

Round 7 1991

University of Minnesota
College Bowl Invitational
November 10 & 11, 1989

Questions - College of St. Thomas/Team #1

TOSS-UPS

1) The United States has produced many fast jets such as the F-86, F-104, and the F-16. But the fastest of all is the SR-71 Blackbird. For 10 points, what metal enables this jet to fly without collapsing.

A: Titanium

2) This language possesses the 5 vowels of English, but no Q, X, W or Y. It has sixteen rules of grammar and no indefinite article. For 10 points, name this language.

A: Esperanto

3) If you have noodles, mibs, and ducks on hand, you will also have a reeler. For 10 points, give the more common names for these objects.

A: Marbles

4) If you have agoraphobia, you probably won't leave the house. If you have hematophobia, you don't like blood. For 10 points, what do you fear if you suffer from triskadekaphobia?

A: The number thirteen

5) You might want to take out pencil and paper for this one. To determine I.Q., one divides mental age by chronological age and multiplies by 100. For 10 points, if the mental age is 10 and the chronological age is 8, what is the I.Q.?

A: 125 ($10/8 * 100 = 1.25 * 100$)

6) B.F. Skinner is associated with Behaviorism and Karl Lorenz is associated with imprinting. For 10 points, with what school of psychology is Fritz Perls associated?

A: Gestalt Therapy

7) The Western Cwm (koom), the Lhotse Face, the South Col, the Yellow Band, the Nuptse Wall, and the Khumber Icefall are all features of what geological marvel?

A: Mt. Everest

8) For 10 points, name the imported automobile model whose name is a palindrome.

A: Civic

9) For 10 points, name the Nobel Prize Category in which the U.S. has won 60% of all Nobel Prizes awarded.

A: Economics

10) For 10 points, name the first woman to receive the American Film Institute's Lifetime Achievement Award.

A: Bette Davis

11) If one has a frog in one's throat, one speaks in a raspy voice. For 10 points, spell the location of this frog.

A: L-A-R-Y-N-X

12) Although women and minorities are making political progress, there is still a long way to go. For 10 points, name the only black U.S. Senator in the 20th Century.

A: Edward Brooke (Rep. - Massachusetts)

Half

13) This is a pencil-pusher question. For 10 points, give me the number obtained when you multiply the humps on a Bactrian camel by the number of engines on a B-52 bomber.

A: 16 ($2 * 8$)

14) Jean Benoit, Mary Decker Slaney, and Zola Budd are all fine female runners. For 10 points, name the native country of marathon runner Grete Waitz (VIETZ).

A: Norway

15) Eugene O'Neill, Pearl S. Buck and Julius Axelrod were all Noble Prize winners. For 10 points, name the woman who won the 1979 Nobel Peace Prize.

A: Mother Teresa

16) Brian Boitano, Olga Korbut, and Jean Claude Killy are all Olympic gold medal winners. For 10 points, name the gold medal winner of the broad jump in the 1936 Olympics.

A: Jessie Owens

17) Chernobyl is the greatest nuclear catastrophe of the decade. For 10 points, name the first person whose death was linked to radiation poisoning.

A: Marie Curie (Need both names)

18) This educator initially began her career working with retarded children. Today, her theories are widely respected and many schools bear her name. For 10 points, who is she?

A: Maria Montessori

19) The Battle of the Ironclads took place in 1862. For 10 points, name the ironclad ship of the Confederate army.

A: Merrimack

20) This Philadelphia socialite emigrated to Paris and became a member of the French Impressionist group. For 10 points, who is she?

A: Mary Cassatt

21) Founded in 1894, this company first engaged in producing and selling horse and mule feeds. It is now the world's largest producer of pet foods and commercial feeds for livestock and its headquarters are on Checkerboard Square in St. Louis. For 10 points, name it.

A: Ralston Purina

22) The son of Xanthippus, this Athenian statesman was largely responsible for the development of Athenian Democracy and the establishment of the Athenian Empire. But he is probably best known for his construction of the Acropolis in 447 B.C. Name him.

A: Pericles

23) This French novelist and essayist had a lifelong association with Jean Paul Sartre. Who is best known for her treatise "The Second Sex"?

