get 5 points if you need some of their hit songs.

15: In 1971, a founder and namesake member of this band died in a motorcycle crash in Macon, Georgia. A year later, Berry Oakley also died in a motorcycle crash only 3 blocks away from the site of the earlier accident.

5: "Midnight Rider" and "Ramblin' Man"

The Allman Brothers Band

15: A lot of money was allegedly missing from an escrow account set up to protect both this group and their record label. Their new album was withdrawn weeks after its release in the fall of 1974, apparently on advice from the company's lawyers and legal entanglements tied up the remaining funds for years to come. On April 23, 1975, Pete Ham, critically short of money and with no prospect of seeing any that was owed to him, and with a daughter on the way, hung himself in his garage. Then, on Nov. 19, 1983, after a loud argument with fellow band member Joey Molland over the telephone, Tom Evans hanged himself.

5: "Come and Get It", "No Matter What", and "Day After Day"

Badfinger

5. Given an album released in 1983, supply the group FTP each. You'll get five points if you also need a hit single.

10: Cargo

5: "Overkill"

Men At Work

10: White Feathers

5: "Too Shy"

Kajagoogoo

10: Alpha

5: "Don't Cry"

Rock 'n' Roll High School

B. This rock opera, featuring Sting in his acting debut, is about an alienated youth looking for life's meaning in Britain's rock scene circa 1963.

Quadrophenia

7. Identify the current or former members of Kiss from descriptions FTPE.

A. In 1980 he became the first of the original members to leave the group as he embarked on a solo career.

Peter Criss or Peter Crisscoul

B. He took over for Peter Criss as drummer in 1980 and remained with the band until his death from cancer in 1991.

Eric Carr

C. He took over on guitar when Ace Frehley left in 1982 but quit the band soon after the release of 1983's "Lick It Up" in order to form his own, eponymous group.

Vinnie Vincent or Vincent Cusano

8. Given the opening lines of a song by the band Heart, identify the song FTP ea.

A. "Cold, late night so long ago when I was not so strong you know. A pretty man came to me I never seen eyes so blue."

Magic Man

B. "So this ain't the end - I saw you again today. Had to turn my heart away. You smiled like the Sun - kisses for everyone and tales - it never fails!"

Barracuda

C. "If we still have time, we might still get by. Every time I think about it, I wanna cry."

Crazy On You

9. 30-20-10, identify the band from album titles and clues.

30: Their 1984 release The Warning and 1986's Rage for Order were supported by tours opening for Kiss, Bon Jovi, and Metallica.

20: A nightmarish future of drugs and media manipulation was depicted in their 1988 concept album Operation Mindcrime.

10: On the strength of a video that received heavy exposure (at one point MTV ran it over 44 times per week) their 1990 album Empire was pushed to double-platinum status. "Silent Lucidity" was named Billboard's most popular rock song in 1991.

Queensryche

10. Identify the Cars album on which each of the following pairs of hits were first released on a 5-10-15 basis.

11. Identify the group from clues 30-20-10:

30: Formed in 1967 in Blackpool England, band members over the years have included Mick Abrahams, Glenn Cornick, Clive Bunker, and John Glascock. In July of 1988, Chrysalis issued a 65-song boxed set collection covering the group's history up to that time, containing most of their major songs and augmented with outtakes and radio performances.

20: In February of 1989, this band won the first ever Grammy Award for Best Hard Rock/Metal Performance for "Crest of a Knave."

10: Co-founded and led by wildman-flautist-guitarist-singer-songwriter Ian Anderson, the group is known for such hits as "Locomotive Breath," "Bungle in the Jungle," and "Aqualung."

Jethro Tull

12. 30-20-10, identify the common-sounding surname shared by the following artists.

30: One individual with this surname played briefly with Southside Johnny and the Asbury Jukes before moving on to Bruce Springsteen's E Street Band in the '80s but is best known for putting together the antiapartheid superstar album "Sun City."

20: Although, spelled differently, the surname is also shared by the lead singer of the group, formed in 1975, that released such albums as "Rockin' Into the Night" and "Wild-Eyed Southern Boys."

10: Ronnie and Johnny are former and current lead singers of Lynyrd Skynyrd, respectively.

Van Zan(d)l (Steven, Donnie, Ronnie, Johnny)

13. FTPE, given a pair of songs by Def Leppard, identify their album that it was originally released on.

A. "Let's Get Rocked" and "Have You Ever Needed Someone So Bad"

Adrenalize

B. "Me and My Wine" and "Bringin' on the Heartbreak"

High 'n' Dry

C. "Foolin'" and "Photograph"

Pyromania

14. Identify the following Motley Crue songs on a 5-10-15 basis:

5: Appropriately enough, this is the title of the first track on their 1983 album Shout at the Devil.

In the Beginning

10: This song from their 1985 double-platinum album Theatre of Pain is considered to be the first "power ballad" played on MTV.
