

Quincy College A

T-1. His name today means "a person who inherits no land from his father." For ten points, identify this brother of Richard the Lionhearted, who eventually was forced to sign away his absolute power.

A. King John Lackland (Both names required)

T-2. For a quick ten points, name the American dramatist who penned The Children's Hour, Watch on the Rhine, and Toys in the Attic.

A. Lillian Hellman

T-3. The original definition of the word meant anything that could be counted or measured. It comes from the Latin work meaning "how much." For ten points, what is this scientific term?

A. quantum

T-4. He was on the Warren commission and proposed the "Magic Bullet" Theory. For ten points, name this public figure that was recently re-elected back to Congress by a narrow margin.

A. Arlen Specter (Senator ^{from} ~~from~~ Pennsylvania)

T-5. This religion, which originated in 1901 at Topeka, Kansas, was founded as a reaction to the loss of evangelical fervor among Methodists and other denominations. It is famous for its belief in the authority of individual, charismatic leaders. For ten points, identify this religion, home of the "holy rollers."

A. Pentecostal

T-6. What was the original name used by Paul Simon and Art Garfunkel for their Duet?

A. Tom and Jerry

T-7. Identify the first Turbojet Aircraft manufactured in the United States.

A. XP-59

T-8. This 20th Century American author was known for removing his clothes and climbing mulberry trees. For ten points, identify the controversial author of The Plumed Serpent and The Rainbow.

A. D. H. Lawrence

T-9. For a quick ten points, name two of the three scientists who discovered insulin.

A. Fredrick Banting, Charles Best, and JJR Macleod

T-10. This state is the home of such famous Americans as Maude Adams, Ezra Taft Benson, and John Moses Browning. Name this state, nicknamed the Beehive State.

A. Utah

T-11. What university was the alma mater of the television character Lieutenant Colonel Henry Blake?

A. University of Illinois

T-12. Identify the center fielder for the St. Louis Cardinals who in 1976 became the first baseball player to file for free agency and whose career was sacrificed as a result.

A. Curt Flood

T-13. The Dominican leader Raphael Trujillo is assassinated, the Alliance for Progress charter is signed by the United States and nineteen other nations, and West Side Story wins the oscar for best picture. For ten quick points, in what year did these events take place?

A. 1961

T-14. In 1798, a highly influential book was published in which the author suggested that the growth of population will increase faster than the growth of the food supply. The book was entitled An Essay on the Principle of Population as it Effects the Future Improvement of Society, and greatly influenced other authors such as Karl Marx and Charles Darwin. For ten points, name the author.

A. Thomas Malthus

T-15. It was invented at Bell Labs in 1947 by William B. Shockley, John Bardeen and Walter H. Brattain, and spurred the electronic revolution. For ten quick points, what is this invention?

A. transistor

T-16. For ten points, identify the supercontinent which is believed to have separated into today's continents.

A. Pangaea

T-17. What cornerstone of baroque music is a polyphonic composition based on one main theme called a subject?

A. fugue

T-18. Every good college bowl player knows the meaning of the Greek word cornucopia. For ten points, identify the word derived from the two Greek words meaning "in a curve of knowledge."

A. Encyclopedia

T-19. For ten points, name the first island to be landed upon and conquered by paratroopers. It was captured by the Germans during World War II.

A. Crete

T-20. It is perhaps the most misnamed trilogy in literary history. For ten points, identify this five-part "trilogy" by Douglas Adams.

A. The Hitchhiker's Guide to the Galaxy

T-21. For ten points, at what point do the Fahrenheit and Celsius scales intersect?

A. -40 degrees

T-22. As you know, the drinking age in the fifty states is twenty-one. For ten points, name the Supreme Court case which in practice established a national drinking age across America

A. South Dakota v. Dole

T-23. For a quick ten points, name the famous actress who is the only person to win an Oscar, Emmy, Grammy and Tony.

A. Rita Moreno

T-24. He was offered the position as commissioner of baseball, but he did not accept it. Had he taken the job, he would have been the only former vice-president of the United States to hold this position. For a quick ten points, who was he?

A. Richard Nixon

B-1. Identify this famous American, and receive 30 points after the first clue, 20 on the second and 10 on the third.

