

1994 Cardinal Classic
Magliocca (1)
Toss-Ups

1. Mexico's Zapatista National Liberation Army, launched a rebellion on January 1, 1994 to topple the Mexican government in—For ten points—what impoverished Mexican state bordering Guatemala?

ANSWER: Chiapas(chee-a-pas)

2. Five years ago, he was bagging groceries in an Oklahoma supermarket. Then he joined the CBA, and proceeded to become one of the NBA's top shooting guards. For ten points, name this New York Knick standout.

ANSWER: John Starks

3. Mellon(mell-ok) means open in this language which features prominently in Lothlorien and Rivendell in Middle Earth. For ten points, what is this invented language of JRR Tolkien which would be anathema to dwarvish ears.

ANSWER: Elvish (Accept High Elvish)

4. From the Turkish word for "mountain", this names a Bulgarian mountain range but also more commonly denotes—For ten points—what region of southwestern Europe famous for fractious political instability?

ANSWER: Balkans

5. They are the reproductive vehicles of mycorrhizae, a symbiotic fungi which grows around trees and takes 12 years to develop. For ten points, name this culinary delight enjoyed by humans and pigs alike.

ANSWER: Truffles

6. Despite some errors, notably that of a boy covering his ears several seconds before a gunshot was to go off, many consider this to be Hitchcock's greatest film. What 1959 classic starring Cary Grant and Eva Marie Saint climaxed—For ten points—with a battle on Mt. Rushmore?

ANSWER: North by Northwest

7. When President Hoover ordered him to clear the "Bonus Army" camped outside Washington in 1932 without resorting to force, he promptly ignored the President and opened fire on the veterans. Which general—For ten points—again defied a President in 1951 and was relieved of command?

ANSWER: Douglas MacArthur

8. The Hope, a story of Israel from 1948 to 1967, is the latest work of—For ten points—what author of such classics as The Winds of War and The Caine Mutiny?

ANSWER: Herman Wouk

9. “We don’t have a health care crisis. We do have a welfare crisis.” opined—For ten points—what powerful chairman of the Senate Finance Committee and former United Nations ambassador representing New York?

ANSWER: Daniel Patrick Moynihan

10. The mob boss Giardella is one of the darker characters, but Detectives Kelly and Sifowicz(si-fo-wits) carry the dramatic load on—For ten points—what controversial hit TV series produced by Steven Bochco?

ANSWER: NYPD Blue

11. This university's TFTR achieved a world record on December 9, 1993, producing 3 megawatts of power. Although still short of break-even, it was the best performance thus by a fusion reactor. What university—For ten points—houses the TFTR?

ANSWER: Princeton

12. Notwithstanding charges of McCarthyism, he won a Pulitzer Prize in 1978 for his reporting on the Bert Lance affair, and his columns have graced the op-ed pages of the New York Times for nearly 20 years. For ten points, name this esteemed journalist.

ANSWER: William Safire

13. In Germany, it is against the law to name a child after this actress because it would, “endanger the well being of the child.” For ten points, name this actress, star of such films as Ghost, Made in America, and Sister Act.

ANSWER: Whoopi Goldberg

14. He advocated pain and suffering during a time of economic collapse. No, it's not Boris Yeltsin, but the German chancellor of 1930-1932 whose ill-advised fiscal restraint helped spring the Nazis into prominence. For ten points, name him.

ANSWER: Heinrich Bruning

15. His haunting score for On the Waterfront was a crucial part of the film's success, but it certainly didn't give him as much fame as his work in West Side Story. For ten points, name this American composer.

ANSWER: Leonard Bernstein

16. This American commander would be fortunate if our South Korean defenses held back the North, but then again, he should have random chance on his side. For ten points, what four letter term names this commander and also denotes what you might need to win this match?

ANSWER: Luck

17. At the pinnacle of his career in 1993, winning the PGA Championship and helping the U.S. Ryder Cup team to victory, who—For ten points—was diagnosed with cancer in December and withdrew from golf competition for the next 6 months?

