

1994 Cardinal Classic
Santa Cruz
Toss-Ups

1) This reporter passed away as 1993 came to a close. His many scoops included a broadcast of the Franco-German armistice talk, in spite of the fact that Hitler had ordered all reporters back to Berlin. For 10 points name this reporter who chronicled Hitler, the Nazis and WW II in "The Rise and Fall of the Third Reich."

William L. Shirer

2) This allegorical British T.V. series of the 1960's achieved success in the U.S. Now a cult classic, its characters include a white ball named Rover, a revolving leader called No. 2 and a rebellious man known only as No. 6. For 10 points, name this landmark series.

"The Prisoner"

3) In certain volcanic eruption situations, un-popped bubbles of molten rock harden into granite domes. Instead of fissuring like blocks, these domes shed their outer layers like an onion. For 10 points, what is this process?

Exfoliation

5) For most of his life this Jewish lawyer's son was an intellectual outsider. He did his writing in the library of the British Museum in London. By the end of the 1970's over a billion people living in sixteen countries that revered his name, though his star has faded of late. FTP, name this German philosopher and economist.

Karl Marx

6) Personally obsessed with his feud with Marvin Davis, this former Fox network chairman has currently been leading a bid for a hostile takeover of Paramount. For 10 points name this QVC chairman who recently lost to Viacom.

Barry Diller

7) Perhaps the only reason to bang your head, this discredited science consisting of the analysis of the bumps and lumps of a person's skull is known as what, for 10 points?

Phrenology

8) This man revolutionized the way we listen to music, especially when we want to do it without disturbing others. For 10 points name the inventor of the stereo headphone.

Koss

9) While it's not guaranteed that he'll be Mexico's next president, President Salinas recently tapped this Mexican politico to be the PRI candidate in the upcoming presidential elections. For 10 points him.

Luis Donaldo Colosio Murrieta

10) The Lady Byng trophy in the National Hockey League goes to the player with the best conduct. For 10 points name this three time winner from the New York Islanders who is also a member of the 50-50 club.

Mike Bossy

11) For 10 points name the 'active ingredient' in marijuana which produces its mind-altering effects.

Tetrahydrocannabinol (accept THC)

12) One of the islands of this U.S. state, the furthest west, crosses the international date line. For ten points, name this U.S. state.

Alaska

14) This prominent social psychologist conducted a landmark study on obedience at Yale, in which a 'teacher' was instructed to give increasingly painful electric shocks to a 'student' every time the 'student' made a mistake. The shocks were actually simulated, but the 'student' was unaware of this. For 10 points name this researcher, author of Obedience to Authority.

Stanley Milgram

15) This man recently returned to life after about a year of being dead, generating great profits for DC Comics in the process. For 10 points name this seemingly "super" guy.

Superman

16) Los Angeles in 1972, Philadelphia in 1976, Seattle in 1984, Salt Lake City in 1979, and Denver in 1990. For 10 points, what event was staged at these cities in the given years?

NCAA Men's Basketball Championship

17) He died in 1819 and made the Industrial Revolution possible. FTP name this Scottish inventor of the modern steam engine.

James Watt

18) This man was born in Noyon, France in 1509 and has been described as "methodically unforgiving and fearful of chaos." His most influential work, "Institutes of the Christian Religion" was an attempt to systematize the entire body of Protestant thought. FTP name this man, or his six-year-old namesake, Hobbes the Tiger's partner in crime.

John Calvin

19) Among his contributions to the scientific world are his use of large sample sizes, careful observation, and research design. Being a monk, he had time for these things. FTP name this scientist who worked with peas and began the study of genetics.

Gregor Mendel

20) In 50 seconds this Norwegian artist's painting "The Scream" was stolen recently from a display at the Norwegian Museum of Art. FTP name the artist who painted this piece and whose work has inspired over five attempted thefts this past year.

Edvard Munch

21) Yes, he is a prominent Czech politician named Vaclav, but no he's not a playwright. He is in fact the current prime minister of the Czech Republic. FTP, name him.

Vaclav Klaus

22) He is currently second in command to Alan Greenspan at the Federal Reserve, but this will soon change as he will be stepping down from the vice-chairmanship of the Fed this month. For 10 points name him.

Wayne Angell

23) This novel was a description of New York night life and heartbreak in the early 1980's. Jay McInerney followed it up some years later with "Brightness Falls", although the two stories weren't connected. For 10 points name this novel made into a movie of the same name starring Michael J. Fox.

Bright Lights, Big City

24) Now a days he spends most of his time running his youth leadership foundation, set up after meeting Albert Schweitzer. One of his last major roles was as one of the fathers in "Twins" with Arnold Schwarzenegger and Danny DeVito. For 10 points name this actor who made his name starring as and in T.V.'s "Wyatt Earp".

Hugh O'Brian

25) This well known comedian of yesteryear was famous for such pieces as "Father of the Year," awarded to Edward Teller. His Dragnet parody "St. George and the Dragon Net" was a hit. For 10 points name this comedian who reminds us of the true spirit of the holidays with "Green Chri$tmas."

Stan Freeburg

26) The New York Stock Exchange is the main forum for stocks in the U.S. However, there is another exchange which is important for over the counter stocks. For 10 points name this exchange which recently advertised itself as "the stock exchange for the next century."

NASDAQ

27) Cashmere fur is not made in Kashmir, and it does not come from goats. For 10 points, from the fur of what animal is it produced?

The rabbit (Accept hare)

1994 Cardinal Classic
Santa Cruz
Bonuses

(30)

1) Holy villains Batman! I'm going to name the criminal, and for 10 points each you tell me the actor who played him in the 1960's television show.