A: Simon de Beauvoir

24) Originally based upon the effect of wind on a full rigged Man-of-War, this scale became mandatory for all log entries of the British Royal Navy in 1838. For 10 points, name it.

A: Beaufort Wind Force Scale

25) Name the only U.S. President to also serve as Chief Justice of the U.S. Supreme Court.

A: William Howard Taft

26) In 1962, Gregory Peck received the Academy Award as best actor for his portrayal of Atticus Finch in To Kill a Mockingbird. For 10 points, who wrote the novel on which the movie was based?

A: Harper Lee

27) Don Budge won the tennis "Grand Slam", Adolf Hitler annexed Austria, and Superman first appeared in Action Comics. This all happened in what year?

A: 1938

28) Born in 1756, he became the third vice president of the United States. He is perhaps best known for the July 11, 1804 duel in which he slew Alexander Hamilton. Name him.

A: Aaron Burr

29) The lowest paid governor in the United States is William Clinton, a Democrat from this southern state.

A: Arkansas

30) It's four vegetation belts are tundras, taiga, mixed forest belt, and steppes. It stretches from the Urals to the Pacific Ocean, and from the Arctic Ocean to Mongolia and Manchuria. What is this region of the Soviet Union?

A: Siberia

Bonuses

1) 30 points. Place these three events in the proper chronological order for 30 points all or nothing. The Scopes trial, The passage of the Social Security Act, and the St. Valentines Day Massacre.

A: Scopes trial (1925)
St. Valentines Day Massacre (1929)
Social Security Act (1935)

2) 20 points. For ten points each, name the countries that marched first and last at the 1988 Winter Olympics.

A: Greece (always first) & Canada (host country; always last)

3) 25 points. Name the three Fundamental Documents signed in Philadelphia's Independence Hall. You will receive 5 points for each one named and an additional 10 points for placing them in correct chronological order.

A: Declaration of Indepence (1776)
Articles of Confederation (1781)
U.S. Constitution (1787)

4) 25 points. For five points each, name each country that borders Iran.

A: Iraq, USSR, Turkey, Afghanistan, Pakistan

5) 20 points. For a twenty point bonus, name the five consecutive months whose first letters spell a man's name.

A: July, August, September, October, November (JASON)

6) 20 points. You will receive five points for each of the original four Ivy League colleges that you can name.

A: Harvard, Yale, Princeton, Columbia

7) 20 points. You will receive ten points each for naming the two states that contain the endpoints of the Appalachian Trail.

A: Maine & Georgia

8) 20 points. You will receive a total of twenty points, ten points apiece, for naming both Old Testament books that contain the Ten Commandments.

A: Exodus & Deuteronomy

9) 25 points. You'll get ten points for naming one, or 25 points for naming both of Shakespeare's "Two Gentlemen of Verona".

A: Proteus & Valentine

10) 20 points. you'll get five points for correctly identifying the book, movie or TV show where these aunts belong.

Aunt Em:	The Wizard of Oz
Aunt Polly:	The Adventures of Tom Sawyer
Aunt Bea:	The Andy Griffith Show
Aunt Betsy Trotwood:	David Copperfield

11) 25 points. You will receive five points apiece, and an additional five for naming all four, for each Baseball Hall of Famer who hit 600 or more career homeruns that you can name.

A: Hank Aaron, Babe Ruth, Willie Mays, Josh Gibson

12) 20 points. You will receive 20 points, all or nothing, for naming the only three English words that end in "C-E-E-D".

A: EXCEED, PROCEED, SUCCEED

13) 20 points. You will receive 5 points apiece for correctly identifying the terms for these members of a horse family.

Father:	Sire or Stallion
Mother:	Dam or Mare
Son:	Colt
Daughter:	Filly

14) 25 points. You will receive five points for each state you can name which is bordered in part by the Missouri River.

A: Missouri, Kansas, Nebraska, Iowa, South Dakota

15) 30 points. For ten points each name the year in which:

- 1) The League of Nations was established. 1920
- 2) Franklin Pierce became President of the United States. 1853
- 3) The Spanish Civil War ended. 1939

16) 30 points. You will receive ten points apiece for each woman you correctly identify.