ANSWER: Paul Azinger

18. "Back to Basics" was this leader's party's new slogan, but it quickly became a joke after two high officials resigned, one following charges of multiple extra-marital affairs, the other after charges of corruption. Name—For ten points—this most unpopular of British Prime Ministers.

ANSWER: John Major

19. Trilly, an 1894 novel by George du Maurier, is not known for its plot, but for one hypnotic character. For ten points, name this character, which now is used to denote any evil hypnotist or charmer.

ANSWER: Svengali

20. Despite the enhanced powers of Boris Yeltsin under the new Russian constitution, it is this Prime Minister who seems to wield the most political influence. Who—For ten points—succeeded Yegor Gaidar in December, 1992?

ANSWER: Victor Chernomyrdin (chair no MEER din)

21. Beginning with his first novel, Things Fall Apart, in 1958, he has chronicled the impact of Western culture on his native Africa. For ten points, name this Nigerian, author of Anthills of the Sahara.

ANSWER: Chinua Achebe

22. It cost $85 million and took three years to build, but in December, 1993 this statue was consecrated in Hong Kong. The statue was dedicated to—For ten points—what 6th century BC religious figure?

ANSWER: Buddha

23. Perhaps the greatest ruler of the Byzantine Empire's Macedonian dynasty, he ruled from 976 to 1025, and by destroying King Samuel of Bulgaria acquired the nickname "Bulgar-Slayer". For ten points, name this martial leader.

ANSWER: Basil II

24. While the transistor and the integrated circuit's inventors are well known, the Silicon Valley scientist who developed the microprocessor is hardly ever mentioned, yet the Economist calls him one of the most influential scientists of the century. For ten points, name him.

ANSWER: Ted Hoff

25. Andrew Bernard, Colley Cibber, Cecil Day Lewis, Ted Hughes, and William Wordsworth have all held, For ten points, what esteemed literary post?

ANSWER: Poet Laureate of England (Accept equivalents for England)

26. He says Prince of Tides and The Last of the Mohicans are his favorite novels. One would think he would enjoy The Making of a President. For ten points, name this political figure who says he reads 70 books a year in between his Presidential duties.

ANSWER: Bill Clinton

27. In the summer of 1993, Russian authorities announced that it had been discovered in a Moscow basement, ending years of speculation about this Ancient treasure's fate. For ten points, name this hoard of gold named for a Trojan King and discovered by Heinrich Schliemann.

ANSWER: Priam's Treasure

28. Daniele Cohen has led the effort to map the human genome through the use of YACS. For ten points, what does the acronym YAC stand for.

ANSWER: Yeast Artificial chromosomes

29. While his support of the Embargo Act, banning all U.S. exports, was probably the worst economic decision in U.S. History, his Louisiana purchase was probably one of the best. For ten points, name this President.

ANSWER: Thomas Jefferson

30. Perhaps his greatest achievement was a biography of his friend Theodore Roosevelt, but his best known work must be the classic western, The Virginian. For ten points, name this author.

ANSWER: Owen Wister

31. He was minister of the Marble Collegiate Church in New York from 1932 to 1984, and served as President of the Council of the Churches of New York 4 times, but gained his greatest fame from his book, The Power of Positive Thinking. For ten points, name this religious leader and writer who died recently at age 95.

ANSWER: Norman Vincent Peale

1994 Cardinal Classic
Magliocca (1)
Bonuses

30 POINT BONUS

1. Name the governor of each of the following states:

- | | |
|-----------------|---------------------------------------|
| (10) New Jersey | ANSWER: Christine Todd Whitman |
| (10) Oregon | ANSWER: Barbara Roberts |
| (10) Iowa | ANSWER: Terry Bransted |

30 POINT BONUS

2. Give the common last name 30-20-10:

- (30) The lifetime editor and founder of The New Yorker magazine
(20) The First female governor in the U.S., in Wyoming from 1935-1937.
(10) Antarctic explorer after whom a famous ice shelf is named.

