

(Not a good packet)

The Seventh Annual Michigan 1 vs. 1 Maddipoti Cup Tournament

Most questions by Mike Burger, most answers by Craig Barker

1. This album features such varied fare as Turnadot's Nessun Dorma, Simon and Garfunkel's Bridge Over Troubled Water and Ultravox's Vienna. It sold over 500,000 copies in England, with concerts promoting the album filling soccer stadiums and is presently climbing the pop and classical charts in the U.S. and Canada. For 10 points - name this album by former bolt-fitter and now full-time tenor Russell Watson.

Answer: The Voice

2. It is likely that the author borrowed the plot from William Painter's 1575 book The Palace of Pleasures. Unpopular in Shakespeare's time, it has seen a revival in the 20th Century, in large part because of its heroine who, refusing to accept a preordained place in a hierarchical man's world, does what she has to do to win her own way. For 10 points--name this tale of Helena and Bertram.

Answer: All's Well That Ends Well

3. The Final National Priority List for this program includes such ironic sites as Fort Devens in Massachusetts and Rocky Flats in Colorado. Started in 1980, more mundane but well known sites include Love Canal in New York and Times Beach in Missouri. For 10 points – identify this governmental program that so far has completed clean up at 757 targeted environmental problem areas.

Answer: Superfund or CERCLA or Comprehensive Environmental Response, Compensation and Liability Act

4. The names are the same in the plural. One was a car produced by Ford in the 1970s that replaced the Falcon, another is a progressive country group most notably known for the album What a Crying Shame and the song O What a Thrill and another still is a U.S. military missile used aboard the F-16 during Desert Storm. For 10 points - identify this shared word that also refers to the 23rd franchise to join the NBA in 1980, a southern franchise currently owned by Mark Cuban.

Answer: Mavericks -- Dallas would be wrong because of parts 1 through 3.

5. Originally a Ben Franklin franchisee, he went out on his own when they rejected his discounting proposals. A pioneer in "just in time inventory" management, he was also one of the first retailers to use computer networking to follow sales trends. In 1985, he became the wealthiest American due to the value of his stock, and in 1991, his stores became America's largest retailer. For 10 points--name this Arkansas entrepreneur, a pioneer in discount retail.

Answer: Sam Walton

6. Due to the large number of shipwrecks, it is among the most popular non-tropical diving sites in the world. Its first recorded military use was by the Vikings in the 13th Century. During World War I, the British established its Northern base here, which they used as their launching site for the Battle of Jutland. During World War II, it was the base of the Home Fleet, which ferried convoys to Murmansk. For 10 points--name this British naval base in the Orkney Islands of Scotland.

Answer: Scapa Flow

7. They occupied central Anatolia by about 2000 BC, and their language was found to be an early, independent branch of Indo-European. They entered Cappadocia (CAP-uh-DOH-shee-uh) in Asia Minor around 1800 B.C., and were finally conquered around 1200 B.C. by their neighbors, the Assyrians. With capital at Hattusas (hat-TOO-suhs), or Bogazkoy--for 10 points--name this people, most famous for their mastery of iron weaponry.

Answer: Hittites

8. After establishing himself during the Civil War as one of the top young officers in the Union Navy; Admiral Stephen Luce invited him to be the primary lecturer at the Naval War College in Newport, Rhode Island. His approach, stating that sea power was the key to national supremacy, were adopted by many militaries around the world. For 10 points--name this admiral, whose lectures were collected in the influential The Influence of Sea Power upon History, 1660-1783.

Answer: Alfred Thayer Mahan

9. The name's the same. One is a feature on The Late Show with David Letterman featuring people eating pizza that no contestant has won or even figured out the rules. James Dean worked as a stunt tester for this longtime TV show that ran on-and-off from 1951 through 1980. For 10 points -- identify this game show featuring couples attempting to do wacky stunts for cash and has been hosted by Jack Narz, Gene Wood, Monty Hall and most famously by Bud Collyer.

Answer: Beat the Clock

10. There were 18 of these papers, published whenever the author felt the need arose, including a pair of "supernumerary" editions and "extraordinary" one. Addressing a number of recipients, including the people of England and the people of America, they were published without copyright, keeping costs down so that they could be cheaply distributed among the people of the Colonies. For 10 points--name this 1776-1783 series of papers by Thomas Paine.

Answer: The American Crisis

11. Springing from a dinner conversation with Paul Whiteman, the piece's importance came about largely as a surprise. The author of the song found a rhythmic inspiration on a train to Boston and combined it with Joplin's piano rags, the rhythmic jazz of Harlem, Yiddish folk music, and the new post-Romantic music of Ravel and Schoenberg and Stravinsky. For 10 points--what is this "experiment in modern music" by George Gershwin.

