

1. Although he had a reputation as a troublemaker, over 20,000 people attended his funeral in Vienna. The Heligenstadt Testament of 1802 recorded his suicidal despair, which was fueled by the knowledge that he was going incurably deaf. For 10 points, name this composer, German born but to a Dutch family.

A: Ludwig van Beethoven

2. This office was prominent in England at the time of the Norman Conquest. By the time the 14th century rolled around, though, it was no longer worthy of a high-ranking government position. For 10 points, name this position of the royal household portrayed recently by Anthony Hopkins.

A: butler

3. In 1990, its ruler, King Moshoeshoe (mo-show-eh-shoe-eh) was sent into exile in a military coup. Formerly known as Basutoland, this country became a British protectorate in 1868, finally gaining independence in 1966. It's capital, Maseru, lies north of the Orange River. For 10 points, name this African nation.

A: Lesotho

4. Jealous of Aeis' love for Galatea, this mythological beast crushed the warrior with a rock. His father, Posideon, used storms to punish Odysseus for inflicting a major wound to his eye. For 10 points, name this most famous of the Cyclops.

A: Polyphemus

5. Mendeleev publishes his periodic table. The Central Pacific and Union Pacific railroads are joined in Utah. The Suez Canal opens. Ulysses S. Grant is sworn in as President. For 10 points, in what year did all of these events occur?

A: 1869

6. "Christmas won't be Christmas without any presents, grumbled Jo, lying on the rug." For 10 points, this is the first line from what famous American novel published in 1868?

A: Little Women by Louisa May Alcott

7. Roger Moore, Catherine Bach, Adrienne Barbeau, Joe Klecko, Farrah Fawcett, Dean Martin, Sammy Davis, Jr., Dom DeLouise, and Burt Reynolds all appeared in this movie. For 10 points, name this 1981 film about a cross-country race.

A: Cannonball Run

8. Spelling was probably the last thing on the mind of fishermen in 1927 when they caught a fish thought to be dead for 70 million years. But as this is college bowl, you better be thinking about spelling. For 10 points, spell the name of this not-quite-dead-yet fish, the coelacanth (seal-a-canth).

A: C-O-E-L-A-C-A-N-T-H

9. The source for this movie was The Clansman by Thomas Dixon. It holds every box office record for silent movies, grossing $18 million by 1931. For 10 points, name this landmark 1915 film by D. W. Griffith.

A: Birth of a Nation

10. Pencil and paper ready! Write down the symbols for the following elements: lithium, yttrium (yttrium), beryllium, neon, and curium. By rearranging the letters in these symbols, you get, for 10 points, the name of what Shakespearean romance, written in 1609 and not much read since then?

A: Cymbeline

11. Known as Dar el-Beida in Arabic, it stands on the medieval town of Afna, which was a pirate's nest in the 15th century. The city was destroyed but eventually rebuilt and occupied by the French in 1907. For 10 points, name this African port city home to a 1943 wartime conference and Rick's Cafe Americain.

A: Casablanca

12. Her work was first recognized when she won the Pulitzer Prize for poetry with Thomas and Beulah. Someone must like her work, because she recently took the office of Poet Laureate of the U.S. For 10 points, name this woman.

A: Rita Dove

13. Tocharian, Palaic, Umbrian, Oscan, Hittite, Old French, Old English, and Middle English can all be classified, for 10 points, by what morbid, two word term?

A: dead languages

14. This lyricist's name, when pronounced differently, refers to a peddler of religious books. The composer, though, helped to define American music in the 1920s with hits like Silk Stockings, Can Can, Night and Day, and Anything Goes. For 10 points, give the full name of this musician.

A: Cole Porter (a colporteur is the book peddler)

15. He founded the Rex Party in 1930, heavily influenced by Italian fascism and the Nazis. Rejected by voters before the war, he revived the Rex Party after the Nazis 1940 invasion. At the end of the war he escaped to Argentina, avoiding extradition. For 10 points name this man, leader of the Belgian Nazis from 1940 to 1945.

A: Leon Degrelle

16. With a membership of 190, it is the world's largest international organization. But from those 190, only 24 will get the chance to vie for the organization's top prize this summer. For 10 points name this organization, sponsor of the World Cup and governing body for international soccer.

