

Paul Bunyan All-Union Masters Invitational
University of Minnesota, June 12, 1993

Three Little Maids from School
(Eric Hillemann, Eric Reehl, Doug Scott)

TOSS-UPS

1. She has been called the heir to Norman Mailer as "America's loudest and most annoying cultural critic." She infuriates feminists, while still enraging conservatives, in her newest book Sex, Art, and American Culture. For 10 points, who is this author of 1990's Sexual Personae?

ANSWER: Camille Paglia

2. Formerly called "Sulphur Island", it is the largest and most important of the Volcano Islands in the western Pacific. Its dominant natural feature is the 546 ft. extinct volcano known as Mt. Suribachi. For 10 points, identify this 8 square mile island much in the news in February and March, 1945.

ANSWER: Iwo Jima

3. Victories in the Bob Hope Desert Classic and the Los Angeles Open early in 1993 made him the first golfer ever to top $8 million in career earnings. For 10 points, name this 43 year old who is nearly $2 million ahead of Tom Watson as the PGA Tour's all-time leading money-winner.

ANSWER: Tom Kite

4. Epinephrine and cortisone are two of the important hormones secreted by the adrenal glands. The adrenal glands are located, for 10 points, above what paired organs of the human body?

ANSWER: kidneys

5. The Preludes, Orpheus, Hamlet, Mazeppa, Faust Symphony, and four Mephisto waltzes are among his better-known compositions. For 10 points, identify this celebrated pianist whose daughter became the wife of Richard Wagner.

ANSWER: Franz Liszt

6. Achieving the rank of major, he became an American popular hero during the last of the French and Indian Wars, when he headed a company of frontier rangers under the direction of Sir William Johnson. Early in the American Revolution, however, he was imprisoned as a Loyalist spy. For 10 points, identify this central figure of Kenneth Roberts' historical novel Northwest Passage.

ANSWER: Robert Rogers

7. In exile, he fought against white-ruled Rhodesia, served two years in prison in Botswana, and infiltrated guerilla warriors into South Africa from Lesotho. Returning to South Africa in 1990, he became simultaneously a leader of the African National Congress and of the South African Communist Party. For 10 points, identify this prominent black South African assassinated in Johannesburg in April, 1993.

ANSWER: Chris Hani

8. Included among his best-known poems are "Reports of Youthful Folly", and "The Ballad of Women of Yore"--the latter containing the lamenting refrain, "Where are the snows of yesteryear?" A poet, a clerk, a highwayman and a murderer, he is considered one of the great literary voices of the 15th century. For 10 points, identify this "vagabond poet" of France.

ANSWER: Francois Villon

9. He was born in 1843, in Klausthal in what is now Germany. His investigations into the causes of anthrax, amoebic dysentery, tuberculosis and cholera helped establish the science of bacteriology. For 10 points, identify this winner of the 1905 Nobel Prize in Medicine.

ANSWER: Robert Koch

10. The original version ran nine hours, but Metro Pictures ruthlessly cut it down to two before releasing this 1923 film starring Gibson Gowland and Zasu Pitts. The difficulties of making the film, partly shot on location in San Francisco and Death Valley, are legendary. For 10 points, identify this Erich von Stroheim picture, based on Frank Norris' novel McTeague.

ANSWER: Greed

11. In the 1950s this Canadian psychiatrist developed the form of psychotherapy known as transactional analysis. For 10 points, identify this author of the 1964 bestseller Games People Play.

ANSWER: Eric Berne

12. The word refers to a judge who interprets Islamic religious law, but in British usage it came to be a slang designation for civilian dress, especially as worn by one whose regular garb is military. For 10 points, identify this 5 letter word.

ANSWER: mufti

13. Diggory Venn, Damon Wildeve, and Eustacia Vye are important characters, but the title reference is to Clym Yeobright. For 10 points, identify this depressing novel published in 1878 and set entirely on Egdon Heath in Wessex.

