

1. To some, chef Jean-Paul Bruneteau of the restaurant Riberries, is a culinary icon, but not to animal rights groups, who abhor his use of a meat that only became legal to sell in 2 states in 1993. For 10 points—name this animal that outnumbers residents 30 to 18 million in Australia, whose image appears on everything from the National Coat of Arms to the tail of Qantas planes.

answer: Kangaroos

2. His first submission to the official Salon exhibition—"The Man with the Broken Nose"—was rejected. 36 years later, he was commissioned for the future Musée des Arts Decoratif in Paris to complete his "La Porte de l'Enfer"—"The Gates of Hell." For 10 points, name this sculptor of "The Kiss" and "The Thinker."

answer: René-François-Auguste Rodin

3. In December 1995, this Morgan State University alum, whose name comes from a Ghanaian dialect translating to "conqueror of Kings" became the new president of the NAACP. For 10 points—name five-term Congressperson from Maryland.

answer: Kweisi Mfume (oom-foo-may)

4. The first big R.E.M. hit—"Green Grow the Rushes"—drew its inspiration from a poem written by this author of "Address to the Unco Guid, or the Rigidly Righteous," and "The Brigs of Ayr,". For 10 points, name this poet who also wrote "A Red Red Rose," "To a Mouse" and "Auld Lang Syne."

answer: Robert Burns prompt on very early buzz of "Green Grow..."

5. One theorem which bears his name states that the work of the external loads on a beam equals the strain energy. He's more famous as the second name on another equation relating the enthalpy of a phase change of a substance to the vapor pressure and temperature of that substance. For 10 points—name this Frenchman who developed that latter relation with Clausius.

answer: B.P.E. CLAPEYRON

6. Despite his conservatism, he supported Lyndon Johnson's civil rights legislation, and also supported the nuclear test ban treaty of 1963. For 10 points, what Illinois Republican led his party in the Senate from 1959 to 1969, now the namesake of a Senate office building?

answer: Everett DIRKSEN

7. In 1988, she and Steffi Graf won the Wimbledon Women's doubles championship. In 1990, she won the U.S. Open women's singles championship. For 10 points—name this Argentinean who recently did one of those milk mustache ads.

answer: Gabriela SABATINI

8. It begins as two springs—the Breg and the Brigach—which merge at Donaueschingen, and progresses through eight countries, then splits into three channels which then flows to the Black Sea. For 10 points, name this European river, celebrated as blue in a composition by Johann Strauss.

answer: the Danube or Donau or Dunaj or Dunav or Dunarea or Dunay

9. Like his brother Peter, this apostle was a fisherman. His name comes from the Greek for “manly.” On November 30, 60 CE, he was crucified on an X-shaped cross, a type of cross which is now named for him, such as when it appears in the Union Jack. For 10 points—name this patron saint of Scotland.

answer: ANDREW

10. A May 1995 fire in this region destroyed the 15th Century shrine of Sheik Nooruddin Wali, the region's patron saint, and an adjoining mosque, following a 2-month standoff between Indian troops and Muslim militants 18 miles northwest of the summer capital of Srinagar. For 10 points—name this only Indian state with a Muslim majority.

answer: Kashmir

11. A relatively unknown actor before 1993, he won an Oscar nomination for his portrayal of Nazi commandant Amon Goeth in "Schindler's List." For 10 points—name this extremely good-looking actor who played Hamlet in New York and starred in "Quiz Show" and "Strange Days."

answer: Ralph FIENNES (rafe fines)

12. Before you post to a USENET newsgroup, you should really read the FAQ file. For 10 points—for what does FAQ stand answer: frequently asked questions

13. The first military victory of his reign was the battle of Mollwitz in April 1741, and he also won the battles of Rossbach and Leuthen in 1757 during the Seven Years War. For 10 points, what king of Prussia who conquered Silesia during the War of the Austrian Succession established the notion of "enlightened despotism."

answer: Frederick The Great or Frederick II

14. This atmospheric layer contains most of the Earth's clouds and weather systems, and is marked by height-related temperature decreases. For 10 points, name this atmospheric region, sandwiched between the stratosphere and the Earth.

