

10 POINT TOSS-UPS -- BELOIT COLLEGE B

1. Yale professor Hiram Bingham discovered Macchu Picchu in the Peruvian highlands while he was actually searching for another Incan site. For 10 points, which site was Professor Bingham actually looking for?

VILCABAMBA

2. The 1925 "Scopes Monkey Trial" was precipitated when biology teacher John Scopes read to his students from a certain textbook. For 10 points, what was the title of this volume?

CIVIC BIOLOGY

3. The Self-Pasting Scrapbook of blank pages coated with a gum veneer was never on the best-seller lists. For 10 points, it was the creation of what American writer better known for other best-sellers, which contained few, if any blank pages?

MARK TWAIN (OR SAMUEL CLEMENS)

4. Few distinctions are accorded to Hollywood's so-called "B-movies" but one, Bwana Devil was a Hollywood first. For 10 points, what technical process was first introduced to movie audiences in this 1952 production?

3-D

5. In this day of long-windedness from Washington, it is refreshing to think that at one time, inaugural addresses were as short as 135 words. For 10 points, which U.S. president's second inaugural address was this length?

GEORGE WASHINGTON

6. This American literary classic originally published about 90 years ago, was published in Russia fifty years ago as Volshebnik Izumrudnovo Goroda. For 10 points, what is its full American title?

THE WONDERFUL WIZARD OF OZ (do not accept Wizard of Oz)

7. Henry Ford is considered one of America's inventive geniuses. Always aware of potential uses for scrap and waste, he invented a product from the scrap wood left over from the manufacture of the Model T. This product today is a staple at picnics and barbecues. For 10 points, what is this product?

CHARCOAL BRIQUETS

8. Try not to get mixed up on this, but Thomas Edison, General George Patton, Albert Einstein and Leonardo DaVinci were all sufferers of the same malady. For 10 points, what was this affliction?

DYSLEXIA

9. James Brudenell led his men "into the valley of death" in the Crimean War's "Charge of the Light Brigade." Lord Brudenell is also the namesake for an article of clothing. For 10 points, what?

CARDIGAN SWEATER (host's note: Lord Brudenell is also the seventh Earl of of Cardigan. DO NOT ACCEPT raglan sleeves; Lord Raglan, also at the battle, was someone else.)

10. For a quick 10 points, of the world's seven continents, which has no glaciers?

AUSTRALIA

11. The derivation of the name "chop suey" is uncertain, but folk etymology translates it as "everything plus the kitchen sink". For 10 points, "little worms" is the unappetizing translation of what type of pasta?

VERMICELLI

12. Had he not chosen his stepfather's name, this 20th century commander-in-chief would have been known as President King. For 10 points, by which name do we know him?

GERALD FORD

13. Isaac Asimov's Foundation series introduced psychohistory as an academic discipline. Who is the foremost student of this subject and hero of the Foundation series?

HARI SELDON

14. This playwright has injected humor into the usually somber mystery genre with such productions as "Sherlock's Last Case" "Ah Sweet Mystery of Life" and "Clever Dick". for 10 points, who is he?

CHARLES MAROWITZ

15. This Hibbing, Minnesota native has really made a name for himself in the music business. However, it is not his real name, Robert Zimmerman, that we know him by. By what name do we know him?

BOB DYLAN

16. Each planet in our solar system, with one exception, is somewhere between 1.3 and 2 times as far from the sun as the next nearer planet. What is the one exception?

JUPITER (which is 3.4 times as far from the sun as Mars)

17. Not all living things require food, at least in the organic sense. Plants live on CO₂, water and certain inorganic ions. Certain microorganisms also get along without any organic food, growing in environments in which there are no other living things. By what word, meaning "self-feeding" are they described?

AUTOTROPHIC

18. Bridge on the River Kwai, Lawrence of Arabia, Dr. Zhivago and A Passage to India have one thing in common, their director. For 10 points, name him.

DAVID LEAN

19. The newest member of the Supreme Court, Anthony Kennedy, was appointed by President Regan. For 10 points, who appointed the current justice who has been on the court the longest?

EISENHOWER appointed BRENNAN

20. It can be a summary of a book or article, or in real estate, a summary of the land records affecting a property. As a verb, it can mean to draw or take away. It can also refer to art presenting a schematic or generalized form, with, at best, an obscure resemblance to natural appearances. For 10 points, what's the word?

