

1. This thinker wrote about a professor who irritates his department with the Index of Irrational Expectations, Montgomery Marvin. In a non-fiction work, he attributed the dependence effect to advertising, and noted that demand rises with production. That work, originally titled "Why the Poor are Poor," criticizes the paramount position of production and the consequent emphasis of GDP and GNP. This ambassador to (*) India under the Kennedy administration introduced and attacked the concept of conventional wisdom. For 10 points, name this economist and author of The New Industrial State and The Affluent Society.

ANSWER: John Kenneth Galbraith

034-09-4-03102

2. An alpha-halo sulfone is converted to one of these molecules in the Ramberg-Backlund reaction. Markovnikov's rule describe the reaction of a protic acid with one of these molecules. The E-isomer of one of these molecules can be produced by applying the Schlosser Modification to a reaction of a carbonyl compound and a ylide. Produced in the (*) Wittig Reaction, for 10 points, name these hydrocarbons with carbon-carbon double bonds, also known as olefins.

ANSWER: alkenes [or olefins before mentioned]

036-09-4-03103

3. The fifth movement of this piece uses staccato notes to represent the dancing of unhatched birds. In the second to last movement of this suite, a series of rapidly rising octaves represents the flight of a witch. This suite's movements are interspersed with (*) Promenades representing the composer walking to view Victor Hartmann's paintings, such as The Great Gate of Kiev, which inspired the name of this work. For 10 points, name this suite by Modest Mussorgsky which represents its movements as pieces in the title art gallery.

ANSWER: Pictures of an Exhibition [or Pictures at an Exhibition; or Pictures from an Exhibition; or Kartinki s vystavki]

004-09-4-03104

4. One president of this country sent troops to help the Pope recapture Rome as part of a scheme to marginalize the Party of Order. Eighteen years prior, this country's Legitimist faction was defeated during the Three Glorious Days of the (*) July Revolution, which overthrew Charles X of this country. During an earlier revolution in this country, Committee of Public Safety leader George Danton opposed the Reign of Terror. For 10 points, name this country where the Jacobins executed Louis XVI, shortly before the rise of Napoleon.

ANSWER: France

019-09-4-03105

5. This is the largest city along the Sudhurland highway. Since 1801, its population has grown from 307 total inhabitants to over sixty percent of its country's residents. A central heating system completed in 1943 utilizes nearby hot springs. Its geographic center is (*) Laekjartorg Square, which is near a statue commemorating its legendary first resident, Ingolfur Arnarson. This city is home to the Althing, the world's oldest parliament. For 10 points, name this capital of Iceland.

ANSWER: Reykjavik

6. This poet asked "What is the metre of the dictionary?/ The size of genesis?" in the last of a sequence of four sonnets entitled "Altarwise by Owl-Light." This author wrote a radio play about Organ Morgan, Captain Cat, and the other residents of Llareggub, entitled (*) Under Milk Wood. One of his poems observes characters "crying how bright/ Their frail deeds might have danced in a green bay" and is addressed to "you, my father, there on the sad height." For 10 points, name this poet who urged his father to "rage, rage against the dying of the light" in his villanelle "Do not go gentle into that good night." ANSWER: Dylan Thomas

022-09-4-03107

7. One song by this artist claims its addressee is "like an Indian Summer in the middle of winter" and ends by declaring "in your eyes I'd like to stay." One music video by this singer shows Penn and Teller getting kicked out of a hotel room before the singer's fortune changes. This singer also wrote songs with the lyrics "You change your mind(*) like a girl changes clothes" and one mentioning "The taste of her cherry chapstick." For 10 points, name this recording artist of the songs Thinking of You, Waking Up in Vegas, Hot N Cold, and I Kissed a Girl.

ANSWER: Katy Perry or Katheryn Elizabeth Hudson

023-09-4-03108

8. One character in book work notes that eighty five is a lucky number, and this book ends with a waiter translating the word "Tiburon." This book concludes with the title character dreaming about lions, and the title character allays fears of "Tigers of Detroit and the Indians of Cleveland" by thinking of "the great (*) DiMaggio." The boy Manolin helps the title character after he is unable to keep the sharks from eating the largest marlin ever caught off of Havana harbor. For 10 points, name this novella about the Cuban fisherman Santiago, written by Ernest Hemingway.