ANSWER: TROPOSPHERE

15. It tells the story of a wife who takes the disguise of a boy in order to rescue the husband. It was commissioned for the winter season of 1805, originally called "Leonore," and begun with 3 acts (reduced to 2 after 3 performances). For 10 points, name this classic opera, the only one written by Beethoven.

answer: Fidelio prompt on early buzz of "Lenore"

16. Chapter 10 lists the highlights of the Fillmore Administration as: "The Earth did not crash into the sun." For 10 points—name this classic Dave Barry book subtitled, "A Sort-Of History of the United States."

answer: "Dave Barry Slept Here" prompt on "A Sort of History..."

17. In a high seas version of King Lear, in October 1995, he sued his son in Fiji for opening an environmentally sensitive resort inn under the family name. This after the son, Jean-Michel, resigned in 1992 as head of his father's society. For 10 points—name this 85-year-old oceanographer.

answer: Jacques Cousteau

18. Dickey Simpkins, Steve Kerr, Bill Wennington, Ron Harper, Luc Longley, Toni Kukoc, Dennis Rodman, Scottie Pippen and Michael Jordan are all current members of—for 10 points—what NBA team?

answer: Chicago BULLS or Chicago

19. In July 1995, Winston Mosely asked a Federal District Court judge in Brooklyn to grant him a new trial for his conviction of the murder of a 28-year-old barmaid in Kew Gardens in Queens in 1964. For 10 points—name this victim, famous because her screams for help during her long and brutal attack were ignored by her neighbors, not one of whom called the police.

answer: Kitty Genovese

20. To help him win parole after 10 years in prison, he became an Israeli citizen in November 1995. For 10 points—name this former U.S. naval intelligence analyst, who was convicted in 1985 of spying for Israel.

answer: Jonathan Pollard

21. Scientist Linus Pauling calculated a scale to determine this atomic quality, with fluorine being the most and cesium the least. Knowing it helps to determine whether a compound is covalent or nonpolar. For 10 points, what term describes an atom's ability to attract to itself an electron pair shared with another atom?

answer: Electronegativity

22. In May 1863 he was made head of the II Corps, Army of the Potomac whose troops took the brunt of Pickett's Charge at the Battle of Gettysburg. For ten points, name this West Point graduate whom James A. Garfield defeated for the US presidency in 1880.

answer: Winfield Scott Hancock

23. In this film, Jack Hawkins played General Allenby, Claude Rains played Mr. Dryden, Anthony Quayle played Colonel Brighton and Alec Guinness played Prince Faisal. For 10 points, name this Oscar-winning movie directed by Sir David Lean, in which the title character is played by Peter O'Toole.

answer: Lawrence Of Arabia

24. This St. Beuno's College graduate saw the Jesuit magazine "The Month" reject a poem he wrote after he broke a 7-year silence. Name—for 10 points—the Victorian writer moved from silence by the death of 5 Franciscan nuns in a shipwreck in 1875, to write the long poem "The Wreck of the Deutschland"?

answer: Gerard Manley Hopkins

25. Only six living species of this type of mammal belonging to the family Bradypodidae still exist. Two species are collectively known as unauas, which have two toes per front foot, while the other four species, known as ais, have three toes on each foot. For 10 points, name this tree-dwelling South and Central American mammal, whose name implies laziness.

answer: Sloth

26. In his 23-year career, he had been posted in Mexico City and Rome, and, in 1985, was at the CIA's headquarters in Virginia as chief of the Soviet counter-intelligence branch. For 10 points—name this man who at age 44 began his career as a traitor, selling information to the KGB about the identity of American agents.

answer: Aldrich Ames

27. This writer earned money for college by working in a warehouse for car spare parts, like the hero of his play "A Memory of Two Mondays." For 10 points, name this dramatist better known for "A View from the Bridge," "After the Fall," and "The Crucible."