Answer: Rhapsody in Blue

12. Formed in 1945, their name became a misnomer in 1964 when Chatham and Windsor left the league. The original season featured four teams in just two cities, but by the mid 1990's they had spiraled to 19 teams. In 2001, the Turner Cup will be given for the 56th and probably last time since the six strongest teams are jumping to the AHL for the 2001-02 season. For 10 points -- identify this minor hockey league featuring the Manitoba Moose and Orlando Solar Bears which will most likely be no more.

Answer: International Hockey League or I.H.L. or "The I"

13. It stemmed from a purported incident in 1731, when the master of the merchant ship Rebecca ran into the guarda costa, who proceeded to relieve him of auris, which he proceeded carefully preserve and display before Parliament in 1739, leading a reluctant Sir Robert Walpole to declare war in Spain. For 10 points--name this 1739-41 conflict between Spain and England leading up to the country's involvement in the War of Spanish Succession.

Answer: The War of Jenkins' Ear

14. This person believed that in order to properly psychoanalyze a child, you need to assume the role of a caring parent and not as a buddy. This postulate is theorized in The Ego and the Mechanisms of Defense, which started the ego psychology movement. For 10 points -- identify this founder of the Hamstead Child Therapy Clinic in London, England, a lecturer well into her 90's and a famous daughter of an even more famous psychoanalyst father.

Answer: Anna Freud

15. Griffin, Porter Stoddard's friend, is cheating on his wife, Mona. So when Mona goes down south to try to sort things out, Porter ends up tagging along but ends up getting in affairs of his own. He hooks up with a cellist named Alex and a Halloween party-maven named Auburn. Also, for some reason, he's been chased by a gun-toting elderly gentleman played by Charlton Heston. For 10 points -- identify this 2001 bomb starring Garry Shandling, Goldie Hawn and Warren Beatty.

Answer: Town and Country

22. In 1867, a farmer by the name of Jack Swilling discovered favorable farming conditions in this area and in 1874, a patent for the town was issued by President Grant. Incorporated as a city in 1881 on the edge of the Sonoran desert; it is today serviced by SkyHarbor International Airport. For 10 points--identify this city, the birthplace of Barry Goldwater.

Answer: Phoenix, Arizona

23. Their new PR campaign, based upon the theme of "Do Good", comes in reaction to decreased recruitment in wake of the 1999 Rampart Station scandal, in which members were found to be absconding cocaine from evidence lockers. With a mere 9,000 officers to patrol a city of 7 million, they are seriously undermanned. For 10 points--name this police force, which also took PR blows with the Rodney King incident and OJ Trial.

Answer: LAPD or Los Angeles Police Department

24. A native of Hamilton, Ontario, he earned his B.A. from Toronto, his Ph.D. from Johns Hopkins and studied in Europe with Fuchs, Frobenius, Hensel, Schwarz and Planck. Returning to the University of Toronto, he lectured while researching algebraic functions, his specialty until his 1932 death. For 10 points--name this mathematician, whose last will established the medal which has served as the highest honor in his field.

Answer: John Fields

25. Proponents of this system in the United States included Talcott Parsons, who introduced the notion that there were stable structural categories in society. English devotees included Radcliffe-Brown and Malinowski. For 10 points -- identify this philosophical theory that stresses the importance of interdependence among all behaviors in a society, partially formulated as a reaction against evolutionary speculations, postulated in The Division of Labor in Society by Émile Durkheim.

Answer: functionalism

26. In May of 2000, many young people in this country started taking the Beastie Boys to heart and began fighting for their right to party, staging mass protests in opposition to proposed new laws that state party organizers who do not get a license from local authorities could face prison sentences of six months, fines of $6,400 and confiscation of their expensive sound systems. For 10 points--name this EU nation opposed to "le rave."

Answer: France

16. One of his great concerns is that his wife Juana, will not make much of a queen when he is given his promised reward of an island kingdom. A lover of animals, later in the narrative he distresses his master by asking for wages, an arrangement unknown between knights-errant and squires. For 10 points--name this proverb spouting peasant who calls a windmill a windmill, companion to Don Quixote.

Answer: Sancho Panza (prompt on either name)

17. "If you give me six lines written by the most honest man, I will find something in them to hang him." So stated this bishop of Luçon, one of the earliest known proponents of "the ends justify the means," he was also a prime supporter of scholastic activity, rebuilding the Sorbonne and establishing the French Academy in his role as Prime Minister for Louis XIII. For 10 points--who is this man, born Armand Jean du Plessis?