ANSWER: The Old Man and the Sea

015-09-4-03109

9. During this event, the house of Arthur Allen was taken over and became known as its leaders "Castle." The namesake of this event issued a "Declaration of the People" that called for the surrender of many members of the gentry. One cause of this event was disagreement over how to handle nearby Indians. Its members were largely (*) indentured servants, and this rebellion ended when its namesake died of dysentery after burning Jamestown. For 10 points, name this 1676 rebellion against governor William Berkeley in colonial Virginia.

ANSWER: Bacon's Rebellion

023-09-4-03110

10. Applying this theory to the Schrodinger equation gives the Klein-Gordon equation, and this theory is set in a manifold called Minkowski space. The Rossi-Hall and Kennedy-Thorndike experiments verified this result. In this theory, early evidence for which was the (*) Michelson-Morley experiment, rigid bodies cannot exist, leading clocks lag, velocities always add to a quantity less than the speed of light, and problems may be solved by considering the effects of time dilation or a length contraction named for Lorentz. For 10 points, name this theory originated by Albert Einstein.

ANSWER: special relativity [prompt on relativity]

11. An architect from this country designed Turning Torso, and that man collaborated to produce L'Hemisferic, part of The City of Arts and Sciences. One building in this country features a floral dog designed by Jeff Koons. Home to Santiago Calatrava,(*) this country is also home to an unfinished church designed by the architect of the Casa Mila, Antonio Gaudi. For ten points, name this country home to a Frank Gehry designed branch of the Bilbao, as well as a pavilion designed by Mies van der Rohe, whose other works of architecture include the Escorial, and the Prado.

ANSWER: Spain

033-09-4-03112

12. In one of this man's plays, an old couple commits suicide by jumping into the sea upon the arrival of a mute orator, who fails to deliver a message to invisible guests such as the Colonel, the Belle, and the Emperor. In another of this author's plays, the exit of the Fire Chief causes two couples to speak in nonsense words and syllables. A third play by this author ends with (*) Berenger refusing to turn into one of the title animals. For 10 points, name this French absurdist playwright of The Chairs, Rhinoceros, and The Bald Soprano.

ANSWER: Eugene Ionesco

034-09-4-03113

13. One aspect of this belief system forbids the ingestion of pork, salt, or large fish in order to increase livity. Texts studied in this religion include The Promise Key, a modification of the Bible containing four books of Athlyi, the Holy Piby. In addition to practicing i-tal, adherents of this faith believe in "everliving life" and reject (*) Babylon, or western culture, in favor of Zion, or Africa. For 10 points, identify this religion founded by Marcus Garvey that regards Haile Selassie as the incarnation of Jha, or God, prominent in Jamaica.

ANSWER: Rastafarianism

005-09-4-03114

14. This author wrote about a man flung onstage who struggles to retrieve a carafe marked WATER in his play Act Without Words. One of his title characters continually eats bananas, and listens to recordings of his past life. At the end of another of this author's plays, a wheelchair-bound man learns that he has no more painkiller and sends away his servant (*) Clov in order to await his death. In addition to Krapp's Last Tape and Endgame, he wrote a play in which Lucky and Pozzo encounter Vladimir and Estragon. For 10 points, name this author of Waiting for Godot.

ANSWER: Samuel Beckett

034-09-4-03115

15. The Giotto probe studied one body of this type, and confirmed that they typically have albedos below 4%. An early model for the composition of these bodies is the "Gravel Bank" model, and their composition was studied by the (*) "Deep Impact" probe. The cloud of gas around them is known as a coma, and their tails point in the direction of the solar wind. Many of these objects originate in the Oort Cloud. For 10 points, name these astronomical bodies, which are commonly called "dirty snowballs." ANSWER: comets

16. Early in this battle, the forces of Solomon Meredith captured hundreds of men under James Archer during fighting in McPherson's Woods. Edward Johnson's forces were destroyed in the attempt to take Culp's Hill during this engagement, which also saw fighting at (*) Cemetary Hill. The first day of this battle saw intense fighting over the wheat field and the peach orchard. John Hood was wounded at this battle during the failed Confederate attempt to take Little Round Top. For 10 points, name this three-day battle in July of 1863 that included Pickett's charge and culminated in George Meade's defeat of Robert E. Lee in Pennsylvania.

