

1. He became famous for a series on Indiana life written under the name Benjamin F. Johnson of Boone. For 10 pts. name this poet called "the poet of the common people" and "the Hoosier poet."

ANS. James Whitcomb Riley

2. He was instrumental in the study of artificial intelligence and helped develop the computer. However, he is best known for breaking the "Enigma" Code. For 10 pts. who is he?

ANS. Alan Turing

3. In 1968, he was appointed chief justice by Lyndon Johnson. His confirmation was blocked by a Senate filibuster and the revelation of outside financial investments caused him to withdraw his candidacy and resign from the court. For 10 pts. who was this jurist?

ANS. Abe Fortas

4. They usually appear on the landscape as parallel ranges of low hills with the surfaces marked by depressions and lakes with irregular drainage. They are technically any masses carried and deposited by glaciers. For 10 pts. what are they?

ANS. Moraines

5. Invented by Earle Dickson to treat his accident prone wife who continuously cut and burned herself in the kitchen, this first-aid product was promoted by Johnson & Johnson in the 1920's who distributed it to Boy Scouts and butchers. For 10 pts. what is this popular dressing?

ANS. Band-Aid

6. His return to Athens after its defeat is treated incidentally in Timon of Athens. He appears in both the Phaedo and the Symposium, and is caricatured in The Clouds. An Athenian general, he sold out Athens to Sparta. For 10 pts. name him.

ANS. Alcibiades

7. It is the practical unit for the coefficient of viscosity. It is a easy self-possessed assurance of manner, and it is the act of balancing an object or holding it in equilibrium. For 10 pts. what word fits all of these descriptions?

ANS. Poise

8. He was private secretary to W.G. Hamilton, Secretary for Ireland, and entered Parliament in 1766. Although he never joined a political party because he sought objectivity, he did oppose the reforms of the French Revolution. For 10 pts. name this author of Reflections on the French Revolution.

ANS. Edmund Burke

9. In 1981, Marguerite Yourcenar became its 1st woman member. Headquartered since 1805 in the Palais Mazarin, it was established in 1635 at the urging of Cardinal Richelieu. For 10 pts. identify this 40 member body of French literary figures.

ANS. Academie Francaise or The French Academy

10. The earliest author to describe it is Ctesias. When James VI of Scotland came to the English throne, it supplanted the red dragon as one of the supporters of the English shield. In Through the Looking Glass, Carroll describes a battle between one and a lion. For 10 pts. name this mythical animal?

ANS. Unicorn

11. The Greek goddess of the rainbow, she served as messenger for the gods at times of discord. For 10 pts. name this goddess who has lent her name to a part of the eye.

ANS. Iris

12. One of the oldest sciences in the world, it has as its mission to determine the size and shape of the earth and strives to carry out the measurements and computations to make accurate and reliable surface maps of the earth. For 10 pts. what is this science?

ANS. Geodesy

13. He embarked in the 1950's on a trilogy which consisted of The Song of the Road, The Unvanquished, and The World of Apu. Working in Bengali, his films succeeded in part because of the international acclaim they achieved. For 10 pts. name this Indian filmmaker.

ANS. Satyajit Ray

14. A former Presbyterian preacher, he invented a vegetable diet and launched the first widely successful health food campaign in the U.S. Because of his advocacy of unsifted whole wheat flour, his name has now become synonymous with such flour and a popular cracker made from it. For 10 pts. who was this reformer?

ANS. Sylvester Graham

15. Its tidal bore and high tides are responsible for the reversing falls of the St. John River. For 10 pts. name this inland bay of the Atlantic located between New Brunswick and Nova Scotia.

ANS. Bay of Fundy

16. Subtitled, or, The Mistakes of the Night, it concerns bashful young Marlow's wooing of Miss Hardcastle. For 10 pts. name this comedy of manners by Oliver Goldsmith.

ANS. She Stoops to Conquer

17. Designed by William Van Alen and briefly the tallest building in the world, it is considered in some circles to be the most "classic" skyscraper ever built. For 10 pts. what is this New York structure, the finest example of the Art Deco style?

ANS. The Chrysler Building

18. Usually yellow in color, it is two-lobes, each containing two pollen sacs within which are numerous pollen grains which are released when it ruptures. For 10 pts. identify this upper part of a plant stamen.

ANS. Anther

19. He died of a stroke during an uprising against him in 1872. Earlier in his career, he spent two years in New Orleans gaining American support against Santa Anna. For 10 pts. name this Mexican statesman.

ANS. Benito Juarez

20. Classically they have three functions: to discharge into the air stream the desired amount of fuel, to atomize the fuel, and to make a homogeneous air fuel mixture. For 10 pts. what is this device that forms an explosive mixture of air and liquid fuel?

