

2 mid
19805
(Zimmer?)
TOSS-UPS

1. Football fans are familiar with Mean Joe Green, but they may not be quite as familiar with the works of a famous Italian operatic composer whose name, if translated into English, is also Joe Green. For ten points, name the composer of the opera "Il Trovatore" and "Aida".

Answer: GIUSEPPE VERDI

2. For a quick ten points, in what European capital city would you find the following famous landmarks: Phoenix Park; St. Stephen's Green; Trinity College; and the River Liffey?

Answer: DUBLIN

3. This radical group of the sixties took their name from the Bob Dylan song, "Subterranean Homesick Blues". Actually, they had nothing to do with meteorology. For ten points, name them.

Answer: The WEATHERMEN

or WEATHER UNDERGROUND

4. The first US vice president not to be elected to the office served under Gerald Ford from 1974 to 1977. For ten points, name him.

Answer: Nelson ROCKEFELLER

5. The newton is a measure of force equal to one kilogram-meter per second squared. For ten points, is the number of dynes making up one newton 10 thousand, 100 thousand, or 1 million?

Answer: 100 thousand

6. This English novelist was recently awarded the 1983 Nobel Prize in literature. For ten points, name the author of "The Inheritors" and "Lord of the Flies".

Answer: William GOLDING

7. A noted feminist and literary and social critic, she makes a cameo appearance in Woody Allen's latest film Zelig. For ten points, name the author of Against Interpretation and On Photography.

Answer: Susan SONTAG

8. One of the bloodiest battles of the American Civil War was fought in 1862 in Sharpsburg, Maryland; for ten points, what other

8. One of the bloodiest battles of the American Civil War was fought in 1862 in the town of Sharpsburg, Maryland. For ten points, by what other name is ~~xx~~ this battle usually referred to?

Answer: ANTIETAM

9/ Bob Hope and Bing Crosby made the film "The Road to Mandalay". For a quick ten points, is Mandalay in Thailand, Burma, Morocco, or India?

Answer: BURMA

10. This German-born American novelist was born in 1898, and is probably best remembered for his World War I novel, "All Quiet on the Western Front". For a quick ten points, name this remarkable writer.

Answer: Erich Maria REMARQUE

11. It is a word with several meanings, among them : a thin oblong piece of wood used to cover a roof; a woman's close-cropped haircut; a type of coarse gravel; and, in plural form a skin eruption known otherwise as Herpes zoster. For ten points, name the word.

Answer: SHINGLE

12. Banks Island; the Queen Elizabeth Islands; the Beaufort Sea; and Ellesmere Island are all located in which of the earth's oceans?

Answer: ARCTIC

13. It is the eleventh letter of the Greek alphabet; it is ~~also the name of an electrically neutral subatomic particle in the baryon family having a mass of 2183 times that of the electron; it also the name of the temperature point at which helium I changes to superfluid helium II.~~ For ten points, name it.

Answer: LAMBDA

14. In the US Marines, this title is given to an enlisted man ranking above a private first class and below a corporal; in the British army, it is the title of a private acting as a corporal. For ten points, name it.

Answer: LANCE CORPORAL

15. Informally, this place name is used as a synonym for sleep. According to Genesis 4:16, it is ~~the~~ the land East of Eden where Cain lived after killing Abel. For ten points, name it.

Answer: LAND OF NOD

16. In June, 1520, England's King Henry VIII met the French monarch at the Field of the Cloth of Gold to negotiate a possible, ~~but as it turned out unfulfilled,~~ alliance against the Emperor Charles V. For ten points, was the unlucky French king Henry IV, Charles VI, or Francis I ?

Answer: FRANCIS I

17. Invented by Buckminster Fuller, this architectural structure housed the US exhibit at the 1967 Montreal Expo. For ten points, what is the name of this structure, made of lightweight straight elements forming interlocking polygons?

Answer: GEODESIC DOME

18. Now in his 90's, this Russian-born French artist is known for his warm, brightly colored paintings, often depicting ~~the~~ Jewish life in his boyhood village. He is also famous for mosaics and stained glass works, some of which can be seen at the United Nations Building in Manhattan. For 10 pts., name him.

Answer: MARC CHAGALL

19. Cretaceous, Jurassic, Triassic: for ten points, to what era do these geological periods belong?

Answer: MESOZOIC

20. A middle East Islamic sect of some 300,000 members, they've been in the news a lot lately. Most of their scriptural beliefs are jealously guarded secrets, tho they are said to profess the divinity of al-Hakim, the 6th caliph of Egypt's Fatimid dynasty. For ten points, by what name are they known?

Answer: DRUZE

21. Over the past twenty years, major league baseball has added six expansion teams. For a quick ten points, which expansion team was the first to win a pennant?

Answer: NEW YORK METS

22. Altho largely forgotten at the time of his death in 1917, this American ragtime composer came back into popularity in the 1970's after the release of the movie "The Sting". For ten points, name the composer of "The Maple Leaf Rag" and "The Entertainer".

Answer: SCOTT JOPLIN

23. For a quick ten points, give either of the two previous names of the Russian city Volgograd.

Answer: STALINGRAD
or TSARITSYN

24. Earl Warren is perhaps best remembered for his tenure as Chief Justice of the United States, but he also ran for vice president on a losing Republican ticket. For ten points, with what presidential candidate did Warren run?

Answer: Thomas DEWEY

25. The last word in many standard English dictionaries is "zymurgy". For ten points, with which of the following industries would you most likely associate zymurgy: computers; steel; prostitution; or brewing?

