

TOSS-UPS / Team 3 ("Wolverines") from U. Michigan

1. The island of Bali (BAH-lee) is the one major Hindu outpost in the archipeligo that makes up the most populous Moslem nation in the world, a nation that is also distinguished for having had only two presidents in its almost fifty years of independence. For 10 points, name this Asian country.

Answer: Indonesia

2. Two of the northernmost U.S. states have capital cities with months in their names. For 10 points, name the two cities and the states of which they are the capitals.

Answer: Augusta, Maine AND Juneau, Alaska

3. For 10 points, as a result of the explosion of the Hindenberg, helium has replaced what lighter but extremely flammable gas in blimps and dirigibles?

Answer: Hydrogen

4. Leibniz's (LIBE-nitz) doctrine that we live in the best of all possible worlds caused much controversy in Europe in the late 1600s. For 10 points, name both the author and the title of the 18th-century story that famously lampooned that element of Leibniz's philosophy.

Answer: Author: Voltaire (OR Arouet)

AND

Story: Candide

5. While Ronald Reagan's 1984 presidential election victory, was, by any account, a landslide, Walter Mondale and Geraldine Ferraro managed to avoid total embarrassment by winning two states, territories, or districts. For 10 points, name both of the two states, territories, or districts that the Democrats carried.

Answer: Minnesota and Washington, D.C.

6. One U.S. state is unique in that its state law is based on the French Napoleonic Code. The state is also distinguished in that it is divided not into counties, but into parishes. For 10 points, name this southern state.

Answer: Louisiana

7. U.S. anthropologist Margaret Mead studied gender roles and sexual practices of primitive cultures on New Guinea, Bali (BAH-lee), and other islands in Southeast Asia, but her best-known work was carried out on what island in the South Pacific Ocean?

Answer: Samoa (or Western Samoa)

8. Containing over one-fifth of the world's population, the People's Republic of China is also one of the largest countries in land area. For 10 points, how many time zones are officially in use in this massive country?

Answer: 1 (as decreed by the government)

9. This entertainer pulled off an unprecedented show business hat trick, winning three major awards for Best Director in the spring of 1973. For 10 points, name this man who won an Emmy for the special "Liza with a 'Z'", a Tony for the musical "Pippin", and an Oscar for the film "Cabaret".

Answer: Bob FOSSE

10. Horrified with the film version of his 1981 novel The Hotel New Hampshire, this author vowed to never again sell the movie rights to any of his subsequent works, including The Cider House Rules, A Prayer for Owen Meany, and A Son of the Circus. For 10 points, name him.

Answer: John IRVING

11. She left home at age 15 to begin a career as a radio and movie actress. By age 26, she was the First Lady of her nation. For 10 points, name this woman, who was perhaps the most beloved figure in the history of Argentina.

Answer: Eva PERON

12. Most of the original cast of this Stephen Sondheim musical reunited this summer to present a concert version of the show at Carnegie Hall in commemoration of the work's 10th anniversary. For ten points, name the musical, suggested by the life and art of Impressionist painter Georges Seurat.

Answer: SUNDAY IN THE PARK WITH GEORGE

13. "Perestroika" won the 1994 Tony Award for Best Play. It actually is the second part of a seven-hour epic, the first half of which is entitled "Millennium Approaches" and won the 1993 Tony Award for Best Play. Collectively called "Angels in America" this work marked the first time a playwright won the Best Play award two years in a row. For 10 points, name him.

Answer: Tony KUSHNER

14. Although the impending reversion to Chinese government has the citizens of Hong Kong worried, it is not the only colony left bordering China. For 10 points, name the Portuguese establishment to the southwest of Hong Kong.

Answer: MACAO

15. She made headlines in December, 1987 upon her escape from the West Virginia federal penitentiary where she was serving a life sentence. For 10 points, name this disciple of Charles Manson and would-be assassin of Gerald Ford.

Answer: Lynnette "Squeaky" FROMME

16. In 1992, Whitney Houston's rendition of the song entitled "I Will Always Love You" became one of the all-time best selling records. However, Houston was not the first person to record this song. For 10 points, name the country music superstar who first performed this song.