ANS. Carburetor

21. Minamoto Yoritomo first used this title as a basis for asserting military and political authority. In 1192, there were three lines, the Yoritomo, the Ashikaga, and the Tokugawa. For 10 pts. what is this title?

ANS. Shogun or Shogunate

1. BONUS 30 PTS.

For 15 pts. each, identify these two leading 20th century anthropologists.

1. He stressed the importance of internal linguistic structure and pioneered the use of statistical methods in anthropology. His works include The Mind of Primitive Man and Race, Language, and Culture.

ANS. Franz Boaz

2. This French anthropologist promoted structuralist theory and his work has had a tremendous impact on the study of linguistic and social science. His works include Structural Anthropology and The Savage Mind.

ANS. Claude Levi-Strauss

2. BONUS 30 PTS.

The Renaissance saw the rebirth of man's interest in himself and the flowering of humanism. For 10 pts. each, identify the authors of these Renaissance works.

1. Oration on the Dignity of Man
2. Education of a Christian Prince
3. The Discourses of Livy

ANS. Pico of Mirandola

ANS. Erasmus

ANS. Machiavelli

3. BONUS 25 PTS.

The four fundamental forces are the strong nuclear, weak nuclear, gravitational, and electromagnetic. Given a description, tell which of the forces it applies to, 5 pts. each.

1. Only one of the four forces affects all particles without exceptions, name it

ANS. Gravitational

2. This force is carried by the photon.

ANS. Electromagnetic

3. It is transmitted by mesons, but recent research now questions whether it is actually a basic force.

ANS. Strong Nuclear

4. The theoretical particle that carries the weak force has not yet been discovered, but likely will be name what?

ANS. Intermediate Vector Boson or W Particle

5. What is the theoretical particle which carries gravitational forces?

ANS. Graviton

4. BONUS 30 PTS.

Identify this English monarch, 30-20-10.

1. Modern historians believe he may have been an albino. It would explain his lack of energy as a ruler and also why few took him seriously in his attempts to rise to the throne.
2. His brother Edmund II refused to give him a claim to the throne and gave it instead to Canute.
3. He was canonized in the 12th century.

ANS. Edward the Confessor

5. BONUS 25 PTS.

He was a recognized expert of Scottish history and on myth and folklore and was one of the most influential journalists of the 19th century. For 25 pts. who was this man, best known for his collection of fairy tales in the Blue, Red, Green, and Yellow Fairy Tale Books.

ANS. Andrew Lang

6. BONUS 25 PTS.

You get tickets to the Metropolitan opera, but you don't know what's playing. You get there late, just as the singer is performing an aria. From the description given, impress your date by telling him/her what the opera is, 5 pts. for each correct.

1. A soprano sings "Vissi d'arte" (I lived for art) as a wicked police chief menaces her. ANS. Tosca
2. A tragic priestess sings "Casta diva" (Chaste goddess) while invoking the moon. ANS. Norma
3. A young knight sings of himself and his origins to a king and his court in the aria "In Fernem Lande" (in a faraway land). ANS. Lohengrin
4. A sensitive, poetic artist notices his neighbor is ill and sings "Che gelida manina" (your little hand is frozen). ANS. La Boheme
5. Two people eavesdrop on a nobelman singing about his opinion of the female sex, "La donna e mobile" (a woman's faithfulness). ANS. Rigoletto

7. BONUS 20 PTS.

Identify the international organization from a short list of members, 5 pt each.

1. Austria, Switzerland, Norway, and Iceland. ANS. European Free Trade Association (EFTA)
2. Ecuador, Gabon, and Venezuela ANS. OPEC
3. Bulgaria, Hungary, Poland, and the USSR ANS. Warsaw Pact
4. Brunei, Malaysia, Indonesia, and Thailand ANS. ASEAN or Association of Southeast Asian Nations

8. BONUS 30 PTS.

Identify the biologist from a description, 10 pts. each.

1. A Belgian, he became professor of anatomy at Padua. In 1543, he published the first scientific treatise on human anatomy. ANS. Andreas Vesalius
2. The founder of experimental physiology, this Frenchman discovered nervous control of blood pressure and the digestive functions of the pancreas. ANS. Claude Bernard
3. A Dutch botanist, he was founder of the mutation theory of evolution. ANS. Hugo DeVries

9. BONUS 30 PTS.

Moby Dick is subtitled or, The White Whale. Given a subtitle of another Melville novel, identify it, 5 pts. each, 5 pt. bonus for all correct

1. A Peep at Polynesian Life ANS. Typee
2. Narrative of Adventures in the South Seas ANS. Omoo
3. Foretopman ANS. Billy Budd
4. Life in a Man-of-War ANS. White Jacket
5. The Ambiguities ANS. Pierre

10. BONUS 25 PTS.

Founded in the swampy forest of Citeaux, they exemplified the monastic reforming spirit of the 12th century. They avoided all involvement with the secular world, cleared swamps and fens for farming, and lived a simple, isolated, austere life. For 25 pts. identify this monastic order.