Answer: Cardinal Richelieu (accept Armand Jean du Plessis before it is mentioned)

18. By getting a hit in his last career at bat, he raised his lifetime average to .300. Now a hitting coach for the Reading Phillies, he missed the beginning of the 1994 season when he had a cancerous testicle removed. Not known for his conditioning, this one time Padre and Chicago White Sox was listed at a conservative 200 pounds on his 5-10 frame. For 10 points -- identify this Phillie first baseman of the early 90's who stated "I'm not an athlete, I'm a ball player."

Answer: John Kruk

19. It sits upon the shores of the Bow River, right near Bow Falls. Due to its position in the Canadian Rockies, this park is among the first to feel the negative effects of the Chinook wind. Alberta's first UNESCO World Heritage site, during World War I, almost 8,000 Ukrainians were interred at this home of the Sulphur mountains and Lake Louise. For 10 points--name this national park, Canada's first.

Answer: Banff National Park

20. The absolute value of this number is used for determining the volume of a parallelepiped. More importantly, they can be used to determine if a matrix has an inverse. For 10 points -- identify this mathematical property that is defined as the sum of all signed elementary products from the matrix.

Answer: determinant

21. Newborns Lauren and Sarah were kept an extra night to be treated for jaundice. Having decided to convalesce for the next two months in her home in Williamstown before returning to the State House, she will keep abreast of affairs by joining a number of meetings via video conferencing. For 10 points--name this Massachusetts Republican, who became the first U.S. governor to give birth while in office.

Answer: Jane Swift

27. Near the earth, these travel around 250 miles per hour and can penetrate both the upper atmosphere and the magnetic poles. Near their source, they travel near the speed of light. It has also been known to make comet trails change direction suddenly, such as was observed on Hale-Bopp in 1997. For 10 points -- identify this output of the sun of intense radiation that can be dangerous to space travelers.

Answer: solar wind

28. Before its development, iron oxide was employed to carry oxygen to the site of purification. In that year, as an inventor was working on ways of improving cannons, it occurred to him that oxygen for refining could come directly from the air if wind was blown over the melted metal. Perfected by Alexander Holley, it eliminates the alloyed impurities in pig iron to produce steel. For 10 points--what is this process developed by the Englishman for whom it is named.

Answer: Bessemer Process

The Seventh Annual Michigan 1 vs. 1 "Maddipoti Cup" Tournament

Most questions by Mike Burger, most answers by Craig Barker

1. The Department of Commerce only approved the deal after the private company agreed to give up control of the dot-org domain. For 10 points each--

(10) What Mountain View, California based company recently purchased the rights to assign dot-com addresses until 2007?

Answer: VeriSign, Inc.

(10) The deal was reached with what group, assigned by the government in 1998 to oversee net naming policies.

Answer: Internet Corporation for Assigned Names and Numbers or ICANN

(10) VeriSign became the assigner of domain names in 2000 when it acquired what Herndon, Virginia company that had been handed that duty in 1992.

Answer: Network Solutions, Inc.

2. Answer these questions about Georges Seraut for 10 points each.

(10) This work was later turned into a 1980's Broadway play starring Bernadette Peters.

Answer: A Sunday Afternoon on the Island of La Grande Jatte or Un Dimanche d'été à l'Île de la Grande Jatte

(10) Seraut is generally considered a pioneer of what art movement?

Answer: Neo-Impressionism

(10) What was Seraut's primary technique which involved using dots of varying colors to create subtle changes in form?

Answer: pointillism or divisionism

3. Identify these world leaders for 10 points each.

(10) This former world statesman became Prime Minister under Valentin Paniagua Corazao after the fleeing of Albert Fujimori.

Answer: Javier Perez de Cuellar ✓

(10) Not only is he the President of The Democratic Republic of the Congo, he's also the foreign minister.

Answer: Joseph Kabila ✓

(10) While not inner-tubing on a lake, he also serves as Prime Minister of Australia.

Answer: John Howard

4. Based on the given stimuli, give the lobe of the brain most affected for 10 points each.

(10) The temperature in this room has just been raised to 115 degrees. This lobe behind the central sulcus is telling you it's hot.

Answer: parietal lobe

(10) I've just shown you a picture of a cute puppy. This lobe in the back is processing the visual information.

Answer: occipital lobe

(10) Does this puppy remind you of anything? This lobe containing the hippocampus is helping you remember.

Answer: temporal lobe

5. Name these less than friendly places of the 20th Century--for 10 points each:

(10) Officially known as the Main Directorate for Corrective Labor Camps, these NKVD-run camps are better known to history by their Russian acronym.

