OHIO STATE VATVERSIT - MES NT.

TOSS-UPS

1. Fe was prime Minister a Canada from 1921-26, 1926-30, and $1935-i 8$ A Liberal, he advocated some welfare measures such as pensions, but was somewhat conservative En Foreign policy and economic matters. For ten points.
name him.

- W. L. Niackenzie King

His hot temper and taste for political intrigue kept him in trouble even after he established himself as a poet and playwright of note. He greatly influenced Elizabethan drama. His "The Fassionate Shepherd to His Love" inspired a flood of imitations and replies, the best known of which is that by Sir Walter Raleigh. For ten points, name this sixteenth century English writer.

- Christopher Marlowe

For ten points, in geology, hill is to valley as syncline is to what?

- Anticline

William Harvey made
In the early 17th century, the first accurate description of blood circulation.

Harvey was unable, however, to explain how the blood gets from the arterioles to the venules. This process was not explained until 1660, when an Italian scientist discovered capillaries in the lung of a frog. For ten points, name this Italian.

- Marcello Malphigi

Born in Baltimore in 1915, she achieved early success as a jazz singer with the great bands of the 1930's. Shspade stage and nightclub appearances in the $1940^{\prime} \mathrm{s}$, but her career declined due to her addiction to narcotics. Her original ap$\ell$ proach to lyrics and melody, and the tragedy of her life, have made her a legend among American jazz singers. For ten points, name her.

- Billie Holiday

6. This Athenian statesman was elected chief archon in 489 B.C. He urged maintenance of the army rather than naval power. He was ostracized because he opposed the naval po icies of Themistocles, but later returned to politics. For ten points, name this statesman, who was called "the Just."

For ten points, if a trapezoid has a height of 10 inches. a longer side of ? inches, and a shorter side of 5 inches. what is its area?

- 60 square inches

Nile Kinnick in 1930, Bruce Smith in 1941, and Les Horvath in 1944 were some of the lesser known winners of this award. For ten points, name this prestigious trophy, also won by Pete Dawkins, Tom Harmon, and Dick Kazmaier.

- Heisman trophy

For ten points, name the mortal son of Apollo who was slain by Zeus for raising the dead, but was leer deified as the god of medicine.

- Asclepius or Aesculapius

10. Discovered in 1817 by Berzelius, this element has a melting point of 21 degrees Centigrade, a specific gravity of 4.79 , and an atomic number of 34 . For ten points, name the element.

- Selenium

A day of joy and feasting, it celebrates the deliverance of the Jews from a massacre planned by the Persian Minister Haman. The holiday is marked by reading of the Book of Esther, and by the exchange of gifts and donations and the presentation of plays. For ten points, name this Jewish holiday.

- Purim or the Feast of Lots

The second brightest star in the heavens is not visible from most of the northern hemisphere. For ten points, name this star in the constellation Carina.

- Canopus

Born in 1778, this South American revolutionary became Dictator of Chile after winning the battle of Chacabuco in 1817. In 1823, faced with revolt, he went into exile in Peru. For ten points, name him.

- Bernardo ob Higgins his bravery and daring, he captured King John II of France at the battle of Poitiers in 1356. He was made prince of Aquitone and Gascony in 1360, and was the father of Richard IT. For ten points, name him.
- Edward, the Black Prince (Accept: the Slack Prince or Edward of (oodstoc:

For ten points, name the Czechoslovakian Communist party leader who instituted an ill-fated reform program which included greater freedom of speech. The experiment was cut $u$ short when Soviet and other Warsaw Pact tanks overran Czechoslovakia in August, 1968. He was removed from his post in the spring of 1969 and was reduced to political obscurity.

- Alexander Dubcek

16. He was first successful as a dramatist, and in fifteen years wrote eighteen plays. Although they are not performed today, in their day All for Love, The Conquest of Granada, and The Spanish Friar were extremely successful. His greatest work of literary criticism is his Essay of Dramatic Poesy, in which appears his remarkable appreciation of Shakespeare. For ten points, name this seventeenth century English writer.