ANSWER: Battle of Gettysburg

032-09-4-03117

17. In the Letter to the Galatians, Paul uses this figure as a metaphor for the Jewish tradition that is now rejected for Christianity. Pilgrims on the hajj recall this figure's mother's search for water by running between two hills and drinking from the well of Zam Zam. In Islamic tradition, this figure's father attempted to kill him on (*) Mount Moria, while in Jewish tradition it is his brother who God demands to be sacrificed. For 10 points, name this eldest son of Abraham and Hagar who was sent into the desert by his stepmother Sarah, the brother of Isaac.

ANSWER: Ishmael

005-09-4-03118

18. One phase of this war saw the Duke of Ormonde routed at the Battle of Rathmines. One side in this conflict had forces commanded by Prince Rupert of the Rhine. The Eastern Association was one large army that was replaced when the Self-Denying Ordinance allowed one side to create the efficient (*) New Model Army. After victories at Langport, Naseby, and Preston Pans, one side of this conflict conducted Pride's Purge and executed King Charles I. For 10 points, name this war in which Oliver Cromwell and the parliamentarians defeated English royalists.

ANSWER: English Civil War

015-09-4-03119

19. Claude Monet poked fun at this painting in a work set in the Fontainebleu forest that includes a woman in a large yellow dress and a man reclining on the ground. One figure in this painting rests her head on her fingers and looks directly at the viewer. A yellow hat(*) with a blue ribbon and a basket of fruit are among the items discarded at its lower left, and a woman reaches into the water in the background. This work caused a scandal for its depiction of a nude women in the company of two clothed men, one of whom wears a fur hat and holds a cane. For 10 points, name this painting whose figures are engaged in the title repast, by Edouard Manet.

ANSWER: Luncheon on the Grass [or Dejeuner sur l'herbe]

032-09-4-03120

20. One phylum in this clade consists of a single extant species with X and Y sex chromosomes determining its microsporangiate and megasporangiate forms. Another phylum in this clade produces male gametophytes in pollen strobili, and its ovules form on modified branches that form a seed (*) cone. Those two phyla contain Gingko biloba and conifers, respectively. This clade takes its name from the Greek for "naked seed." For 10 points, name this taxonomic group of seed-bearing plants that, unlike angiosperms, do not produce flowers.

ANSWER: gymnosperms

21. In this novel, an Italian sleepwalker is killed off when an artillery bombards her at Normandy, and the protagonist is sent to jail for murder because of Vittlar's testimony. Jan Blonski has an affair with the protagonist's mother Agnes, whose husband Alfred commits suicide by swallowing a badge. The protagonist of this work decides to stop (*) growing at the age of three, when he chooses to start beating the title object. This novel is followed up by Cat and Mouse and Dog Years in its author's Danzig Trilogy. For 10 points name this novel about Oscar Matzerath, written by Gunter Grass.

ANSWER: The Tin Drum [or Die Blechtrommel]

1. Identify these philosophers who wrote about the social contract, for 10 points each.

[10] This author of Emile argued against Hobbes' brutish state of nature. He stated that men could remain free only through creating a social contract that submits to the general will of the people in The Social Contract.

ANSWER: Jean-Jacques Rousseau

[10] This Scottish philosopher criticized social contracts as a convenient crutch for those who desire to oppose autocratic rule in his essay "On Civil Liberty". He also wrote An Enquiry Concerning Human Understanding and Essays, Moral, Political, and Literary.

ANSWER: David Hume

[10] This other philosopher introduced the thought experiment of the original position to replace the social contract. In it, people place themselves behind a "veil of ignorance" in order to eliminate political, economic, and social differences in A Theory Of Justice.

