

WAHOO WAR OF THE MINDS
PLAYOFF PACKET 6

Toss-Ups

1. Born in 1904, this U.S. policy advisor began his career as a language officer in 1929 in Berlin. He later went on to serve as ambassador to the Soviet Union and Yugoslavia. However, for ten points name this man who is probably best known for his "Mr.X" article in which he originally outlined the Cold War Policy of Containment.

George Kennan

2. This road was abandoned after the building of the National Road, but it gained new life when it became part of U.S. Route 25 in 1926. FTP, name this principal route of westward U.S. migration that was blazed by Daniel Boone in 1775 and ran from Virginia to the Ohio River.

Wilderness Road

3. This British general was 60 years old when he led an expeditionary force whose goal was to take Fort Duquesne from the French during the French and Indian War. The expedition, however, ended in disaster when the general and his men were ambushed and many of the men bolted. FTP, name this general who lost his life in the attack.

Edward Braddock

4. The Battle of Dettingen occurred during the War of the Austrian Succession. It is not an especially noteworthy battle, but it is remembered as the last occasion on which a British sovereign commanded an army in the field. FTP, name that sovereign who was present at this 1743 battle.

George II

5. 5. b Symbolizing the sign of the times the marriage of 45 years is planning to be cut short, when Tess gave her husband the divorce papers on February 7, 1994. She claimed he spent too much time at work fighting criminals such as Mumbles and other. FTP name this cartoon character who "lives" in 100 newspapers nationwide.

Dick Tracy

6. One of the most popular novels in America around the turn of the century, it spawned "Bellamy clubs" to discuss its vies. FTP, name this classic American utopian novel.

Looking Backward by Edward Bellamy

7. Born in Canada in 1908, this economist in his 1958 book The Affluent Society argues that an obsession with growth leads to waste: the productions of goods and services that are not really needed and called for government intervention to control it. FTP, name this economist.

John Kenneth Galbraith

8. This philosophy originated in Russia in the mid 1800's. It began as a rejection of authority and influenced the revolutionary movement. In Western Europe, it came to mean a disbelief in objective values and truths.

NIHILISM

9. She was among the first member of the Student Non-violence Coordinating Committee. She authored the book, The Measure of Our Success as a means of advocating increased parental involvement in child development. However, she is best known for her role as the head and founder of the Children's Defense Fund. FTP, name her.

Marian WRIGHT EDELMAN

10. In this opera, a jealous performer struggles to save her political reformer/artist lover from the evil Scarpia. FTP name this melodramatic Puccini work in which the title character commits suicide following the death of her lover.

TOSCA

11. For a quick 10 pts, spell the name for a 20-sided polyhedron.

I-C-O-S-A-H-E-D-R-O-N

12. What African country, for 10 pts, is bordered by Mali, Niger, Benin, Togo, Ghana, and Cote d'Ivoire, and calls Ouagadougou its capital?

Burkina Faso

13. Rollin Kirby was the first, Jeff MacNelly was the last so far, and Edmund Burke, Herbert Block, and Paul Conrad came in between. FTP these men are the only ones to win what award 3 times?

Editorial Cartooning Pulitzer

14. During his two decades on the bench, the "Mighty Judge" of Fort Smith Arkansas sentenced 160 men to hang. FTP give his real name.

Isaac Charles Smith

15. We're still waiting for the champion of the NCAA Division I basketball tourneys, but for a quick ten points, what school beat NYU for the Division III men's basketball championship?

Lebanon Valley (Pa.)

16. Glucose is broken down to lactic or pyruvic acid by a series of enzyme-controlled reactions and a small amount of ATP is built up. For 10 points, what is this stage of anaerobic respiration, an important source of energy during short bursts of internal muscular activity?

glycolysis (gly - KAHL - uh - sis)

17. This character's name originally belonged to an ornithologist specializing in birds of the Carribean. When a British author was seeking a name for a character in a novel, this ornithologist allowed his name to become the name of FTP, what now famous spy character, the creation of Ian Fleming, who has been portrayed in the movies by Timothy Dalton, Sean Connery, and Roger Moore?