1. Graduated from the University of North Carolina in 1818 and served in Congress from 1825 to 1839.
2. As president of the United States, he reestablished an independent treasury system which had been established by Martin Van Buren.
3. His expansionist policies led to an declared war against Mexico, and a compromise on the Oregon Boundary.

A. James Polk

B-2. Answer the following six questions about this Shakespearean quote:

"O, _____, that has such people in it!"

1. The three missing words of the quote, which is also the name of a famous American novel.
2. The author of this novel.
3. The Shakespearean play this quote is taken, coincidentally the bard's last play.
4. The female speaker of these lines who falls in love with Ferdinand.
5. The name of the magician who creates a violent storm to seek revenge on his enemies.
6. The name of the spirit serpent who helps confound the shipwrecked enemies of the magician.

- A. 1. Brave New World
2. Aldous Huxley
3. The Tempest
4. Miranda
5. Prospero
6. Ariel

B-3. For five points apiece, identify the creator of the following inventions:

1. Frequency Modulation
2. Permanent Wave
3. Oral Contraceptive
4. Quick Frozen Foods
5. Nylon

- A. 1. Armstrong
2. Nessler
3. Pincus
4. Birdseye
5. Carothers

B-4. 30 points for answering correctly on the first clue, 20 on the second clue and 10 on the third clue.

1. This port city in East Central Africa located at 4 degrees latitude has become one of the largest on the continent.

2. This city has become the largest city in Kenya.

3. This city has received a great deal of media attention in recent months because it was the landing site of United States' planes and convoys sending food to Somalia.

A. Mombasa

B-5. Many of you may know the actors and actresses of the modern silver screen, but how much do you know about these actors and actresses in these classic movies? 5 points for each correct.

1. She played Joan Crawford's daughter in Mildred Pierce.

2. He played Vivian Leigh's father in Gone With the Wind.

3. She played Jimmy Stewart's wife in It's a Wonderful Life.

4. She played Greer Garson's daughter-in-law in Mrs. Minnever.

5. She played the title character in the 1947 version of The Farmer's Daughter.

- A. 1. Ann Blyth
2. Thomas Mitchell
3. Donna Reed
4. Teresa Wright
5. Loretta Young

B-6. Most of you use cliché's in everyday conversation, but can you identify, for five points apiece, the four-word clichés containing the name of an animal and defined as follows.

1. A person, usually of evil intent, who purports to be someone he is not.

2. A treacherous or unexpectedly threatening person.

3. What's up? What is next?

4. In a direct line.

5. Do something futile.

6. A tale that is not to be believed and probably is not meant to be believed.

- A. 1. Wolf in sheep's clothing
2. Snake in the grass
3. How now, brown cow

4. As the Crow Flies
5. Beat a dead horse
6. Cock and bull story

B-7. For five points apiece, name the person known for each quote.

1. "Turn on, tune in, drop out."
2. "Those who cannot remember the past are condemned to repeat it."
3. "Don't look back. Something may be gaining on you."
4. "I found Rome a city of bricks and left it a city of marble."

- A. 1. Timothy Leary
2. Santayana
3. Satchel Paige
4. Augustus (accept Octavian)

B-8. For ten points, name the famous Argentinean author of The Labyrinth. For an additional fifteen points, identify the Columbian author of One Hundred Years of Solitude.

- A. Jorge Luis Borges
Garcia Marquez

B-9. For an easy ten points each, identify the most common chemical compounds extracted from apricot pits. One is a deadly poison, while the other a wonder drug.

- A. Cyanide and Laetrile

B-10. In Statutory Hall of the Capital Building, each state is represented by a statue of a famous resident. For five points apiece, name the representative for each state given.

1. South Carolina
2. Hawaii
3. Kentucky
4. Indiana
5. Wisconsin

- A. 1. John Calhoun
2. Queen Liliuokalani
3. Henry Clay
4. Daniel Boone

5. Robert LaFollette

B-11. Most percussion instruments of the orchestra are struck by hand with sticks or with hammers. Some are shaken or rubbed. They are subdivided into instruments of definite or indefinite pitch depending on whether they produce a tone or noise-like sound. Given the instruments, for five points each, identify whether it gives a definite or indefinite pitch.

