

Chicago Cody (A)
1994 JOBKO

Toss-Ups

1) The California senate race between Dianne Feinstein and Michael Huffington recently set a record as the most expensive statewide campaign ever. FTP, this record was previously held by the 1984 senate race in what much smaller state, in which Jim Hunt narrowly lost to Jesse Helms?

- NORTH CAROLINA

2) The losing general, Datis, survived, but Callimachus, the commander-in-chief of the victorious side, was killed. FTP, name this battle of 490 B.C., whose most famous combatants were Miltiades and the playwright Aeschylus.

- MARATHON

3) He spent thirty-nine years working for the Hartford Accident and Indemnity company, but it was not until he won a 1955 Pulitzer Prize that his co-workers learned of his literary activities. FTP, name this poet of "Sunday Morning," and "The Emperor of Ice Cream."

- Wallace STEVENS

4) Along with Kirchhoff, he invented the technique of spectroscopy and discovered the elements cesium and rubidium, but he is best known for popularizing a piece of equipment that had actually been invented by Michael Faraday several decades earlier. FTP, identify this namesake of a commonly used laboratory burner.

- Robert BUNSEN

5) FAQTP, Richard the Lionheart, Pope Julius II, Julius Caesar, The King of Siam, and Doctor Doolittle have all been portrayed on screen by what actor, who is best known for his role as Professor Henry Higgins in "My Fair Lady?"

- Rex HARRISON

6) By the eighteenth century, it was the last remaining stronghold of Tatars, and in the Russian civil war, it was the last territory to be evacuated by the White Army. FTP, name this peninsula, which is currently contemplating secession from the Ukraine.

- The CRIMEA

7) Harry Houdini and Indira Gandhi die. Nevada becomes a state. Martin Luther nails his ninety-five theses to a church door in Wittenberg. "Devil's Night" brings a wave of arson to Detroit. FTP, all these events took place on what day of what month, celebrated by the Church as the Feast of All Souls?

- OCTOBER 31

8) Act one is "Daily Life." Act Two is "Love and Marriage," and act three, "Death," deals with the burial of one of the main characters, Julia Webb Gibbs. FTP, this is stucture of what play, which won a Pulitzer Prize for Thornton Wilder?

- "OUR TOWN"

9) It was thought to have only two satellites until 1989, when Voyager 2 discovered the additional moons Larissa, Galatea, Thalassa, Despina, Naiad, and Proteus. FTP, name this smallest and outermost of the solar system's four gas giants.

- NEPTUNE

10) The least-known of the three major composers whose work is featured in Stanley Kubrick's "2001," he was also the last important composer to write grand ballets in the style of the 19th century. FTP, name this Armenian composer of "Spartacus" and "Gayane," whose most popular work is his "Sabre Dance."

- Aram KHACHATURIAN

11) As candidate of the Greenback party in 1880, he recieved only three percent of the popular vote and no electoral votes, but he did much better in 1892, when he became the first third-party candidate since the civil war to carry a state. FTP, name this first presidential candidate of the People's Party.

- James B. WEAVER

12) Its class of 1823 included the abolitionist statesman William Pitt Fessenden, its class of 1824 included the future president Franklin Pierce, and its class of 1825 included Henry Wadsworth Longfellow and Nathaniel Hawthorne. FTP, name this small but historically significant college in Brunswick, Maine.

- BOWDOIN

13) This seven-letter word originally refered to the arena in which gamebirds would fight, and it later came to mean any place that was frequently the site of battles, but it was not until World War I that aviators gave it its present meaning. FTP, identify this word for the small compartment in which a plane's pilot sits.

- COCKPIT

14) An undercover cop named Michael Long is shot and left for dead, but is rescued by a mysterious foundation, which gives him a new identity, a mission of fighting crime, and, most importantly, a talking Trans-Am named KITT. FTP, name this early-80s NBC series starring David Hasselhoff.

- "KNIGHT RIDER"

15) Although the jury found that she had indeed made up five quotations in a 1983 New Yorker article, it could find no evidence of malice or recklessness, and thus cleared her of the lawsuit filed against her by psychoanalyst Jeffery Masson. FTP, name this defendant in the longest and most expensive libel trial in history.

