

College Bowl Match

(Indiana University questions--revised. Used in N.I.T., April 9, 1983)

1. Eisenhower was the last president to serve ^{two and only} ~~three~~ two complete consecutive terms in office. For 10 points, who was the last one to do so before Eisenhower?
Answer: Woodrow Wilson
2. Though he never won the Nobel Prize in Literature, he was nominated three times. His works include Confessions of a Mask and the tetralogy, The Sea of Fertility, as well as The Sailor Who Fell from Grace with the Sea. For 10 points, name this man who committed ritual suicide in 1970.
Answer: Yukio Mishima
3. It feeds almost exclusively on the milkweed plant, and as a result most predators find it nauseating. For this reason, some other members of its genus duplicate this species' distinctive coloration for protection. For 10 points, give the common name of this species of Lepidoptera which may migrate up to 1000 miles annually.
Answer: monarch butterfly or milkweed butterfly
4. For 10 points, give me both first names of the two running backs named Walker who have won the Heisman Trophy as the outstanding college player.
Answer: (either order) Doak (1948) and Herschel (1982)
5. Her painted limestone portrait bust in Berlin is among the most famous of all creations of the New Kingdom of Egypt. This and other busts were found in a workroom at Akhetaton. For 10 points, name this beautiful queen of King Ikhnaton.
Answer: Nefertiti or Nefretete
6. Raphael, Rembrandt, Rubens, and Titian were all famous painters. Raphael, Rembrandt, Rubens, and Titian were also the first names of four brothers who were early 19th-century American artists. For 10 points, what was their last name?
Answer: Peale
7. For decades physicists refused to believe evidence that the solar corona was much hotter than the surface of the sun. The excess heat couldn't come from the sun because that would violate one of the basic laws of thermodynamics. For 10 points, which such law states that heat cannot flow from a cooler object to a hotter one?
Answer: second law of thermodynamics
8. It opened its doors on Dec. 27, 1932, an Art Deco masterpiece. It is the largest indoor theater in the world, seating 5,582 people. For 10 points, name this popular New York City tourist attraction.
Answer: Radio City Music Hall

Indiana Univ.

9. Charles Francis Adams, Charles Bonaparte, George Bancroft, and Gideon Welles all held this post. Benjamin Stoddert was the first to hold it and James Forrestal was the last. For 10 points, what cabinet post is this?

Answer: Secretary of the Navy

10. He composed the anthem Zadok the Priest, which was used for the coronation of George II and all subsequent monarchs. It was for George I, however, that he composed the Water Music in 1717. For 10 points, name this composer buried in Westminster Abbey.

Answer: George ~~Frederic~~ Handel

11. Its principal actors were Toshirō Mifune and Machiko Kyo. Its director was Akira Kurosawa. For 10 points, name this classic 1950 Japanese film.

Answer: Rashomon

12. September 17, 1862 is said to be the bloodiest single day of the Civil War, with more than 23,000 dead and wounded on both sides. For 10 points, name this battle.

Answer: Antietam or Sharpsburg

13. This novel tells of Charles Strickland, a conventional London stock broker, who in middle life becomes interested in painting, changes completely in character, and deserts his wife, family, and business in order to live and paint in Tahiti, where he takes a native mistress and eventually dies of leprosy. For 10 points, name this novel by Maugham which is based on the life of Paul Gauguin.

Answer: The Moon and Sixpence

14. According to a late medieval legend, this woman handed her handkerchief to Jesus on his way to Calvary. He wiped the sweat from his brow, returned the handkerchief, which was found to bear a perfect likeness of the Saviour. For 10 points, name this female saint.

Answer: St. Veronica

15. Invented by a Syrian refugee in Constantinopæ in the 7th century A.D., and used by the Byzantine Empire for the next 800 years, it was a liquid mixture of unknown composition which began to burn when wet. For 10 points, what name was given to this weapon of naval warfare?

Answer: Greek Fire

16. In 1849 he founded a telegraph and carrier-pigeon bureau in Aachen for the collection and dissemination of news. In 1851 he moved to England he continued his newsgathering services. For 10 points, who was this German-born English baron?

Answer: Paul Julius von ~~Re~~ Reuter

17. His first well-known novel, Peter Camenzind, describes ~~xi~~ the early manhood of a writer who leaves his Swiss mountain village to encounter the world. He was among the first novelists to display the influences of psychoanalytic theory, having undergone analysis with Carl Jung. For 10 points, name this German-born novelist who won the 1946 Nobel Prize as a Swiss citizen.

