

1. Somewhere up in heaven, Peter Tomarken is hosting a game show. For ten points each
  - (a) Although Tomarken hosted Press Your Luck, he lost out in auditions for Whammy! The All-New Press Your Luck to this man, who also hosted Hollywood Showdown for GSN.
ANSWER: Todd Newton
  - (b) In 1999, Tomarken appeared in a commercial for this online day trading company, which was part of a series of memorable ads featuring Stuart, the philosopher-king office boy.
ANSWER: Ameritrade
  - (c) Tomarken tried to capitalize on the big-money game craze of several years ago with this Fox Family quiz in which a contestant tried to eliminate three players competing via satellite for the chance to win one million dollars. NTN provided an enhanced TV version of said game.
ANSWER: Paranoia

2. For ten points each, answer the following questions about video games with some of the least video-gamey topics ever.
  - (a) This series of games, including It's a Wonderful Life and Save the Homeland, includes a heart-stopping farming simulation.
ANSWER: Harvest Moon
  - (b) In this 2004 PS2 game, answering trivia questions can get you dates with eight smokin' cheerleaders, whose outfits become more revealing the better you do.
ANSWER: The Guy Game
  - (c) This first game in the Tamagotchi Connection series, a combination between a business sim and a late '90s toy craze, is this Nintendo DS game, in which practicing dentistry and haircutting can get you ... um, furniture for your Tamagotchi. No word on whether Tjinder (JIN-der) Singh has played it.
ANSWER: Corner Shop

3. He has a tan, and he was on Dancing With the Stars. But is George Hamilton actually famous for something? Answer the following about Hamilton's career for ten points each.
  - (a) Hamilton received a Golden Globe nomination for Best Actor in a comedy for his work as Count Dracula in this 1979 romantic comedy, also starring Susan St. James.
ANSWER: Love at First Bite
  - (b) In 1964, Hamilton starred as this country music icon in the biopic Your Cheatin' Heart.
ANSWER: Hiram "Hank" Williams (Sr.)
  - (c) On the 1985-86 season of this show, Hamilton played Joel Abrigore, who kidnapped and later fell in love with Krystle Carrington.
ANSWER: Dynasty

4. The 1972 Miami Dolphins have had to sweat it out from time to time, but they're still undefeated. Given an NFL squad that threatened to match the 1972 Dolphins, as well as the week they finally lost, name the team that spoiled their perfect season, for ten points each.
  - (a) 2005 Indianapolis Colts, Week 15
ANSWER: San Diego Chargers (accept either)
  - (b) 1998 Denver Broncos, Week 15
ANSWER: New York Giants (prompt on "New York")
  - (c) 1985 Chicago Bears, Week 13
ANSWER: Miami Dolphins (accept either)

5. (AUDIO) For five points each, two answers per part, given a snippet of song, name the artist and the album from which the song comes:
- (a) (Track 47)
ANSWER: Radiohead, Hail to the Thief [The song is “2+2=5”]
- (b) (Track 48)
ANSWER: The Strokes, Room on Fire [The song is “12:51”]
- (c) (Track 49)
ANSWER: Weezer, Maladroit (The song is “Keep Fishin”)
6. The title location is where you would be if you took “the wrong fork at the junction of Aylesbury pike just beyond Dean’s Corners.” For ten points each:
- (a) Name this H.P. Lovecraft short story in which Wilbur Whateley and his grandfather keep in their farmhouse a creature which turns out to be Wilbur’s twin brother.
ANSWER: “The Dunwich Horror”
- (b) “The Dunwich Horror” includes Wilbur’s attempts to gain an unadulterated copy of this book.
ANSWER: Necronomicon
- (c) In the end, Wilbur and his twin are revealed as the songs of this Outer God who is infinite, existing in all times and all places while being locked out of our universe, and who is the co-ruler of Azathoth.
ANSWER: Yog-Sothoth
7. For ten points each, name these Sunnydale High classmates of Buffy Summers.
- (a) This former protege of Cordelia Chase became a vampire after “Graduation Day,” but is still petty and fairly dim. She holds the record for a character appearing in the Buffyverse, as she was in the unaired Buffy pilot and on the last episode of Angel.
ANSWER: Harmony Kendall
- (b) This Sunnydale High football player comes out to Xander, thinking that Xander is also gay. He later came out for good, but was one of the students killed on graduation day.
ANSWER: Larry Blaisdell
- (c) He sent Winged Monkey Demons to interrupt a Sunnydale High production of Romeo and Juliet. He used his demon-summoning powers as a member of The Trio, and killed fellow Trio member Jonathan. He became comic relief in the later stages of the series.
ANSWER: Andrew Wells
8. When it comes to auto models, words are out and letters are in. Name these carmakers or brands that have gone the letter route for ten points each.
- (a) This car brand is retiring Aviator as the name for its luxury crossover SUV with the head-scratching MKX.
ANSWER: Lincoln
- (b) This car brand was the first brand to go the letter route, doing so in the early '90s. Current models include the DTS, CTS and STS.
ANSWER: Cadillac
- (c) FX 35, QX 56 and Q 45 are among the models produced by this luxury car brand.
ANSWER: Infiniti