- Janet MALCOM

16) His dream was to conquer the Guinea basin, link up with Christian Ethiopia, and drive the Moors out of North Africa, and it was primarily for this purpose that he built his navigational school at Sagres. FTP, name this prince and founder of Portugal's maritime empire.

- HENRY the NAVIGATOR

17) Richard was the bishop who presided over the execution of Mary Stuart, Giles the elder was the first Englishman to visit Russia, and both Giles the younger and Phineas were distinguished poets. FTP, name this family of eminent Elizabethans, whose most famous member, John, co-wrote several plays with Francis Beaumont.

- FLETCHER

18) He made his fortune building airport parking lots, then moved on to an eighteen-year career as one of the Senate's most liberal members. FTP, name this retiring Ohio democrat, nicknamed "Senator No."

- Howard METZENBAUM

19) It passes through Russia, the USA, Canada, Finland, Sweden, and Norway, but not Iceland, which it misses by only a few miles. FTP, name this imaginary line located at 66 degrees 31 minutes north latitude.

- The ARCTIC CIRCLE

20) Jay Ungar plays American folk music, Mark O'Connor plays country, Jean-Luc Ponty and Stephen Grapelli play Jazz, and Sarah Chang, Jascha Heifertz, and Itzhak Perlman play classical music on, FTP, what instrument?

- VIOLIN (acc. FIDDLE)

21) "We live submerged at the bottom of an ocean of air, said this Italian scientist, who in 1643 proved built an instrument to measure the weight of this airy oceanTP, name this namesake for a unit of pressure and inventor of the barometer.

- Evangelista TORRICELLI

22) His name means "thrice-blessed," and though a former slave, he is so rich that he can travel overland from Rome to Naples without once leaving his property. FTP, name this nouveau-rich Roman freedman, the most famous character from Petronius' "Satyricon."

- TRIMALCHIO

23) Her latest book is called "Vamps and Tramps," and judging by the reactions to her previous work, it promises to be one of the most controversial books of the year. FTP, name this author of "Sexual Personae."

- Camile PAGLIA

24) Her latest album contains such tracks as "Ordinary Miracles," "Happy Days are Here Again," and a special performance of "Somewhere," recorded from the Times Square broadcast. FTP, name this singer who returned to the concert circuit in 1994.

- Barbara STREISAND

25) A justice of the New York state supreme court for fifty-two years, he is the subject of a new biography by Gerald Gunther. FTP, name this "tenth justice," probably the most influential American jurist never to be appointed to the Supreme Court.

- Learned HAND

Chicago Cody (A)
1994 JOBKO

Boni

1) [25] Every year in late winter, life on college campuses comes to a virtual standstill as students follow with rapt attention the most exciting spectacle of amateur athletics. We refer, of course, to College Bowl regionals. However, the NCAA basketball tournament is also held at around this time, and this too draws its share of fans. For five points each, given a college, tell whether it has won the NCAA men's basketball championship, a modern-era CBI college bowl national championship, both, or neither.

- |                   |              |
|-------------------|--------------|
| a- North Carolina | BOTH ✓       |
| b- Fresno State   | COLLEGE BOWL |
| c- Stanford       | BOTH         |
| d- Georgia Tech   | NEITHER      |
| e- Oregon         | BASKETBALL   |

2) [30] Time for another round of that college bowl standard, connections. Given a clue that refers to two names or titles, supply the hybrid title that would result by combining them. For example, if I give you "A 90s pop icon and the author of "Justine," you would correctly respond, "Marky Marquis de Sade." Ten points each.

a) A pulitzer prize- winning novel by James Agee, and a comic strip featuring Dolly, Billy, Jeffy, P.J., and Not Me.

A DEATH IN THE FAMILY CIRCUS

b) A collection of short stories by A.A. Milne, and a movie featuring Kiefer Sutherland, Emilio Estevez, and Lou Diamond Phillips.

WHEN WE WERE VERY YOUNG GUNS

c) A sitcom starring Fred MacMurray, and a novel by D.H. Lawrence.
MY THREE SONS AND LOVERS

3) [30] Identify the author, 30- 20- 10.

30- His homosexual lover of several decades was Bob Buckingham, a London policeman.

20- His minor works include "The Celestial Omnibus," "Two Cheers for Democracy," and "The Longest Journey," which he considered his best novel.