James Bond

18. This sea is nearly fully encircled by land, a situation that one would expect since its name means, "in the middle of the land." Some 2000 years ago, though, it was nothing more than a large Roman lake. They even referred to it as Mare Nostrum, meaning "Our Sea." FTP, name this sea that is joined to the Atlantic Ocean by the Straits of Giblartar.

Mediterranean Sea

19. It attaches at its tips to the Coracoid bones. In the middle, it may attach to the sternum. It serves as the point of attachment for two muscles, the supracoracoideus and the pectoralis major, which are primarily responsible for flight. Its primary function is to prevent the collapse of the chest during flight. FTP, by what name do we refer to this bone, the subject of a famous mealtime superstition.

furcula or wishbone

20. 1677 was a good year for this dramatist who shares his name with a Wisconsin city. He became the official historian of the Sun King, Louis XIV of France, and his play Phedra was produced. FTP, name this dramatist whose name is also an anagram of the phrase in care.

Racine

21. Born in Boston, he joined the U.S. Army under the pseudonym

Edgar Perry. He created the character C. Auguste Dupin, who appears in three stories, one of which is "The Mystery of Marie Roget." FTP, name this writer who studied at the University of Virginia and is most famous for "The Raven."

Edgar Allan Poe

1994 WAHOO WAR OF THE MINDS
Bonuses playoff packet 6

1. 20 points

One of Shakespeare's best loved characters is the comedic reprobate Falstaff. For 5 points a piece, for a possible total of 20 points, identify the four plays of Shakespeare in which Falstaff either appears in or is mentioned:

Henry IV, Part I

Henry IV, Part II

Henry V

The Merry Wives of Windsor

2. 25 points

For each of the following land regions, I will give you a set of religions, from which you must choose the religion that has the largest number of adherents in that particular area. You will get 5 points a piece, for a possible total of 25 points:

(Don't tell them whether or not they're right until the end!)

Latin America: Anglicans, Buddhists, Hindus, or Jews

Asia: Orthodox Christians, Jews, Shintoists, or Sikhs

Africa: Anglicans, Atheists, Orthodox Christians, or Bahais

Europe: Anglicans, Atheists, Hindus, or Muslims

3. 30 points

For 10 points a piece, identify the following character or characters from Greek Mythology, for a possible total of 30 points:

The Greek equivalent of Noah, he built an ark and survived the Great Flood, along with his wife Pyrrha. He was the son of Prometheus and Hesione. Answer:

Deucalion

The collective term in English for Aglaia, Euphrosyne, and Thalia, the daughters of Zeus and Eurynome. Answer:

Graces or Charites

He was the god of sexual generation in animals and humans. The son of Aphrodite and Dionysus, he was usually portrayed as having large, erect, male genitals. Answer:

Priapus

4. 20 points

Capt. Linda Bray led her military platoon into a firefight in Panama in which 3 panamanians were killed, prompting a new debate about the role of women in military combat positions. For 20 points what colorado member of congress introduced legislation this past month to allow women into combat units?

Pat Schroder

5. 30 points

Joe Louis may have been the greatest fighter who ever lived, but for at least two fights his chin thought differently. For 15 points apiece, name the two men who KO'ed the brown bomber.

Max Schmelling and Rocky Marciano

6. 30 points

In 1988 Tracy Rocker of Auburn won two of the most prestigious awards in College Football. For ten points each, what awards did he win?

Outland and Vince Lombardi

And for another 10 points what position did he play?

Defensive tackle

7. 30 points

Here is a question about everyone's favorite Olympic-hosting country-Norway. Answer the following questions about Norway for 10 points apiece.

a. Its population in millions as of the 1980 census. Answered within plus or minus 1 million will be correct.

4 ACCEPT 3 OR 5

b. Its monetary unit

krone

c. The only Norwegian composer that your average College Bowler knows

EDVARD GRIEG

8. 25 points

Place the following metropolitan areas in order from highest to lowest in terms of the number of days that violations of carbon monoxide standards set by the EPA Clean Air Act of 1990 occurred for 5 points apiece:

Stockton, CA; Anchorage, AK; Spokane, WA; Los Angeles South Coast Air Basin, CA; Washington, DC.

LOS ANGELES SOUTH COAST AIR BASIN , ANCHORAGE , SPOKANE , STOCKTON , WASHINGTON, DC

9. 30 pts

This Egyptian king repudiated the state's polytheistic traditions in favor of devotion to one god. After his death, the cult he began was wiped out and the worship of Amen-Re reinstated.

