

1. Born on St. Valentine's Day 1938 in Siberia, this dancer with the Kirov Ballet defected to the West in 1961, where he was often partnered with Margot Fonteyn. For 10 points—name him, also the director of the Paris Opera from 1983 to 1989.

answer: Rudolf Nureyev

2. Dumbass tourists still knock on the door of a quirky Victorian house on Kenwood Parkway in Minneapolis and ask for this person, who lived there on television in the early 1970's. For 10 points—name this woman, played by Mary Tyler Moore.

answer: Mary Richards prompt on "Mary Tyler Moore (Show)" on early buzz

3. Supposedly the Earl of Huntington, Robert Fitzooth, he was born at Locksley, Nottingham and died while being bled by the prioress of Kirkley. For 10 points—name this man who was accompanied by Allan-a-Dale, Will Stutly and Will Scarlett as he hid out in Barnsdale and Sherwood Forest.

answer: Robin Hood

4. He represents some of the Oklahoma city bombing victims in a lawsuit against the fertilizer company whose ingredients were found in the bomb. Other clients have included Jim Brown, Snoop Doggy Dogg, and Michael Jackson. For 10 points—name this lawyer who compared Mark Fuhrman to Adolf Hitler while defending O.J. Simpson.

answer: Johnnie Cochran

5. It is bordered on the east by the Tyrrhenian Sea, on the south and west by the Mediterranean Sea and is separated by the Strait of Bonifacio from Corsica. For 10 points—name this Italian island whose largest cities are Sassari and Cagliari.

answer: Sardinia or Sardegna

6. Raised in Suriname, she met the slave there who would be the subject of her most famous work. After returning to England and working as a spy for Charles II, she turned to writing and became the first woman buried in Poet's Corner. For 10 points—name this author of "The City Heiress" and "Oroonoko."

answer: Aphra Behn

7. In 1858 this man and Archibald Couper independently proposed that carbon is tetravalent, paving the way to the understanding of the structure of organic molecules. In 1865 he made another advance in bonding theory when he proposed that carbon chains could double back on themselves and form rings. For 10 points—name this scientist who finally explain the structure of benzene.

answer: August Kekule von Stradonitz

8. A former Connecticut school teacher who joined the Continental Army, this young Captain was captured leaving Long Island while carrying a Latin note concealed in the sole of his shoe. For this he was hanged. For 10 points—name this man who on September 22, 1776 spoke the apocryphal last words "I only regret that I have but one life to lose for my country."

answer: Nathan Hale

9. This nymph always detained Juno while Zeus was keeping company with the other nymphs. When Juno found out she declared, "that tongue of thine, by which I have been tricked, shall have its power curtailed and enjoy the briefest use of speech." For 10 points—name this nymph more famous for her association with Narcissus.

answer: Echo

10. This emperor's name means "Might of the Trinity". He granted his country a constitution, but lost power when the Italians invaded in 1935. He returned in 1942 and rebuilt his country by freeing the slaves and broadening constitutional powers. For 10 points—name this man who was the last emperor of Ethiopia.

answer: Haile Selassie I or Ras Tafari

11. Its name means "unity," which one would never know from the bitter infighting between David Levy and Benjamin Netanyahu. For 10 points—name this Israeli opposition party trying to oust Labour.

answer: Likud

12. Tampa Bay Mutiny, Colorado Rapids, Kansas City Wiz, Dallas Burn, New England Revolution, San Jose Clash, Metro Stars, DC United. Columbus Crew, and LA Galaxy are all—for 10 points—teams in what league that will begin play in 1996.

answer: Major League Soccer or MLS (prompt on soccer)

13. Occupying the upper right portion of the Hertzsprung-Russell diagram, this low surface temperature star type has a radius of ten to one hundred times our sun's. For 10 points—name this stage in stellar evolution near the end of a star's life in which it has no hydrogen left in its core.

answer: Red Giant

14. Ernest Hemingway wrote 44 endings to this book before settling on the one he liked. Set in Italy and Switzerland it tells the story of Frederic Henry and Catherine Barkley. For 10 points—what is the title of this work?

answer: A Farewell to Arms

15. During the Civil War she served the Union army as superintendent of women nurses. After founding a school for girls in Boston she became interested in improving the conditions in prisons and houses for the poor. For 10 points—name this woman whose work led to prison reform.

answer: Dorothea Dix

16. This game was the top selling computer game of 1995. Manufactured by Broderbund it was the top game on IBM and Macintosh as well as the top CD-Rom program of 1995. For 10 points—name this game.

answer: Myst

17. Peclet [Pec-lay] number, Stanton number, Nusselt number, Fanning friction factor, Prandtl number, Froude number, Mach number and Reynolds number. For 10 points—what attribute is common to these quantities frequently used in engineering and science?

answer: Dimensionless Numbers or No Units or Unitless or equivalents.