Answer: gulag

(10) Run by the Luftwaffe, there were only eight of these Strafgefangenenlager or prisoner of war camps in Nazi Germany, not 13 or 17 as pop culture might suggest.

Answer: stalag

(10) This U.S. Army facility in Kansas is the home of the main Correctional Barracks or military prison for the U.S. Armed Forces.

Answer: Fort Leavenworth

6. Answer these questions on the Roman Catholic beatification process for 10 points each.

(10) In the first step, this person is appointed by the Vatican to begin the official documentation process.

Answer: postulator

(10) Normally, a period of how many years must pass between the death of a person and the appointment of a postulator?

Answer: 5

(10) Beatification is only one of three steps in this process, which elevates the subject to sainthood.

Answer: canonization

7. The Daily Mirror reported in May 2001 that she'll be following in her father's footsteps, sort of. For 10 points each.

(10) What daughter of a New York senator will graduate from Stanford this month with a pre-med degree.

Answer: Chelsea Clinton

(10) Clinton is reportedly considering pursuing a master's in history or philosophy at what British institution of higher learning?

Answer: University College, Oxford University

(10) President Clinton attended Oxford as a recipient of what prestigious award?

Answer: Rhodes' Scholarship

8. For 10 points each—name these questions about Alan Turing.

(10) His Turing Test involved how many people?

Answer: 3

(10) Before an injury, Turing was training to enter what Olympic event in 1948.

Answer: marathon

(10) By what method did Turing kill himself in 1954.

Answer: poisoning by ingesting a cyanide-laced apple

9. For 10 points each--given a colonial founder, name the original 13 colony:

(10) James Oglethorpe

Answer: Georgia

(10) Thomas Hooker

Answer: Connecticut

(10) John Berkley and George Carteret

Answer: New Jersey

10. 30-20-10: Identify the country from clues.

(30) It is the only country where different versions of Who Wants to Be a Millionaire air, one for each of their two national languages.

(20) Mons is the capital of the Hainault province of this country.

(10) In Mons is located the Supreme Headquarters for NATO.

Answer: Belgium

11. Get P-whipped and answer these legal terms that begin with P for 10 each.

(10) Latin for "on the face of it," it is the need for evidence gathered to have an obvious implication in a case.

Answer: prima facia

(10) This is a legal proceeding in which a person represents himself.

Answer: pro se

(10) This is the notion that a person who committed a crime decided to commit the crime before the commission of the crime.

Answer: premeditation

12. For 10 points each – answer these questions about the Fugitive Poets.

(10) The fugitive poets got their name because of the literary publication they produced during their time at what southern university?

Answer: Vanderbilt

(10) This first U.S. Poet Laureate was a member.

Answer: Robert Penn Warren

(10) This poet later devoted his life to critical essays including God without Thunder: An Unorthodox Defense of Orthodoxy and was the editor of the Kenyon Review.

Answer: John Crowe Ransom

13. Its name was coined in by historian Bevis Hillier in 1968 to describe early 20th century modern design. For 10 points each--

(10) What is this movement, which derived its name from an important 1925 exhibition in Paris.

Answer: Art Deco

(10) The South Beach section of what U.S. city has some of the best remaining examples of this style.

Answer: Miami, Florida

(10) This 1930 New York skyscraper with an exterior that reflects the product of its namesake, is a towering example of the Art Deco style.

Answer: Chrysler Building

14. Identify these lesser-known Romance languages for 10 points each.

(10) This is the only Romance language that kept the noun inflection system from Latin.

Answer: Romanian or Roman

(10) This language, unlike its close relative Spanish, does have both the -sh sound like in show and the -z sound like in measure.

Answer: Catalan or Català

(10) It is recognized in France, where it is widely spoken in the south, but is an official language of a few provinces in both Spain and Italy.

Answer: Occitan or Lang d'Oc (prompt: Provençal or Aranese)

15. It's so hard to say good-bye; some do it better than others. For 10 points each--name these historical goodbyes.

(10) Always maintain the public trust while avoiding regional conflict, party politics and entangling alliances. No one apparently read his September 18, 1796 letter to the American people.

Answer: George Washington

(10) On January 17, 1960, Eisenhower let his critics know that he was perhaps a little more astute than they had thought, coining this famous three-word phrase in his farewell address.

Answer: Military-Industrial Complex

(10) During a 1962 "farewell" press conference, he claimed that we wouldn't have him to kick around anymore.

