

1994 Cardinal Classic
Stanford A
Toss-Ups

1. His brother died leading the raid on Entebbe, but who—for a quick ten points—is now the leader of the Israeli Likud party?

ANSWER: Benjamin Netanyahu

2. You know Lenin, Stalin, and Khrushchev, but can name—for ten points—the Soviet premier who held power between Stalin's death in 1953 and the rise of Khrushchev in 1955?

ANSWER: Georgy Malenkov

3. Clement, a U.S. educator, wrote "Twas the Night Before Christmas" and George, an English philosopher, argued in his Principa Ethica that good was unnatural; while Mary starred in 1970s television. What—for ten points—is the common surname?

ANSWER: Moore

4. He's not Rush Limbaugh, but Henry Winkler does play a conservative talk-show host on TV. Name this Fox Network show, named—for ten points—after what Winkler character?

ANSWER: Monty

5. He forced one fumble, recovered another and grabbed an interception in Super Bowl twenty eight, earning him second place in MVP balloting. For ten points, who was this previously unknown Dallas Cowboys free safety?

ANSWER: James Washington

6. If you are from the south, you'd talk about the battle of Sharpsburg in the War Between the States. For ten points, give the more common name for this battle, the bloodiest of the Civil War.

ANSWER: Antietam (an TEE tam)

7. This 18th century Frenchman was noted for his minimalist views of political power, championed a system of checks and balances in The Spirit of the Laws in direct contrast to the absolutism favored earlier by Louis XIV. For ten points, name this author of The Persian Letters.

ANSWER: Baron de Montesquieu

8. A founder of Students for a Democratic Society who apparently abhors unsafe university buildings, what former state senator from Santa Monica has done the unthinkable and declared his candidacy—for ten points—for Governor of California?

ANSWER: Tom Hayden

9. You can't shave your face with it, but you can cut through abstruse reasoning to find the truth. Name—for ten points—this philosophical principle.

ANSWER: Occam's Razor

10. On the New York Times bestseller list for nearly 40 weeks in 1993, this fictional work also appeared on the San Francisco Chronicle list in two places—one in English and one in Spanish. For ten points, name this novel by Laura Esquivel, a recent prize-winning film.

ANSWER: Like Water for Chocolate

11. His latest book is The Book of American Humor, which will probably get less acclaim than his Pulitzer Prize-winning Growing Up. For ten points, who is this current host of Masterpiece Theatre?

ANSWER: Russell Baker

12. "It was the greatest concentration of paparazzi in New York City history," he declared. Unfortunately for him, over a third of his invited guests failed to show, including his three oldest children. For ten points, whose marriage to Marla Maples was such a media circus?

ANSWER: Donald Trump

13. His epitaph reads "Here lies one whose name was writ in water." What poet—for ten points—was eulogized by Percy Shelley in the poem "Adonais". after his 1821 death?

ANSWER: John Keats

14. A 1983 Booker Prize winner, it finally gained a spot on the United States bestseller lists thanks to a recently released movie. For ten points, name this Thomas Keneally book made into a film by Steven Spielberg.

ANSWER: Schindler's List

15. He said he could see Jesus and God in a rift in a sky, with man at their side. For this, a crowd rushed him and stoned him to death. For ten points, name this biblical martyr.

ANSWER: St. Stephen

16. At the premiere of this opera, the conductor Arturo Toscanini stopped the performance at the point where the composer left the opera unfinished when he died. For ten points, name this Puccini opera whose characters include Calaf, Ping, Pang, and Pong.

ANSWER: Turandot

17. Its origins date to 1520 England, where it was called brag, but it also was known as pocken, or "bluff" in Germany. For ten points, name this card game, a favorite of the characters on Star Trek: The Next Generation.

ANSWER: poker

18. His academic interest was aroused by the works of David Hume, which he condemned and used to launch his "Copernican Revolution in philosophy". For ten points, name this deontological scholar, whose works include Critique of Pure Reason.

ANSWER: Immanuel Kant

19. For a quick ten points, name the First Emperor of China, whose reign saw the building of the Great Wall.

ANSWER: Shih Huang Ti

20. This 71 year old structure, heavily damaged in the recent Northridge earthquake, has been condemned but will be repaired by September. For ten points, name this storied sports arena, host of two Olympics and the NFL's Raiders.

ANSWER: Los Angeles Coliseum

21. Name—for ten points—the renowned scholar of English history who launched the project to compile the Cambridge Modern History, but is better known for his belief that "All power tends to corrupt, and absolute power corrupts absolutely."