9. Boston in 2004. The White Sox in 2005. Could the Cubs be next to break the curse? Answer the following about the last Cubs team to win the World Series, for the stated number of points.
- (a) The Cubs won its second and final World Series in this year, beating Detroit in four games. Ten points for the year, five if you are within one.
ANSWER: 1908 (1906-1907)
- (b) For ten points, the manager of the 1908 Cubs was this player-manager, a first baseman who completed what some considered the greatest double play combination ever.
ANSWER: Frank Chance (Tinker to Evers to Chance)
- (c) For ten points, the top pitcher for the 1908 Cubs was this Hall of Famer, best known for a disfigurement in his pitching hand, who won 29 games in 1908.
ANSWER: Mordecai “Three Finger” Brown
10. For ten points each, name these products of Todd McFarlane’s toy company:
- (a) McFarlane Toy’s first products were action figures based on this McFarlane comic book series.
ANSWER: Spawn
- (b) This line includes figures of Michael Myers, Jason Voorhees, and Freddy Krueger.
ANSWER: Movie Maniacs
- (c) This Weaveworld author designed the figures and wrote the accompanying novelette for the Tortured Souls series that include Venal Anatomica and Agonistes.
ANSWER: Clive Barker
11. For ten points each, name these people linked to Charles Manson:
- (a) This Manson Family member failed in a 1975 assassination attempt on Gerald Ford.
ANSWER: Lynette Alice “Squeaky” Fromme (frohm-mee)
- (b) This getaway driver in the murder of Sharon Tate was given immunity for her testimony in the ensuing trial.
ANSWER: Linda Kasabian or Linda Drouin
- (c) Manson learned how to play guitar from this fellow inmate, a Canadian-born criminal who formed a gang with Fred Barker, son of Ma Barker. The last criminal to be captured while designated “Public Enemy Number 1,” he was also the inmate imprisoned the longest at Alcatraz.
ANSWER: Alvin Karpis or Alvin Karpowicz
12. For ten points each, name the directors of these ’50s sci-fi classics:
- (a) The Thing from Another World
ANSWER: Howard Hawks
- (b) On the Beach
ANSWER: Stanley Kramer
- (c) Forbidden Planet
ANSWER: Fred M. Wilcox
13. Most duets are between two individuals. Not these. For five points each, given a song, name the two groups that combined on that effort.
- (a) The 1993 hit “Whatta Man”.
ANSWER: En Vogue and Salt-N-Pepa
- (b) The 1982 cover of a Jimmie Lunceford song “It Ain’t What You Do (It’s the Way That You Do It)”.
ANSWER: The Fun Boy Three and Bananarama
- (c) A 1971 cover of “River Deep, Mountain High” when the two Motown groups were billed together as The Magnificent Seven.
ANSWER: Four Tops and the Supremes (do not accept Diana Ross and the Supremes)