Answer: Richard Milhous Nixon

16. Answer these questions relating to DNA for the stated number of points.

(15) For 5 each, name the three scientists given the Nobel Prize in Medicine in 1962 for their 1953 discovery of the double helix.

Answer: James Watson, Francis Crick and Maurice Williams ^{Wilkins}

(5) This fourth researcher was also involved, but died before the Nobel Prize was given, eliminating her chance for consideration.

Answer: Rosalind Franklin

(10) DNA that has been created artificially is often given this term.

Answer: recombinant

17. For 10 points each--given a description, name the term related to Italian wine.

(10) A non-Champagne-sparkling-wine, it comes from the Turin region of Italy and is very popular with wine drinkers because of its sweetness.

Answer: Asti Spumanti

(10) Coming from its namesake region in Tuscany, it goes well with chicken dishes, as well as census takers and fava beans.

Answer: Chianti

(10) Both Dante and Shakespeare's Romeo preferred this Venetian wine, which takes its name from the Italian word for "smooth" or "mild"

Answer: Soave

18. 30-20-10. Identify the book.

(30) It won the Nobel Prize for Literature in 1982.

Bull!

(20) Paralleling the Bible, it tells the story the rise and fall of the city of Macondo.

(10) In this work, Gabriel García-Márquez tells of the Buendias family whose town is destroyed in a sandstorm a century after its founding.

Answer: 100 Years of Solitude or Cien años de solidad

19. Given the physics equation, name what you are trying to ascertain for 15 points each.

(15) The square root of the quantity B over ρ (rho-zero), where B is the bulk modulus of elasticity and ρ (rho-zero) is density.

Answer: v or speed of a wave

(15) F of x equals negative k times x where x is the distance from its relaxed length and k is the constant characteristic.

Answer: Hooke's Law

20. Answer these questions about Vestal virgins for 10 points each.

(10) What was the maximum age one could be chosen as a Vestal?

Answer: 10 years

(10) Once chosen, what was the time commitment to chastity?

Answer: 30 years

(10) What was the method of execution if the vow of chastity was broken?

Answer: burial while alive (accept equivalents)

21. 30-20-10. Name the man.

(30) He refused to say mass after a year at the Ospedale, claiming his health, specifically what we now understand to be asthma, wouldn't permit it.

(20) At the age of 25, he became the music teacher at an all girls orphanage called the Ospedale delle Pieta, where he was to write two concertos a month.

(10) Today, he is best remembered for a series of four concertos known as "The Four Seasons."

Answer: Antonio Vivaldi

22. Name the economic term given a definition for 10 points each.

(10) A commodity whose quantity demanded falls when the purchaser's real income rises when all other things are equal.

Answer: inferior good

(10) Two goods where an increase in the price of one reduces the quantity demanded of the other with all other things remaining constant.

Answer: complements

(10) A market dominated by a few sellers at least several of which are large enough relative to the total market to be able to influence the market price.

Answer: oligarchy

23. Its procurement was approved on December 30, 1853 by an "envoy extraordinaire and Minister Plenipotentiary." For 10 points each--

(10) What is this section of land, the final portion of the "Lower 48" to be acquired by the Federal government?

Answer: Gadsden Purchase

(10) The treaty securing the Gadsden Purchase is essentially a modification of what 1848 agreement between the U.S. and Mexico?

Answer: Treaty of Guadalupe Hidalgo

(10) As of the 2000 census, what college town is the most populous city proper in the area acquired in the Gadsden Purchase?

Answer: Tucson, Arizona

24. Identify these products for Linux operating systems for 15 points each.

(15) Borland has ported Delphi, a object-oriented Pascal development tool, and renamed it this.

Answer: Kylix

(15) Corel's word processing software that has been widely available on DOS and Windows machines has been ported for Linux.

Answer: Word Perfect

25. Answer the following about a non-Western work of epic literature, 5-10-15.

(5) This subject of this work is the story of the seventh avatar of Vishnu.

Answer: the Ramayana [reh-MY-ehn-ah]

(10) This creation of the Ramayana is often ascribed to this poet.

Answer: Valmiki

(15) This woman is Ram's loving and faithful wife, whom he initially shuns after rescuing her.

Answer: Sita

26. For the stated number of points, name these plays by Arthur Miller.

(5) Written in 1953 in response to the McCarthy hearings, it is a cautionary retelling of the Salem Witch Trials.

Answer: The Crucible

(10) Miller's first hit was this 1947 play, about the post-WWII trauma incurred by war profiteer Joe Keller and his family.

Answer: All My Sons

(15) The 1955 drama about the Carbonnes is named for the most prominent landmark in Miller's native Brooklyn, New York.

Answer: A View from the Bridge