

10
1 He has retired this year after 36 years as University President. During that time he also served on the U.S. Commission on Civil Rights from 1952 until fired by Richard Nixon in 1972. He oversaw the University change from the notion of a "football factory" to one of the top academic institutions in America. For 10 points name this not so Irish sounding cleric-educator.

ans: Theodore Hesburg.

2 Born in St. Petersburg in 1899 this son of White Russian aristocrats decided on a literary career in his teens. Among his early works are Laughter in the Dark and Invitation to a Beheading. In 1958 he exploded onto the scene with his masterpiece about an older man and a much younger girl. For 10 points name this author.

ans: Vladimir Nabokov.

3 Plants normally grow by the photosynthesis process. Deep in the ocean near vents created in the earth's crust plants have been found to exist by adapting to a new process. For 10 points what is this process called?

ans: chemosynthesis.

4 Flying a $900 airplane, which authorities had described as "not airworthy", traveling without a passport, visa, parachute or radio, he made the trip on $62.26 for gas and oil. For 10 points name this ~~CONFUSED~~ ~~confused~~ aviator who landed in Dublin on July 17, 1938 instead of Los Angeles.

ans: Douglas "Wrongway" Corrigan

5 This book pokes fun at feminism by describing the Ellen James Society as a group of women who cut out their tongues in sympathy of a girl who was raped and her tongue cut out to prevent her from talking. For 10 points name ^{this John Irving novel.}

Ans. The World According to Garp

6 "And to you, King of England, I am a chieftan of war, and whenever I meet your followers in France, I will drive them out; if they will not obey. I will put them all to death. I am sent here in God's name, the king of Heaven, to drive you body for body out of all France." This except of a letter was dictated by an illiterate maiden. For 10 pts. who?

ANS. Joan of Arc

7 The human umbilical cord is a triple one formed from one vein and 2 arteries that coil to the left. Another example is the spiral ramp designed by Frank Lloyd Wright in the Guggenheim Museum. For 10 pts. what is this important mathematical object most associated with DNA?

ANS. Helix or Helices

8 For ten points, what name do all of these share: the soft-core porn actress whose relationship with Prince Andrew angered Queen Elizabeth II, a political boss in All the Kings Men, and the US frigate hit by two exocet missiles in the Persian Gulf?

Starke

9 They became Sunni Muslims in the 14th century and are now an autonomous republic with its capital at Kazan on the Volga. For 10 pts. who are these descendants of the Golden Horde.

ANS. Tatars or Tartars

10 Later this year, he will make his first film, playing Great Train Robber Buster Edwards, but it is not his first experience with acting. He played the Artful Dodger in Oliver! as a child actor and recently made a guest appearance on Miami Vice. For ten points, name this superstar drummer and singer.

Phil Collins

11 The Armies of the Night, The Naked and the Dead and Executioner's Song were all written, for 10 points, by which American author?

ans: Norman Mailer.

12 Parent...opening...finale...child...~~Marquis~~...canyon...Am...piano.
For ten points, what five-letter word frequently precedes all of these?
Grand

13 Claude Monet, Harry Houdini and Rudolph Valentino died, A.A. Milne publishes "Winnie the Pooh" and Hirohito becomes Emperor. For 10 points all in what year? Sinclair Lewis refuses the Pulitzer Prize

ans: 1926

14 The flags of the nations of the world may differ in the colors or symbols they use but they have one thing in common, that is they are rectangular in shape. There is, however, one country that is different. Its two triangles appear as mountains turned 90 degrees. For 10 points name this Asian nation.

ans: Nepal.

15 Ethane is subjected to a high temperature and cracking occurs. For ten points, which of the following is a possible product?

- a.) ethanol
- * b.) ethene
- c.) ethanoic acid

16 In 1954 he threw British military forces out of Egypt, in 1956 he seized the Suez Canal and in 1952 he overthrew King Farouk. For ten points, name this man.

Gamal Nasser

17 There are 12 zodiac signs, for 10 points which one is not a living creature?

ans: Libra.

18 While recuperating from a severe battle wound in his legs, he studied the life of Christ and decided to give up his military career. Following a year in seclusion, he began his work on Spiritual Exercises, his masterpiece. For 10 pts. identify this founder of the ecclesiastical version of the "Green Berets."

ANS. Ignatius Loyola

19 He won the light heavyweight crown in 1952 over Joey Maxim and held it until he was stripped of the title in the early 60's. For 10 pts. identify this oldest man ever to hold a world boxing title.

ANS. Archie Moore

20 Its basic features were a rounded arch over the nave, stone vaults in the ceiling and thick heavy walls. For 10 pts. identify this type of architecture which prevailed throughout Europe from the mid-11th to the mid-12th century.

ANS. Romanesque

21 He was called the Greatest American Shakespearean actor of the Nineteenth Century. He played Hamlet in England, but his Richard the Third was considered his finest role. For 10 points name this brother of an equally famous assassin.

ans: Edwin Booth.

Margrethe I ruled this Scandinavian nation in the 1300's but was not crowned queen because there was no female right of succession. For ten points, name this NATO Member nation now ruled by Queen Margrethe II.
Denmark

20 points

For ten points each, name these two former White House press secretaries

1. Press Secretary to John Kennedy, this journalist now works as a correspondent for ABC news overseas

Pierre Salinger

2. Perhaps better known for his television work than for his political career, this press secretary to Lyndon Johnson had his own series on PBS several years ago, A Walk Through the Twentieth Century.