18. He moved with his architect father to the United States and studied architecture at Yale and went onto design the CBS building, the John Deere headquarters and the Dulles airport terminal. For 10 points—name this Finnish-American architect best known for designing the St. Louis arch.

answer: Eero Saارينen

19. A membranous cellular organelle, it consists of a smooth outer membrane and a inner membrane with folds called cristae. For 10 points—name this organelle of which over 2,500 may be found in a typical liver cell, and which releases 95% of a cell's energy through respiration.

answer: Mitochondrion or Mitochondria

20. Mark Koenig, Bob Meusel, Tony Lazzeri, Lou Gehrig and Babe Ruth comprised the heart of the 1927 Yankees batting order and for ten points were known by what bloodthirsty nickname.

answer: Murderer's Row prompt on: 1927 Yankees or Yankees

21. At age 10 he unsuccessfully lobbied city officials in Harrisburg, PA to build a zoo, and remained hooked on public life forever. He won election to the House of Representatives in 1978 and has been there ever since. For 10 points—name Time magazine's 1995 Man of the Year.

answer: Newt Gingrich

22. The New York Times in July 1995 incorrectly identified Gogol as the author of "At the Bottom." For 10 points—give the correct author of this play, more commonly translated as "The Lower Depths."

answer: Gorky

23. This word is a corruption of the name of the insane asylum now located in Beckenham, Kent and famous for the brutality shown to its patients. For 10 points—give this word which has come to mean any scene in uproar and confusion.

answer: Bedlam

24. Officially called "History of the U.S. Decision-Making Process on Viet Nam Policy," it was leaked by Daniel Ellsberg to the New York Times in 1971. For 10 points—give the popular name of this study.

answer: The PENTAGON PAPERS

25. This state's eastern border is formed by the Mississippi river and its western border is formed by the Missouri and the Big Sioux rivers. For 10 points—name this state in which the Herbert Hoover presidential library is located and whose capital is Des Moines.

answer: Iowa

26. In 1126, Hermann von Salza, Grand Master of the Teutonic Knights, was ordered to Christianize this tribe that was living between the Vistula and Neiman Rivers. Instead he exterminated them, but their name survived and was applied to the entire region. For 10 points—name this people or country, which during the 19th century led the unification process of Germany.

answer: Prussia or Prussians

27. Postulated to exist as a necessary consequence of the quantization of charge, Maxwell's equations and the grand unified theory, they are so massive that they could only be created the instant after the big bang. For 10 points—name this particle which Blas Cabrera claims to have discovered, which is unique in that it has only one magnetic pole.

answer: Magnetic Monopole

28. He came to the United States in March of 1995 on a fund-raising tour, though he didn't get any donations from the British embassy. For 10 points—name this leader of the Sinn Fein (shin fayn), the political arm of the Irish Republican Army.

answer: Gerry Adams

29. This movie starred John Candy as a police officer and Alan Alda as the President in a military takeover of another North American country. For 10 points—name this Michael Moore vehicle that was in theaters just about as long as it takes to cook and serve the title.

answer: Canadian Bacon

30. This American poet was killed in WWI but he is best remembered for a poem he wrote four years before his death. For 10 points—name this poet who wrote the line “Poems are made by fools like me but only God can make a tree”?

answer: Joyce Kilmer

31. Created in 1968 by the Riksbank of Sweden to celebrate its three hundredth anniversary, the winner of this prize is chosen each year by the Swedish Royal Academy. For 10 points—name this award, some of whose past winners have included Robert Solow and Milton Friedman.

answer: Nobel Prize in Economics or Economic Sciences

32. Jezebel tried to kill him and failed, and he may have never died since he was carried in a chariot of fire to heaven. For 10 points—name this ~~prophet~~ ^{judge} of the Old Testament.

answer: Enoch

25 POINT BONUS

1. One of them is still on the air. One can be seen on Comedy Central. The other two have disappeared into space. For five points a piece and a five point bonus for all four, name the four shows that debuted in 1986 as the original shows of the FOX network.

answer: Married With Children, The Tracey Ullman Show,
Mr. President, Duet

30 POINT BONUS

2. For 10 points each—name these places in Northern European mythology:
- A. Meaning 'land of the apples', this is the land of the dead in Celtic mythology and the place where King Arthur is taken after his death.

answer: Avalon

- B. Created by Odin in the upper branches of the World-Tree, this is the home of the gods.

answer: Asgard

- C. The subject of works by Lalo and Debussy, each morning this cathedral rises out of the sea. The bells are tolled, the priests say their prayers and then it sinks back into the depths.