10- He is best known for novels "Maurice," "Howards End," and "A Passage to India."

E.M. FORSTER

4) [30] For the stated number of points, identify these physics Nobel laureates, given the year in which they won and the specific accomplishment for which they were honored.

a) 5 points: 1901; the discovery of x-rays.

- Wilhelm ROENTGEN

b) 10 points: 1949; prediction of the meson.

- Hideki YUKAWA

c) 15 points: 1967; discoveries concerning the energy production of stars.

- Hans BETHE

20
5) ~~[30]~~ For ten points each, identify the authors of the following novels, each of which were adapted into movies in 1993 or 1994.

a- "Schindler's List"

- Thomas KENEALLY

b- ~~"Forrest Gump"~~

- ~~Winston GROOM~~

c- "The Road to Wellville"

- T. Coraghessan BOYLE

6) [20] Vice- President Al Gore was recently forced to make a public apology after he called the supporters of a certain political candidate "members of the extra-chromosome right-wing." For ten points each, answer the following questions about this incident.

a) First, Gore made this remark in reference to the supporters of what controversial Senate candidate?

- Oliver NORTH

b) Gore's apology for this remark was not directed towards North or his supporters, but rather, FTP, to what group of disabled persons, who suffer from the genetic defect of an extra 21st chromosome?

- DOWN'S SYNDROME victims

7) [30] Carmen Sandiego is running amok in Africa, and it is up to you to stop her. Prove yourself worthy of the Acme Detective Agency and answer the following questions about her whereabouts.

a) Carmen went to the city of Yamoussoukro and stole the world's largest cathedral. In what country did this dastardly crime take place?

- COTE D'IVOIRE or IVORY COAST

b) As she was fleeing the Cote D'Ivoire, Carmen was seen glancing through an Amharic-English phrasebook. Towards what country was she most likely heading?

- ETHIOPIA or ERITREA

(More on next page)

c) When you arrive in Ethiopia, Carmen is gone, but before she left she was overheard remarking that she would next go to "that country with the blue flag with a white star in the middle?" Which country is this?

- SOMALIA

8) [30] For ten points each, given a list of monarchs from different countries with the same name, put them in chronological order.

a) Henry IV of England, Henry IV of France, and Henry IV of the Holy Roman Empire.

- H.R.E., ENGLAND, FRANCE

✓ b) Charles I of Great Britain, Hungary, and Spain

- HUNGARY, SPAIN, BRITAIN

✓ c) John I of the Byzantine Empire, England, and France

- BYZANTINE, ENGLAND, FRANCE

9) [20] The biblical patriarch Jacob had thirteen children, who were born of four different women- two wives and two slave girls. For five points each, name these four mothers to Jacob's children.

- RACHEL, LEAH, ZILPAH, and BILHAH

10) [30] For fifteen points each, identify these extinct birds.

a- A swift runner and fierce kicker, this 10-foot tall bird of New Zealand was extinct by the seventeenth century.

- The Giant MOA

b- Related to the penguin, this bird of the north Atlantic was hunted to death for its feathers and flesh. The last two were clubbed to death in 1844.

- The Great AUK

11) [30] For ten points each, identify the American symphony orchestras, given the names of a few of their past conductors or music directors.

a- George Szell, Lorin Maazel

- CLEVELAND Orchestra

b- Leopold Stokowski, Eugene Ormandy

- PHILADELPHIA ORCHESTRA

c- Hans Kindler, Mstislav Rostropovich

- NATIONAL SYMPHONY

12) [30] Time now for a bonus on a topic of undeniable importance- the sex life of George Sand. Given a description of how the fling ended, identify the lover of the French novelist.

a- While rummaging through his papers, she discovered a letter in his handwriting marked, "Not to be opened until my death." Naturally, she opened it, and discovered a long list of complaints about her. She immediately left him.

- Baron Casimir DUDEVANT

b- After he fell dangerously ill, she cared for him for a while, then ran off with his doctor. She quickly regretted this and shaved her head as a token of repentance, but he refused to take her back.

- Alfred de MUSSET

c- In the ninth year of their relationship they quarrelled over whether or not she should be reconciled with her estranged nephew Clesinger, and when she resented his interference, he left her.

- Frederic CHOPIN

13) [30] For fifteen points each, identify the following notable Oscar winners.

a- He is the only male to win three acting oscars, all as Best Supporting Actor.

