

HAYNES

TOSSUPS

1. Dennis Rawlins, a Baltimore historian, claims that this person is receiving a lot of undeserved credit. The diaries Rawlins has been researching show that this man stopped 150 miles short of his goal because of engine trouble. For ten points, name this arctic explorer who may have not flown over the North Pole in 1926.

ANSWER: LCDR Richard _BYRD_

2. France was falling, and the British were retreating. For ten points, name the town where 340,000 troops escaped France in 1940, leaving behind most of their supplies and marking the beginning of the fall of France.

ANSWER: _DUNKIRK_

3. Patty, Shermy and Violet were three of the first five characters introduced in this comic strip, but they have since been "retired". However, this strip is more famous for the third character (a boy) and the fourth character (a dog). For ten points, name this comic strips whose original name was "L'il Folks".

ANSWER: _PEANUTS_

4. Knoxville: Summer of 1915, Vanessa, and Overture to The School for Scandal are some of the lesser known works of this American composer. For ten points, identify this songster whose most famous work is his Adagio for Strings.

ANSWER: Samuel _BARBER_

5. The Prisoner's Dilemma is a typical problem from this mathematical discipline concerned with information and outcomes, specifically the most advantageous ones. For ten points, name this field, which John von Neumann, who established its legitimacy in the 1920's and 30's, is typically credited as founding.

ANSWER : _GAME_ theory

6. This is either of the two layers of electrically charged particles held in orbits above the atmosphere by the magnetic field of the earth. For ten points, name this region on the outer layers of the thermosphere named for an American physicist.

ANSWER: _VAN ALLEN BELTS_

7. Born in North Carolina around 1917, this musician was brought to New York where he excelled in math and physics at Stuyvesant High School. He was one of the relatively few jazz musicians to make it to the cover of Time Magazine and his compositions include Well, You Needn't and Ruby, My Dear. FTP, name this pianist, whose life was explored in the documentary Straight, No Chaser.

ANSWER : Thelonious Sphere _MONK_

8. The original version of this device, forty years ago, used a high-pitched sound to transmit information, now they use infrared sensors. For ten points, what is the handheld device of which the average household now has four, just in case one slips into the couch.

ANSWER: _REMOTE CONTROL_

9. These three books of the Old Testament can be read as a sentence, as Lyle Lovett slyly implied when he used them as the title of his fourth album. FTP, name the Lovett album and you'll name in order the three books which immediately follow the Pentateuch.

ANSWER : _JOSHUA JUDGES RUTH_

10. He is first referred to in a 7th century Welsh story. The "Historia Regum Britanniae" was his first appearance in an English source and it spells out many popular myths associated with him, including those of his famous father and counselor-mage. For ten points, name this "Once and Future King" of England.

ANSWER : King _ARTHUR_

11. Everyone knows that Santa's Little Helper is the Simpson's dog, but, for a quick ten points, name the Simpsons cat.

ANSWER : SNOWBALL

12. "I would have become a geologist if Oscar had been a geologist." But Oscar Hammerstein II wasn't a geologist, he was a librettist, and so too became his youthful neighbor. FTP, name this co-author of "Getting Away With Murder", better known for his work as lyricist and composer for the musicals Anyone Can Whistle, Company, and Into the Woods.

ANSWER : Stephen _SONDHEIM_

13. Born in 1743 in Paris, this scientist held many important posts with the French Government. Some of his most significant works dealt with combustion, debunking the phlogiston theory, and proving the law of conservation of mass. For ten points, name this "Father of Chemistry," who lost his head in 1794.

ANSWER : Antoine _LAVOISIER_

14. As a boy he lost an eye due to an accident with a hunting knife, but he later played one year with the Denver Nuggets. Elected to Congress in 1961, he was one of the first mainstream Democrats to oppose the Vietnam war. FTP, name this Arizona native who authored the book "Too Funny to Be President" after finishing second to Carter in the 1976 New Hampshire primary.

ANSWER : Mo _UDALL_

15. As the speed of a fluid increases, the pressure inside the fluid, or exerted by the fluid, decreases. The physical law which states this is also responsible for the explanation of lift, which allows airplanes to fly. FTP, name this law, stated by a member of a famed mathematical family.

ANSWER : _BERNOULLI'S_ Law

16. This orchestra was first led by Emil Oberhoffer from 1903 to 1922 and was later briefly led by Eugene Ormandy. Known for premiering new works, in more recent years it has been led by Dimitri Mitropoulos and Neville Marriner. FTP, name this symphony current conducted by Edo de Waart, which was formerly known as the Minneapolis Symphony Orchestra.

ANSWER : _MINNESOTA_ Orchestra

17. Born in Garrard County, Kentucky in 1846, later in life, she lived in Kansas. It was there that she became a "jail evangelist" for the WCTU and concluded that alcoholism and crime were connected. FTP, name this crusader, later rejected by the WCTU, who turned to vaudeville to promote her cause, after her campaign of "hatchetation."