Answer: Herman Hesse

18. The subclass Prototheria of the class Mammalia consists of only one order, which in turn contains only two living species --the platypus and the spiny anteater. For 10 points, what is the name of this order of primitive egg-laying mammals?

Answer: monotremes or Monotremata

19. It is the largest seaport on the continent of Europe, even though it lies 68 miles from the sea, up the Elbe River. For 10 points, name this German port city which had its origins in a fortress erected by Charlemagne as a defense against the Slavs.

Answer: Hamburg

20. When, in 1960, he transformed his Gueneteul Palace into a university (modestly named for himself), he was left with only two palaces: the Jubilee and the Ghibi. He took seriously the divine right of kings and never allowed his subject to forget that he was the elect of God. Around the clock, he was protected by imperial bodyguards, cheetahs, and lions until he was deposed in 1974. For 10 points, name this ruler.

Answer: Haile Selassie or Ras Tafari

21. Corporal Trim, Doctor Slop, and the Widow Wadman are supporting characters in this 18th-century novel. For 10 points, name this novel, published in 9 books between 1759 and 1767, but never finished.

Answer: The Life and Opinions of Tristram Shandy

22. Nurse "Ripples" Brancuzzi and Dr. Stanley Riverside appear in this popular television series. For 10 points, name this spin-off of the long-running series M*A*S*H.

Answer: Trapper John, M.D.

Bonuses. (Indiana University)

1. (25 points) Trained by Donatello, this Florentine sculptor and painter also did a bronze David and a large equestrian statue of the condottiere Bartolomeo Colleoni. However, he is most famous as the teacher of Leonardo da Vinci. For 25 points, name this artist whose real name was Andrea di Michele di Francesco di Cioni.
Answer: Andrea del Verrocchio
2. (25 points) Physics is polluted with a number of related units of measurement. For 5 points each, what units are defined as follows?
 - a. 10 to the 8th maxwells. Answer: weber
 - b. 14.70 pounds per square inch. Answer: atmosphere
 - c. 7.233 poundals. Answer: Newton
 - d. 14.59 kilograms. Answer: slug
 - e. 9.46×10 to the 12th kilometers. Answer: light year
3. (25 points) For 5 points each, who are the current mayors of these large American cities?
 - a. Detroit. Answer: Coleman Young
 - b. Philadelphia. Answer: William Green
 - c. Pittsburgh. Answer: Richard Caliguiri
 - d. Houston. Answer: Kathy Whitmire
 - e. San Francisco. Answer: Dianne Feinstein
4. (30 points) Psalms has 150 chapters, more than any other book in the Bible. But 5 books have only one chapter in the King James and Revised Standard Versions. For 5 points each, and an additional 5 for getting them all, name these short books.
Answer: Obadiah Philemon Jude II John III John
5. (20 points) For 5 points each, give the title of the Dickens novels from which these characters come.
 - a. Esther Summerson. Answer: Bleak House
 - b. Josiah Bounderby. Answer: Hard Times
 - c. Mr. Podsnap. Answer: Our Mutual Friend
 - d. Abel Magwitch. Answer: Great Expectations
6. (30 points) Name this country on the first clue for 30 points; 20 points on the second. 10 on the third.
 - one. As of 800 A.D., it was the largest piece of land in the temperate zone which had never been visited by man.
 - two. At the time of its discovery, it possessed no mammals except for bats, which made it a paradise for wingless birds.
 - three. Its two major divisions are North Island and South Island.
 Answer: New Zealand
7. (25 points) For 5 points each, answer these questions about the decisive defeat of the Spanish Armada.