ANSWER: The Return of the Native [by Thomas Hardy]

14. He obtained the crown while his older brother, Robert, was away on crusade. He defended it the following year against Robert's retaliatory invasion of England. His efforts to arrange the succession of his daughter Matilda resulted in a civil war during the reign of his successor, Stephen. For 10 points, identify this King of England from 1100 to 1135.

ANSWER: Henry I, or Henry Beauclerc

15. For 10 points, the surname's the same: a two-time batting champion and one-time MVP of the 1970s, the composer of such jazz standards as "Now's the Time" and "Ornithology", and the author of Not So Deep as a Well and Enough Rope.

ANSWER: Parker [H.N.: Dave, Charlie, and Dorothy, respectively]

16. He was never appointed to the Supreme Court, but was sometimes called its "tenth man" due to the influence of his decisions as a Federal Court of Appeals judge from 1924 to 1951. For 10 points, identify this distinguished jurist and author of books titled The Bill of Rights and The Spirit of Liberty.

ANSWER: Learned Hand

17. Under normal conditions it is a colorless, odorless and tasteless gas. It is the 5th member of the inert gasses, and its liquid form is used in atomic particle detecting bubble chambers. For 10 points name this element which has atomic number 54.

ANSWER: Xenon

18. His given names were "Howard^{arold} Edward" but this three-time All-American halfback was better known by his colorful nickname. The first pro-footballer to be paid $100,000 a season, his pro career was spent in New York and Chicago. For 10 points, who was this legendary broken-field runner and alumnus of the University of Illinois?

ANSWER: Red Grange

19. After World War II he became head of the Veteran's Administration. During the war he served as one of General Patton's corps commanders during the North African and Sicilian campaigns, and later he became Patton's superior when he commanded the U.S. 12th Army group in its advance across France and Germany. For 10 points identify this first Chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff and last American five-star general.

ANSWER: Omar Bradley

20. Their first releases, on Seattle's Sub Pop record label, were the single "Love Buzz" and the 1988 album "Bleach." The band then signed with the major label Geffen Records. For 10 points name this band which scored big with their 1992 album "Nevermind."

ANSWER: Nirvana

Paul Bunyan All-Onion Masters Invitational
University of Minnesota, June 12, 1993

Three Little Maids from School

(Eric Hillemann, Eric Reehl, Doug Scott)

BONUS QUESTIONS

1. (20 pts) Years ago, this used to be easy. But current undergraduates are so darned young that it has become obscure. Perhaps for "Masters" it is still easy. Let's find out. For 10 points apiece, identify the two Senators, one from Oregon and one from Alaska, who cast the only votes in opposition to 1964's infamous Gulf of Tonkin resolution.

ANSWER: Wayne Morse and Ernst Gruening

2. (25 pts) The Vatican has recently produced the Lexicon Recentis Latinitatis, which is a dictionary marking a major effort to match Latin vocabulary to modern realities. For 10 points apiece, translate the following entries in this dictionary:

- A. exteriorus paginae puella
B. pilamalleus super glaciem
C. pastillum botello fartum

ANSWER: cover girl
ANSWER: ice hockey
ANSWER: hot dog

3. (25 pts) Given the name of a National Battlefield or National Military Park, provide the state, for 5 points apiece.

- A. Horseshoe Bend
B. Cowpens
C. Big Hole
D. Petersburg
E. Pea Ridge

ANSWER: Alabama
ANSWER: South Carolina
ANSWER: Montana
ANSWER: Virginia
ANSWER: Arkansas

4. (30 pts) Geologists have given special names to several different sedimentary features formed as glacial deposits. For 15 points apiece, identify the following:

- A. An oval hill formed under a glacier, usually occurring in clusters.

ANSWER: drumlin

- B. A long narrow ridge formed in the bed of a tunnel under a decaying glacial ice sheet.

