

(Zimmer?)
1982
(from #3 - Eubie Blake, b. 1883)

TOSS-UPS

1. A professor of economics at Yale, he is an ardent neo-Keynesian and a severe critic of Reaganomics. For a lifetime of distinguished achievement in the field of economics he was awarded the Nobel Prize in Economics for 1981. Who is he?

Answer: James TOBIN

2. A current hit on Broadway, this play is being directed by Robert Altman and stars three well-known female performers, Karen Black, Sandy Dennis, and Cher. Can you name the play?

Answer: "Come Back to the Five and Dime, Jimmy Dean, Jimmy Dean"
(ACCEPT ONLY FULL ANSWER)

3. This American composer celebrated his 99th birthday in New York in February. He has written hundreds of popular songs, many with lyrics by Noble Sissle and Andy . Among his best known tunes are "I'm Just Wild About Harry" and the "Classical Rag". Who is he?

Answer: Eubie BLAKE

4. Recently canonized by the Roman Catholic Church this Polish priest offered his own life to save a fellow prisoner at Auschwitz during the Second World War. Who is he?

Answer: St. Maximilian KOLBE

5. He was born in Africa and came as a slave to Rome, where he was later manumitted. He became an intimate of the Scipionic Circle and wrote six comedies before dying at the age of 26. Among his best known plays are "The Self-Tormentor" and the "Adelphoe". Who was he?

Answer: TERENCE
(accept: Publius Terentius Afer)

6. Among the adherents to this school of twentieth century philosophy are Josef Pieper, Etienne Gilson, Jacques Maritain, and Mortimer Adler. What is the name of this school?

Answer: Neo-Thomism (neo-scholasticism)

7. These bodies can be found scattered all over the retina but not at all on the fovea of the eye. They aid in seeing dimly lit objects but provide little color perception. What are they called?

Answer: RODS