ABSTRACT

21. Oddly enough, patents and trademarks are handled by the U.S. Patent and Trademark office. For 10 points, what government entity handles processing of copyrights?

LIBRARY OF CONGRESS

22. For a quick 10 points, what novel by Thomas Mann concerns the life of the fictional composer Adrian Leverkühn?

DOCTOR FAUSTUS

23. Some first novels, like Steinbeck's, get lost in obscurity. Others, like Fitzgerald's, create quite a stir. For 10 points, what was F. Scott Fitzgerald's first published novel?

THIS SIDE OF PARADISE

24. Postal rates always seem to go up, but with the most recent postal rate change, the Express Mail service minimum rate actually went down from $10.75. For 10 points, what is the current rate for domestic express mail up to one-half pound?

TOSS-UPS -- continued

25. Miami is in Dade County and Chicago is in Cook County. For 10 points, in what county would you find Oakland, California and Berkeley?

ALAMEDA

BELOIT B

BONUS (points as indicated)

1. (30) Natural beauty is often the result of geological phenomena. For ten points each, what three national parks does the Continental Divide pass through?

Yellowstone, Glacier, and Rocky Mountain national parks

- (20) ~~Four state capitols are named after American presidents? For 5 points apiece, name them.~~
~~Jackson, MS; Jefferson City, MO; Lincoln, NE; and Madison, WI~~

2. (25) In April, 1964, five Beatles songs were at the top of the "Billboard Hot 100." For five points each, name them.

Can't Buy Me Love, Twist and Shout, She Loves You, I Want to Hold Your Hand, and Please Please Me

3. (20) Cassius Clay became Mohammed Ali. For ten points each, can you identify these famous sports figures who changed their names; from those originally given them?
Bobby Moore Ahmad Rashad
Cornelius McGillicuddy Connie Mack

- (25) ~~Within 1000, how many kernels of durum wheat are needed to make one pound of pasta?~~

16,500 (Accept 15,500 to 17,500)

4. (20) After making millions in industry, Andrew Carnegie became one of the world's leading philanthropists, creating libraries and providing for cultural activities. In 1906 he gave to Princeton University something to "take the young men's minds off football" a game he hated. What was this gift?
A 3½ mile long lake

5. (25) The King James, Revised Standard, and American Standard are all versions of the Bible. A version published in London in 1632 became known as the "Wicked Bible." For ten points, what word was omitted and for another ~~twenty five~~ fifteen points, from which of the ten commandments was it missing?
not and the seventh or, "Thou shalt commit adultery"

- (30) ~~A question sure to displease some in the audience, but, for ten points each, what would the Barbie doll's measurements be if she were life-size?~~

39 21 33

6. (20) Benjamin Franklin may have been America's more eclectic inventors, but the 19th century's Peter Cooper comes close. Inventor of the locomotive "Tom Thumb", Mr. Cooper also patented a food item in 1845. For 20 points, what was this food?

sweetened gelatin (later to become Jell-O in 1897)

BONUS

7. The Greek Olympian gods are perhaps too well known for College Bowl competition, so for 5 points apiece, name the following ancient Egyptian gods:

- (20)
1. He was the ibis-headed scribe of the gods Thoth
 2. He was the son of Isis and Osiris Horus
 3. He was the jackal-headed god of the dead Anubis
 4. He was the only god always depicted as completely human in form.
Ptah

8. Air superiority has helped determine the course of many a war. The Hawker Hurricane, Harrier, F-86 Sabre, and Fokker TR-3 were all combat aircraft used in war. For 25 points, all or nothing, arrange these four planes in chronological order of introduction.

Fokker TR-3, Hawker Hurricane, F-86 Sabre, and Harrier

9. For 10 points apiece, can you identify these television bosses (name the character, not the actor portraying him).

- (20)
1. His writing staff included Sally Rogers, Buddy Serrell, and Robert Petrie. His producer was Mel Cooley.
Alan Brady (The Dick Van Dyke Show)
 2. This partner in the advertising company supervised the work of account executive Darrin Stevens.
Larry Tate (Bewitched)

~~Drs. Kildare, Casey, and Welby were the lead characters in their respective T.V. series. For ten points each, can you name these other television doctors:~~

- (30)
1. He was the nemesis of captains (later majors) Tony Nelson and Roger Healey. Dr. Alfred Bellows
 2. His psychology practice often takes place in a Boston bar where "everybody knows your name." Dr. Fraser Crane
 3. His patients included the victims of Marshall Matt Dillon.
Dr. Milburn Stone

10.