Answer: Dolly PARTON

17. He was the author of Mont-Saint-Michel and Charles^{Pres}, a narrative designed to examine the interplay between art and authority in the middle ages. As a member of the faculty of Harvard College, his views on the origins of the Common Law were instrumental in the development of those of his friend and colleague, Oliver Wendell Holmes. For ten points, name this grandson and great grandson of presidents, and author of The Education of Henry Adams.

Answer: Henry Adams

18. In addition to providing remedies for infringement, this act of congress establishes the requirements for federal registration of trademarks. For ten points, name this act.

Answer: The Lanham Act

19. Recreational weight-lifters do anything to become huge, including drinking gritty chemical-laden protein drinks. One of the minerals added to many of these drink formulas is thought to enhance the body's ability to metabolize amino acids and build muscle. For ten points, name this mineral, atomic number 24, named after the Greek work for "color."

Answer: Chromium

20. It is an archipelago nation in the Mozambique Channel whose capital, Moroni, had in 1980 only 17,000 inhabitants. For ten points, name this country.

Answer: Federal Islamic Republic of the Comoros
OR the Comoros Islands

21. In his novel The Sot-Weed Factor, the character Henry Burlingame III searches 17th century Maryland for the identity of his parents and, while in disguise as Lord Baltimore, commissions his loyal but naive companion Ebenezer Cooke poet laureate of Maryland. For ten points, name the author of this work, and of his more famous black comedy The Floating Opera

Answer: John Barth

22. She won a 1985 Tony for best actress in the play Joe Egg, but is perhaps best known as the tough pink-clad friend of Olivia Newton-John in the movie version of Grease. For 10 points, name this actress.

Answer: Stockard Channing

23. One of the early pieces of evidence pointing to a quantum theory of matter was a phenomenon whereby radiation of a given wavelength in the x-ray region sent through a metallic foil is scattered as if the radiation comprised many tiny particles with energy in multiples of a single discrete amount, which amount depended on wavelength. For 10 points, name this billiard-ball like property of radiation.

Answer: The Compton Effect

24. If I call you a bully, stinky, and of poor taste in your choice of friends in answer to your trenchant and well-reasoned arguments, then I am using a rhetorical device designed to appeal to the emotions rather than to one's intellect or reason. While such attacks in the present day apply with equal force to women, this term comes from the Latin literally meaning, "to the man." For 10 points, name this rhetorical device.

Answer: ad hominem

25. According to Herodotus, he attacked the Persian Empire as a result of a prophecy he received from the Delphic Oracle, which stated that if he attacked Persia, a great empire would be destroyed. Unfortunately, it was his own. For 10 points name this rich Lydian king.

Answer: Croesus

26. It was trained by Pegasus after being formed from the blood of Medusa. For 10 points name this mythological creature which Perseus rode in his quest to save Andromeda.

Answer: Pegasus

27. He was expelled from Harvard, but later went on to build the Dynamix House. For 10 points name this architect of the famous Geodesic Dome.

Answer: R. Buckminster Fuller

28. He received the position largely because the House of Hannover spoke German and was not familiar with British government. For 10 points identify this first prime minister of Great Britain.

Answer: Robert Walpole

29. It has the oldest parliament in the world. For a quick 10 points, name the country governed by Althing.

Answer: Iceland

30. Although later elected to president of the Soviet Academy of Sciences, he was once exiled to the closed city of Gorki. For 10 points name this famous Soviet academian.

Answer: Andrei Sakharov

31. He is currently touring the former Soviet Union after recently returning from Vermont. For 10 points identify this formerly exiled author of The Gulag Archipelago.

Answer: Alexander Solzhenitzen

32. His early experiences in politics included serving as Secretary of War for Franklin Pierce. A decade later he would reluctantly accept the position which made him famous. For 10 points name this president of the Confederacy.

Answer: Jefferson Davis

33. The 1994 edition of the Encyclopedia Britannica is dedicated to two heads of state. Predictably, one of them is Queen Elizabeth II. FAQTP, name the other.

Answer: President Bill CLINTON

34. For a quick 10 points: what was the major innovation at William Kemmler's execution at Auburn State Prison, N.Y., August 6, 1890?

It Was The First By ELECTROCUTION
(Accept: The ELECTRIC CHAIR)

35. Immediately after birth, drops of this substance are placed in the baby's eyes to prevent gonorrhoeal eye infection. FTP, what is this compound whose formula is AgNO_3 ?