- John Dryden

First and
This Roman general of the second centuries E.C. was seven times consul of Rome. His conflict with Sulla over a military command caused civil war in 88 E.C. He was exiled, but returned to capture Rome in 87 5.C. For ten points, name him.

- Gaius Marius
"Phylogeny", a word derived from the Greek for "tribe origin", is the science of genealogical relationships among lineages of life forms, the study of the evolutionary history of any animal group and its development over large spans of time. For ten points, what is the term which refers to the developmental history of an individual, from zygote to maturity?
- Ontogeny

19. This English novelist wrote many novels of social criticism based on conditions in prisons, trade unions, and insane asylams. He is chiefly known for the medieval romance the Cloister and the Hearth. For ten points, name him.

- Charles Reade

20. This man, although born in Quebec province, became the father of American slapstick comedy as founder of the Keystone Company
$u$ of Los Angeles. He trained such comic actors as W.C. Fields, Charlie Chaplin, and Harold Lloyd and his films include "His Bitter Pill" and "The Shriek of Araby." He is perhaps most famous for his Keystone Kops. For 10 points; name him.

人

- oxastaxitux

21. Kim Hunter and Vivian Leigh won Cacars for their roles in this 1951 film, an adaptation oí a Tennessee inilliams play.
$*$ For ten points, name it.

- A Streetcar Namd Desire

22. Alfred, Lord Tennyson, wrote a famous poem describing the futile charge of the Light Erigade. For ten points, in what battle did the charge of the Light Brigade take place?

- Balaclava

23. Tinker to Evers to Chance: this famous double play combination was a major factor in the success of their team. For $u$ ten points, name the team.

$$
\text { - Chicago Cubs (Chicago alone is } \begin{gathered} \text { not acceptable) }
\end{gathered}
$$

Ohio State university Bonuses

You will get 30 points if you name this country on the first clue, 20 points on the second, and 10 on the third.
i) Strangely enough for a country located in South America, the single largest religious group in this country is the Hindus.
$u$
ii) Aluminum and aluminum ores are the major exports of this country.
(iii) The capital is Paramaribo.

SURINAM

25 points
Born in 1870, this American jurist taught law at several universities before coming to Harvard Law School, first as a professor and then as dean. One of the most influential legal scholars of his time, he wrote The Spirit of the Common Law and Introduction to the Philosophy of Law. For 25 points. name this man, who was also distinguished as a botanist.

- Roscoe Pound

30 points total, 10 points for each part
?upon Victoria was the ruler of the British Empire at its height, and she was well-beloved by her subjects. During her reign, many British possessions were named for her, including the largest lake in Africa, and a state of Australia. Three capital. cities, one of a Canadian province, one of a Crown Colony, and one of a former Crown Colony, but now an independent republic, are also named for Victoria. Can you name these throes places?

BRITISH COLUMBIA.

HONG KONG

SEYCHELLES

Bonus 30 Points. Consider a pair of unloaded dice. The only way you can roll a 12 is for both dice to turn up 6 which makes the odds of rolling a 12 only $1 / 36$ th. For 10 points apiece -- what are the $u$ odds of rolling the following totals? Hint: all of these odds are expressed as $1 / x$ where $x$ is an integer.

1) Three
2) Nine
3) Seven

Answer: $1 / 18$
Answer: $1 / 9$
Answer: $1 / 6$

Many of the early French rulers had rather unflattering nicknames. For five points each, and a total of ? monts. give the nicknames of the following rulers of the Cerolingian and Capetion dynasties.
$u$ penin
the Short
Charles II
Charles III
Louis $V$
the Simole
Louis X - the Quarreler or the Headstrong or Stubborn
For 5 points each, and a total of 25 points, name these characters from Greek or Roman Myth :
A. This musician and husband of Niobe charmed stones to build fortifications for Thebes.