A: FIFA or Federation Internationale de Futbol Association or International Federation of Association Football

17. A 7th century Mohammedan leader, this caliph led Islam during the time that the religion swept across much of the known world. Several people have his name as their first name, including the ground troop commander in the D-Day invasion and the star of Dr. Zhivago. For 10 points, what is this shared name?

A: Omar

18. Thetia, Scylla, Lotis, Amphitrite, Daphne, and Echo were all the same type of deity in Greek mythology, but not full-blown goddesses. For 10 points, just what sort of divine creature were they?

A: nymphs

19. Like Michaelangelo, he left many of his works unfinished. A Romantic painter, he painted both Turkish subjects, as seen in Entrance of the Crusaders into Constantinople, and classic subjects, as seen in Massacre at Scio. For 10 points, name this painter, also well-known for his portrait of Frederic Chopin.

A: Eugene Delacroix

20. The name's the same, but not pronounced the same in each case. The fourth largest city in the People's Republic of China, a political subdivision of a European nation, and the US city home to a professional sport's hall of fame. For 10 points, what is this shared name?

A: canton

21. Charles Dawson claimed to have made a major anthropological discovery with a humanoid skeleton which scientists named Eoanthropus dawsoni. But in 1949, Kenneth Oakley called his bluff, noting among other things that the "man's" jawbone came from a monkey. For 10 points, give the name of this hoax, named for the Sussex gravel pit where the skeleton was claimed to be found.

A: Pittdown Man hoax

22. His original name was the rather unweildy Rodolpho Alfonzo Rafaelo Pierre Filibert Gugliemi d'Antonguolla. He moved to the U.S. at age 18 and pared his moniker to a more acceptable length. He became a silent film star in short order, portaying a character known as the Shiek. For 10 points, name this legend who died in 1926 of complications from a perforated ulcer and burst appendix.

A: Rudolph Valentino

23. Pronounced one way, it's the currency of Costa Rica and El Salvador. Pronounced another way, it's a punctuation mark used mainly to direct attention. The same pronunciation also applies when using the word to describe the part of the large intestine extending to the rectum. For 10 points, what is this word?

A: colon

24. In the Bible, Daniel saves her. In a Mozart opera, Figaro marries her. And in a Stephen Foster song, "she'll be riding six white horses when she comes." For 10 points, what is the shared name of these women?

A: Susanna

25. Founded in 1851, this school stood atop AP's very first college football poll at the end of the 1936 season. It's repeated that feat 3 other times. Its basketball program, currently under the direction of Clem Haskins, has been number 1 twice, but in 1902 and in 1919. For 10 points, name this Big 10 school, last year's NIT champion.

A: University of Minnesota

26. This work attacked mercantile restrictions, proposing instead economic self-interest and a natural division of labor. It also introduced the concept of laissez faire (la-say fair). For 10 points, name this influential 1776 work.

A: The Wealth of Nations by Adam Smith

27. George Bush made the transition from VP to President, and his 2nd in command, Dan Quayle, will likely try to do the same in 1996. In fact, several vice-presidents have ascended to the office of President, one way or another. For 10 points, and within one, just how many second bananas managed to make this move to the Oval Office?

A: 14 (accept 13 or 15 as well)

28. A Briton, working in America and building on the work of the Japanese, he will win a long-standing German prize for solving a problem proposed by a Frenchman. Need a scorecard? For 10 points, name this man who has apparently solved Fermat's Last Theorem.

A: Andrew Wiles

29. It just joined the United Nations in 1990, odd given the longevity of its ruling house. It hosts a Grand Prix race but does not have any Grand Prix drivers calling it home. It even has a prince who is now princessless. For 10 points, name this tax haven famous for its casinos.

A: Monaco

30. You wouldn't expect that Barry Bonds would have to pick up his MVP award in Munich, but this man had to travel all the way to Las Vegas to pick up his award, the most prestigious individual award in the Eastern Hemisphere. For 10 points, name this man, an Italian striker who was named Europe's Footballer of the Year for 1993.

A: Roberto Baggio (need full name- Dino Baggio also big in soccer)

1. 30 POINT BONUS. For the stated number of points, answer these questions about sonnets.

- For 5 points, what sonnet consists of an octave and a sestet?

A: ITALIAN or PETRARCHAN

• For 10 points, what variation of the Elizabethan sonnet contains 3 quatrains and a couplet?