answer: Arthur Miller

28. It is known as the Bug-Eating State, in honor of the insectivorous bull bat, and is home to Chimney Rock National Historic Site, Scotts Bluff National Monument, and the Homestead National Monument. For 10 points, name this state, home to the Pine Ridge highlands, the Niobrara valley, and a unicameral legislature.

answer: Nebraska

29. He is hubris and naïveté combined. In May 1995, he repeated his hope that Christianity would be re-united by the year 2000 and invited the leaders of other churches to join him in discussing Christian unity. Problem is, he in the same letter, "Ut Unum Sint," made clear that his authority would remain absolute and supreme. For 10 points—name this optimistic encyclical writer.

answer: JP2 or The Pope or John Paul II or Karol Wojtyla

30. With Schwinger and Tomonaga, he shared the 1965 Nobel Prize in Physics for remaking quantum electrodynamics, thus altering science's view of wave and particle nature. For 10 points—name this physicist, the namesake of a set of diagrams, integrals, and rules.

answer: Richard Feynman

31. Since the Romans realized they could not match the Carthaginians at seamanship, the Romans fitted their galleys with these wooden boarding bridges with metal spikes under their fore-ends. For 10 points—what are these devices called, also the genus name of some 20 species of crow?

answer: CORVUS or CORVI

32. Draw a rectangle and designate 2 of its corners as the origins of 2 consumers' consumption sets. Let the height of the rectangle represent the amount of commodity 1 and the width represent the amount of commodity 2 so that a point in the rectangle represents an allocation of commodities to the 2 consumers. For 10 points—you have just created what economic tool used to depict equilibrium allocations in simple economies, and named for its creator?

answer: EDGEWORTH box

20 POINT BONUS

1. This unlikely duo are becoming the official National Anthem performers for sporting events, performing at the NBA All-Star Game, the NBA Finals, Cal Ripken's game breaking streak and the final cut on the soundtrack to Ken Burns' baseball. For 10 points each—name this Grammy-award winning pair, one a rock piano virtuoso and the other a former talk-show band leader.

answer: Bruce Hornsby and Branford Marsalis

30 POINT BONUS

2. 30-20-10, name the artist:
- A. In his 1959 "The Castle of the Pyrenees" a huge stone topped by a small castle floats above the sea.
- B. "This is not a pipe."
- C. This Belgian surrealist paints misleading realism with mocking irony, such as his "Son of Man" which shows a man in a suit with an apple over his face.

answer: René (-François-Ghislain) Magritte

30 POINT BONUS

3. For 10 points each, in which organ of the human body you would find:
- A. Islets of Langerhans                      answer: Pancreas
- B. Bundle of His                              answer: Heart
- C. Loop of Henle                              answer: Kidneys

20 POINT BONUS

4. This graduate of this University wanted to attend a class reunion but had some problems getting a visa because of the reaction of China. For 10 points each—name this President of Taiwan and his alma mater.

answer: LEE TENG-HUI, Cornell University

30 POINT BONUS

5. Answer these questions about the battle of Agincourt for 10 points each:

A. In what year did it occur? answer: 1415

B. Name the kings of England and France at the time.

answer: HENRY V (England), CHARLES VI (France)

30 POINT BONUS

6. Given the year and weight class, name the Olympic gold medal winner in boxing for 10 points each.

(a) 1968, heavyweight answer: George FOREMAN

(b) 1992, lightweight answer: Oscar de la HOYA

(c) 1976, middleweight answer: Michael SPINKS

30 POINT BONUS

7. Name the playwright, 30-20-10.

A. After serving in an army hospital, he wrote his first play, "Baal," in 1923.

B. In 1949, he went to Reinhardt's old Deutsches Theater in the Soviet sector of Berlin to help stage "Mother Courage and Her Children."