ANS. Cistercians

11. BONUS 25 PTS.

I am going to list a literary figure, and a film in which the author appeared. For 5 pts. each, identify the actor who portrayed them.

- | | |
|--|---------------------|
| 1. Eugene O'Neill in Reds | ANS. Jack Nicholson |
| 2. Dashiell Hammett in Julia | ANS. Jason Robards |
| 3. F. Scott Fitzgerald in Beloved Infidel | ANS. Gregory Peck |
| 4. Emile Zola in The Life of Emile Zola | ANS. Paul Muni |
| 5. Thomas More in A Man for All Seasons | ANS. Paul Scofield |

12. BONUS 30 PTS.

Greek mythology is replete with the amorous adventures of Zeus, but what of his brother Poseiden? Given a lover of Poseiden, name their famous offspring, 10 pts. each.

- | | |
|-------------|----------------------------|
| 1. Aethra | ANS. Theseus |
| 2. Eurynome | ANS. Bellerephon or Asopas |
| 3. Medusa | ANS. Pegasus or Chrysaor |

13. BONUS 30 PTS.

Identify this author, 30-20-10.

1. As a critic, he defined the "dissociation of sensibility" to explain the 17th century break he said had occurred in the English mind.
2. As editor of Faber's, he promoted such poets as Auden, Pound, and Sassoon.
3. His family was descended from religious communalists who lived near Nicholas Ferrar in Little Gidding.

ANS. T.S. Eliot

14. BONUS 25 PTS.

A gate in a computer is a simple piece of circuitry that has two input wires and one output wire. There are 5 types. I'll describe them, you name them for 5 pts. each.

1. It produces an output if it receives a pulse on either input wire.
ANS. Or
2. It produces an output only when it does not receive a pulse.
ANS. Nor
3. It produces an output only if pulses are sent through both input wires at the same time.
ANS. And
4. It supplies an output unless it receives a pulse on both input wires.
ANS. Nand
5. It has only one input and the output is always the opposite of the input. It is also called an inverter.
ANS. Not

15. BONUS 20 PTS.

The question of slavery was a political volleyball in Antebellum politics. For 10 pts. each answer these questions about it.

1. This 1836 rule adopted by Congress automatically tabled abolitionist petitions, thus effectively preventing debate of the issue.
ANS. Gag Rule
2. This 1846 amendment to a military appropriations bill failed to pass Congress, but served as a rallying cry for Free-soilers.
ANS. Wilmot Proviso

16. BONUS 30 PTS.

The Pulitzer Prize in history doesn't always go to the most deserving book or to one that has made an important contribution to the field. However, these three winners are still considered seminal works in the field. Given the title, and the year it won, identify its author, 10 pts. each.

1. The Ideological Origins of the American Revolution, 1966

ANS. Bernard Bailyn

2. The Age of Reform 1956 ANS. Richard Hofstadter

3. The Uprooted, 1952 ANS. Oscar Handlin

17. BONUS 30 PTS.

For 10 pts. each, identify the 20th century theologian who penned these works.

1. Seven Storey Mountain ANS. Thomas Merton

2. I and Thou ANS. Martin Buber

3. Moral Man and Immoral Society ANS. Reinhold Niebuhr

18. BONUS 25 PTS.

Given a list of islands in the Caribbean, arrange them from North to South, 5 pts. each. They are: Barbados; Montserrat; Grenada; Anguilla; and Martinique.

- ANS. 1. Anguilla 2. Montserrat 3. Martinique 4. Barbados
5. Grenada

19. BONUS 20 PTS.

Gulag is the word for the Russian labor camps. For 10 pts. each tell what Russian word is used to describe these.

1. Russian for fist, the term was used to designate independent yeoman farmers and peasants.

ANS. Kulaks

2. It is the name for Russian communal villages. ANS. Mir

20. BONUS 30 PTS.

Identify this building, 30-20-10.

1. It was designed by Juan Bautistade Toledo and Juande Herrera.

2. It is in the shape of a gridiron to commemorate St. Lawrence's day, because he was martyred on a gridiron.

3. Near Madrid, it now houses a famous art Collection.

ANS. Escorial