For 10 points each:

Give the king's original name:

Amenhotep or Amenophis

Give the name he took on with his new religion:

Akhenaton

Name his wife who shared the cult"

Nefertiti

10. 20 pts

Of the 56 signers of the Declaration of Independence, two occupations were held by 14 signers each. For 5 pts apiece, name them:

judge , lawyer

2 occupations were held by 10 signers each. For 5 pts, each, what were they?

Farmer or planter , merchant

11. 30 points

It's time to journey back to that magical, musical year of 1974. For ten points each, given the title of a song, name the artist who made it a hit twenty years ago.

(1) "Band on the Run"

Paul McCartney & Wings

(2) "You're Sixteen"

Ringo Starr

(3) "Whatever Gets You Through the Night"

John Lennon

12. 25 points

It's been called "America's Town Hall." C-SPAN has been broadcasting House proceeding live since 1979, the Senate since 1986. For five points for each correct word, what do the initials C-S-P-A-N stand for?

Cable Satellite Public Affairs Network

13. 25 points

For five points each, put the geologic periods in chronological order: Jurassic, Devonian, Mississippian, Ordovician, Pennsylvanian.

Ordovician, Devonian, Mississippian, Pennsylvanian, Jurassic

14. 30 points

For ten points each, answer these questions about the space race.

(1) What was the first manned spacecraft, piloted by Yuri Gagarin?

Vostok I

(2) This pilot of the Liberty Bell was America's second man in space.

Virgil "Gus" Grissom

(3) Signalling that the space race may be over for good, this man, in 1994, became the first cosmonaut to fly on an American space shuttle.

Sergei Krikalev

15. 20 points

Pencil and paper ready: Michigan, Georgia, Arizona, Alaska, Louisiana, Nebraska, Missouri. You probably know your state postal abbreviations pretty well. You also probably know your periodic table of elements. For five points each, which four of these states have postal abbreviations that are also periodic symbols?

Be careful, a miss will stop you.

: Georgia, (Gallium), Nebraska (Neon), Louisiana (Lanthanum)
and Missouri (Molybdenum)

16. 30 points

(30-20-10) Name the composer from his works, for 30 points after the first clue, twenty after the second, ten after the third.

- (1) Oberto, Conte di San Bonafacio
- (2) Falstaff
- (3) La Traviata
Giuseppe Verdi

17. 20 points

The younger generation may be taking over Washington, but in the Senate, seniority still rules. For five points each, given the name of a prominent Senator, name his junior partner from the same state.

- (1) Bill Bradley
Frank Lautenberg
- (2) Arlen Specter
Harris Wofford
- (3) Sam Nunn
Paul Coverdell
- (4) Strom Thurmond
Ernest "Fritz" Hollings

18. 30 points

Katherine Hepburn is, without a doubt, one of the leading ladies of American cinema. For ten points each, given a brief description, give the title of the Hepburn flick:

- (1) Missionary Kate and smuggler Bogey fight Germans, fall in love as they float down the river.
The African Queen
- (2) Sportswriter Spencer Tracy marries journalist Hepburn, who wins the title award.
Woman of the Year
- (3) Kate and paleontologist Cary Grant chase a leopard through the woods.
Bringing up Baby

19. 20 points

Much modern economics is based on the theories of John Maynard Keynes. For ten points each, identify the following NON-Keynesian economists as new classical, monetarist, or real business-cycle theorist.

- (1) Milton Friedman
monetarist
- (2) Charles Plosser
real business-cycle theorist

20. 30 points

For ten points each, identify the figures from twentieth-century Russian literature.

(1) His masterpiece, "The Master and Margarita" retells the story of Faust in 1920s Moscow.

Mikhail Bulgakov

(2) This 1958 Nobel Prize winner was appropriate for inclusion in Billy Joel's "We Didn't Start the Fire," since he owes much of his American fame to Hollywood.

Boris Pasternak

3) Called Vermont's "most celebrated inhabitant since Calvin Coolidge," this expatriate served eight years in the Gulag before writing Cancer Ward.

Alexander Solzhenitsyn (sole - zheh - NEET - sin)