C. 21 years earlier, he wrote, with Kurt Weill, "The Threepenny Opera."

answer: Eugen Berthold Friedrich Brecht

30 POINT BONUS

8. Name these structural mechanics terms which begin with the letter "C" for 10 points each:

A. This is a beam fixed at one end but free to translate or rotate about the other.

answer: Cantilever beam

B. A pair of equal and opposite forces producing a twisting moment about a point.

answer: COUPLE

C. If a cable is hung from two supports, one higher than the other, the cable will take the shape of this type of curve.

answer: Catenary

30 POINT BONUS

9. For 15 points apiece, name the authors of the following Pulitzer Prize winning books about American History.

A. "The Age of Jackson" answer: Arthur M. Schlesinger, Jr.

B. "My Experiences in the World War" answer: John J. Pershing

30 POINT BONUS

10. 30-20-10. Name the theorist.

A. After he helped plan the Russian strategy at Borodino, he became director of the Allgemeine Kriegsschule (ALL guh mine uh • KREEG shoo luh) in 1818.

B. His most famous definition stated that war was "a mere continuation of policy by other means."

C. His most famous book, "On War", was published posthumously in 1833.

answer: Carl von CLAUSEWITZ

20 POINT BONUS

11. Identify the American authors of these works for 10 points each.

- A. "Of Mice and Men" answer: John Steinbeck
B. "Mosquitoes" and "Go Down Moses" answer: William Faulkner

20 POINT BONUS

12. This company took a $40 million pre-tax charge against its quarterly earnings in December 1995 to cover the cost of overhauling the tea and fruit beverage company it bought a year earlier for $1.7 billion. For 10 points each—name this parent company and its troubled holding.

answer: Quaker Oats Company, Snapple

30 POINT BONUS

13. Name this figure 30-20-10:

- A. In the "Iliad," he and Diomedes go on a scouting mission to the Trojan Camp.
B. He received a deep gash in his thigh from a boar's tusk while hunting with Autolycus's sons and bore the scar all his life.
C. His dog Argus, his wife Penelope, and his son Telemachus all appear in the second Homeric epic, which is named for him.

answer: ODYSSEUS or ULYSSES
[host note for halftime: I originally typed "thing" instead of "thigh" in the 20 points clue. You tell me which is a better question.]

20 POINT BONUS

14. All consistent axiomatic formulations of number theory include undecidable propositions. This revolutionary theorem was proposed in 1931 by a faculty member at the University of Vienna and the Institute for Advanced Study. For 10 points each, name this German mathematician and name his theorem.

answer: Kurt Gödel, Incompleteness Theorem (prompt on: Gödel's Proof or Theorem)

30 POINT BONUS

15. Name this person 30-20-10:

- A. He slashes Elizabeth Holtzman, among others, in "Power, Pasta, and Politics."
- B. He is Chair of the Senate Banking Committee.
- C. With Moynihan, he represents New York.

answer: Al D'Amato

30 POINT BONUS

16. Identify the desert, 30-20-10

- A. It merges to the south and southeast with the Great Basin Desert and to the north with the Sonoran Desert.
- B. On its eastern edge lies Lake Mead.
- C. Chief towns near it include Lancaster, Victorville, Barstow, and Las Vegas.

answer: Mojave Desert

30 POINT BONUS

17. For 10 points each—given characters, name the musicals in which they appear.

- A. Sarah Brown, Nathan Detroit, Sky Masterson      answer: Guys and Dolls
- B. Kim, Ellen, Chris, The Engineer                      answer: Miss Saigon
- C. Emile, Nellie, Lieutenant Cable                      answer: South Pacific

30 POINT BONUS

18. When the Pharaoh messed with Moses, he messed with the wrong Jew. In chapters 7-10 of Exodus, God wrought upon Egypt Death of First borns, locusts, darkness, livestock diseases and—for 5 points each—what 6 other plagues.

answer:      waters become blood,                      frogs,                      lice, flies,    boils,                      hail (Accept reasonable equivalents for all answers)

30 POINT BONUS

19. Answer the following questions about the founding of Saudi Arabia for 15 points each.

- A. This puritanical sect of Muslims ruled Central Arabia for over 150 years, and, after WWI, expanded their domination over the Arabian Peninsula, taking Mecca and Medina.