- Amphion

2. This maiden challenged Athena to a weaving contest, and was changed into a spider.
$u$.

- Arachne

3. This son of Uranus and Gaea was a monster with 100 hands.
(cr Ariareons or Cottus or Gyges
(4. This giant stretched or cut off the legs of his victims to make them fit an iron bed. He was slain by Theseus,

- Frocrustes or Folypemon or Damastes

5. The son of Odysseus, he made an unsuccessful journey to find his father.

- Telemachus

1. For 10 points each, and a total of 30 points, name the treaties which...
2. :.. limited U.S. - British armaments on the Great Lakes, signed in 1817.

- Rush-Bagot Treaty

2. ... fixed the U.S. - Canadian border in Maine and Minnesota in 1842 .

- Webster-Ashburton Treaty

3. ... ended the Mexican-American War.

- Treaty of Guadalvupe-Hidalgo

For 5 points each, and a total of 20 points, name theauthor who created eachof the following characters:
Fgther Erown -G. K. Chesterton

4 Abraham van Helsing - Eram Stoker
Inspector Javert - Victor Hugo

- The Tin Noodsman - I. Frank Eaum

For 5 points each, and an additional 5 points if you get them all, name the instrument played by each of these jazz greats:

Artie Shaw O - Clarinet
Miles Davis $\bigcirc$ - Trumpet a
Charlie Mingus - Bass or Piano
John Coltrane - Tenor Saxophone
15. She was shot by the Germans during World War I for helping Allied soldiers escape from German-held Belgium to Holland. Her dignity facing the firing squad was widely admired, and one of her last remarks - "Fatriotism is not enough" - has become famous. For 20 points, name her.

- Nurse Edith Cavell

16. For 20 points, name this American humorist. He was co-editor with Joel Chandler Harris of the Uncle Remus magazine. He later became a columnist for the New York Sun, where he introduced his famous animal characters "archy" the cockroach and "mehitabel" the cat, which he used to embody his brand of forceful satire.

- Don Marquis

17. Name the year on the first clue for 30 points, on the second clue for 20 points, and on the third clue for 10 points.
1) 'The Subject Was Roses', by Frank Gilroy, won the Pulitzer Prize for drama.
2) The first space walk took place.
3) Malcolm $X$ was assassinated at a Harlem rally.

- 1965

18. This artist, who lived from 1598 to 1680 , spent most of his life in Rome where he designed many Barorue masterpieces. His greatest works are those found in and around St. Peter's Basilica, including the "Baldacchino" over the main altar, the "Cathedra Petri", and the great piazza of St. Peter's. He was official sculptor-architect to eight popes of the seventeenth century. For 25 points, name him.

Giovanni Iorenzo Rernini

19. This Spanish military officerbecame Marquis of Estello upon his uncle's death in 1921. In 1923 a coup d'etat brought him to power with full approval of King Alfonso XIII. He dissolved the Cortes, abolished the 1876 constitution, ruled as military dictator until 1925, and as civilian dictator until 1930. He died in exile in Paris in 1930. His son founded the facist Falange Party. For 30 points, name him.

- Miguel Primo de Rivera y Orbaneja

20. In the ancient Christian Church there were eight great Doctors of the Church. Half of these, Sts. Ambrose, Jerome, Augustine, and Gregory the Great, are known as the Four Fathers of the Latin Church. For 5 points each, and a 10 point bonus if you get them all, name the Four Fathers of the Greek Church.

- St. Basil the Great
- St. John Chrysostorn
- St. Greqory Nazianzen
- St. Athanasius

21. For 10 Points each, and a total of 20 points, give the general architectural feature of which the following are specific types:
$\begin{array}{ll}\text { 1) Lancet, ogee, cinquefoil } & \text { - Arches } \\ \text { 2) Barrel, groined, ribbed } & \text { - Vaults }\end{array}$
22. The four largest states in area of the U.S. are, in order, Alaska, Texas, California, and Montana. For 5 points each, and an additional 5 prints if you can name them in descending order of area, name the four largest rRoVINCES of Canada. Note that this question refers to provinces, NOT territories.

- Quebec
- Ontario
- British Columbia
- Alberta