ANSWER: esker (accept: os)

5. (30 pts) VISUAL BONUS. (Hand out three sheets, labelled "A", "B", and "C".) For 10 points apiece, identify the artists who created each of these masterpieces of the Venetian Renaissance.

- A. (The Tempest)
B. (Venus and Adonis)
C. (Flight from Egypt)

ANSWER: Giorgione
ANSWER: Titian
ANSWER: Tintoretto

6. (25 pts) You will be granted the indulgence of 25 points, if you can name the Dominican monk whose granting of indulgences in return for donations to a building fund sparked Martin Luther's initial challenge to the Catholic church.

ANSWER: Johann Tetzel

7. (20 pts) Ladies and Gentlemen! For 5 points apiece, identify the authors of the following literary classics:

A. The Lady's Not for Burning (1949)

ANSWER: Christopher Fry

B. The Gentleman from Indiana (1899)

ANSWER: Booth Tarkington

C. The Lady or the Tiger? (1899)

ANSWER: Frank Stockton

D. The Gentleman from San Francisco (1916)

ANSWER: Ivan Bunin

8. (20 pts) Evangelists would be lost without their Bible, and lawyers without their Black's Law Dictionary. Librarians refer to their own "holy writ" as A-A-C-R-2. "2" stands for second edition. For 5 points per letter, what do A, A, C, and R stand for?

ANSWER: Anglo American Cataloging Rules

9. (30 pts) For 10 points apiece, identify these notable individuals who shared the surname "Hopkins":

A. The head of the Works Project Administration in the mid-1930s, and FDR's Secretary of Commerce from 1938 to 1940.

ANSWER: Harry Lloyd

B. A signer of the Declaration of Independence and one of the most prominent colonial leaders of Rhode Island.

ANSWER: Stephen

C. The English Jesuit priest whose poetry in praise of God was not published until 30 years after his death in 1889.

ANSWER: Gerard Manley

10. (25 pts) For 5 points apiece, identify the year from a list of Olympic gold medalists:

A. Jean-Claude Killy, Bob Beamon, and Peggy Fleming

ANSWER: 1968

B. Hanni Wenzel, Sebastian Coe, and Aleksandr Dityatin

ANSWER: 1980

C. Dick Fosbury, Bill Toomey, and George Foreman

ANSWER: 1968

D. Johnny Weismuller, Gertrude Ederle, and Eric Liddell

ANSWER: 1924

E. Wilma Rudolph, Cassius Clay, and Carol Heiss

ANSWER: 1960

11. (25 pts) President Clinton has been in office less than 200 days, so you should have no trouble naming the members of his Cabinet from the Departments they head. 5 point apiece.

A. Dept. of Transportation

ANSWER: Frederico Peña

B. Dept. of the Interior

ANSWER: Bruce Babbitt

C. Dept. of Health and Human Services

ANSWER: Donna Shalala

D. Dept. of Agriculture

ANSWER: Mike Espy

E. Dept. of Commerce

ANSWER: Ron Brown

12. (20 pts) The subject of Virgil Thompson's 1947 opera The Mother of Us All was--for 20 points--what Massachusetts-born leader of the National Woman Suffrage Association?

ANSWER: Susan B. Anthony

13. (20 pts) An inherited disease characterized by progressive mental and physical degeneration and early death, it is caused by a lack of the enzyme hexosaminidase, which results in an accumulation of sphingolipids in the brain. For 20 points, identify this disease which occurs almost exclusively among Ashkenazic and Sephardic Jews.