ANSWER: Ross

20 POINT BONUS

3. Name the inventor of the following devices:

- | | |
|----------------|--------------------------------|
| (10) AC Motor | ANSWER: Nikola Tesla |
| (10) Cyclotron | ANSWER: Ernest Lawrence |

30 POINT BONUS

4. Name this political leader 30-20-10

- (30) He taught at Harvard in the 1950's and chaired Berkeley's Economics department in the early 1960's.
(20) When his father Georges became Prime Minister in 1963, he gave up his U.S. citizenship to become his father's economics minister.
(10) He served as Greek Prime Minister from 1981-1989 and again starting in 1993.

ANSWER: Andreas Papandreu

20 POINT BONUS

5. Mitch Williams need not feel alone in giving up a World Series winning home run. For twenty points, name the New York Yankee who served up the 1960 winning homer to Bill Mazerowski, but later came back to win the final game of the series 2 years later.

ANSWER: Ralph Terry

20 POINT BONUS

6. For the first time since 1985, U.S. semiconductor firms gained a greater market share than their Japanese competitors. For 5 points each, and a five point bonus for all three, name the top 3 semiconductor firms in terms of market share, two American and one Japanese.

ANSWER: Intel
NEC
Motorola

20 POINT BONUS

7. New South Wales and Victoria are the two most prominent states of mainland Australia, but for 5 points each, name the other 4 territorial divisions of Australia.

ANSWER: Western Australia
South Australia
Northern Territory
Queensland

20 POINT BONUS

8. At the end of the Versailles Conference in 1919, he exclaimed, "This is not peace, it is an armistice for 20 years." For twenty points, name this Supreme commander of Allied forces in 1918, one of France's greatest military heroes.

ANSWER: Ferdinand Foch

20 POINT BONUS

9. OK, you Moby Dick fans. For 5 points each and a five point bonus for all three, name Captain Ahab's 3 officers aboard the Pequod:

ANSWER: Starbuck
Flask
Stubb

30 POINT BONUS

10. Answer these Casablanca questions for ten points each:

(10) What was Rick's last name?

ANSWER: Blaine

(10) What was the name of Ferrari's competing cafe?

ANSWER: Blue Parrot

(10) When Victor Lazlo asks the band to play "Le Marseilles" in a famous scene, what World War I German song to the patrons drown out?

ANSWER: Watch on the Rhine

30 POINT BONUS

11. Name these drugs recently FDA-approved to fight previously untreatable diseases:

(15) Name the first drug ever approved to treat cystic fibrosis, developed by Genentech.

ANSWER: DNase or Pulmozyme

(15) Name the first drug ever approved to treat MS, developed by a German firm.

ANSWER: Interferon Beta 1B or Betaseron

30 POINT BONUS

12. Identify this number 30-20-10:

(30) It is the number of autonomous regions in Russia.

(20) It is the number of days the 1994 Winter Olympic Games run.

(10) The number of candles in one of those classic Molly Ringwald flicks of the 1980's.

ANSWER: 16

30 POINT BONUS

13. Nigeria suffered through a deal of political turmoil in 1993. For 15 points each:

(15) Name the general who stepped down in August after eight years in power.

ANSWER: Ibrahim Babaginda

(15) Name the general who ousted the civilian government and declared himself President in December.

ANSWER: Sonne Abache

30 POINT BONUS

14. Name this author 30-20-10:

(30) His translation of Eugene Onegin is considering the authoritative version, and his first novel in English was The Real Life of Sebastian Knight

(20) This lepidopterist's other works include Pnin, Pale Fire, and Ada.