Bill Moyers

30 points

You'll get fifteen points for naming four, twenty points for naming six, and thirty points if you can name the seven basic units in the International System of Units.

meter, second, kilogram, Kelvin,
ampere, candela, mole

~~20~~

20 points

For ~~15~~ points each, name these musical groups:

1. They are named for a priestess from the 1960's Star Trek series.

T'Pol

2. They are named for the villain in Barbarella.

Duran Duran

Many famous fathers and sons shared the same name and it becomes confusing as to who created what work. I will give you the name of a famous father-son combination and a major work, you tell me if the father or the son is the creator.

1. Alexandre Dumas Camille

ans: son

2. Johann Strauss Radetzky March

ans: father

In France from 1587 to 1588 a war was fought by three factions each wanting to be king. The War of the Three Henrys was aptly named because each leader was named Henry. For 10 points each:

1. Give the House of which Henry III was last king.

ans: Valois

2. The Title of the Henry who led the Catholic faction.

ans: The Duke of Guisse

3. The Henry who led the Huguenots

Henry IV of Bourbon

or II

We have all read or saw Alice in Wonderland. In the croquet scene, for 10 points each, what animals were used as the mallets and the balls.

ans: flamingos and hedgehogs.

30 points

Thirty points after the first clue, twenty after the second, ten if it takes all three. Identify this US president:

- 1) Repealed the Sherman Silver Purchase Act
- 2) Lost popularity by turning away Coxey's army and using Federal Troops to end the Pullman Strike
- 3) In 1896, the Democratic party turned against his faction and nominated William J. Bryan for the Presidency

Grover Cleveland

With recent release of Vietnam War movies alot of names have resurfaced dealing with the war. Let's test your memories with these names from the past.

1. The last President of South Vietnam ans: Nguyen Van Thieu.
2. The military commander of North Vietnam's army ans: VO Nguyen

Giap

BONUS 25 PTS. A 10 gram sample of a hydrate was heated until all the water of hydration was driven off. The mass of the anhydrous product remaining was 8 grams. Assuming the weight of water equals two grams, what is the percent of water in the hydrate?

ANS. 20%

BONUS 25 PTS. Each month Harper's publishes a fascinating index of unusual and odd statistics. For 5 pts. each answer these questions.

1. In how many states is it legal to drink while driving: zero, five, or fourteen?

ANS. Fourteen

2. What is the percentage of American children who live with both their biological parents: 48%, 68%, or 85%?

ANS. 68%

3. What is the average amount of gas a cow belches each day (in cubic feet): 35, 70 or 115?

ANS. 35

4. What is the percentage of American men who say they sleep in the nude: 19%, 30% or 45%?

ANS. 19% (only 6% of women do)

5. What percentage of Americans regularly attend church services: 28%, 42%, or 61%?

ANS. 42%

30 points

The Norris Division of the National Hockey League includes three teams with colors in their names. For ten points each, name them.

St. Louis Blues

Chicago Black Hawks

Detroit Red Wings

25 points

He proposed the 14th amendment to the Constitution and was a staunch anti-slavery politician from Vermont. For twenty-five points, name this man who, with Charlie Sumner, led the impeachment of Andrew Johnson.

Thaddeus Stevens

The recent nomination of Robert Bork to the Supreme Court have some people thinking that the Court will have eight members when it convenes in October. In 1969 Richard Nixon nominated two men to the Court that were rejected before the ninth justice was seated. For 10 points each name these three men.

ans: Clement F. Haynsworth, G. Harrold Carswell (both rejected) and Harry A. Blackmun.

For many years Disney was associated with RKO Pictorys. In the fifties he started his own distribution company for his live action documentaries and in the eighties a company to distribute more mature films. For 10 points apiece name these two companies.

ans: Buena Vista and Touchstone.

Bonus 30-20-10 Identify this playwright from a list of his works

- 1) All God's Chillun Got Wings
- 2) A Moon for the Misbegotten
- 3) Strange Interlude

Ans. Eugene O'Neill

25 points

Identify the opera: Alfredo Germoust takes the partying courtesan Violetta to the country as his wife. Alfredo's father persuades her to return to the city and Alfredo insults her at a ball. Alfredo learns of his mistake and returns to Violetta but she dies in his arms. For thirty points, name this Verdi opera.

La Traviata

James Wilson, Robert Morris, George Clymer, Roger Sherman and Ben Franklin were the only men to do it. For 20 points at what two events were these men participates in.

ans: Signing both The Declaration of Independence and The Constitution.

Of the 10 largest cities in the United States only two are within 100 miles of each other. For 20 points, all or nothing, name those two cities.

ans: Philadelphia and New York City (N.Y. or equivalent acceptable)

The times they are a'changing. In 1968 during the Democratic Convention all types of protesters decended on Chicago. In the ensuing melee charges were brought against eight men for inciting the crowds to riot. You will earn 10 points for naming 4 of the Chicago 8 and an additional 5 points for each of the other four.

ans: Jerry Rubin, Abbie Hoffman, Rennie Davis, Tom Hayden, David Dellinger, Bobby Seale, Lee Weiner and John R. Froines.

In the history of the United States only one president, Richard Nixon, has resigned his office. There is a procedure for doing it that must be followed. According to the U.S. Code Title 3, section 20 to what appointed official does the president tender his resignation.

ans: The Secretary of State.