SILVER NITRATE

BONUS QUESTIONS / Team 3 ("Wolverines") from U. Michigan

20 Point Bonus

1. Besides being known as one of the most ornery players in the history of baseball, former Detroit Tiger Ty Cobb holds the Major League Baseball record for highest lifetime batting average. For 20 points, who has the second highest lifetime batting average?

Answer: "Shoeless" Joe Jackson

30 Point Bonus

2. The country of South Africa completely surrounds the independent country of Lesotho (luh-SOO-too) and surrounds most, but not all, of Swaziland. Only one country in the world actually does completely surround two other countries. For 30 points, all or nothing, name all three of the countries involved in this geographical oddity.

Answers: Italy AND San Marino AND
Vatican City or The Vatican or The Holy See

30 Point Bonus

3. Two countries other than the United States accept U.S. currency as legal tender. For 15 points each, name these two countries.

Answers: Panama (15 points)
Liberia (15 points)

20 Point Bonus

4. After a much-publicized tour of college campuses in the 1950s with his quartet, during which he introduced tens of thousands of students to the world of jazz, this man became the first jazz musician ever pictured on the cover of Time magazine. For 25 points, name this still-active musician.

Answer: Dave Brubeck

20 Point Bonus

5. In 1913 the first performance of this man's most famous composition caused riots in the music hall in which it was performed. For 20 points, name the Russian-born composer of The Rite of Spring.

Answer: Igor Stravinsky

20 Point Bonus

6. The birth of western philosophy in ancient Greece resulted in many famous pairs of teachers and students: Socrates' best-known pupil was Plato. Plato's most famous pupil was Aristotle. Aristotle's best-known pupil broke with tradition and eschewed philosophy in order to focus on conquering the Mediterranean world. For 20 points, who was this pupil of Aristotle?

Answer: Alexander the Great

30 Point Bonus

7. Although Major League Baseball has had many black players since Jackie Robinson broke the color barrier in 1946, there have been very few black managers in baseball. For 15 points for each league, name the first black managers and the teams they managed in both the National and American Leagues.

Answers: (15 points) National League: Frank Robinson
San Francisco OR Giants

(15 points) American League: Frank Robinson
Baltimore OR Orioles

30 Point Bonus

8. Henry VIII (Henry the Eighth) was notorious for having had six wives during his lifetime. He married one Jane, two Annes and three Catherines. For each of the following clues, decide for 10 points each which of the three names is correct:

a) the mother of Queen Mary Tudor

Answer: CATHERINE (Catherine of Aragon) (10 points)

b) she died shortly after giving birth to the child who one day would be Edward VI

Answer: JANE (Jane Seymour) (10 points)

c) the first of Henry's wives to die on the chopping block, she was the mother of Queen Elizabeth I

Answer: ANNE (Anne Boleyn) (10 points)

25 Point Bonus

9. This landmark 1975 musical opened with little advance hoopla off-Broadway. By the time it ended its original run, in April 1990, it had moved uptown to the Shubert Theatre, where it played over 6,100 performances, still the longest Broadway run of all time. Additionally, it won 9 Tony Awards, as well as the 1976 Pulitzer Prize for Drama. For 25 points, name this work, which was conceived, directed and choreographed by Michael Bennett.

Answer: A CHORUS LINE

30 Point Bonus

10. Name this entertainer on the first clue for 30 points, the second for 20, and the third for 10.

1) She is the only performer ever to win four Tony Awards in the Best Musical Actress category.

2) She won her Tony Awards for "Mame" in 1966, "Dear World" in 1969, "Gypsy" in 1975, and "Sweeney Todd" in 1979.

3) Despite her plethora of Tonys, she has yet to win an Emmy for her role as Jessica Fletcher on "Murder, She Wrote" after eight nominations.

Answer: Angela LANSBURY

30 Point Bonus

11. The roles of Juliet and Lady Macbeth have provided countless actresses with a tremendous challenge onstage. However, William Shakespeare did not create them for women. In his day, female roles were portrayed by young men or boys and it wasn't until the 18th century, over 100 years after Shakespeare's death, that women began acting on stage in England. Nevertheless, the women of Shakespeare's plays are among the most coveted roles by contemporary actresses. For five points each, name the play in which the following woman or women appear:

- 1) Desdemona
Answer: OTHELLO
- 2) Portia and Jessica
Answer: THE MERCHANT OF VENICE
- 3) Rosalind and Celia
Answer: AS YOU LIKE IT
- 4) Goneril, Regan and Cornelia
Answer: KING LEAR
- 5) Ophelia and Gertrude
Answer: HAMLET
- 6) Viola and Olivia
Answer: TWELFTH NIGHT

30 Point Bonus

12. Name the playwright and screenwriter on the first clue for 30 points, the second for 20 and the third for 10.

1) Since 1961, a Broadway season without a work by him has been a rare one. Consequently, he made headlines when he announced he will open his next play, "London Suite", off-Broadway.