14. Does it seem like your bank has undergone several name changes due to mergers? If so, you might do well on this bonus. Given a bank that you may have had an account with in 1995, identify who your account would be with now, for ten points each.
- (a) Norwest
ANSWER: Wells Fargo
- (b) Chemical Bank, founded in 1824
ANSWER: Chase Manhattan (accept JP Morgan Chase)
- (c) Bank of Boston
ANSWER: Bank of America (after merging with Fleet)
15. 40-30-20-10-1, name the shared title.
- (a) 40 More than one item has this name.
30 This 1974 mid-season replacement series for CBS starred Gary Frank and Glynis O'Connor portraying what life was like for teens in 1950s California.
20 This 1991 mid-season replacement series for CBS starred Lucie Arnaz and chronicled the lives of the Oregon-based Hammersmith family.
10 This 2006 mid-season replacement series for ABC is executive produced by Lorne Michaels and is about the lives of an extended family seen through the eyes of Cameron, played by Fred Goss.
1 All of these shows would return hits if you searched IMDB for Sons and Daughters.
ANSWER: Sons and Daughters
16. Things named after places can only be two things: crappy rock bands or James Michener novels. For ten points each, name these things from the latter category.
- (a) Max Von Sydow, Julie Andrews, Gene Hackman, and Richard Harris all appeared in a movie based on a part of this novel covering the coming of American missionaries to the islands. Later portions include the arrival of Japanese and Chinese immigrants.
ANSWER: Hawaii
- (b) This novel tells of the three intertwined families through events such as war with the Teutonic Knights, the eradication of the nation from the map, the rise of Communism, and a visit from the Pope.
ANSWER: Poland
- (c) Michener lived in a fishing village for a few years while writing this novel which begins with a Native American named Pentaquad and ends with a man committing suicide at the title location because of the Watergate scandal.
ANSWER: Chesapeake
17. For ten points each, name these American tennis players who were overshadowed by their contemporaries Agassi, Sampras, and Courier:
- (a) Until Andy Roddick won the 2003 U.S. Open, he was the last American not named Agassi, Sampras, or Courier to win a Grand Slam singles event when he won the 1989 French Open.
ANSWER: Michael Chang
- (b) This African-American player is best known for losing in the 1996 Wimbledon final to Richard Krajicek (cry-check).
ANSWER: MaliVai (mal-a-VEE-a) Washington
- (c) In 1994, he lost to Sampras at the Australian Open finals. In 1999, he reached No. 4 in the world rankings while losing to Andre Agassi in a five-set classic in the U.S. Open final.
ANSWER: Todd Martin
18. For ten points each, name these acts associated with Teddy Riley:
- (a) Riley discovered this R&B girl group who had a #1 in 1993 with "Weak".
ANSWER: SWV or Sisters with Voices
- (b) Riley founded this '90s act whose biggest success was "No Diggity".
ANSWER: BLACKstreet
- (c) Riley was previously in this early new jack swing act whose songs include "Teddy's Jam" and "I Wanna Get Wit U".
ANSWER: Guy

19. For ten points, name these people who appear on Air America:

- (a) Some believe that his morning radio show originating from Cincinnati is an attempt to show his serious side and distance himself from his trashy TV show.

ANSWER: Gerald Norman “Jerry” Springer

- (b) She hosts an eponymous early morning show and is the regular token liberal panelist on MSNBC’s The Situation with Tucker Carlson.

ANSWER: Rachel Maddow

- (c) The Majority Report is hosted by Janeane Garafalo and this comedian.

ANSWER: Sam Seder

20. Canadian directors, eh. For ten points each:

- (a) He has made cameos in some of his films such as Shivers and his remake of The Fly.

ANSWER: David Paul Cronenberg

- (b) Although Canadian, this director of Love Story and An Alan Smithee Film: Burn Hollywood Burn was once president of the Director’s Guild of America.

ANSWER: Arthur Hiller

- (c) Born in Cairo and raised in western Canada by artist parents, his films include Exotica, The Sweet Hereafter, and Where the Truth Lies.

ANSWER: Atom Egoyan

21. Answer the following questions about benefit concerts, for ten points each.

- (a) Willie Nelson and John Mellencamp organized this 1985 benefit, now an annual event used to raise money to preserve non-corporate agriculture in America.

ANSWER: Farm Aid

- (b) In 2003, Molson sponsored a concert featuring the Rolling Stones, AC/DC, and the Guess Who to help allay public concerns about SARS in this city.

ANSWER: Toronto, Ontario

- (c) A 1971 concert to benefit this country, which had recently been struck by a cyclone that claimed half a million lives, has just been released on DVD; artists included George Harrison, Bob Dylan, and Eric Clapton.

ANSWER: Bangladesh

22. For ten points each, answer these questions on uniquely-named actresses on CBS programs. And as they have unique names, you’ll have to give both first and last.

- (a) This Canadian plays Robin Scherbatsky on How I Met Your Mother.

ANSWER: Cobie Smulders

- (b) This veteran of failed shows like Relativity and Glory Days has found success playing Samantha Spade, colleague of Anthony Lapaglia’s Jack Malone on Without A Trace.

ANSWER: Poppy Montgomery

- (c) Best known for starring on NBC’s Providence, she now plays Det. Stella Bonasera on CSI: NY.

ANSWER: Melina Kanakaredes