

The Life and Times of Andrew R. Juhl

TTGT11 v.4.11: None More Black

Written by Andrew R. Juhl of the University of Iowa (A.K.A. Pooky, Pookster, Pookman, Andy)

Subject: All things in this packet relate to the author in some way ( ½ academic, ½ TRASH)

TOSS-UPS

1. "Oh ... and by the way, the next time you're passing through Santa Monica, CA., stop in at Renee's Courtyard Cafe." (*) That is the cryptic message following this movie about two fired security guards, Ivan Alexeev and Josh Tager, who—despite bumbling inexperience—put Roscoe's Chicken and Waffles on the map, foil perverted Senator Norman Mart's presidential campaign, and return ex-soul music icons "The Swanky Modes" to superstardom. Name, FTP, this 1988 Tim Robbins and John Cusack pairing, and Pooky's favorite obscure 80s movie.

ANSWER: Tapeheads

2. Andy rocked out to this band at the Iowa State fair...hardcore. At last count, this band's worldwide record sales exceeded 25 million units. Their self-titled 1968 debut album—was recorded in a mere four days. (*) Ex-Sparrow member Dennis Edmonton wrote their first major hit, a song that was subsequently featured prominently (along with the band's pointed reading of Hoyt Axton's anti-hard-drug composition "The Pusher") in the seminal '60s film Easy Rider. FTP, name this band currently touring in it's fourth decade and lead by John Kay.

ANSWER: Steppenwolf

3. In the Spring of 1970, ItalDesign was contracted to style two new cars. One was eventually named the Golf/Rabbit, and its sister design was called this (*). Touted 1975's "Dream Car", the relatively unchanged design sold 504,200 units by 1981. Then, the Mark2 was introduced with a more rounded body and progressively larger engines until 1992, when production ceased after selling just 340,700 units in eleven years. FTP, this is the name Andy's first car, VW's economy coupe with GLI and GTI versions, a term also meaning a hot or warm wind of cyclonic origin from an arid or heated region.

ANSWER: Scirocco (shi-roc-co)

4. You/you have/you have me. You/you have/you have me. (*) You have me/you have asked me/you have asked me/you have asked me and I have said nothing. Will you until death does part you/be true to her on all days. No. Will you until the death of the slit/love her, even in bad times. No. FTP, these are the translated German lyrics to Pookman's favorite track, the fifth on Rammstein's "Sehnsucht" album.

ANSWER: Du Hast OR You Have

5. More than 3000 years ago, aliens from a planet called Tarn Vedra invented (*) a way to travel across the stars almost instantaneously. They used it to build a vast commonwealth of planets across six galaxies. When Earth was ready, we were welcomed into it. Unfortunately, there were factions that came to disagree with the Commonwealth's methods. FTP, this backstory set's up the "The Fall" and "Long Night" caused by the Nietzscheans (Nee-chee-yens) on the first episode what posthumous Gene Rodenberry conception watched every Sunday night by the packet author.

ANSWER: Gene Rodenberry's Andromeda

6. With pale and wheat malts and cluster hops, Andy loves this brew—available April through September—has an original gravity of 11.75 (*), a Lovibond Tintometer measurement of 6.3, and a bitter unit rating of 13. Described by its manufacturer as “a crisp brew sweetened with Wisconsin loganberries, elderberries and blackberries”, it can be served over ice with a slice of lemon or lime. This is, FTP, what Leinenkugel’s brew that—with equal parts Honey Weiss—creates a drink called the Honey Berry.

ANSWER: Leinenkugel’s Berry Weiss

7. Pride is his greatest fault. He was overlooked for a promotion that was unfairly given to the boss’s son, leading him to think he could probably do his boss’s job better, anyway (*). Milton makes us sympathize with this character’s hurt feelings, his fiery determination to rule himself, and the pain and alienation he feels upon seeing Earth, a place made for the ones God loves. FTP, name this character, who—even after reading the epic poem—Andy doesn’t think is the protagonist of “Paradise Lost”, no matter what Donald Sutherland says.

Answer: Satan

8. Andy’s girlfriend made him learn all about this. It is wider than a mile, and the singer pledges to follow wherever it goes, as they are “after the same rainbow’s end” (*) that’s “waitin’ ’round the bend.” Both the singer and the title are “two drifters off to see the world” – after all, “there’s such a lot of world to see.” Name this dream-maker and heart-breaker and you’ve named FTP this 1961 song, oft covered but first performed by Audrey Hepburn in the film Breakfast at Tiffany’s.

ANSWER: Moon River

9. A man-eating Christmas gift, a chainsaw weight-loss system, a faulty head inflator, corn, more corn, (*) a system of travel which involves his own blood propelling his lifeless body all the way to Phoenix, an arachnid fiancé, a kick ass guitar and amp set-up, Moth-monster-man, and (Andy’s Favourite) the Rab-bot are amongst the creations of, FTP, what crazy South Jersey Shore scientist, who - with a loud “Gentlemen, behold!” - introduces his inventions to his assistant Steve before each episode of Aqua Teen Hunger Force?

ANSWER: Dr. Weird (Prompt on any early buzz which contains the words “Aqua Teen Hunger Force”)

10. In Latin it reads: sic enim dilexit Deus mundum ut Filium suum unigenitum daret ut omnis qui credit in eum non pereat sed habeat vitam aeternam. (*) In Spanish it reads: Porque de tal manera amó Dios al mundo, que ha dado a su Hijo unigénito, para que todo aquel que en él cree, no se pierda, mas tenga vida eterna. And, FTP, Pooky had to learn this bible passage, which in the King James English version reads: For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life.