2) In 1991, he won a Pulitzer Prize for Drama for the first time, in recognition of the play "Lost in Yonkers".

3) Some of his most beloved works include the plays "Brighton Beach Memoirs", "Plaza Suite", "Barefoot in the Grass", "Last of the Red Hot Lovers", and "The Odd Couple", as well as the film "The Goodbye Girl".

Answer: Neil SIMON

25 Point Bonus

13. In 1917, the Bolsheviks executed Czar Nicholas along with the Czarina Alexandra, their four daughters, the Czarevich Alexis, four servants and a dog. Despite reports the royal family was shot and bayoneted, and their corpses dismembered, burned and corroded with acid, it was rumored that one of the daughters escaped to freedom. Even though eventual evidence proved the story was a hoax, the bizarre tale of the escaped Grand Duchess still exists today. For 25 points, give the first name of the daughter.

Answer: ANASTASIA Romanoff

20 Point Bonus

14. The chance to host the Olympic Games is an opportunity that provides both economic wealth and worldwide exposure, often leading to increased tourism. Thus, the rights to host the Games are hotly contested. First, for 10 points, name the city that lobbied long and hard to host the Olympic Games in 2000, but narrowly lost the rights in a 1994 Olympic Committee decision, due to the 1989 massacre of civilian demonstrators there.

Answer: BEIJING, CHINA

Second, for another 10 points, name the city that was awarded the rights instead.

Answer: SYDNEY, AUSTRALIA

20 Point Bonus

15. For 5 points each, give me the word or words which would complete the quotation from Shakespeare's Othello.

a. Who steals from my purse steals _____. Answer: trash.

b. But I will wear my heart _____. Answer: upon my sleeve.

c. O, beware, my lord, of jealousy. It is the green-eyed monster that doth mock the _____ it feeds on. Answer: meat.

d. Then you must speak of one that loved not _____ but too well.
Answer: wisely.

30 Point Bonus

16. "U.S.A. is the slice of a continent," writes John Dos Passos. "U.S.A. is a group of holding companies, some aggregations of trade unions, a set of laws bound in calf, a radio network..." and more. But U.S.A. is also a three volume trilogy. For 30 points, all or nothing, name each work which makes up the early 20th-century work, the U.S.A. Trilogy.

Answer: 42nd Parallel, 1919, The Big Money

20 Point Bonus

17. For 10 points each, give me the "p" word after each definition.

a. Derived from the greek name of the school of Aristotle, who used to lecture while pacing back and forth, this adjective can be used to mean either itinerant or Aristotelian.

Answer: peripatetic

b. This noun describes the use of two words when one is grammatically sufficient, for example, "more friendly" instead of "friendlier."

Answer: periphrasis

30 Point Bonus

18. Name this university after the first clue for 30 points, after the second for 20, and after the third for 10.

a. Its halfback, Jay Berwanger, won the first Heisman Trophy in 1935.

b. It is affiliated with the National Opinion Research Center, NORC, which just released a controversial study on American sexual behavior that implies that we are more tame than locker room talk would have us believe.

c. Among the 64 Nobel Laureates affiliated with it is an orthinology major named James Watson, of the renowned team of Watson & Crick.

Answer: University of Chicago

20 Point Bonus

19. Name the Florida rivers for 10 points each.

a. Passing through Jacksonville, it is the only U.S. river that naturally flows north.

Answer: St. Johns River

b. Steven Foster never actually visited this river before writing "Old Folks at Home," and selected it for praise only because it had the number of syllables he needed for just the right meter—ironically, two.

Answer: Suwannee (SWA-nee)

25 Point Bonus

20. Among the distinctions of this U.S. city are not only the tallest state capitol building in the country, but also the several bullet holes still to be seen behind the speaker's podium in the capitol's assembly hall. For 25 points, name the city.

