

Tossups.

1. Written by H. S. Thompson and originally called Annie Lisle, this tune has been used for the "alma mater" of dozens of schools and colleges. For 10 points, hum, whistle, or la-la your way through the first eight bars of "High Above Cayuga's Waters."
Answer: (judges should learn tune before entering round)
2. On his death bed, he said that he had only two regrets: that he had not shot Henry Clay and not hanged John C. Calhoun. For 10 points, name this American president.
Answer: Andrew Jackson
3. It is caused by the attraction forces between layers of molecules. It usually decreased significantly with increasing temperatures. For 10 points, what is this measure of the resistance of a liquid to flow?
Answer: viscosity
4. He is the only player to have been Rookie of the Year (1949), MVP (1956) and Cy Young award winner, also in 1956. For 10 points, name this Brooklyn Dodger.
Answer: Don Newcomb
5. They met at the Cabaret Voltaire in Zurich; "they" included Andre Breton, Hans Arp, and Tristan Tzara. For 10 points, what artistic movement did they form together with Kandinsky, Klee, Alfred Steiglitz, and Marcel Duchamps?
Answer: Dadaism or Dadaist or Dada
6. Some television shows are spinoffs, but others have more subtle relationships to each other. Curiously, if you converted the big money you won on "The Sixty-Four Dollar Question" into binary dollars, you might find yourself on another early tv show starring John Beresford Tipton. For 10 points, what program
Answer: The Millionaire (64 = 1,000,000 binary)
7. Capitals of countries are a popular college bowl subject--and it's fortunate they don't change very often. For 10 points, what is the oldest continually functioning capital city in the Western Hemisphere?
Answer: Mexico City
8. Pentatonic...diatonic...whole-tone...and twelve-tone are, for 10 points, all descriptions of what basic musical concept?
Answer: scales
9. George and Ira Gershwin wrote the opera Porgy and Bess. For 10 points, who wrote the novel Porgy on which the opera is based?
Answer: Dubose Heyward

10. Fought between Russian troops under Tsar Peter I and the combined forces of Charles XII of Sweden and the Cossack chief Mazeppa, this 1709 battle marked Russia's emergence as a world power. For 10 points, name it.

Answer: Poltava

11. The English alphabet has 26 letters; the Greek has 24. For 10 points, what name is given to a Germanic alphabet of 24 characters, including feoh, wen, and thorn?

Answer: Runic or Runes or Futhorc

12. Sometimes called "Charcot's Disease," this degenerative disease of the central nervous system causes hardening of tissues in the brain and spinal cord. For 10 points, name this "greatestcrippler of young adults."

Answer: multiple sclerosis or MS

13. Much of the Old Testament is taken up with wars between one nation and another. For 10 points, in what New Testament book do we find the warring nations of ~~Gog~~ Gog and Magog?

Answer: Revelations or Apocalypse

14. In 1946, the year Churchill spoke of an "iron curtain," Bayard Swope coined another enduring phrase to describe U.S.-Soviet relations. Bernard Baruch first used it. "Let us not be deceived," he said. "Today we are in the midst of"....what?

Answer: "a cold war"

15. Ben Jonson wrote "To Celia" and E. A. Poe wrote "To Helen." For 10 points, who wrote "To Amarantha That She Would Dishevel Her Hair," "To Lucasta, on Going to the Wars," and "To Althea, from Prison"?

Answer: Richard Lovelace

16. In 1978, entomologists discovered Nothomyrmecia macrops, a living fossil, unchanged for 80 million years, living in South America. For 10 points, what sort of creature is it?

Answer: ant (if answer is "insect" ask for more information)

17. For 10 points, name the Roman satirist of the first and second century A.D., to whom we owe the cliché, "...a sound mind in a sound body"

Answer: Juvenal

18. First practiced in the Middle Ages, this mystical system is marked by a belief in creation by emanation and a numerological interpretation of Scripture. For 10 points, name this Jewish sect.

Answer: Cabala or Cabalism

EMORY COLLEGE BOWL
DO NOT DUPLICATE
OR TRADE

19. Vasco Nunez de Balboa, as everyone knows, discovered the Pacific Ocean. Well, almost everyone. For 10 points, whom did John Keats credit with the discovery in his sonnet, "On First Looking into Chapman's Homer"?

Answer: stout Cortez

20. Nara...Fugiwara...Kamakura...Ashikaga...Tokugawa...and Meiji. For 10 points, what country's history can be divided into those major periods?