Answer: BREWING

BONUS QUESTIONS

1. (20 pts) Name the predecessor of each of the following current US senators for 10 pts. each:

a) William Proxmire ----- Joe McCarthy

b) Alphonse d'Amato ----- Jacob Javits

2. (30 pts) ~~Give the~~ Give the first name of the following famous Spencers (Spensers) for 10 pts. each:

a) English philosopher associated with social Darwinism

----- Herbert

b) The Princess of Wales ----- Diana

c) poet, author of "The Faery Queen" --- Edmund

3. (30 pts) The group Peter, Paul, and Mary were very popular back in the sixties. For ten pts. each, give the last ~~name~~ name of:

a) Peter ----- Yarrow

b) Paul ----- Stookey

c) Mary ----- Travers

4. (25 pts.) He was an Indian leader in the Second Seminole War against the United States, and tried to resist a US plan to transport the Seminoles from Florida to Oklahoma in the 1830's. Later on, he died in prison. Name him.

----- Osceola

5. (30 pts.) ~~Give the~~ Give the

The equator runs thru six (count 'em, six) African nations. For 5 pts. each, name them; you have fifteen seconds

----- Gabon, Congo, Zaire,

Uganda, Kenya, Somalia

6. (25 pts.) For 25 pts., name the American novelist who has written "Portnoy's Complaint", "Zuckerman Unbound", "The Ghost Writer", and "Goodbye Columbus".

----- Philip Roth

7. (25 pts.) Part of FDR's New Deal legislation, this act passed in 1938 established a national minimum wage and a minimum work week of 44 hours for most laborers. What was the act called?

----- Fair Labor Standards Act

8. (20 pts.) Identify the following parts of the eye for 10 pts. each:

a) the small depression in the retina constituting the area of most distinct vision

---fovea

b) the pigmented, round membrane situated between the cornea and the ~~the~~ lens and perforated by the pupil

---iris

9. (20 pts.) Identify the following French impressionist painters by their works for 10 pts. each:

a) "The Bar at the Folies Bergeres", "The Girl with Watering Can", and "The Theater Box"

---~~Reynolds~~
Renoir

b) "Absinthe", "The Millinery Shop", and many, many paintings of ballet dancers

---Degas

10. (30 pts.) You get ten points ~~each~~ for each of the following presidents or prime ministers of foreign countries that you can identify:

a) the current president of Mexico

---Miguel de la Madrid
(Hurtado)

b) the current prime minister of West Germany

---Helmut Kohl

c) the former leader of ~~Canada's~~ Canada's Progressive Conservative party who was prime minister for six months in 1979 before Pierre Trudeau returned to power

---Joe Clark

11. (30 pts.) Identify the political party -- either Conservative, Labour, or Liberal -- to which each of the following British prime ministers belonged for 10 pts. each:

a) William Gladstone

---Liberal

b) Harold Macmillan

---Conservative

c) Harold Wilson

---Labour

12. (30 pts.) Many of the B- vitamins have alternate names. For instance, B<sub>6</sub> is also known as pyroxydine. For ten pts., give the B name of each of the following vitamins:

- a) riboflavin                      -- B<sub>2</sub>
- b) cyanocobalamin                -- B<sub>12</sub>
- c) thiamine                        -- B<sub>1</sub>

13. ~~XXXXX~~

(25 pts.)

One of the most famous naval battles of all time occurred on 7 October 1571 . John of Austria led combined Spanish, Venetian, and Papal troops to defeat the Turkish fleet in the gulf of Patras. By what name is this battle usually known?

--Battle of Lepanto

14. (25 pts.) Prizefighting was very popular in the 1920's.

One famous heavyweight fight will forever be associated with the "long count", during which several radio listeners suffered heart attacks. For ten points, identify the two boxers involved and for an additional 15 pts., give the year of the fight.

--Gene Tunney & Jack Dempsey

-- 1926

15. (30 pts.) Identify the following novels for ten pts. each; you will be given the author and the main characters.

- a) The author is James Joyce; the main characters are Stephen Dedalus, Leopold Bloom, and Molly Bloom

---Ulysses

- b) The author is Thomas Mann; the main characters, Hans Castorp.

---The Magic Mountain

- c) The author is William Faulkner; the main characters, Lena Burch, Byron Bunch, and Joe Christmas.

---Light in August

16. (30 pts.) Some of Beethoven's nine symphonies have alternate names. For ten pts., identify the number of the following Beethoven symphonies:

- a) "Pastorale" Symphony --- 6
- b) "Choral" Symphony --- 9
- c) "Eroica" --- 3

17. (25 pts.) The husband is an economist, the author of "Beyond the Welfare State" and "An American Dilemma", and was awarded the Nobel Prize in economics in 1974; the wife is a peace activist who was awarded the Nobel Peace Prize in 1982. For 25 pts., what is the last name of this distinguished Swedish couple?

--- Myrdal

18. (30 pts.) Identify the capital cities of the following Asian countries for 10 pts. each:

- a) Bangladesh --- Dacca
- b) Nepal --- Katmandu
- c) Iraq --- Baghdad

19. (30 pts.) Identify the following bank presidents for 10 pts. each:

- a) the president of the World Bank --- G.W. Claussen
- b) the chairman of the Federal Reserve --- Paul Volcker
- c) the chairman of Citicorp --- Walter Wriston

20. (30 pts.) The three greatest French playwrights of the 17th century were Pierre Corneille, Jean Baptiste Racine, and Moliere. For ten pts. each, identify ~~which~~ which playwright wrote the following masterpieces of drama:

- a) Le Cid --- Corneille
- b) The Misanthrope --- Moliere
- c) Phedre --- Racine