

1996 Celebrity Shoot
Graduate Team Match

---

Section One:

For the following nine questions, the team score will be augmented whenever either of the team members identifies the correct person.

1. For 5 points, this American pilot was involved in a swap of accused spies between the United States and the Soviet Union in 1962.
Francis Gary Powers
2. For 10 points, this German's studies in Italy in the 1490's were instrumental in his woodcuts and engravings.
Albrecht Durer
3. For 15 points, she founded the National Birth Control League, the precursor to Planned Parenthood.
Margaret Sanger
4. For 5 points, this Greek philosopher taught in the community he called "the Garden."
Epicurus
5. For 10 points, he discovered antigens that existed in human blood which would later be critical in blood typing.
Karl Landsteiner
6. For 15 points, identify the CEO of Starbucks Corporation, which manages Starbucks Coffee Company.
Howard Schultz
7. For 5 points, "conceited, egotistical, and snobbish" is how the FBI described this Democratic economic advisor and author of The Affluent Society.
John Kenneth Galbraith
8. For 10 points, he was the only man to win gold medals in all three major Alpine events during the 1968 Winter Olympics.
Jean-Claude Killy
9. For 15 points, she is "the girl" in the pop music group Everything But the Girl.
Tracy Thorn

1996 Celebrity Shoot
Graduate Team Match

---

Multiclude #1:

The following three clues concern one individual. The team score will be augmented by the average of the two individuals on the team, but individual scores will be augmented appropriately.

← Score all tandem multi-clues this way!

Identify this scientist.

For 30 points, at the age of 31, he retired to a Jansenist monastery at Port Royal, France.

For 20 points, in 1640, he produced a successful mathematical treatise at the age of 17.

For 10 points, applications of his observations on the behavior of fluids resulted in the inventions of the syringe and the hydraulic press.

Answer:      Blaise Pascal

1996 Celebrity Shoot
Graduate Team Match

---

Section Two:

For the following nine questions, the team score will be augmented whenever both of the team members identifies the correct person.

1. For 5 points, Tatanka Tyotake is the Indian name for this leader of the Dakota Sioux.
Chief Sitting Bull
2. For 10 points, this premier of France who led his country throughout most of World War I was nicknamed "the Old Tiger."
Georges Clemenceau
3. For 15 points, when the regime of Francisco Franco was internationally recognized, he protested by refusing to perform with his cello for four years.
Pablo Cassals
4. For 5 points, as a hobby, this writer of "A Good Man Is Hard to Find" raised peacocks at her home in Milledgeville, Georgia.
Flannery O'Connor
5. For 10 points, this author of Morte d'Arthur was jailed for his support for the Lancasters during the War of the Roses.
Sir Thomas Malory
6. For 15 points, nicknamed "the Cannibal," this Belgian won five Tour de France yellow jerseys in six years when he retired in 1974.
Eddy Merckx
7. For 5 points, this physicist holds the Lucasian professorial chair of mathematics at Cambridge University.
Stephen William Hawking
8. For 10 points, this playwright of Dutchman founded the Black Arts Repertory Theater.
LeRoi Jones (Imamu Amiri Baraka)
9. For 15 points, full name please: she is the editor-in-chief of Cosmopolitan magazine.
Helen Gurley Brown dated

1996 Celebrity Shoot
Graduate Team Match

---

Multiclude #2:

Identify this entertainer.

For 30 points, he played the Singing Bush in the film The Three Amigos!

For 20 points, he composed the music for the Steven Bochco series "Cop Rock." He also composed an "opera" of Faust in which he played the Devil.

For 10 points, he received his fourth Oscar nomination for Best Song, this one for "You've Got a Friend in Me" from Toy Story.

Answer:      Randy Newman

1996 Celebrity Shoot
Graduate Team Match

---

Section Three:

The following ten questions are divided into two categories. The team score will be augmented if either team member answers correctly.