Answer: Japan

21. The fur of this fierce carnivorous animal is used for parka lining. Found in the northern sections of the Northern Hemisphere, it is the largest member of the weasel family and the mascot of the University of Michigan. For 10 points, name it.

Answer: the wolverine

22. In psychiatry it is a major state of personality dissociation characterized by amnesia. In music it's a contrapuntal, polyphonic musical form. For 10 points, what's the word, derived from the Latin for "flight"?

Answer: fugue

EMORY COLLEGE BOWL DO NOT DUPLICATE OR TRADE
---

Bonuses. (QNA 175--writer Lloyd Busch)

1. (25 points) Two's company, three's a crowd. For 5 points each, give the famous third member that makes each of these companies a crowd.
  - a. Dismas, Gestas, and .... Answer: Jesus Christ
  - b. Ham, Shem, and ... Answer: Japheth
  - c. Armstrong, Collins, and ... Answer: Aldrin
  - d. Caspar, Balthazar, and ... Answer: Melchior
  - e. Martin, Barton, and ... Answer: Fish (3 congressmen who opposed FDR)
2. (30 points) If you name this eccentric English chemist and physicist after the first clue, you get 30 points; 20 points after 2nd clue; 10 after the third.
  - one. He was the first to measure weights of gases to determine density.
  - two. He was the first to determine the gravitational constant and thus the first to compute accurately the mass and density of the earth.
  - three. He was the first to discover hydrogen.Answer: Henry Cavendish (1731-1810)
3. (~~30~~<sup>25</sup> points) William Faulkner wrote "The Bear." But for 5 points each, what poets wrote this menagerie of works?
  - a. The Flea. Answer: John Donne
  - c. The Chamber'd Nautilus. Answer: Oliver Wendell Holmes, Sr.
  - d. The Owl and the Pussycat. Answer: Edward Lear
  - e. The Purple Cow. Answer: Gellett Burgess
  - f. The Tyger. Answer: William Blake
4. (25 points) This Wessex king, during his reign, conquered Kent, Sussex, Mercia, and Northumberland, thus becoming the first king to unify Agglo-Saxon England under one rule. For 25 points, name this 9th-century monarch, traditionally considered to be the first king of England.
Answer: Egbert
5. (30 points) The 17th century witnessed the birth of three major musical forms. For 10 points each, name them from these clues.
  - a. This instrumental form was first divided into two types: the church form and the chamber form. Corelli brought form to its perfection.
Answer: sonata
  - b. At the beginning of the century it referred to music in which 2 ensembles contested with each other. By the end of the century it referred to music contrasting a full ensemble with soloists in alternation.
Answer: concerto
  - c. Ottavio Rinuccini, Vincenzo Galilei, and Jacopo Peri were the most important figures in early development of this form.
Answer: opera

Bonuses-page two

6. (30 points) Between 264 and 146 B.C. three Punic Wars were fought over control of the Mediterranean. For 10 points each:
- Name the two city-states who fought the Punic Wars.
Answer: Rome and Carthage
  - Hannibal was the most famous general of the 2nd Punic War-- but he lost. Name the Roman general who defeated him at the Battle of Zama in 202.
Answer: Scipio Africanus Major (all names needed)
  - Whose oratorical war-mongering led the third Punic War and the final defeat of Carthage?
Answer: Cato the Elder or Cato the Censor
7. (20 points) Court painter to Philip IV, he painted the Forge of Vulcan, the Surrender of Breda, a portrait of Pope Innocent X and portraits of dwarfs, buffoons, and the Infanta Margarita. For 20 points, name this artist.
Answer: Diego Velazquez
8. (30 points) With the rise and fall of gold prices in the last year, you might have been paying more attention to gold these days. We'll see. For 5 points each, identify these Americans whose names begin with "Gold."
- The candidate whose slogan was "A Choice, Not an Echo."
Answer: Barry Goldwater
  - A cartoonist famous for fabulous machinery.
Answer: Rube Goldberg
  - American anarchist who advocated birth control and an end to the draft.
Answer: Emma Goldman
  - Polish-born movie mogul, producer of "The Best Years of Our Lives."
Answer: Samuel Goldwyn
  - U.N. Ambassador and Supreme Court Justice.
Answer: Arthur Goldberg
  - Inventor of long-playing record.
Answer: Peter Goldmark
9. (30 points) For 10 points each, name first, the two major order of dinosaurs, and then the order of flying reptiles which shared the Cretaceous period with them.
Answer: dinosaurs: Ornithischians and Saurischians
flying reptiles: Pterosaurs
10. (30 points) Kierkegaard and Nietzsche are unique names for philosophers. Other names are common to more than one philosopher:
- For 10 points, what common name is shared by a 5th-century B.C. Eleatic dialectician and a 4th-century B.C. Stoic philosopher of Citium?
Answer: Zeno
  - For 10 points, what common first name is shared by the philosophers Huxley and Hobbes?
Answer: Thomas
  - For 10 points, what common first name is shared by Feuerbach and Wittgenstein?
Answer: Ludwig

