1993 PRINCETON INVITATIONAL
Harvard A
"Questions": 25 Toss-Ups, 22 Boni
TOSS-UPS

1. Like the ancient Greeks, many College Bowlers base their success on their inborn abilities. Now, FTP, tell me the Greek term for inborn capabilities of the individual.

Ans: ARETE
2. Samuel Goldwyn once said that "a verbal agreement isn't worth the paper it's written on," but this actress might disagree. For 10 points, who was forced to pay 7 million dollars in damages for backing out of her verbal committment to Boxing Helena.

Ans: Kim BASINGER
3. The family of birds known as the alcids are to the northern Artic what penguins are to the Antarctic. 21 of the 22 species of alcids survive today, including various types of puffin and the murre [pronounced MOO-ray], but one flightless species was hunted into extinction in 1844. FTP, name this species.

Ans: GREAT AUK
4. The Clinton budget recently passed, but over the objections of every Republican in Congress. FTP, name the ranking Republican on the House Budget Committee who presented the Republican alternative to Clinton's plan.
Ans: John KASICH
5. Procrastinators take note. For 10 points, in what Shakespearean play would you find the lament, "I have wasted time, and now time doth waste me."

Ans: RICHARD II
6. Their names have the same pronunciation: one is a Mississippi Congressman first elected to the U.S. House in 1941. The other gained his fame on September 7 of this year with arguably the best one-game offensive display in baseball history, tying major league records with 4 home runs and 12 runs batted in. FTP, give the surname.

Ans: Mark WHITEN/Jamie WHITTEN (pronounced "WIT-ten"; short "i") 7. Born in 1811, he played many instruments, but is generally regarded as a pianist. In his time, the rhapsody and symphonic poem both gained prestige as a form of serious music due to the popularity of his works, including Les Preludes, Orpheus, Tasso and Faust. FTP, name this Hungarian composer.

Ans: Franz LISZT
8. The recent Canadian federal elections produced a huge victory for the Liberal party and a crushing defeat for the ruling Progressive Conservatives. Second place went to the seperatist Bloc Quebecois, led by a renegade Progressive Conservative. FTP, name him.

Lucien BOUCHARD [LOO-see-en boo-SHAR]
9. The molecule C-60 is named after this man, an architect, because the molecule share the shape of his most famous creation. For 10 points, who created the geodesic dome?

Ans: Buckminster FULLER
10. He ended his life by plunging from a bridge and into the murky waters of the Charles River. FTP, identify this character from William Faulner's novel The Sound and the Fury.

Ans: Quentin COMPSON
11. The name's the same. In Lubbock Texas in the mid 1950s, it was where Buddy Holly and the Crickets kicked off their careers. In late '20s Harlem, it was where Duke Ellington and his band got their big break. FTP, what name do these dining, drinking, and musical establishments share?
The COTTON CLUB
12. In terms of volume of material ejected, the largest volcanic eruption of modern times occurred in 19th-Century Indonesia, but it was not Krakatoa. This volcano erupted in 1815 on Sumbawa, killing 50,000 people, and the 40 cubic kilometers of material it spread out caused one of the coldest summers in recorded history in 1816. FTP, name it.
TAMBORA
13. A three-dimensional geometric figure whose faces are all squares is a cube. FTP, what is a four-dimeinoal figure whose sides are all cubes?
Ans: TESSERACT
14. Modern macroeconomics depends to a large extent on growth theories. FTP, name the 1987 Nobel Prize winning economist from MIT who pioneered growth theory, theorizing that technology is a greater long-term factor in economic growth than capital formation.

Ans: Robert SOLOW
15. You can do this if you're knitting a sweater, directing or choreographing a movie, preparing to march, wearing a hat in a movie theater, standing at the line of scrimmage, or just opposing a plan. FTP, what word describes each of these actions?

Ans: BLOCKING
16. Not too many people are familiar with Aklabeth, his first attempt at a computer role-playing game; his later works, though, were more successful. FTP, name this author of the Ultima series of role-playing games, asked by many of his friends if he was British.

Ans: Richard GARRIOTT

17. Let A be a transcendental number roughly equal to 23.14069 . It probably does not ring a bell to you, but theoretically, A raised to the power of $i$ is equal to -1. FTP, what is the natural $\log$ of $A$ ?
Ans: PI
18. In true Ivy League fashion, Princeton University stole her away from SUNY Albany when this author looked like a shoe-in for the Nobel Prize in Literature. FTP, name the author of Tar Baby, who did indeed win the prize.
Ans: Toni MORRISON
19. Its atomic number is 76 . Its is a grey-white, bittle metal whose density at room temperature is 22.48 grams per cubic centimeter, making it the densest of all naturally-occurring elements. FTP, name this element.
OSMIUM
20. The position of United States' Ambassador to the United Nations is becoming increaslingly important as the world becomes more of a "global community". Meanwhile, women have been capturing many government posts traditionally held by men. FTP, identify the current US Ambassador to the UN.
Ans: Madeleine ALBRIGHT
21. Kidney cancer recently claimed "his" life at age 10 , but that's 70 for you and me. " He " was surrounded by beautiful women and went to the hottest parties, but this Anheuser Busch spokesman knew when to say when. Not many people realize that "he" was actually a "she", but FTP, name this "super party animal."