answer: Cathedral of Ys

30 POINT BONUS

3. For 10 points each—name the Chief Justice at the time of these Supreme Court decisions:

A. Marbury v. Madison answer: John Marshall

B. Cruzan v. Missouri answer: William Rehnquist

C. Engle v. Vitale answer: Earl Warren

30 POINT BONUS

4. Two main terms are involved in the linguistic theory associated with Zelig Harris and Noam Chomsky, embodied in the book "Syntactic Structures." For 15 points each:
- A. What one word term refers to the type of grammar in which innate structures in the human brain create language?

answer: Generative or equivalents

- B. What other one word term refers to the rules underlying the relations of components in a given language?

answer: Transformations or equivalents

20 POINT BONUS

5. In July 1995, Daw Aung San Suu Kyi (awng san sue chee) visited the Martyrs Mausoleum in Yangon to honor her father, the nation's independence hero, after she had been freed by from 6 years of House arrest. For 10 points each—give the current name of the country where Ms. Aung San Suu Kyi was held, and the name of the ruling government junta which held her.

answer: Myanmar, State Law and Order Restoration Council or SLORC

30 POINT BONUS

6. (10 seconds per part) Given a block of wood with mass of 30 kilograms and a velocity of 15 meters per second, answer the following for 15 points each:

- A. What is the momentum of the block?

answer: 450 kilogram meters per second

- B. What is the kinetic energy of the block?

answer: 3375 Joules

30 POINT BONUS

7. Given a favorite British poem, according to a 1995 BBC poll of 7,500 citizens, name—for 10 points each—its author:

A. At number 1 was 'If'. answer: Rudyard Kipling

B. At number 2 was 'The Lady of Shallot'. answer: Alfred, Lord Tennyson

C. Coming in 3rd was 'The Listener'. answer: Walter de la Mare

30 POINT BONUS

8. For 10 points each—answer these questions about the Punic Wars.

A. The Carthaginian general who spent 18 years marching up and down Italy with his army terrorizing the Romans during the Second Punic War.

answer: Hannibal

B. The second Punic War ended when this Roman general defeated the Carthaginians at Zama.

answer: Publius Cornelius Scipio Africanus Major

C. Name the land of Alexander the Great that allied itself with the Carthaginians and which was defeated at the battle of Cynoscephalae.

answer: Macedonia

30 POINT BONUS

9. For 10 points each—name the arenas where these NBA teams play their 1995-96 home games:

A. Denver Nuggets answer: McNichols Sports Arena

B. Philadelphia 76ers answer: the Spectrum

C. Cleveland Cavaliers answer: Gund Arena

30 POINT BONUS

10. For 10 points each—give the subject of these Irving Stone biographies:

- | | | |
|---------------------------|---------|--------------------------|
| A. Lust for Life | answer: | Vincent Van Gogh |
| B. Love is Eternal | answer: | Mary Todd Lincoln |
| C. Adversary in the House | answer: | Eugene Debs |

30 POINT BONUS

11. For 10 points each—name these conductors:

- A. This conductor of the New York Philharmonic from 1943 to 1969, he composed West Side Story.

answer: Leonard Bernstein

- B. He stepped in at the last minute to conduct a Rio de Janeiro performance of Aida, and had brilliant career at La Scala, the Met and the NY Philharmonic.

answer: Arturo Toscanini

- C. After working as a piano player for an Elvis impersonator, a clarinetist for Ringling Brothers Circus, and conductor of an Akron, Ohio orchestra, he now conducts the Boston Pops.

answer: Keith Lockhart

30 POINT BONUS

12. For 10 points each—name these seas near Australia.

- A. The site of a 1942 naval battle, this sea is partially surrounded by the Great Barrier Reef and the Solomon Islands.

answer: Coral Sea

- B. Located off the southeast coast of Australia, this sea also forms the western boundary of New Zealand.

answer: Tasman Sea

- C. Located between New Guinea and Australia, this sea is separated from the Coral Sea by the Torres Strait.

answer: Arafura Sea

25 POINT BONUS

13. For 5 points each—answer these questions about the ribs.

- A. How many pairs of ribs are there in the human body?

answer: 12

- B. What are the three types of ribs in the human body?

answer: True, False and Floating

- C. What is the name of the thin flat bone which the ribs connect to in the front of the body?