Bonuses-page three

11. (30 points) The song "Hello,Dolly" obviously comes from the musical of the same name. For 10 points each, name the musicals with these less obvious songs.
- a. "There's No Business Like Show Business," "I Got Lost in His Arms," and "The Girl that I Marry."
Answer: Annie, Get Your Gun
- b. "Save the People," "Turn Back, O Man," and "Day by Day."
Answer: Godspell
- c. "Pirate Jenny," "The Ballad of Immoral Earnings," and the "Ballad of Mac the Knife."
Answer: Three Penny Opera
12. (30 points) There are currently 9 justices on the Supreme Court of the United States. For 10 points each, answer these questions about the Supreme Court.
- a. How many justices were authorized by Congress in 1789?
Answer: six
- b. When ~~E~~ FDR tried to pack the court, what was the maximum number of justices that he wanted?
Answer: 15
- c. Can you name the one Chief Justice who took his oath, served four months, and was then rejected by Congress?
Answer: John Rutledge
13. (30 points) The element Bk for Berkyllium, takes its name from the city where the main campus of the University of California is located. For 10 points each, give the symbol or the name of the element which takes its name from:
- a. Latin for Copenhagen. Answer: Hf or Hafnium
- b. Latin for Stockholm. Answer: Ho or Holmium
- c. Latin for Paris. Answer: Lu or Lutetium
14. (25 points) Name this work on the first clue for 25 points; name it after the second clue for 10 points.
- one. In 500 B.C. it was a brief narrative poem; every century added new events and commentary until it reached its present length of 107,000 couplets.
- two. A grand drama of violence, gambling, and war, this classical Sanskrit epic poem has been called greater than the Iliad, and the greatest work of Asian imagination.
- Answer: the Mahabharata (pron. Maha bar'ata)
15. (30 points) It's sometimes hard enough to remember last year's best sellers. For 15 points each, name the authors of these two books, the most popular books of the 16th century.
- a. Orlando Furioso (1532) Answer: Ludivico Ariosto
- b. Jerusalem Delivered (1575) Answer: Torquato Tasso or Torquato
16. (20 points) In 1825 a forerunner of the modern theater spotlight was invented by Drummond. It gave off an eerie greenish glow by burning calcium oxide and gave birth to a new expression, used to describe the center of attention. For 20 points, name Drummond's invention.
- Answer: the limelight

EMORY COLLEGE BOWL
DO NOT DUPLICATE
OR TRADE

17. BONUS: 30

Despite all the hoopla that accompanies the football Bowl games, I suspect most are quickly forgotten afterward. We'll see. For 5 points each, identify the teams that played in these 1982 Bowls:

- |                    |  |
|--------------------|--|
| 1. the Rose Bowl   | Iowa and Washington   |
| 2. Orange Bowl     | Nebraska and Clemson  |
| 3. the Fiesta Bowl | Penn State and USC, or University of Southern California, or Southern Cal |

18. BONUS: 25

It's the United States of America. For 5 points each, complete the names of these countries:

- |                                   |                            |
|-----------------------------------|----------------------------|
| 1. The Hashemite Kingdom of....   | Jordan              |
| 2. the Arab Republic of...        | Egypt               |
| 3. the Most Serene Republic of... | San Marino          |
| 4. the Cooperative Republic of... | Guyana              |
| 5. the Federal Republic of...     | Germany, or Nigeria |

19. BONUS 30

Last Monday, Kim Hunter and Vincent Price presented the first Oscar in a new category. For 15 points apiece:

- 1) What is that new category? Answer: Make-Up
2) Rick Baker won this Oscar--for what film?
Answer: An American Werewolf in London

20. BONUS: 20/25

There's golden fleece and golden apples and even golden globes. For 5 points each, 25 for all four, who wrote these "golden"works?

- |                     |                         |
|---------------------|-------------------------|
| 1. THE GOLDEN ASS   | Apuleius         |
| 2. GOLDEN BOY       | Clifford Odets   |
| 3. THE GOLDEN BOUGH | Sir James Frazer |
| 4. THE GOLDEN BOWL  | Henry James      |

EMORY COLLEGE BOWL DO NOT DUPLICATE OR TRADE
--