ANSWER: Tay-Sachs disease

14. (25 pts) One way to immortalize your name is to sponsor historic legislation in Congress. For 5 points apiece, give the popular, personal name for the following notable pieces of legislation:

A. The White Slave Act of 1910

ANSWER: The Mann Act

B. The 1919 act providing for the enforcement of the 18th Amendment

ANSWER: The Volstead Act

C. The National Labor Relations Act of 1935

ANSWER: The Wagner Act

D. The Labor-Management Relations Act of 1947

ANSWER: The Taft-Hartley Act

E. The Internal Security Act of 1951

ANSWER: The McCarran Act

15. (25 pts) For 5 points apiece, identify characters from Homer's Iliad from a brief description:

- | | |
|---|---------------------------|
| A. Slain by Hector while wearing the armor of Achilles | ANSWER: Patroclus |
| B. Wife of Hector and mother of Astyanax | ANSWER: Andromache |
| C. Famed archer and half-brother to Ajax | ANSWER: Teucer |
| D. Mother of Achilles | ANSWER: Thetis |
| E. Wise king of Pylos, and oldest councilor of the Greeks | ANSWER: Nestor |

16. (20 pts) Francois Truffaut, Jean-Luc Goddard, Claude Chabrol, and Eric Rohmer all graduated to the making of their own films from stints as critics for perhaps the most influential film journal of all time. 20 points are yours if you can name this French journal founded by film theorist Andre Bazin.

ANSWER: Cahiers du Cinema (Cah-YAY)

17. (20 pts) For 10 points apiece, identify these important figures in Christian theology:

A. Hanged by the Nazis in 1945, this German pastor's Letters and Papers from Prison reveal an emerging concept of "religionless Christianity."

ANSWER: Dietrich Bonhoeffer

B. In opposition to Hegelianism, this 19th century thinker developed an existential dialectic. His dominant theme in writings such as Either/Or and the Concluding Unscientific Postscript is that truth is subjectivity.

ANSWER: Søren Kierkegaard

18. (30 pts) Three men held the post of Prime Minister of Canada in the 20 years between the end of Mackenzie King's last term in 1948 and the beginning of Pierre Elliott Trudeau's first in 1968. Score 10 points apiece for each of the three you can name.

ANSWER: Louis St. Laurent, John G. Diefenbaker, and Lester B. Pearson

19. (30 pts) Three thoroughbreds won horseracing's Triple Crown in the 1970s. Earn 5 points apiece for naming these champions, or 10 points apiece for including the year in which each accomplished the feat. (You must give both correctly to earn the extra points.)

ANSWER: Secretariat (1973), Seattle Slew (1977), Affirmed (1978)

20. (20 pts) From May 16 to the 22nd, the United Nations sponsored elections in Cambodia. For 10 points each, answer the following questions about Cambodia and its recent elections.

A. Name the Maoist communist group which boycotted the elections

ANSWER: Khmer Rouge

B. Name the Prince who ruled Cambodia in the 50s and 60s who may return to power after the elections.

ANSWER: Norodom Sihanouk

21. (30 pts) The next subject is "collaborators"--literary, not political. For 10 points apiece, identify the following writers:

A. He co-authored The Gilded Age with Mark Twain

ANSWER: Charles Dudley Warner

B. He co-authored The Bounty Trilogy with James Norman Hall

ANSWER: Charles Nordhoff

C. He co-authored The Ugly American with William Lederer, and Fail-Safe with Harvey Wheeler.

ANSWER: Eugene Burdick

22. (30 pts) Literary collaborators, Part II. For 10 points apiece, identify the following writers:

A. He collaborated with Maxwell Anderson on What Price Glory?

ANSWER: Lawrence Stallings

B. He collaborated with Jerome Lawrence on Inherit the Wind.

ANSWER: Robert E. Lee

C. He collaborated with Robert Louis Stevenson on The Wrong Box.

ANSWER: Lloyd Osbourne

23. (20 pts) You will earn 20 points if you can identify the French mathematician, theoretical astronomer, and philosopher whose philosophy of science is known as "conventionalism", and whose writings for the general public can be found in books translated as The Foundations of Science and Mathematics and Science: Last Essays. He was a first cousin of the President of France during World War I.