ANSWER: Lord Acton

22. They're back with their first album in 4 years, and have returned with a shorter name, NKOTB, and without the lip-synching. For ten points, name this Boston group whose single "The Right Stuff" was one of the big hits of the late 1980's.

ANSWER: New Kids on the Block

23. This chemical, originally known as oil of vitriol, is the most produced chemical by mass in the world. For ten points, give the common name of this inorganic acid composed of two hydrogen, four oxygen, and a solitary sulfur atom.

ANSWER: Sulfuric acid

24. In the wake of the recent shelling in Sarajevo, the UN has demanded the removal of all heavy artillery within a 20 kilometer zone around the city, with the exception of a 1.5 mile buffer around—for ten points—what town, headquarters of the Bosnian Serbs?

ANSWER: Pale

25. He got his nickname by getting Humphrey Bogart five film roles in one day. For ten points, name this recently deceased talent agent, most famous for his party on Oscar night.

ANSWER: Irving "Swifty" Lazar

26. He made his mark as a player with one National Basketball Association franchise, so much so that his number 22 hangs in retirement, but he currently serves as General Manager of that team's crosstown rival. For ten points, who is this forward, recently surpassed by Dominique Wilkins as the 10-leading scorer in NBA history?

ANSWER: Elgin Baylor

27. If you were living during the fall of the Roman Empire, you might be tempted to live the last 40 years of your life atop a high column, much like— for ten points—what Greek saint, a well known ascetic who lived from 390 -459 AD?

ANSWER: Simeon Stylites

28. Pencil and paper ready. Given an object starting at rest and that acceleration due to gravity is 10 meters per second squared, give the speed when the object has fallen 20 meters.

ANSWER: 20 meters per second

1994 Cardinal Classic
Stanford A
Bonuses

20 POINT BONUS

1. Network was the Oscar winner for best picture in 1976. Answer these questions about Network, for ten points each.

(10) "I'm as mad as hell, and I'm not going to take this anymore!" was spoken by what "Mad Prophet of the Airwaves", played by the late Peter Finch.

ANSWER: Howard Beale

(10) Network's screenplay was written by what author, creator of Being There

ANSWER: Paddy Chayefsky

20 POINT BONUS

2. How much do you remember about past Winter Olympic heroes? Ten points each:

1. Name the American speedskater who captured 5 golds at the 1980 games in Lake Placid

ANSWER: Eric Heiden

2. Name the French skier who swept all three major events in 1968.

ANSWER: Jean Claude Killy(keel-e)

20 POINT BONUS

3. He was one of the most prolific engineers of his day, having to his credit the design of the Golden Gate, the George Washington, and the Verrazano Narrows Bridges. For twenty points, name this American giant.

ANSWER: Othmar Ammann

30 POINT BONUS

4. For five points each and a bonus of five for all correct, put the following Biblical books in order from earliest to latest. Lamentations, II Chronicles, I Samuel, Jonah, Nehemiah.

Answer: I Samuel, II Chronicles, Nehemiah, Lamentations, Jonah

30 POINT BONUS

2) Given a quote from Shakespeare, give the character for 10 points apiece.

a) "I'll so offend to make offense a skill,/Redeeming time when men think least I will."

Answer: Prince Hal or Henry the V

b) "How sharper than a serpent's tooth it is/To have a thankless child!"

Answer: King Lear

c) "O villain, villian, smiling, damne"d villain!/My tables- meet it is I set it down/
That one may smile, and smile, and be a villain."

Answer: Hamlet

30 POINT BONUS

How well do you know your country music? Given four songs that have climbed the charts recently, give the artist.

John Deere Green

Answer: Joe Diffie

Ain't Going Down (Til the Sun Comes Up)

Answer: Garth Brooks

The Bug

Answer: Mary Chapin-Carpenter

30 POINT BONUS

5) 30-20-10 Name the year, after one clue for 30, two for 20, and three for 10

a) The Sound and the Fury, and Look Homeward, Angel were published, and Britain elects it's second Labour Government

b) the St Valentine's Day Massacre occurred in Chicago between rival Mafia groups.

c) Albert Fall sentenced in Teapot Dome case, Hoover inaugurated as President.

1929

30 POINT BONUS

Iran-Contra is finally behind us, sealed by President Bush's pardoning of the six men charged in the case. You'll get five points apiece for naming them.

ANSWER: Clair George, Caspar Weinberger, Elliot Abrams, Duane Clarridge, Alan Fiers, and Robert McFarlane.

20 POINT BONUS

This principle of chemistry states that a chemical reaction will proceed in the direction that has a net creation of the least moles of gas. Solids don't affect the concentration under consideration.