A: SPENSERIAN

• For 15 points, what sonnet form, developed by Gerard Manley Hopkins, contains an unusual 10 and 1/2 lines?

A: CURTAL

2. 30-20-10 BONUS. Name the historian.

30: A Rhodes scholar in the 1930s, he returned from England and began teaching at Harvard and Chicago.

20: After winning a Pulitzer in 1974, he was appointed Librarian of Congress by President Ford.

10: After stepping down from the Library in 1987, he returned to writing history, penning The Discoverers and The Creators.

A: Daniel BOORSTIN

3. 30 POINT BONUS. Simple. Name the scientist who discovered the given thing. 10 points each.

- atomic nucleus
- neutron
- electron

A: Ernest RUTHERFORD

A: James CHADWICK

A: J.J. THOMSON

4. 25 POINT BONUS. We all know that the Speaker of the House is third in line in the order of Presidential succession. But a different government official is third in the order of protocol. For 25 points, what non-Executive branch official is responsible for greeting ambassadors and dignitaries when the President and VP cannot?

A: CHIEF JUSTICE OF THE SUPREME COURT

5. 30 POINT BONUS. From the files of Amusing Postal Moments: Cuzco, Peru was to sport a statue of the last king of the Incas. What they got from the foundry was a statue of a much different Native American. Lacking the funds to reverse this error, they kept the statue and put it up. For 10 points what Native American, father of Pocahontis, now stands in Cuzco's city square?

A: POWHATAN

For 20 points, name the Incan king that was supposed to stand where Powhatan now is.

A: ATAHUALPA

6. 30 POINT BONUS. Your generic name the composer bonus, 10 points each.

- Clock Symphony
- Symphonie Fantastique
- Kaddish Symphony

A: Josef HAYDN

A: Hector BERLIOZ

A: Leonard BERNSTEIN

7. 30 POINT BONUS. They Also Ran, a book by Irving Stone, details several losing Presidential candidates. For 10 points each, given the winner, name the loser, all of whom Stone thinks would have made the better President.

- James Buchanan

A: John C. FREMONT

- Herbert Hoover

A: ALFRED E. SMITH

- Ulysses S. Grant (1868)

A: Horatio SEYMOUR

8. 30 POINT BONUS. We don't normally think of Canadian provinces as having counties, but the Northwest Territories do have divisions, three in fact. For 10 points each, name the three districts that make up the Northwest Territory.

A: MACKENZIE, FRANKLIN, KEEWATIN

9. 20 POINT BONUS. Many famous authors also wrote screenplays for the movies. Note the following five- Shaw, Faulkner, Steinbeck, Fitzgerald, and Parker. For 5 points each, given the movie, tell me which of those authors wrote it.

- | | |
|-------------------------------|---------------|
| • Gone With the Wind | A: FITZGERALD |
| • The Big Sleep | A: FAULKNER |
| • A Star is Born | A: PARKER |
| • Caesar and Cleopatra | A: SHAW |

10. 20 POINT BONUS. He started as executive producer of The Loner, a Twilight Zone knock-off. He then went on to become the executive producer and narrator of both the Green Hornet and Batman TV series. For 20 points name this man whose distinctive voice and campy production style made both of his latter shows cult classics.

A: William DOZIER

11. 30-20-10 BONUS. Name the element.

30: Discovered in 1828 by Berzelius, its earliest use was in gas street lamps.

20: It has many radioactive isotopes, and has the atomic number 90.

10: It's in the actinide series, and named for a Norse god.

A: THORIUM

12. 20 POINT BONUS. Its main concepts were developed by Felix Hausdorff. Two problems in this branch of mathematics are "The 7 Bridges of Konigsberg" and the "Four-Color Problem." For 20 points, name this companion to geometry which deals with patterns and structures.

A: TOPOLOGY

13. 20 POINT BONUS. You've heard of Bob Roberts and Robert Goulet, but have you heard of these historical Roberts? You'll get 10 points apiece for correctly identifying them.

• The father of William the Conqueror, he was noted for a life of cruelty and violence.

A: ROBERT THE DEVIL

• A Scottish noble, he led a revolt against England to gain independence.

A: ROBERT THE BRUCE

14. 30 POINT BONUS. Given the class year and rank, identify the West Point graduate who went on to become a general.