(10) His most famous work is Lolita

ANSWER: Vladimir Nabokov

25 POINT BONUS

15. Name the first five lottery picks in the 1993 NBA for 5 points each:

ANSWER: Chris Webber
Sean Bradley
Anfernee Hardaway
Jamal Mashburn
Isiah Rider

20 POINT BONUS

16. Reform in Russia suffered a major blow recently when the liberal Finance Minister resigned. For ten points each:

(10) Name this 35 year old Western trained economist ANSWER: Boris Fyodorov
(10) Now, spell Fyodorov (FEE o dur off) ANSWER: F-Y-O-D-O-R-O-V

30 POINT BONUS

17. The Equator traverses Africa through 6 nations. For 5 points each, name them.

ANSWER: Gabon
Zaire
Congo
Uganda
Kenya
Somalia

30 POINT BONUS

18. Name the authors of these recent best sellers for ten points each.

(10) Women Who Run With the Wolves ANSWER: Clarissa Prakola Estes
(10) The Book of Guys ANSWER: Garrison Keilor
(10) Slow Waltz in Cedar Bend ANSWER: Robert James Waller

30 POINT BONUS

19. As an artist for Marvel Comics, he created such characters as Captain America, the Mighty Thor, and the Incredible Hulk. For 30 points name this legendary comic book artist, who passed away recently at age 76.

ANSWER: Jack Kirby

30 POINT BONUS

20. Given a description of a Napoleonic battle, name it for ten points each:

- (10) Fought outside of Moscow in September, 1812, it opened the way for Napoleon's occupation of Moscow. ANSWER: Borodino
(10) This engagement in 1806 led to the defeat of Prussia. ANSWER: Jena
(10) This decisive struggle in 1813 ended Napoleon's power in Germany and foreshadowed his final defeat. ANSWER: Leipzig or the Battle of Nations

30 POINT BONUS

21. Name this Romantic composer from his works 30-20-10:

- (30) "A Hero's Life"
(20) "Salome"
(10) "Don Juan"

ANSWER: Richard Strauss

30 POINT BONUS

22. Japan recently entered the commercial satellite launching industry by successfully launching its first commercial rocket. For ten points each:

- (10) Name this new Japanese rocket. ANSWER: H-2
(10) Name the European launching consortium from whom Japan hopes to attract customers. ANSWER: Arianespace
(10) Name the Russian booster now being commercialized jointly with the Boeing Corporation. ANSWER: Proton

20 POINT BONUS

23. In December, 1993 John Major joined his Irish counterpart in issuing a joint declaration on Northern Ireland. For ten points each:

- (10) Name the Irish Prime Minister ANSWER: Albert Reynolds
(10) Name the leader of Sinn Fein(shin-fane) to whom the declaration was addressed. ANSWER: Gerri Adams

30 POINT BONUS

24. The Battle of the Teutoberg Forest of 9 AD, was one of the most decisive in world history as it prevented the Romans from expanding into Germany. For ten points each:

(10) Name the Roman Empire at the time of this defeat:

ANSWER: Augustus or Octavian

(10) Name the German chieftain who defeated the Romans:

ANSWER: Arminius

(10) The battle forced the Romans to withdraw from what river, later the dividing line of American and Soviet armies in 1945.

ANSWER: Elbe

25 POINT BONUS

25. When he was appointed Swedish foreign minister in May, 1993 to replace Thorvald Stoltenberg, he was considered a political lightweight, but later that year he successfully mediated the secret talks between Israel and the PLO. For twenty-five points, who was this diplomat who died of heart failure in January, 1994?

ANSWER: Johan Holst

30 POINT BONUS

26. "A Switch in Time Saves Nine" was the phrase used to describe the Supreme Court's sudden shift in favor of FDR's New Deal policies in response to his court-packing plan. But 4 conservatives refused to switch and became known as the "Four Horsemen." Name any three for ten points each.

ANSWER: Willis Van Deventer
James McReynolds
George Sutherland
Pierce Butler

30 POINT BONUS

27. Japan has been rocked by political scandals in recent years. For ten points each:

(10) Name the stock bribery scandal which drove Prime Minister Takeshita from office in 1989.

ANSWER: Recruit

(10) Name the LDP Prime Minister defeated at the polls in 1993.

ANSWER: Kiichi Miyazawa (ME a ZOW a)

(10) Name the current Prime Minister, who has vowed to clean up corruption.

ANSWER: Mosahiro Hosakawa (ho SA cow a)