ANSWER: John Rawls

005-09-4-03201

2. The namesake of this 1924 program served as Vice President under Calvin Coolidge. For 10 points each: [10] Name this unsuccessful attempt by the Allies to collect reparation payments from Germany following World War One.

ANSWER: Dawes Plan

[10] This 1929 plan partially brokered by J.P. Morgan recognized that Germany was unable to pay the enormous debt required by the Dawes Plan.

ANSWER: Young Plan

[10] In 1931, this US President and shantytown namesake proposed a moratorium on reparations payments. This plan was unsuccessful and he lost the 1932 election to FDR in a landslide.

ANSWER: Herbert Clark Hoover

035-09-4-03202

3. It begins with a duet between Jacquino and Marcellina. For 10 points each:

[10] Name this opera in which Pizarro is the governer of the prison where Florestan is being held.

ANSWER: Fidelio

[10] Fidelio is the only opera of this composer, who is more famous for symphonies such as Eroica, his third.

ANSWER: Ludwig van Beethoven

[10] This wife of Florestan disguises herself as a prison guard in Fidelio.

ANSWER: Leonore

- 4. It is high for substances with low boiling points, since there is a large quantity of gas pushing down on the liquid phase. For 10 points each:
- [10] Name this quantity.

ANSWER: vapor pressure

[10] This law states that the vapor pressure of a solution is the weighted average of the vapor pressure of the components.

ANSWER: Raoult's law

[10] By this doubly-eponymous equation, the natural log of the ratio of the vapor pressures at two temperatures is proportional to the difference in the reciprocal of those temperatures.

ANSWER: Clausius-Clapeyron

022-09-4-03204

- 5. This term may have been coined by Indiana Senator Albert Beveridge to describe the Progressive Party in 1912. For 10 points each:
- [10] Give this word, used in American politics to refer to political organizations created from the "bottom-up" rather than by organized political activists.

ANSWER: grassroots

[10] This grassroots organization was founded by Candace Lightner, who campaigned for lower allowable BACs after the death of her daughter in 1980.

ANSWER: MADD [or Mothers Against Drunk Driving]

[10] This derogatory term is used by activists to refer to organizations which give the appearance of being "grassroots" but are actually organized using external resources.

ANSWER: astroturf

019-09-4-03205

- 6. This man took over Athens not very long after it had been destroyed by the Persians and decided to use money from the Delian League to build the Parthenon. For 10 points each:
- [10] Name this Golden Age leader who relied on his Navy to fight the Spartans at the onset of the Peloponnesian war.

ANSWER: Pericles

[10] Pericles was the leader of this city-state of Ancient Greece. Other leaders here included Solon and Draco, and this city was where Socrates was executed.

ANSWER: Athens [or Athenai]

[10] This son of Megacles was an Alcmaeonid who served as Archon of Athens from 525-524 B.C. His rule is believed to have been the beginning of democracy.

ANSWER: Cleisthenes

027-09-4-03206

- 7. Identify the following abstract data structures, for 10 points each.
- [10] The read and write operations for these structures, often indicated in C and Java by square brackets, run in constant time. "Ragged" ones have rows of different lengths.

ANSWER: arrays [prompt on tables]

[10] A sentinel node or a null value indicates the end of one of these structures. They consist of nodes that themselves each contain a data element and a pointer to the next node.

ANSWER: linked lists [prompt on lists]

[10] Chaining is one of the methods used to avoid the so-called "collisions" that occur when the namesake function assigns two keys to the same index in one of these structures.

ANSWER: hash tables

- 8. The second of these prompted a revolt led by Revolutionary War hero Tadeusz Kosciuszko. For 10 points each:
- [10] Name these three agreements that divided up an eastern European country among stronger powers. They were generally made by Prussia, Austria, and Russia.

ANSWER: partitions of Poland [accept equivalents; accept partitions of the Polish-Lithuanian Commonwealth]

[10] The big winner of the First Partition of Poland was this great Prussian king who invaded Silesia.

ANSWER: Frederick the Great [or Frederick II] of Prussia; prompt on Frederick]

[10] The third partition of Poland ended the pact between Poland and this country, which had formed a commonwealth with Poland through the Union of Lublin.