- | | |
|-----------------------------|----------------------|
| • 1861, last in his class | A: George CUSTER |
| • 1903, first in his class | A: Douglas MACARTHUR |
| • 1829, second in his class | A: Robert E. LEE |

15. 25 POINT BONUS. Only 2 NBA coaches have been named Coach of the Year for two different teams. One coached the Cavaliers in 1976 and the Celtics in 1980. The other coached the Bucks in 1985 and Golden State in 1992. For 10 points each and a 5 point bonus for both, name these coaches.

A: Bill FITCH, Don NELSON

16. 30 POINT BONUS. A 30 point bonus on the 30 Years' War. You'll get 10 points for each correct answer.

- This 1648 treaty ended the war.

A: Peace of WESTPHALIA

• This Swedish Protestant leader invaded the Holy Roman Empire in 1630 and defeated the imperial force.

A: GUSTAVUS ADOLPHUS

- This critical 1632 battle pitted Gustavus Adolphus against Wallenstein.

A: Battle of LUTZEN

17. 30-20-10 BONUS. Name the state.

30: The state motto is "Hope" and the state flower is the violet.

20: Colonists battled natives in the Great Swamp Fight in 1675.

10: Founders of this state include Roger Williams and Anne Hutchinson.

A: RHODE ISLAND

18. 25 POINT BONUS. The Olympian gods of ancient Greece often had objects associated with them, including shields, musical instruments, and (most notably for this bonus) staves. For 10 points each, and a 5 point bonus for both, name these mythically-related object.

- A staff entwined with 2 serpents, it belonged to Hermes until he gave it to Asclepius (ass-klee-pea-us), god of healing and medicine

A: CADUCEUS

- A staff entwined with grapevines, it belonged to Dionysus. Matthew Arnold named a work after it.

A: THYRSUS

19. 25 POINT BONUS. Founded in 720 BC, it was the earliest Greek colony on the Gulf of Taranto in Italy. After becoming a small empire in its own right, party strife and social upheaval caused its violent destruction in 510 BC. For 25 points, name this Greek colony whose luxurious lifestyle is a buzzword today for any lavish existence.

A: SYBARIS (sybarite)

20. 20 POINT BONUS. He's not a werewolf, but he was killed by a silver bullet. After proclaiming himself king of a Caribbean island, he hallucinates about his own past and the history of blacks in America. For 20 points, name this 1920 play by Eugene O'Neill.

A: THE EMPORER JONES

21. 30 POINT BONUS. In the 14 times that the World Cup has been played, only 6 nations have won. For 5 points each, name this elite group that consists of 3 European and 3 South American nations.

A: ARGENTINA, BRAZIL, ENGLAND, ITALY, URUGUAY, WEST GERMANY

(must say West Germany, as East or combined never won)

22. 30-20-10 BONUS. Name the playwright from the plays

30: The Vikings of Helgoland

20: An Enemy of the People

10: Ghosts

A: Henrik IBSEN

23. 30 POINT BONUS. In its 47 year history, the United Nations General Assembly has been presided over by six men, each from a different nation. For 5 points each, give the nations represented by these men.

A: NORWAY, SWEDEN, BURMA (OR MYANMAR), AUSTRIA, PERU, EGYPT

24. 30-20-10 BONUS. Give the common name.

30: It was the name of an abolitionist newspaper run by Frederick Douglass.

20: It's the name of a gay character from the comic book Alpha Flight.

10: It is also the common name of the celestial object Polaris.

A: NORTH STAR

25. 20 POINT BONUS. We all have played Monopoly. It seems odd that this popular strike it rich game was invented during the Depression. But it was, by an unemployed engineer from Germantown, Pennsylvania. For 20 points, name this man who went from broke to millionaire with the game of hotels, deeds, and "go."

A: Charles DARROW

26. 30-20-10 BONUS. Name the book give the characters.

30: Thorpe Athelny

20: Mildred Rogers and Miss Wilkinson

10: Philip, William, and Louisa Carey

A: OF HUMAN BONDAGE

27. 25 POINT BONUS. Final bonus cop-out time. For each country given, give its unit of currency, 5 points each and 5 for all four.

- Brazil

A: CRUZADO

- Burkina Faso

A: CFA FRANC (prompt if say 'franc')

- Bahrain

A: DINAR

- Bangladesh

A: TAKA