1) One of the earliest advocates of education for women, this New Yorker founded the Troy Female Seminary. Emma Willard

2) This abolitionist/feminist is credited with beginning the American Woman's Suffrage Movement. Elizabeth Cady Stanton

3) This woman opened America's first birth control clinic. Margaret Sanger

17) 25 points. You will receive five points for each correctly identified Constitutional Amendment.

6th Right to a speedy trial:
Freed the slaves:
13th
Women get voting rights:
19th
Senators chosen by popular vote:
17th
Repealed prohibition:
21st

18) 20 points. you will earn five points for each artist you correctly identify.

1) This Rhode Island portraitist is most famous for his painting of George Washington. Gilbert Stuart

2) This sculptor is responsible for Mt. rushmore. Gutzon Borglum

3) This painter created "American Gothic". Grant Wood

4) This Spaniard was credited with much of the design for Luis Bunuel's landmark film "Un Chien Andalou". Salvador Dali

19) 30 points. For ten points each, name the authors of the following recent bestsellers:

- | | |
|------------------------|----------------------|
| 1) Billy Bathgate | E.L. Doctorow |
| 2) Libra | Don DeLillo |
| 3) Foucault's Pendulum | Umberto Eco |

20) 20 points. For twenty points which is the longest distance: New York to Hamburg, New York to Copenhagen, or New York to Naples.

A: New York to Naples

21) 30 points. Invented in 1839, it consisted of a picture being made on a silver surface sensitized with iodine and developed by exposure to mercury vapor. For 15 points, name this photographic technique, and for an extra fifteen points, give the correct spelling.

A: Daguerreotype. D-A-G-U-E-R-R-E-O-T-Y-P-E

22) 25 points. You will receive five points for each American female musician, author, or artist correctly identified.

- 1) A blues singer whose nickname was "Lady Day". Billie Holliday
- 2) Author of I Know Why the Caged Bird Sings. Maya Angelou
- 3) This singer's real name was Ethel Gumm. Judy Garland
- 4) This painter married Alfred Stieglitz. Georgia O'Keefe
- 5) This woman wrote The Feminine Mystique. Betty Friedan

23) 30 points. Name this state after one clue for thirty points, two clues for twenty points, and ten points if it takes all three.

- 1) It is the tenth most populous state in the U.S.
- 2) Virginia Dare was born there on August 18, 1587.
- 3) Presidents Andrew Jackson, James Polk, and Andrew Johnson were also born in this southern state.

A: North Carolina

24) 25 points. Five points are yours for naming each of the five European countries with the highest suicide rates.

A: Hungary, Austria, Switzerland, Denmark, West Germany

25) 20 points. Katherine Hepburn has won four Academy Awards for Best Actress. For five points each, name the four films for which she was honored.

A: Morning Glory (1933)
Guess Who's Coming to Dinner (1967)
The Lion in Winter (1968)
On Golden Pond (1981)

26) 30 points. For five points each, name the capitals of the following countries:

1) Taiwan	Taipei
2) Nepal	Katmandu
3) Jordan	Amman
4) Uganda	Kampala
5) Finland	Helsinki
6) Afghanistan	Kabul

27) 20 points. For five points each, name the four golfers who have won all four current Grand Slam events during their professional careers.

A: Gene Sarazen, Ben Hogan, Jack Nicklaus, Gary Player

28) 25 points. For five points each, name the five events which make up the military pentathlon.

A: 600 meter equestrian steeplechase, epee fencing, pistol shooting,
300 meter freestyle swim, 4000 meter cross country run

29) 25 points. I will give you a person's name and year, and you will receive 5 points for correctly identifying the categories in which these people won Nobel Prizes.

- | | |
|----------------------------|-------------------|
| 1) Gerhart Hauptmann, 1912 | Literature |
| 2) W.C. Roentgen, 1901 | Physics |
| 3) J.V. Jensen, 1944 | Literature |
| 4) Frank B. Kellogg, 1929 | Peace |
| 5) Hideki Yukawa, 1949 | Physics |

30) 30 points. I will give you the names of works by the Mann family of Literature, you identify the Mann.

- | | |
|-------------------|----------------------|
| 1) Buddenbrooks | Thomas Mann |
| 2) The Blue Angel | Heinrich Mann |
| 3) Turning Point | Klaus Mann |