Category Set #1: Pulitzer-prize winning biographies

Identify the subject the following authors wrote about given the year of their award.

- 5) David McCullough won the 1993 Pulitzer Prize in Biography for his research on this President.
Harry S. Truman
- 10) T. Harry Williams' biography of this Louisiana governor won him the 1970 Pulitzer Prize.
Huey Long
- 15) Both William Bruce (1918) and Carl Van Doren (1939) won Pulitzers for writing about this Founding Father.
Benjamin Franklin
- 20) Richard Ellman's 1989 biography of this British playwright won Pulitzer acclaim.
Oscar Wilde
- 25) Marquis James' 1930 work The Raven centered around the life of this leader.
Sam Houston

1996 Celebrity Shoot
Graduate Team Match

---

Section Three:

Category Set #2: Cleveland Celebrities

1996 is the bicentennial year of the founding of the city of Cleveland. Identify the following personalities associated with the city of Cleveland.

- 5) This comedian sings "Moon Over Parma" at the beginning of each episode of his sitcom.
Drew Carey
- 10) Buried about a mile away from here is this assassinated President.
James Abrams Garfield
- 15) This inventor of the arc lamp lit Cleveland's Public Square on April 29, 1879.
Charles F. Brush
- 20) With his high school friend Joe Schuster, he co-created Superman in 1933 while a student at Glenville High School in Cleveland. He died in 1995.
Jerry Siegel
- 25) This Cleveland Indians player died after being hit by a pitch on the head, the only such fatality in baseball.
Raymond Chapman

Multiclue #3: Identify this writer:

- 30) In 1593, a warrant for his arrest was issued for atheism and immorality. Twelve days later, he was killed in a tavern brawl.
- 20) After he graduated from Cambridge, he served as a spy for the British government.
- 10) His play Tamburlaine (1590) was the first English play written in blank verse.
Christopher Marlowe

1996 Celebrity Shoot
Graduate Team Match

---

Section Four:

The team scores increases if both team members answer these ten questions in the following two categories correctly.

Category Set #3: The Jackson Five

No, not those Jacksons, but identify the following people who share the last name of "Jackson."

- 5) He founded the Rainbow Coalition, coining the phrase "Keep Hope Alive," in 1988.
Jesse Louis Jackson (Sr.)

- 10) This baseball player was the most infamous member of the eight "Black Sox."
Joseph Jefferson "Shoeless Joe" Jackson

- 15) This famous gospel singer lived from 1911 to 1972.
Mahalia Jackson

- 20) She wrote a critique on the relationship between the U.S. government and Native American tribes in her 1881 work A Century of Dishonor.
Helen Hunt Jackson

- 25) This U.S. Supreme Court Justice acted as the chief U.S. prosecutor for the Nuremburg Trials.
Robert Houghwart Jackson

1996 Celebrity Shoot
Graduate Team Match

---

Section Four:

Category Set #4: Outstanding Women

- 5) Nine months after marrying her husband Clyde Klotz in 1994, this lead actress of "The X Files" gave birth to a daughter.
Gillian Leigh Anderson
- 10) This French fashion designer was the subject of the 1969 musical Coco.
Gabrielle Bonheur "Coco" Chanel
- 15) She was the foremost woman author of her time, known for her "Claudine" novels.
Sidonie Gabrielle Colette
- 20) This discoverer of nerve growth factor began her scientific career studying chick embryos in her bedroom during World War II.
Rita Levi-Montalcini
- 25) The daughter of Theon, this Neoplatonist philosopher was lynched by a Christian mob for her influence on Orestes, the prefect for Alexandria.
Hypatia

Multiclude #4: Identify this leader:

- 30) He was the illegitimate son of Pope Alexander VI and became a cardinal at age 17.
- 20) Although he had reputation for treachery and murder, he was one of Leonardo da Vinci's major patrons.
- 10) He was the model for Machiavelli's The Prince.
Cesare Borgia