Le Chatlier's Principle

30 POINT BONUS

9) 30-20-10

Given the works, name the composer.

a) The Day Before Spring, Paint Your Wagon

- b) Camelot, Brigadoon
- c) My Fair Lady

Frederick Loewe

20 POINT BONUS

Name the city in which these Shakespeare plays take place for ten points each.

- 1) Romeo and Juliet Answer: Verona
- 2) Coriolanus Answer: Rome

20 POINT BONUS

Name these Supreme Court firsts for ten points each.

- 1) The first Jewish Justice to sit on the Supreme Court.

ANSWER: Louis Brandeis

- 2) The first Catholic Justice to sit on the Supreme Court.

ANSWER: Roger Taney

30 POINT BONUS.

12) 30-20-10.

Identify the writer of these works, given the titles and publication dates 30-20-10.

- a) Life of Oliver Cromwell, published in 1900.
- b) The Winning of The West, published in 1889.
- c) The Rough Riders, published in 1899.

Answer: Theodore Roosevelt

20 POINT BONUS.

With the passage of NAFTA, American labor unions were upset with President Clinton. For 10 points each identify the heads of the following labor unions.

- 1) AFL-CIO Answer: Lane Kirkland
- 2) Teamsters Answer: Ron Carey

30 POINT BONUS

15) 30-20-10.

Identify the play from the clues given, 30-20-10.

- a) This play is subtitled A Comedy and a Philosophy.
- b) John Tanner is the main character who is chased after and caught by Ann Whitefield.
- c) The Don Juan in Hell scene in Act 3 is probably George Bernard Shaw's most famous scene.

Answer: Man and Superman

30 POINT BONUS

16) Several Pulitzer Prize winning authors have recently come out with new novels. For ten points, identify the authors of the following works.

- | | |
|------------------------|------------------------|
| 1) The Hope | Answer: Herman Wouk |
| 2) Brazil | Answer: John Updike |
| 3) A Tidewater Morning | Answer: William Styron |

30 POINT BONUS

17) 30-20-10.

Identify this person 30-20-10.

- a) His 1970 book, Present at the Creation, details his life in government.
- b) He was undersecretary of treasury in 1932 and became undersecretary of state in 1945.
- c) He was Truman's secretary of state from 1949-1953, and his efforts led to the formation of NATO.

Answer: Dean Acheson

20 POINT BONUS

18. This twentieth century British chemist was a pioneer in the field of molecular structure. Born in 1875, the molecular representation method that he developed still bears his name today. For ten points, name him.

Answer: Gilbert Lewis

20 POINT BONUS

19. This question is not about political radicals, but rather about chemical radicals, or more specifically the agents that react with free radicals to neutralize them. One example of this class of chemicals is Vitamin E.

Answer: anti-oxidants

30 POINT BONUS

20. For all you warplane fanatics out there, this questions for you. Given the country in WWII, give its prime interceptor in the European theater of conflict.

- | | |
|---------------|-----------------------|
| Great Britain | Answer: Spitfire |
| Germany | Answer: Messerschmidt |
| U.S.A. | Answer: P-51 Mustang |

30 POINT BONUS

22. Minneapolis recently hosted the 1994 National Basketball Association All-Star Game. FTP apiece, answer the following questions about the league's annual showcase.

a) In which arena, home of the Timberwolves, was the game played?

Answer: Target Center

b) Which former player and former Golden State Warriors coach led the Western Conference stars?

ANSWER: George Karl

c) Which former player and erstwhile Cleveland Cavaliers coach led the Eastern Conference stars?

ANSWER: Lenny Wilkens

30 POINT BONUS

23. The 1994 American Music Awards are now history, but their memories linger in College Bowl play .

a) (5 points) Which female singer swept nearly every major category, taking home seven awards plus the Lifetime Achievement trophy?

Whitney Houston

b) (10 points) Which country band hauled in the Best Country Group or Duo Award for an amazing 12th consecutive year?

Alabama

c) (15 points) Which wild-haired, rock-and-rolling Scotsman opened the show with two songs of his own, and later took the Michael Jackson International Music Award for his quarter-century of tours that have taken him to 46 different countries?

Rod Stewart

30 POINT BONUS

24) It just wouldn't be a packet without a flag question. Given a description of a country's flag, give the country 10 points a piece.

a) three horizontal stripes, white, red, white. Belarus

b) three horizontal stripes, red, white, red Latvia

c) two horizontal stripes, blue and yellow Ukraine

20 POINT BONUS

25) How well do you know your Caribbean islands? Given the island, give the country that administers it.

a) Martinique France

b) Montserrat United Kingdom

c) Curacao Netherlands

d) Guadeloupe France