ANSWER: Jules-Henri Poincaré

24. (25 pts) This Victorian age English illustrator was famous for her fanciful, humorous, delicately colored delineations of child life, through which she had a noticeable influence on children's clothing. Among the books which she wrote as well as illustrated are Under the Window, A Day in a Child's Life, and The Language of Flowers. Name her for 25 points.

ANSWER: Kate Greenaway

25. (30 pts) This bonus asks you to name any six of the twelve chief islands or archipelagos of the Philippines, scoring 5 points for each correct answer.

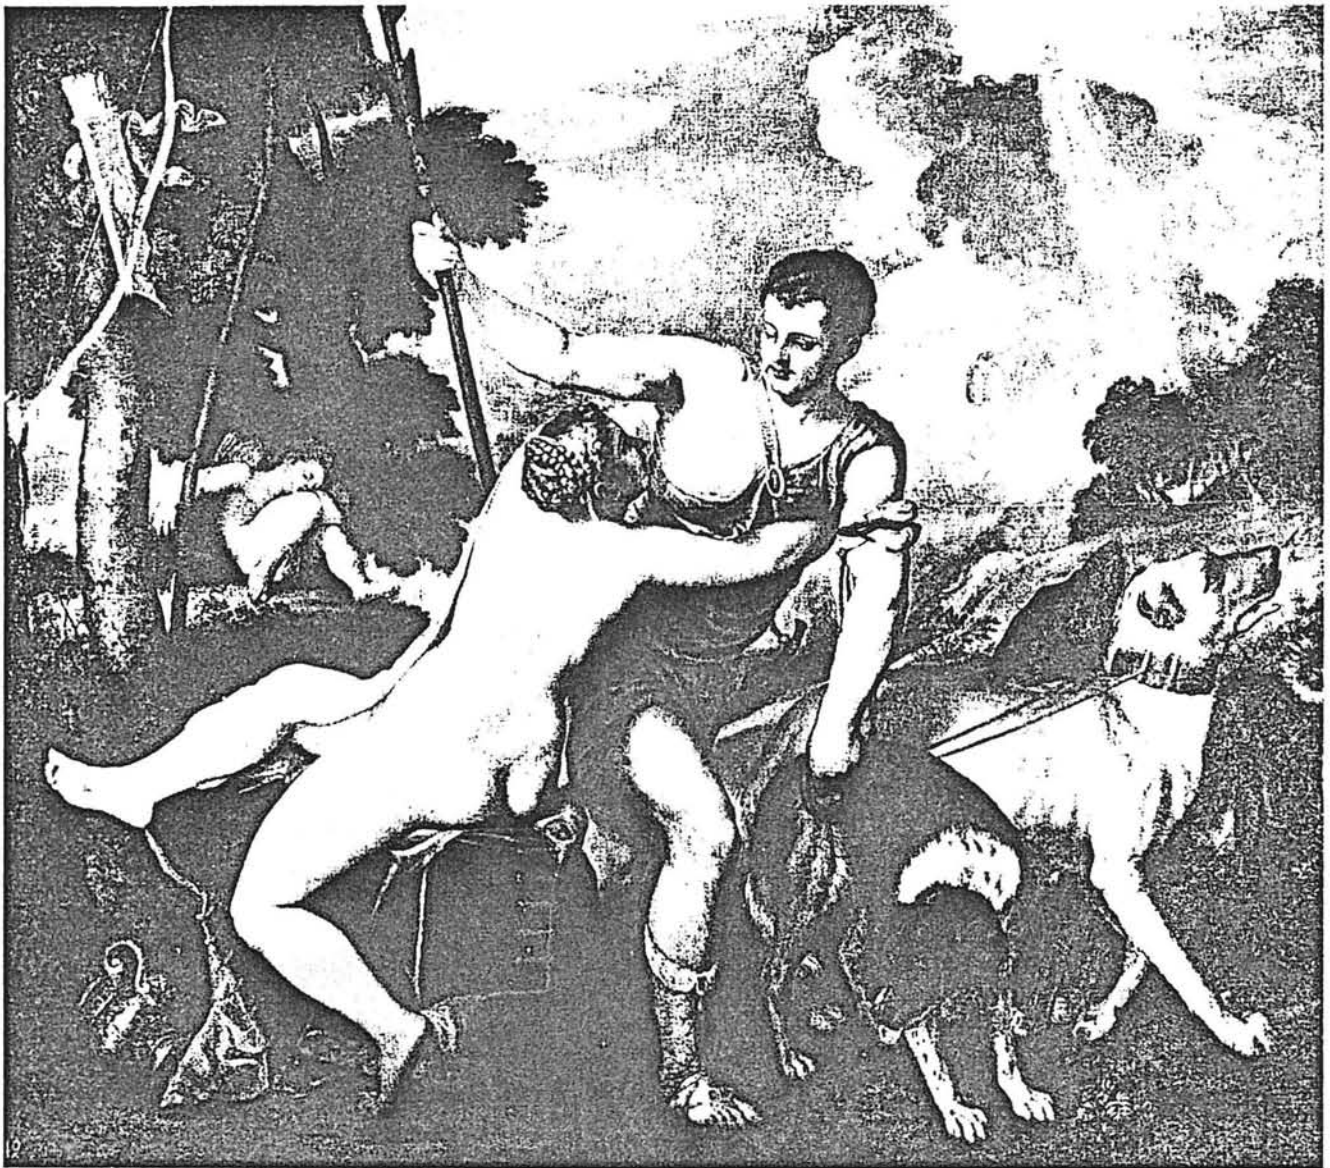

ANSWER: Luzon, Mindanao, Samar, Negros, Palawan, Panay, Mindoro, Leyte, Cebu, Bohol, Masbate, and the Sulu Archipelago

A

(Accompanies Bonus #5)

B

(Accompanies Bonus #5)

(Accompanies Bonus #5)

21. After studying in Brussels from 1877 to 1880, he spent the rest of his life in Ostend, where his mother ran a souvenir shop selling the sea shells, fans, toys, and carnival masks which, along with skeletons, comprise the basic iconography of his paintings. For 10 points, name this artist best known for his 1888 work, "Entry of Christ Into Brussels."

ANSWER: James Ensor

22. He claimed that heaven was opened up to him in the 1740s and that he received the doctrines of the New Church from Christ himself, whose second coming occurred in 1757. For 10 points, identify this Stockholm-born mystic whose religious system was posthumously incorporated into the Church of the New Jerusalem.

ANSWER: Emmanuel Swedenborg

23. Excommunicated by Pope Pius XII on June 16, 1955, a month after ending tax exemptions on church property, he was unseated by a military coup three months later and forced to flee the country. For 10 points, identify this former world leader whose initial power base was among trade unionists united into a militant organization known as los descamisados, or "the shirtless ones."

ANSWER: Juan Peron

24. Its highest point is the 13,804 foot Gannett Peak in the Wind River Range. In 1890 it became the 44th State of the Union. For 10 points, name this state whose motto is "Equal Rights."

ANSWER: Wyoming

25. His compositions included the Capricorn Concerto, the cantata Prayers of Kierkegaard, and the ballet Medea, but his most popular piece is a well-known Adagio for Strings. For 10 points, identify this American composer who won a Pulitzer Prize for his 1958 opera Vanessa.

ANSWER: Samuel Barber

26. When someone uses terms such as muckraker, wordly-wise man, Vanity Fair, or the Slough of Despond, they are quoting, whether they know it or not, from a famous English novel. For 10 points, identify this allegory, the first part of which was published in 1678.

ANSWER: Pilgrim's Progress

27. For a quick 10 points, what do economists call a market situation in which there is only a single consumer of the good produced?

ANSWER: monopsony