ANSWER: John 3:16 (5 style points if they yell it or write it and just show it to you.)

11. Under British law, when you reach this age you can become an MP, drive a large passenger or heavy goods vehicle(*), and apply for a licence to sell alcohol. This is also the eighth Fibonacci number and triangular number by adding one through six. There are twice this many spots on two dice. FTP, name this number, the winning score in tennis and in Black Jack; also the question writer’s age.

ANSWER: 21

12. Andy loves this drama following the seasoned veteran of his squad (who has seen it all) and his partner, whose difficult past is the reason she joined (*) the unit. Also featured are a transfer detective from Baltimore's homicide unit, Detective Odafin Tutuola, Assistant District Attorney Alexandra Cabot, and the occasional psych work-up from actor B.D Wong. FTP, give the name for this NBC drama, which heralds the return of the character Capt. Donald Cragen from the original Law & Order series.

ANSWER: Law & Order: Special Victims Unit

13. In 1964, Krause Gentle Corporation, owning a handful of gas stations, purchased Solar Transport (*) and flourished in the trucking business. By late 1977, the company had grown to 65 convenience stores employing 327 people, and in the 80's, KG contracted with Blimpie, Taco John's and Burger King to heighten the in-store service. FTP, identify this convenience store chain that once employed Mr. Juhl as a manager, and which currently has over 350 depots in 12 states, employing 3,000 associates, and uses the slogan "We got all out!"

ANSWER: Kum & Go

14. In Iowa and South Carolina, this is 14 for men and 16 for women. (*) In Colorado, it's 15 for men, 17 for women. In most other states where there is a sex differential, however, it's 16 for men, 18 for women. Most states use the same number for both sexes, which is usually 16 or 18, with the exception of Illinois, Louisiana, Nebraska, New Mexico, and New York, which use 17. FTP, the aforementioned numbers apply to these U.S. laws governing adolescent sexual activity that Andy knows inside and out by necessity.

ANSWER: age of consent laws

15. In the summer of 1949, inveterate gambler 'Nick the Greek' Dandolos approached 'Benny B.' with the request to set-up a two-person match. (*) 'Benny B.' agreed, with the stipulation that the game be played in public view. During the marathon, which lasted five months, the two men played every form of the game imaginable. The challenged, Johnny Moss, ultimately won 'the biggest game in town' and an estimated $2 million. When 'the Greek' lost his last pot, he arose from his chair, bowed slightly, and uttered the now famous words, "Mr. Moss, I have to let you go," and then went upstairs to bed. These events lead to, FTP, this massive game of poker held in Las Vegas each year since 1970 and watched by the packet author each year since 1995.

ANSWER: Binion's Horseshoe World Series of Poker

16. Andy's girlfriend's favorite animals, these primates are monogamous. Unlike most other nocturnal creatures, they do not have a reflective layer (*) behind their eyes. Vertical clingers and leapers, they have elongated anklebones—their namesake—that act like levers and allow them to jump up to 10 times their own body length. FTP, name these prosimians that have eyes weighing as much as their brains and vertebrae allowing them to turn their heads 360 degrees.

ANSWER: Tarsiers

17. Containing of 296 aphorisms grouped thematically into nine different chapters, this 19th Century philosophical work (*) is one of Andy's favorite books. The preface accuses philosophers of dogmatism, and—after a discussion of the religious spirit—the author embarks on a series of epigrams. The final chapter presents Nietzsche's conception of 'what is noble': a solitary, suffering soul, misunderstood by those it has risen above. FTP, name this book, the follow-up to Nietzsche's more allegorical "Thus Spoke Zarathustra".

Answer: "Beyond Good and Evil"

18. His real name is Cirroc. Our world frightens and confuses him. (*) Sometimes the honking horns of traffic make him want to get out of his BMW and run off into the hills, and when he gets a fax, he wonders if little demons inside the machine type it. One hundred thousand years ago, he went hunting on the frozen wastes and fell in a crevasse. FTP, name Pookster's favorite SNL character, who was unfrozen in 1988 and earned his law degree soon after.

ANSWER: Unfrozen Caveman Lawyer

19. Belonging to the family Mustelidae of the order Carnivora, this animal is classified as Enhydra lutris (*). Native to the American and Asian shores of the North Pacific Ocean, they can reach a length of 1 to 1.2 meter. They feed mainly on mollusks and sea urchins, which they crush with their large, blunt teeth, but they also regularly use rocks as tools to open shellfish while swimming on their backs. FTP, name this only marine mammal lacking an insulating layer of blubber and the type of stuffed animal named "Mr. Pickles" that Pooky slept with as a little boy.

Answer: Sea Otter

20. Son of Iapetus and Clymene, brother of Prometheus, and father of Calliope and the Pleiades (*), this character in Greek mythology is identified with mountains in northwest Africa and a restaurant in downtown Iowa City where your packet author works. Hercules shouldered his burden in exchange for fetching the apples of the Hesperides. FTP, name this Titan who, when defeated, was condemned to hold the sky on his shoulders for all eternity.

Answer: Atlas

21. Pookman has the rarest form of this. A defect involving the X-chromosome, this trait was one of the first sex-linked characteristics identified through chromosomal genetics. Protanopia (*). Affects approximately 1.0% of Caucasian males. Deuteranopia affects roughly the same percentage, but Tritanopia affects only about 0.001% of Caucasian males. Other causes of this include tumors, aneurisms and some diseases. FTP, name this trait that affects the approximately 6 million color-sensitive cells of the retina.

Answer: colorblindness