Ans: SPUDS MCKENZIE

22. This movement began after World War I, rejecting all of society's standards and featuing shocking expression. Founders include writer Tristan Tarza, sculptor Hans Arp, and painer Marcel Duchamp. FTP, name this movement which derived its name from the French name for a hobby horse.
Ans: DADAISM
23. No scientist has been able to detect them on earth, but indirect evidence of their existence can be found in binary pulsars. Joe Taylor and Russ Hulse were recently awarded the Nobel Prize in physics for measuring the energy lost in a binary pulsar system. For 10 points, this lost energy is believed to be radiated in what type of wave?

Ans: GRAVITATIONAL Wave

24. You can't just guess Ghandi anymore. For 10 points, who is the current prime minister of India?

Ans: P. V. Narasima RAO
25. Patterend after the Finnish Kalevala saga, it is written in trochais tetrameter. Its author also penned Evangeline, The Village Blacksmith, and The Courtship of Miles Standish. FTP, name this work that begins, "By the shores of Gitche Gumee..."

Ans: The SONG OF HIAWATHA

1993 PRINCETON INVITATIONAL
HARVARDA
BON

1. (30) According to the season-by-season starting line-ups in the Baseball Encyclopedia, the Baltiomore Orioles have had just three starting shortstops since 1962. Identify them for ten points each.

Ans: Luis APARICIO, Mark BELANGE, Cal RIPKEN
2. (30) For five points each and a five point bonus for all correct, name Sun Tzu's five fundamental factors of war as laid out in The Art of War. A: MORAL INFLUENCE, WEATHER, TERRAIN, COMMAND, DOCTRINE
3. (20) Name the person associated with the following constants, for 5 points each, 20 total if all are correct..
a) $6.022 \times 10^{\wedge} 23$
b) $1.38 \times 10^{\wedge}-23$
c) $6.6 \times 10^{\wedge}-34$

Answer:
a) AVOGADRO
b) BOLTZMANN
c) PLANCK
4. (30) Name the saxophone great given the nickname.
a) (5) Bird
b) (10) Bean or Hawk
c) (15) Pres (pronounced prez)
a) Charlie PARKER
b) Coleman HAWKINS
c) Lester YOUNG
5. (25) Name the authors of the following novels, 5 points each:
a) Kane and Abel
b) My Antonia
c) Bless Me Ultima
d) Exodus
e) Ironweed

Answer:
a) Jeffrey ARCHER
b) Willa CATHER
c) Rudolph A. ANAYA
d) Leon URIS
e) William KENNEDY
6. (30) Indentify these Taj Mahal facts for 10 points each. a)

The ruler who ordered it built
b) The city and nation that are home to the tomb.
c) Within 10 years either way, the year of its construction.
a) SHAH JAHAN
b) AGRA, INDIA
c) 1633 (accept 1623-1643)
7. (30) $30-20-10$, name the element.
30) Experimenters have for decades attempted to measure its transition to metallic behavior at extremely high pressures. 20)
Only helium liquifies at a lower temperature
10) Its name is Greek for water giver

Answer: HYDROGEN
8.(25) 25-10 Some think that John Sununu was the first New Hampshire governor to become White House Chief of Staff, but they're wrong. (25) Give the full name the Assistant to the President to President Eisenhower who defined the position of modern Chief of Staff.
(10) Hint: his shares his surname with a U.S. politcal dynasty, while his first name is the surname of a Civil War leader much hated by the south.
Ans: Sherman ADAMS
9. (30) Wyoming geography bonus. First, for five points, how many states border Wyoming?
Second, for 25 points all-or-nothing, name each state that borders Wyoming.
Ans: 6 states (do not give them the answer until after ALL of the bonus!) UTAH, COLORADO, NEBRASKA, SOUTH DAKOTA, MONTANA, IDAHO 10.(25) The most recent issue of Inside Edge magazine contains a survey titled "The Best Colleges to Go to, Ever", a ranking of the top twenty and bottom ten party schools in the U.S. Identify these schools from the lists for five points each; all of the schools in this bonus have college bowl programs of distinction, some of whom may even be here today. a) The top school in the survey.
b) The bottom school in the surey.
c) Fourth on the list, it is described as "the geek of our top ten" because "partying goes on in an environment of semi-rigorous academics. d) This Maryland school is fourth from the bottom, and in the "statistics", is given the lowest ranking for College Facilities of any school on either list.
e) This religious school has the lowest rank of any school west of the Mississippi.
a) Florida State
b) University of Chicago
c) Rice
d) Johns Hopkins
e) Brigham Young
11. (30) In the past ten years, three writers from Africa have won the Nobel Prize for Literature. Name them for ten points each.
Ans: Nadine GORDNINER [South Africa, 1991]
Naghrib MAHFOUZ [Egypt, 1988]
Wole SOYINKA [Nigeria, 1986]
12. (25) If Evander Holyfield beats Riddick Bowe, he will regain the heavyweight title after having held it before.
a) FTP, what boxing legend most recently accomplished this feat?
b) Muhammad Ali was not the first man to regain the title after losing it. For another fifteen points, name the fighter who beat Ingemar Johannsen to regain the crown.