answer: Sternum

20 POINT BONUS

14. For 5 points each—name the companies that made these 1995 Christmas bestsellers.

A. Mighty Morphin Power Rangers answer: Bandai America

B. Crayola Crayons answer: Smith & Barney

C. Barbie answer: Mattel

D. Genesis with Sonic 2 answer: Sega of America

30 POINT BONUS

15. For 10 points each—answer these questions about the Alamo:

A. What Mexican general led a force of 30,000 troops against the Alamo.

answer: General Antonio Lopez de Santa Anna

B. What Texan commanded the troops occupying the Alamo during this battle?

answer: William B. Travis

C. In what year did this historic battle take place?

answer: 1836

20 POINT BONUS

16. For 5 points each—given a pen name, give the author's real name.

A. Paul French answer: Isaac Asimov

B. George Eliot answer: Mary Ann Evans

C. Geoffrey Crayon answer: Washington Irving

D. Dr. Seuss answer: Theodore Geisel

20 POINT BONUS

17. For 10 points each—answer these questions about Whitewater.

A. the chair of the Senate investigating committee

answer: Alfonse D'Amato

B. the independent counsel investigating the case

answer: Kenneth Starr

30 POINT BONUS

18. Excluding the current Pope, name—for 10 points each—the last three Popes of the Roman Catholic church.

answer: John XXIII, Paul VI, John Paul I

30 POINT BONUS

19. For 10 points each—who recorded these popular 1995 albums:

A. Now That I've Found You answer: Alison Krauss

B. The Ghost of Tom Joad answer: Bruce Springsteen

C. Design of a Decade answer: Janet Jackson

30 POINT BONUS

20. For 10 points each—name these elements:

A. Element number four, it was isolated by Louis Vauquelin from emeralds.

answer: Beryllium

B. Discovered by Jons Berzelius, this element was named after the largest of the asteroids.

answer: Cerium

C. The only element that was not discovered on earth, this noble gas was first seen in the sun by Jules Janssen.

answer: Helium

30 POINT BONUS

21. Name this musician 30-20-10:

- A. After his patron Prince Esterhazy died he was released from his service and given a pension.
- B. He traveled to London and began composing for the Salomon Subscription Concert and produced such works at the Clock symphony
- C. He also wrote the London symphony and the Surprise symphony.

answer: Franz Haydn

20 POINT BONUS

22. For 10 points each—answer these questions about 20th century Canadian Prime Ministers whose terms lasted less than one year.

- A. This Conservative leader defeated Pierre Trudeau in 1979 but was constitutionally forced out in 1980.

answer: Joe Clark

- B. She is the only woman to serve as Prime Minister, serving from June 1993 after the resignation of Brian Mulroney until October of 1993.

answer: Kim Campbell

30 POINT BONUS

23. Given an Internet acronym give its meaning. 10 points each.

- | | |
|---------|-------------------------------------|
| A. IMHO | answer: In my humble opinion |
| B. BTW | answer: By the Way |
| C. TAFN | answer: That's All for Now |

30 POINT BONUS

24. For 10 points each—given a character, name the work in which they appear.

- A. Barbara Undershaft answer: Major Barbara
- B. Phileas Fogg answer: Around the World in 80 Days
- C. Bill Driscoll answer: The Ransom of Red Chief

30 POINT BONUS

25. Name the following great African empires from a description for 10 points each:

- A. It rose to dominance in the 13th and 14th century and was located near the Niger River

answer: Mali

- B. This West African empire reached its peak in the 15th and 16th century and was centered on a bend in the Niger River

answer: Songhai

- C. this empire arose in the 8th century in what is today Mauritania

answer: Kingdom of Ghana

30 POINT BONUS

26. For 10 points each—answer these questions about Mike Tyson:

- A. The 2 men he has fought since his release.

answer: Peter McNeeley and Buster Mathis Jr.

- B. The person he will fight in March for a share of the heavyweight title

answer: Frank Bruno

30 POINT BONUS

27. Divided into the Merioneth, St. David's and Caerfai epochs, this period lasted from 590 to 505 million years ago and is sometimes known as the age of the trilobites. For 10 points each:

A. Name this period.

answer: Cambrian

B. Name the period that came after the Cambrian, and the era to which both the Cambrian and this other period belong.

answer: Paleozoic, Ordovician

20 POINT BONUS

28. For 5 points each—name these Great Lakes:

A. The shallowest.

answer: Erie

B. The Northernmost.

answer: Superior

C. Mackinac (Mac-in-aw) Island is located in it.

answer: Huron

D. The one that the state of Michigan does not touch.

answer: Ontario

30 POINT BONUS

29. In July of 1995, three unions declared their intention to merge by the year 2000. One is based in Michigan, the second in Pennsylvania and the third in Washington state. For 10 points—each name these three unions:

answer: United Automobile Workers or UAW, United Steel Workers or USW,
International Association of Machinists and Aerospace Workers or IAMAW

30 POINT BONUS

30. Given the time of 12 noon on Wednesday in January in Ann Arbor, Michigan, what time and day would it be—for 10 points each—in:

- | | | |
|-------------|---------|------------------------|
| A. Paris | answer: | Wednesday, 6 PM |
| B. Honolulu | answer: | Wednesday, 7 AM |
| C. Tokyo | answer: | Thursday, 2 AM |