1. bass drum
2. triangle
3. chimes
4. tambourine
5. marimba
6. cymbals

- A. 1. indefinite
2. indefinite
3. definite
4. indefinite
5. definite
6. indefinite

B-12. In the case of McNeil v NFL, U. S. District Court Judge David Doty ruled that four football players were illegally held to their teams, thus opening the door for free agency. For five points apiece, identify the four players involved in the trial.

1. Tight end formerly with the Philadelphia Eagles
2. Wide receiver formerly with the Cleveland Browns, who now plays for the Houston Oilers
3. Running Back with the Vikings now playing baseball for the New York Mets
4. Defensive end recently signed with the San Francisco 49ers.

- A. 1. Keith Jackson
2. Webster Slaughter
3. D. J. Dozier
4. Garin Veris

B-13. On January 27, 1967, three astronauts were killed when their Apollo capsule caught flash fire. Edward White was one of the three. For twenty points, or ten points a piece, name both of the others.

- A. Virgil Grissom and Roger Chaffee

B-14. The following three pieces of literature ~~were~~ written by the same philosopher. For 30 points, name the author on the first work, 20 points on the second and 10 on the third.

1. A Letter Concerning Human Understanding
2. Two Treatises on Government
3. An Essay on Human Understanding

A. John Locke

B-15. For twenty points, all or nothing, identify the two letters of the English alphabet which do not begin any of the symbols of elements listed on the periodic table.

A. J and Q

B-16. For ten points apiece, identify the "colorful" capitals of the following Canadian territories.

1. Yukon Territory
2. The Northwest Territory

A. 1. Whitehorse
2. Yellowknife

B-17. Every American citizen should know the painters of the five most famous paintings in American History. For five points apiece, identify the painters of these works.

1. The Declaration of Independence
2. George Washington
3. Paul Revere
4. American Gothic
5. The Gross Clinic

A. 1. John Trumbull
2. Gilbert Stuart
3. John Singleton Copley
4. Grant Wood
5. Thomas Eakins

B-18. Your spouse would probably be very upset with you if you forgot your anniversary. For five points each, what are the standard gifts for the following anniversaries?

1. First
2. Eleventh
3. Thirteenth
4. Fifteenth
5. Thirty-fifth
6. Fifty-fifth

- A. 1. Paper
2. Steel
 3. Lace
 4. Crystal
 5. Coral
 6. Emerald

B-19. Identify the following American historical personalities by their nicknames. Five points for each correct response.

1. Father of the Air Force
2. Peaceful Warrior
3. Cadillac Evangelist
4. Mr. Republican
5. Detroit Red
6. Doughboy's General

- A. 1. Henry "Hap" Arnold
2. Martin Luther King, Jr.
 3. Billy Graham
 4. Robert Taft (Full name required)
 5. Malcolm X
 6. Omar Bradley

B-20. For ten points apiece, identify the authors of the following works.

1. If
2. To Althea ~~for~~ Prison

- A. 1. Rudyard Kipling
2. Richard Lovelace

B-21. He said, after observing troop conditions at the second Battle of the Marne in 1918, "My center is giving away, my right is being pushed back, situation excellent, I shall attack." For twenty-five points, identify this French military leader.

- A. Ferdinand Foch

B-22. For five points for each part correct, give the words associated with each letter in the following acronym.

NASDAQ

A. National Association of Securities Dealers Automated
Quotations

B-23. For ten points apiece, identify the picture which won the best picture Oscar given the following information.

1. The 1967 best picture based on the novel by Jerry Ball.
2. The 1962 best picture based on the novel by Lowell Thomas.
3. The 1930 best picture based on the novel by Erica Marie Remarque.

A. 1. In the Heat of the Night
2. Lawrence of Arabia
3. All Quiet on the Western Front

B-24. These two former Wimbledon men's singles champs did not have what it took to win the 1992 singles title. They did, however, have enough together to win the men's double title. For twenty points, name this dynamic duo. For an additional five points, identify the person who did win the Wimbledon men's title in 1992.

A. John McEnroe and Michael Stich; Andre Agassi