ANSWER: Republic of Lithuania or Lietuvos Respublika

023-09-4-03208

- 9. This man claimed that society developed in three stages, the first two of which are the theological and the metaphysical. For 10 points each:
- [10] Name this French social scientist who coined the term "altruism", the father of sociology.

ANSWER: Isidore Cullen Marie Tyler Auguste Christine Renee François Xavier Olivia Griffin Comte [10] Comte also developed this philosophy that held that only scientific knowledge was true knowledge and wrote a work entitled The Course of [This type of] Philosophy.

ANSWER: positivism

[10] This other early sociologist wrote Elementary Forms of Religious Life, coined the term*anomie*, and outlined four forms of the titular action in Suicide.

ANSWER: David Emile Durkheim

005-09-4-03209

- 10. This character has sex with Montana Wildhack on the planet of Tralfamadore. For 10 points each:
- [10] Name this optometrist who becomes "unstuck in time" and experiences the World War II firebombing of Dresden.

ANSWER: Billy Pilgrim [or Billy Pilgrim]

[10] Billy Pilgrim is the protagonist of this novel subtitled The Children's Crusade. At its beginning, its author promises Mary O'Hare not to glorify war.

ANSWER: Slaughterhouse-Five

[10] Slaughterhouse-Five was written by this author, who included the recurring character Kilgore Trout in his novels Breakfast of Champions and God Bless You, Mr. Rosewater.

ANSWER: Kurt Vonnegut, Jr.

034-09-4-03210

- 11. This god and the nymph Camasene were the parents of Tiberinus. For 10 points each:
- [10] Name this god of comings and goings and ceremonial gates, such as one named "Germinus" near the Forum. He has two faces on either side of his head.

ANSWER: Janus

[10] Janus was a god from this people's pantheon. Most of their other gods, including Jove, Jupiter, and Venus, were taken out of Greek myths.

ANSWER: Rome

[10] This Roman god of the forge fathered the monster Cacus. His epithets include "Mulciber" and "Quietus," and he lived in Mt. Etna.

ANSWER: Vulcan

- 12. This statement multiplies current by the cross product of a length element with a unit in the direction of displacement, then divides by r squared and integrates. For 10 points each:
- [10] Name this law giving the magnetic field generated by steady current.

ANSWER: Biot-Savart law

[10] Biot-Savart is consistent with the statement that the divergence of B is zero, which requires that these entities, analogous to electric charge, do not exist.

ANSWER: magnetic monopoles

[10] The integral form of the aforementioned statement is that this quantity through a closed surface is zero. The negative time derivative of this quantity through an open surface, by Faraday's law, is equal to the induced emf.

ANSWER: magnetic flux

022-09-4-03212

- 13. One cause of this war was Commissioner Lin Zexu's confiscation of twenty thousand chests of its namesake drug. For 10 points each:
- [10] Name this war which resulted in British possession of Hong Kong.

ANSWER: First Opium War

[10] The First Opium War was ended by this Unequal Treaty, which opened five ports and forced China to pay millions of dollars in silver for reparations.

ANSWER: Treaty of Nanking [or Treaty of Nanjing]

[10] The Second Opium War is sometimes named for this ship, after the British objected to the seizure of twelve members of its crew in 1856.

ANSWER: Arrow

015-09-4-03213

- 14. This character uses a golden bough to meet his father Anchises in the underworld. For 10 points each:
- [10] Name this character who causes Dido to immolate herself on a funeral pyre after he leaves Carthage, and later defeats Turnus in single combat.

ANSWER: Aeneas

[10] This Roman poet of the Georgics described Aeneas's adventures in The Aeneid.

ANSWER: Virgil [or Publius Virgilius Maro]

[10] The Aeneid was written in this poetic meter, which was traditionally used to write most Greek and Latin epic poems, including The Iliad and The Odyssey.

ANSWER: dactylic hexameter

004-09-4-03214

- 15. A light bulb in this work is an allusion to bombs, and one dead soldier exhibits a stigma. For 10 points each:
- [10] Name this painting featuring a bull goring a horse, created in the aftermath of the bombing of a Basque city.