Ans: a) Muhammad ALI
b) Floyd PATTERSON
13. (30) 30-20-10 Given the works, name the composer.
30) Thousand and One Nights, Artist's Life
20) A Night in Venice, The Gypsy Baron
10) Die Fledermaus, Tales from the Vienna Woods

Ans: JOHANN STRAUSS the Younger
14. (25) Let's play operation. Name the military code names for the following World War II operations, 5 points each, 25 if all are correct. a) The allied attack at Normandy
b) The German invasion of Russia
c) The allied invasion of Africa
d) The German air and naval attack on England

Answer:
a) OVERLORD
b) BARBAROSSA
c) TORCH
d) SEA LION
15. (30) 30-20-10 name the author from his works,
30) The Learned Woman
20) The School for Wives; The Would-Be Gentleman
10) Tartuffe, The Miser

MOLIERE (accept Jean Baptiste POQUELIN)
16. (25) Time for a grab-bag of unrelated questions about our neighbors to the north, eh?
a) (5) To within 2 million, what is Canada's current population?
b) (10) Canada has had only one notable political assassination, that of a Cabinet Minister and Father of Conferation assassinated in Ottawa in 1868. FTP, name him.
c) (10) For five points each identify Canada's highest mountain and longest river.

Ans:
a) 28.7 MILLION (accept 26.7-30.7 million)
b) Thomas D'Arcy MCGEE
c) Mount LOGAN; the MACKENZIE River
17. (30) President Clinton's National Economic Council has been central to many of his efforts.
a) For ten points, name the head of this council.
b) President Ford was the first modern president to have such a council, calling it the Economic Policy Board. For another twenty points, name the head of the EPB.

Ans:
a) Robert RUBIN
b) William SEIDMAN
18. (30) Identify the blues artist from his works, for ten points each. a) Smokestack Blues, Killing Floor
b) Roadrunner, Doing the Crawdaddy
c) Hoochie Coochie Man, I Got My Mojo Working
a) Howlin' Wolf
b) Bo Diddley
c) Muddy Waters
19. (20) Identify these U.S. Senators from their quotes concerning Jesse Helms:
a) In 1990, this newly-elected Minnesota Senator, when asked if he hated Helms, replied "I didn't say hate, I said despised. I have detested him since I was 19".
b) More recently, after a series of party line votes, this newly-elected North Carolina Senator asked Helms, "So, how does it feel to be the liberal in the delegation?"
a) Paul WELLSTONE
b) Lauch FAIRCLOTH
20. (30) Name the mythological figure from his punishment, 10 points each: a) He pushed a boulder uphill only to have it fall back down when he reached the summit
b) Tied to a rock, he had vultures eat his liver on a daily basis
c) Dying of thirst, the waters receded when he bends down to drink Answer:
a) SISYPHUS
b) PROMETHIUS
c) TANTALUS
21. (20) A Wurthering Heights bonus:
a) (5) For the easiest five points available in this pack, who wrote Wurthering Heights?
b) (15) Originally titled " H ", the novel Heathcliff: Return to Wurthering Heights, was penned by a prominent scholar of the Bronte sisters as a sequel to Wurthering Heights. Name the author.
a) Emily BRONTE

b) Lin Haire-SARGEANT

22. (30) It's time for sick chicken.
a) FTP, what 1935 Supreme Court decision was known as the "sick chicken" case? b) For another ten points, what 1933 regulatory act's "code of fair competition" powers were ruled unconstitutional as a result of this decision? c) Now, FTP, tell me what Chief Justice, former governor of New York, wrote the majority opinion in the case.

Answer:
a) SCHECHTER POULTRY CORP. V. UNITED STATES
b) NATIONAL INDUSTRIAL RECOVERY ACT
c) Charles Evans HUGHES