- Walter BRENNAN

b- She is the only person to win an oscar by playing an oscar loser, which she did in the 1978 movie "California Suite."

- Dame Maggie SMITH

14) [30] Identify the statesman, 30- 20- 10.

30- In 1969, he reported seeing a UFO, and while canoeing, he was once slightly injured in an attack by a giant swimming rabbit.

20- In one of the more comical mistranslations of the cold war, his interpreter once announce to a crowd in Warsaw that he "sexually desired" the Polish people.

10- Now a perennial Nobel Peace Prize Candidate, his center for world peacekeeping efforts is located at Emory University in Atlanta

- Jimmy CARTER

15) [30] For 15 points each, identify the following depraved Roman emperors, given a description of some of their depravities.

a- This emperor openly carried on incestuous relationships with his sisters Drusilla, Lavilla, and Agrippina.

- CALIGULA

(More on next page)

b- A priest of a Syrian phallus- god before he became emperor, he allegedly drained the treasury on an empire- wide search for the man with the largest genitals in the world.

- ELAGABALUS (accept: HELIOGABALUS)

16) [20] For ten points each, identify the following classic television shows, given a few lines of their title songs.

a- "Poor little girls, now you're trapped in this cruel, crazy world/ While others make dates, you make license plates/ Now you're in jail."

- "WOMEN IN PRISON"

b- "She's fantastic, made of plastic, microchips here and there/ ...and brings love and laughter everywhere."

- "SMALL WONDER"

17) [30] Identify these two 20th- century poets based on clues about their careers for fifteen points, or from clues about their more famous sons for five points each.

a- (15) Poet Laureate of Britain from 1968 to 1972, his best- known poem is "Overtures to Death."

(5) His son, Daniel, won an Academy Award for the film "My Left Foot."

- Cecil DAY- LEWIS

b- (15) Winner of the 1940 Pulitzer Prize in poetry, his work includes "That Shining Place" and "Good Morning."

(5) His son Charles is played by Ralph Fiennes in the current movie "Quiz Show."

- Mark VAN DOREN

18) [30] For the stated number of points, given a European capital city, name the river it sits on.

a- (5 pts) Warsaw, Poland - The VISTULA

b- (10) Dublin, Ireland - The LIFFEY

c- (15) Skopje, Macedonia - The VARDAR

19) [30] For ten points each, name the major league single- season record holders in each of the following categories:

a- Hits - GEORGE SISLER

b- Doubles - Earl WEBB

c- Triples - OWEN WILSON

20) [30] The uncommon qualities of the world's commonest liquid- water- depend on a trio of forces, one of which is active within and two of which are active between the molecules. For ten points each, identify these forces, given very brief descriptions.

a- It links atoms into molecules by shared electrons.

- COVALENT bonding

b- It is a weak electrical link between the nucleus and the electrons of nearby molecules.

- VANDERWAALS or LONDON forces

c- It is a strong electrical link between the positive charges of certain nuclei and certain electrons of nearby atoms.

- HYDROGEN bonding

21) [25] Identify the historian from his works, 25- 10.

25- "The Age of Cosntantine the Great," "Cicerone," "History of Greek Civilization."

10- "The Civilization of the Renaissance in Italy."

- Jacob BURCKHARDT

22) [30] Identify the following cabinet posts from list of former occupants for fifteen points each, or from the current holder of the office for five points.

a- (15) Harry Daughtery, William Wirt, Edward Levi

(5) Janet Reno

- ATTORNEY GENERAL

b- (15) Patricia Roberts Harris, Margaret Heckler

(5) Donna Shalala

- HEALTH AND HUMAN SERVICES

23) [30] For ten points each, name the second largest cities of the following U.S. states:

a- Illinois - ROCKFORD

b- Oregon - EUGENE

c- South Carolina - CHARLESTON

24) [30] For fifteen points each, given a proof of God's existence, name the person who devised it.

a- God is the being than whom none greater can be concieved, but if it only existed in the intellect, it would not be the greates, since we can concieve of something having the same characteristics but actually existing, which would be greater. Therefore God exists.

- St. ANSELM

b- A plus b raised to the n power divided by n equals x. Therefore God exists. - Leonhard EULER