ANSWER: Guernica

[10] This painter of Guernica also depicted five nude prostitutes in Les Demoiselles d'Avignon.

ANSWER: Pablo Picasso y Ruiz [or Pablo Diego José Francisco de Paula Juan Nepomuceno María de los Remedios Cipriano de la Santísima Trinidad Ruiz y Picasso]

[10] This circus-oriented period of Garçon à la Pipe featured many harlequins and clowns. In contrast to Picasso's earlier, cool Blue Period, it featured orange and the namesake color.

ANSWER: Rose Period

- 16. One character in this work is defended by Mr. Carmichael while on trial, which results in only one guilty verdict while men like Johannes Pafuri go free. For 10 points each:
- [10] Name this novel in which Absalom is executed for his murdering another character, although his cousin John goes free because of a lack of evidence.

ANSWER: Cry, the Beloved Country

[10] This protagonist of Cry, the Beloved Country originally heads to Johannesburg to search for his sister Gertrude, but eventually learns of the trouble his son Absalom is in.

ANSWER: Stephen Kumalo [or Stephen Kumalo]

[10] This South African author critizied apartheid in his novels Too Late the Phalarope and Cry, the Beloved Country.

ANSWER: Alan Stewart Paton

023-09-4-03216

- 17. An Ig Nobel Prize-winning study found that this structure is enlarged in London taxicab drivers. For 10 points each:
- [10] Name this part of the brain responsible for converting short-term memory into long-term memory.

ANSWER: hippocampus

[10] This other part of the limbic system is involved in forming memories based on emotions; as such, it is often credited with governing fear.

ANSWER: amygdala

[10] Often grouped with the hippocampus and amygdala in the limbic system is this part of the brain, which controls the pituitary gland and is involved in a wide array of regulatory activities.

ANSWER: hypothalamus

003-09-4-03217

- 18. Her blue eyes become "wet with victory" when she announces to her husband that she is pregnant. For 10 points each:
- [10] Name this granddaughter of Manson Mingott, who outmaneuvers her cousin to protect her marriage.

ANSWER: May Welland [or May Welland]

[10] May Welland prevents Newland Archer from pursuing his love affair with Ellen Ollenska in this novel by Edith Wharton.

ANSWER: The Age of Innocence

[10] In this short novel by Wharton set in Starkfield, Massachusetts, the title character is resigned to a life of misery after crashing his sled into a tree along with Mattie Silver.

ANSWER: Ethan Frome

034-09-4-03218

- 19. He designed the Glass House in New Canaan, Connecticut for himself. For 10 points each:
- [10] Name this American architect who worked with John Burgee on the AT&T Building in Manhattan.

ANSWER: Philip Cortelyou Johnson

[10] Johnson's most famous work is this collaboration with Ludwig Mies van der Rohe, a modernist skyscraper in New York City.

ANSWER: Seagram Building

[10] In 1979, Johnson became the first winner of this prize, considered the highest honor in architecture. Its 2009 winner was Peter Zumthor.

ANSWER: Pritzker Prize

- 20. Cancer of this organ is often fatal, but can sometimes be treated using the Whipple procedure. For 10 points each:
- [10] Name this organ that produces insulin, as well as digestive enzymes that are secreted into the small intestines.

ANSWER: pancreas

[10] In addition to insulin, the pancreas produces this hormone that raises blood glucose levels, and thus counteracts insulin.

ANSWER: glucagon

[10] Glucagon and insulin are produced in the alpha and beta cells, respectively, of this part of the pancreas.

ANSWER: islets of Langerhans

021-09-4-03220

- 21. As an adult, this character enters a partnership with Herbert Pocket. For 10 points each:
- [10] Name this brother of the blacksmith Joe who is nearly killed by Orlick.

ANSWER: Pip [or Philip Pirrip]

[10] Pip falls in love with Estella, and Abel Magwitch, not Miss Havisham, turns out to be his benefactor in this novel.

ANSWER: Great Expectations

[10] Before writing Great Expectations, Dickens gained fame for this novel's character Sam Weller, who is encountered by the four members of the title character's namesake club.

ANSWER: The Pickwick Papers