answer: Wahabi

- B. What Wahabi king of the Hejaz became the first king of Saudi Arabia in September, 1932?

answer: Ibn Saud

20 POINT BONUS

20. "Woman in Blue Reading a Letter," "Woman Holding a Balance," "Woman with a Water Pitcher," "Woman with a Pearl Necklace." For 10 points each:

- A. These are some of the works of what Dutch artist who also painted "View of Delft"?

answer: Jan Vermeer or Jan van der Meer van Delft

- B. A 1995-96 retrospective of Vermeer is being held in America in what city?

answer: Washington or District of Columbia

20 POINT BONUS

21. Among the Republicans in the 104th Congress, who, for 10 points each:

- A. is the House Majority Leader?

answer: Dick Armey

- B. is the House Majority Whip from Texas who once said, "DDT is as safe as aspirin"?

answer: Tom DeLay [host: perhaps he should take DDT for a headache]

20 POINT BONUS

22. For 10 points each—answer these questions about Faust:

- A. What Elizabethan poet and Shakespearean predecessor, famous for Tamburlaine the Great, wrote the 1604 work “The Tragicall History of D. Faustus”

answer: Christopher Marlowe

- B. What Frankfurt-born German gave arguably the most famous rendering of Faust in his “Faust”?

answer: Johann Wolfgang von Goethe

30 POINT BONUS

23. Answer these questions about the Boston Massacre for 10 points each.

- A. In what year did it occur?

answer: 1770

- B. Who was the defense attorney for the British soldiers accused of murder in the massacre?

answer: John Adams

- C. What Framingham, Mass. resident was the first to fall in the massacre, thus becoming one of the first men to lose his life in the cause of American independence.?

ANSWER: CRISPUS ATTUCKS

30 POINT BONUS

24. Pluto—big dog, small planet. For 10 points each—tell me what astronomer discovered Pluto, what other astronomer predicted its discovery, and the name of its only moon.

answer: Clyde Tombaugh (discovered it), Percival Lowell (predicted), Charon (moon)

30 POINT BONUS

25. Name this politician 30-20-10:

- A. Son of Italian immigrants and former pitcher with the 1954 Class A Albuquerque Dukes, he lost the 1970 race for governor of New Mexico.
- A. He changed his first name from Pietro just before he ran for the open Senate seat of Clinton Anderson in 1972.
- C. He's Chair of the Senate Budget Committee, a Republican from Arizona.

answer: Pete Domenici

30 POINT BONUS

26. Sporting their racist nicknames, the Braves beat the Indians in the 1995 World Series. For 5 points each—give the nicknames (not cities) the other six 1995 Major League Baseball playoff teams.

answer: Colorado Rockies, Cincinnati Reds, Los Angeles Dodgers
Seattle Mariners, Boston Red Sox, New York Yankees

20 POINT BONUS

27. "Lincoln" was the title of two notable Civil War-inspired books. For 10 points each, whose book "Lincoln":

- A. was published in 1984 by the same author of "Hollywood," "Dark Green, Bright Red," and "1876"?

answer: Gore Vidal

- B. appeared in 1926 and 1939, by the same author of "The American Songbag," "Good Morning, America," and "Chicago Poems"?

answer: Carl Sandburg

20 POINT BONUS

28. Because it lost $100 million in its 10 years for its owner, New York's No. 4 newspaper called it quits in July 1995. For 10 points each—name this newspaper that mixed an old-style tabloid format with in-depth journalism, nicknamed "tabloid in a tutu" and its owner.

answer: New York Newsday, the Times Mirror Company

20 POINT BONUS

29. For 10 points each—give the specific name of the data structures to which these terms apply:

A. LIFO

answer: Stacks

B. FIFO

answer: Queues

30 POINT BONUS

30. For 10 points each—name the 3 most populous cities in Sicily.

answer: PALERMO, CATANIA, MESSINA