- (20) 6 national flags have flown over Texas including the Spanish and American ones. For 5 points each, name the other four.

France, Mexico, the Republic of Texas, and The Confederacy

11. ~~For 20 points,~~

Who is the only academy award winning actor to have in his resume, a performance as a fig leaf in a "Fruit of the Loom" underwear commercial?

- (20) F. Murray Abraham (Best Actor, 1984 for Amadeus)

~~Not all West Point cadets enter military careers. For 15 points apiece, can you name these West Pointers: who went on to have successful careers in the arts.~~

- (30) 1. He is famous for his various "Studies in Black and/or White", including one associated with his mother.
James A.M. Whistler
2. This author's writings include "The Raven" and "The Fall of the House of Usher"
Edgar Allen Poe

12. Everyone knows that Abraham Lincoln was our tallest President (6'-4"). but for five points apiece, can you identify these chief executives

1. He was the shortest James Madison (5'-4")
2. He was the first born after the signing of the Declaration of Independence
Martin Van Buren
- (20) 3. He was the only man to be both President and Chief Justice of the Supreme Court. William Howard Taft
4. He had fifteen children John Tyler

13. Thirty points are yours for identifying this sport after the first clue, twenty points after the second, and ten after the third:

1. It was invented in Holyoke, Massachusetts in 1895.
- (30) 2. William George Morgan was the inventor and called it "mintonette."
3. It was played at the YMCA and used a basketball hit over a rope.
volleyball

14. Astronomical scale is barely imaginable. For example, it would take light travelling at 186,000 mi/sec. six hours to reach Pluto. For ten points each, answer the following celestial questions:

- (20)
1. Within 50,000, how many times larger is the sun than the earth?
330,330 (accept 280,330 to 380,330)
 2. Within 50 million miles, what is the distance travelled by the earth in its orbit around the sun?
585 million (accept 535 million to 635 million)

(20) 15. "Neither snow, nor rain, nor heat, nor gloom of night stays these couriers from the swift completion of their appointed rounds" is the famous quotation appearing on the front of the General Post Office in New York City. From whose writings, over two thousand years old, were these words adapted?

Herodotus

16. "Lord have mercy on my poor soul" were the dying words of Edgar Allan Poe. For ten points each, identify who said the following just before their deaths:

- (20)
1. "I am dying as I have lived, beyond my means." Oscar Wilde
 2. "A great artist dies in me." Nero
 3. ~~"Applaud, friends, the comedy is finished."~~ Ludwig van Beethoven

17. Thirty points are yours for naming this movie actress after the first clue, twenty after the second, or ten if it takes you all three clues.

1. Her leading men have included Bryan Brown, Mel Gibson, Bill Murray, and Harrison Ford.
2. Her movies include "Half-moon Street" and "Deal of the Century"
3. She just won a Golden Globe Award for her recent performance with simian co-stars.

(Sigourney Weaver)

(20) 18. American land purchases have included some real bargains. For ten points apiece

1. Approximately how much per acre did the Louisiana Purchase cost?
4¢
2. Approximately how much per acre was spent on Alaska when bought from Russia? 2¢

BONUS

19. Xenophobia is the fear of strangers. Can you identify these other phobias?

- | | |
|-------------------|--------------------------|
| 1. Thalassophobia | Fear of the ocean |
| 2. Nyctophobia | Fear of night |
| 3. Ailurophobia | Fear of cats |

20. In the Linnean system, humans are in the order of primates. In what order are the following other mammals, the correct answer for which you will receive 10 points each.

- | | |
|--|--------------------|
| 1. mice, rats, rabbits, squirrels, guinea pigs, beavers and porcupines | RODENTIA |
| 2. elephants | PROBOSCIDEA |

21. Identify the author of the following works, 30-20-10.

- (30/20/10) A. Raise the Roof Beam, Carpenter (sic)
B. Franny and Zooey
C. Catcher in the Rye

(J.D. Salinger)

22. The Roaring Twenties were interesting, if not action-packed. For 5 points each, give the year that each of the events occurred in the Roaring Twenties.

- | | |
|--|-------------|
| A. Coolidge is sworn in as President | 1923 |
| B. Albert B. Fall is indicted for conspiracy to defraud the government | 1924 |
| C. Albert B. Fall is CONVICTED of conspiracy to defraud the government | 1929 |
| D. Lon Chaney Sr.'s classic Phantom of the Opera is released. | 1925 |