The Joker -- Caesar Romero

The Penguin -- Burgess Meredith

The Riddler -- Frank Gorshin

(20)

2) A little Beatles trivia now. For 10 points each, give Ringo Starr's real name and the name of the man he replaced.

Richard Starky, Pete Best

(3) Name this author from his or her works 30-20-10.

30 Belinda and April: Folly in Three Acts and When We Were Very Young

20 By Way of Introduction and Now We Are Six

10 The House at Pooh Corner and The World of Christopher Robin

A.A. Milne

(20)

6) Both Jefferson Airplane and Led Zeppelin have based songs on famous works of literature. For 10 points each, on which books were Jefferson Airplane's "White Rabbit" and Led Zeppelin's "Misty Mountain Top" based?

Alice In Wonderland, The Hobbit

(30)

7) For 10 points each, give the names of the following features found on the lunar surface.

These are caused by meteorites striking the surface.

Craters

These are dark, flat areas probably caused by ancient lava flow.

Maria

This is the line which separates the lunar day from night.

Terminator

(30)

8) The Lunar Society of Birmingham has boasted many famous members of the historical scientific community. One discovered oxygen. Another was the Grandfather of Charles Darwin. A third is on the $100 bill. For 10 points each, name these men.

Joseph Priestly, Erasmus Darwin, Benjamin Franklin

(25)

9) The Iroquois Confederation played an important role in American history until it sided with the British in the Revolutionary War. For 5 points each name the five Native American tribes which made up the confederacy.

Cayuga, Mohawk, Oneida, Onondaga, and Seneca

(20)

10) For 10 points each identify the character and play from this quote: "He knows his way in the dark, but mine is the way of the herd. And those who follow the path of the righteous shall have their reward."

Javert, "Les Miserables"

(30)

11) Discovered by Pink Floyd's David Gilmour, this British female singer rose to the top of the charts in her home country despite her slightly screechy voice. For 15 points each name this singer and the title of her debut album.

Kate Bush "The Kick Inside"

12) Name the actor 30-20-10.

30 He assisted in the creation of "Emergency", "Adam-12", and "CHiPs".

20 His character wore the badge # 714.

10 His character on "Dragnet" was famous for saying, "Just the facts, ma'm."

Jack Webb

(20)

13) For 10 points each name these countries from some information about the world's flags.

1. It has the world's only non-rectangular flag.

Nepal

2. This nation's orange and yellow flag bears its symbol, the thunder dragon.

Bhutan

3. This country has the only flag with a letter of the alphabet on it.

Rwanda

(20)

14) For 5 points each, when I name a country, you name the currency used there.

China

Yuan

Saudi Arabia

Riyal

Egypt

Pound

Australia

Dollar

(30)

15) This eccentric composer spent most of his life wandering throughout the Commonwealth collecting ideas for his wind-based music. He is known for popularizing the use of the saxophone as a symphonic instrument, particularly the soprano sax. Recently this Australian has gained popularity for such pieces as "Molly On The Shore", "Irish Tune From County Derry", and "The Immoveable". For 30 points, name this man.

Percy Granger

(20)

16) Most planets have moons, but the gas giants have the most moons and the largest ones. For 5 points each name the largest moon of each of these gas giant planets.

Jupiter

Ganymede

Saturn

Titan

Uranus

Titania

Neptune

Triton

(30)

17) For 10 points each name this distinctive regional winds.

1. A cold, dry wind of Southern France Mistral
2. A hot, dry wind of Southern California Santa Ana Wind
3. A hot, dry wind of Colorado Chinook

(20)

18) For 5 points each name the last four Supreme Court Chief Justices in any order.

Frederick Vinson, Earl Warren, Warren Burger, William Rehnquist

(20)

19) I'll give you the name of an animal, and for 5 points each you give the distinctive word for the young of that animal.

1. Whale Calf
2. Shark Cub
3. Zebra Foal
4. Swan Cygnets

(20)

20) For 5 points each name the four languages of sub-Saharan Africa which have the most speakers, in any order.

Swahili, Hausa, Yoruba, Ibo (accept Igbo)

(30)

21) Two cities made news last year when they battled over the right to a nickname. At stake was a reputation and tourist draw. For 10 points each, name these two cities, and for 10 points more, name the title of the song from which the nickname was taken.

Santa Cruz and Huntington Beach, "Surf City"

(30)

22) In the late 1980's and early 1990's this family of nine and their story became popular once again. In fact, not only the story but all the little trivia associated with the show. For 10 points each name this family, their dog, and the youngest daughter's favourite doll.

The Brady Bunch, Dagger, Kitty Carry All

(20)

23) Often a band will turn to literature to find ideas for songs. One such band based a song on Albert Camus' "The Stranger". For 10 points each name the band and the title of the song that they were inspired to write.

The Cure, "Killing an Arab"

(20)

24) For 5 points each, name the parts of Dante's "Divine Comedy" and receive 5 more for all correct answers.

Inferno, Purgatorio, Paradiso

(20)

25) We are all familiar with the story of the "Elephant Man". For 10 points each give the following facts about his story:

What was his real name?

John Merrick

What is the medical term for his condition?

Neurofibromatosis

(30)

26) Gordon Matthew Sumner can often be found helping out the Kayapo Amazonian natives save their homeland. For 15 points each, give the more familiar name of this rock star and the name of the organization he started to help these people.

Sting, The Rainforest Foundation

(20)

4) We all know that Charles Darwin wrote "The Origin of Species". But for 10 pts each, tell me the following:

What young scientist officially co-published "The Origin of Species"?

Wallace

Who was the political economist whose theories of struggle formed the basis for many of Darwin's 'survival of the fittest' idea?

Malthus

(20)

5) For 5 points each name the four "Galilean" moons of Jupiter.

Io, Europa, Ganymede, Callisto