- a. Give the year. Answer: 1588
- b. The great admiral Santa Cruz died just months before the Armada sailed. Name the elderly Duke, with no knowledge of the sea that Philip put in charge of the Armada.
Answer: Duque de Medina Sidonia
- c. Who was the Lord Admiral in charge of the English fleet?
Answer: Charles Howard or 1st Earl of Nottingham
- d. The Spanish had a total of 130 ships involved. Within 25, how many total ships did the English send against them?
Answer: 197 accept between 172-222
- e. England sent a total of about 16,000 men to sea to meet the Armada. Within 100, how many died during the various battles?
Answer: 100 accept between 0-200
8. (25 points) This son of Chaos and brother of Nox has given his name to the world's southernmost active volcano. For 25 points, name this volcano.
Answer: Mt. Erebus (in Antarctica)
9. (30 points) Name this author on the first clue for 30 points; name the author after the second for 20 and after the third for 10. Your clues are titles of books.
one. Torrents of Spring.
two. In Our Time.
three. Across the River and Into the Trees.
Answer: Ernest Hemingway
10. (30 points) For 10 points each, answer these questions about psychology.
- a. The MMPI is a psychological test. What does the acronym MMPI stand for?
Answer: Minnesota Multiphasic Personality Inventory
- b. What American psychologist revised the Binet-Simon intelligence test as the Stanford-Binet test in 1916?
Answer: Lewis M. Terman
- c. He founded the school of Individual Psychology and wrote The Education of Children in 1930.
Answer: Alfred Adler
11. (20 points) Presidential elections are often referred to as leap year events, but they aren't always. Three presidents were elected to the presidency in years that were not leap years. For 5 points each, and an extra 5 points for all correct, name them.
Answer: Washington (1789) Jefferson (1800) McKinley (1900)
12. (20 points) For 5 points apiece, answer these questions about baseball's star performers in the 1982 season.
- a. Who had the highest batting average (.331) in the National League?
Answer: Al Oliver (Montreal)
- b. Who led the American League in homers with 39?
Answer: either Reggie Jackson or Gorman Thomas

- c. This pitcher had the most wins in the National League and also the most strikeouts.

Answer: Steve Carlton (Philadelphia)

- d. For only the third time in history, the American League did not have a 20-game winning pitcher. Name the pitcher who had the most in the league with 19.

Answer: Hoyt (Chicago)

13. (25 points) The elements in Group IIA of the periodic table are known as the alkali earths. For 10 points, name any 3 of the elements in group IIA. You will get an extra 5 points for each one above 3 you name. You may name only 6 elements.

Answer: beryllium magnesium calcium strontium barium
radium

14. (30 points) Star Trek: The Movie reunited the old Star Trek crew as Admiral James T. Kirk reassumed command of the starship Enterprise. For 10 points apiece:

- a. Whom did Adm. Kirk replace as captain of the Enterprise?
Answer: Capt. Will Decker

- b. V-ger (pron. VEE-ger) was a major character in the movie. What was V-ger's full original name?
Answer: Voyager 6

- c. Admiral Kirk's final word in the flick was a trisyllabic colloquialism taken from the westerns. What was this order for the Enterprise's final "heading"?
Answer: thataway

15. (30 points) In December of 1979 the Soviet Union invaded Afghanistan and installed Babrak Karmal as the country's leader. In 1978 and 1979 Afghanistan had 3 leaders before Karmal, all of whom were killed. For 10 points each, name them.

Answer: Mohammed Daoud Noor Mohammed Taraki Hafizullah Amin

16. (20 points) Twenty-four carat gold is pure gold. Sterling silver, however, is not pure silver. For 10 points apiece:

- a. Within one percent, how pure is sterling silver?

Answer: 92.5% accept 91.5%-93.5%

- b. What other metal makes up 7.5% of sterling silver?

Answer: copper

17. (30 points) Rodgers and Hammerstein wrote many of Broadway's best-loved musicals. But other songwriting teams have had hit shows. For 5 points for each member, what teams wrote the music and lyrics for:

- a. Fiorello!

Answer: Sheldon Harnick and Jerry Bock

- b. Damn Yankees

Answer: Richard Adler and Jerry Ross

- c. Joseph and the Amazing Technicolor Dreamcoat

Answer: Andrew Lloyd Weber and Tim Rice

18. (30 points) Craig Claiborne, the Food News editor of the New York Times, has proclaimed 64 American restaurants among the best in the world. For 10 points each, in which U.S. city could you dine at:
- a. Ernie's Jack's Redwood Room, and The Blue Fox?
Answer: San Francisco
 - b. Brennan's, the Caribbean Room, and Galatoire's?
Answer: New Orleans
 - c. Quo Vadis, Spats, and The Four Seasons?
Answer: New York
19. (20 points) For 5 points each, name the four presidents who never made an appointment to the U.S. Supreme Court during their terms.
Answer: W.H. Harrison Taylor A. Johnson Carter
20. (30 points) Before turning to literature, this prolific Spanish novelist was a doctor and a baker. He wrote Zalacain el aventurero and "Laura, o la soledad sin remedio" in 1939 upon his return to Spain. For 30 points, who is this Spanish author?
Answer: Pio Baroja y Nessi