Answer: Baton Rouge, Louisiana

25 Point Bonus

21. Forrest Gump, Zelig, and the gardener of the Jerzy Kosciński work Being There are not the only fictional characters to possess fame and apparent wisdom due to the wishful psychological projections of those with whom they come in contact. A young southern writer predated them all in her work about the dashed aspirations of the colorful yet anguished members of a small town in the 1950s. In this work, nearly everyone seeks comfort and counsel from a deaf-mute who, perplexed, was merely being polite.

a. First, for 5 points, name the author. Answer: Carson McCullers

b. Second, for 10 points, name the work. Answer: The Heart is a Lonely Hunter

c. Third, for 10 points, name the deaf-mute character who in the end commits suicide when he learns of the death of his only true friend at a mental institution. Answer: Mr. Singer

30 POINT BONUS

22. The Great Midwest is one of the newest and most successful conferences in college basketball. Last year it sent 5 teams to the NCAA tournament. For 5 points a piece and a total of 30 name any 6 of the 7 teams in the conference.

ANSWER: CINCINNATI, SAINT LOUIS, MARQUETTE,
DAYTON, ALABAMA-BIRMINGHAM, DEPAUL,

MEMPHIS STATE.

30 POINT BONUS

23. William Pitt was nicknamed the organizer of victory for his role in Great Britain's victory over France in the French and Indian War. His successors, however did not fare as well in the American Revolutionary War. For 5 points a piece and a total of 30 name in any order the 4 prime ministers after Pitt.

ANSWER: GRENVILLE, TOWNSEND, NORTH, SHEFFIELD

20 POINT BONUS

24. Henry VIII desired divorce was the subject of T.S. Elliot's Murder in the Cathedral. The divorce ultimately led to the death of two archbishops. For 10 points a piece and a total of 20 name them both.

ANSWER: Sir Thomas MOORE, Cardinal WOOLSLEY.

30 POINT BONUS

25. Given one of the ships they commanded, identify the explorer. 10 points a piece a total of 30 for all three.

Endeavor	James Cook
Half Moon	Henry Hudson
St. Peter	Bering

30 POINT BONUS

26. In the 19th century newspaper men were often credited with establishing cities. For 10 points apiece, name the two founders of the Denver Evening Post and the single founder of the Kansas City Star, all three of whom were major figures in the early stages of their cities.

ANSWER: BONFILS, TAMEN, NELSON

30 POINT BONUS

27. Whether it was the result of a reputed curse instigated by Tecumseh or not, 7 presidents all elected in a year ending in 0 died in office. The trend stopped when an attempted assassination of Ronald Reagan failed. For 5 points apiece and a maximum of 30, name any 6 of these 7 presidents.

ANSWER: WILLIAM HENRY HARRISON, ABRAHAM LINCOLN,
JAMES GARFIELD, WILLIAM MCKINLEY, WARREN G

HARDING,
JOHN F

FRANKLIN DELANO ROOSEVELT OR FDR,
KENNEDY OR JFK

30 POINT BONUS

28. Given the following Indian chiefs, for 10 points apiece and a maximum of 30, identify the tribe.

Osceola ANSWER: SEMINOLES

Tecumseh ANSWER: SHAWNEE

Geronimo ANSWER: APACHE

20 POINT BONUS

29. It has often been said that many authors are philosophers at heart and vice versa. Never has this been more applicable than in the case of two brothers. The "author's" works include such titles as Ambassadors and Turning of the Screw. The philosopher coined the term the "cash value of truth" and is a noted pragmatist. For 10 points apiece give the first and last name of each.

ANSWER: HENRY JAMES, WILLIAM JAMES

30. 30-PT. BONUS

Among film directors, the man whose hand guided "M*A*S*H," "Nashville," and "The Player" is considered a genius by some and unconventional by virtually all. For 10 points each:

(1) Name this director.

Robert ALTMAN

(2) Name his fall 1994 film set in the Paris fashion industry.

"PRET-A-PORTÉ" (pret-uh-por-TAY)

(3) According to that industry, what is the three-word English translation of "Pret-a-Porté"?

READY TO WEAR

31. 20-PT. BONUS

Perhaps the best-known aspect of this religion is its strict doctrine of non-injury. Monks carry brooms to sweep insects from their path; they wear veils to sift insects from their mouths; and they may not disturb insects