ANSWER : Carry Amelia _NATION_

18. This company recently broke a 48-year-old industry-wide advertising agreement. The advertisement in question aired on only one station, a Corpus Christi NBC affiliate. It shows two dogs, Obedience School graduates, one bearing a newspaper, the other a purple-velvet pouch with a bottle inside. FTP, identify this company, makers of Crown Royal whiskey.

ANSWER : _SEAGRAM_

19. Known formerly as Stalin Peak and Garmo Peak, this was (when the Soviet Union existed) the tallest mountain in the USSR. Now it is the tallest mountain in Tajikistan, at just under 25,000 feet. FTP, identify this mountain which takes its current name from the form of government in the former Soviet Union.

ANSWER : _COMMUNISM_ Peak

20. Guy Carleton was largely responsible for the terms of this Act, passed by the British Parliament in 1774. It recognized the Roman Catholic church, French civil law, and the seigneurial (sig-nyur-ee-uhl) land-tenure system in Canada. FTP, identify this Act, designed to preserve French Canadian loyalty and considered Intolerable by the neighboring American colonies.

ANSWER : _QUEBEC_ Act

21. He was ordained in 1954 and served as assistant pastor of a Chicago church while earning a Ph.D. in sociology from the University of Chicago. Later a University of Arizona professor, he has written non-fiction such as "The American Catholic : A Social Portrait" as well as fiction. FTP, identify this controversial author of "The Cardinal Sins" and "Thy Brother's Wife."

ANSWER : Andrew M. _GREELEY_

22. In antiquity parts of this nation were ruled by the Phoenicians, Carthaginians, Greeks, Romans, Vandals, and Byzantines. It remained part of the Ottoman empire from the 16th century until Italy colonized it in 1911. FTP, name this country, whose national flag has fewer colors than any other in the United Nations.

ANSWER : _LIBYA_ (one, solid field of green)

23. The Private Life of the Master Race, Mother Courage and Her Children, Trommeln in der Nacht, Mann ist Mann, and the Three Penny Opera are some of this German's dramatist's works. For ten points, name him.

ANSWER: Bertolt _BRECHT_

24. Born in Rosario, Argentina, he received a medical degree from the University of Buenos Aires in 1953. While there he became convinced that only violent revolution could cure social ills, so he joined Castro's revolt. After helping steer Cuba toward Communism, he went to Bolivia, where he was captured and killed in 1969. For ten points, name this famed revolutionary.

ANSWER : Ernesto "Che" _GUEVARA_

25. It is rumored that during the 1930s, students stole his head and played a game of Rugby Football with it. This may be part of the reason why today, when his mummified body is wheeled in for votes by the board of King's College, the other governors look not at a wax replica of his skull. Still, he serves as an excellent example of maximizing utility. FTP, name this precursor of John Stuart Mill and author of "A Fragment on Government"

ANSWER : Jeremy _BENTHAM_

26. Norway, Sweden, Burma, Austria, Peru, and Egypt. These are the countries of the men who have held this post, showing the commitment of the organization to regional diversity in the people it honors. The office is awarded on the recommendation of the Security Council and by the General Assembly. For ten points, name this office.

ANSWER : _SECRETARY-GENERAL_ of the United Nations

27. This occurrence from BC 586-538 saw the Jewish rites not related to the Temple emphasized, such as Sabbath observation and circumcision. For ten points, name this time which saw the Persian conquest end this forced resettlement.

ANSWER: _BABYLONIAN CAPTIVITY_

HAYNES
Haynes

BONI

20 POINT BONUS

1. Gone are Wendy the perky receptionist, the bottle mascot, and the twelve year old kid distributing bottles. Enter Spike Lee, who has filmed a commercial for this company complete with a street parade. For ten points apiece, first

a. Name this fruit and tea beverage maker, who has recently seen signs of a comeback after a terrible 1995.

ANSWER: _SNAPPLE_

b. For another ten points, name the food manufacturer who bought the company in 1994, only to find the previous regime's distribution schemes and advertising to be out of step with current practices.

ANSWER: _QUAKER_

30 POINT BONUS

2. Answer these questions about the United States space shuttle program for ten points a piece.

a. How many shuttles have been built and launched?

ANSWER: _FIVE_

b. Which was the first shuttle to be launched?

ANSWER: _COLUMBIA_

c. Which shuttle was deployed most recently?

ANSWER: _ENDEAVOUR_

30 POINT BONUS

3. The First Triumvirate of ancient Rome consisted of Crassus, Caesar and Pompey. For ten points each, name the members of the Second Triumvirate.

ANSWER : Marc _ANTONY_,
Marcus Aemilius _LEPIDUS_,
Gaius _OCTAVIUS_ (acc. _OCTAVIAN_, prompt on Augustus)

30 POINT BONUS

4. Name the year 30-20-10

30) Wilma Mankiller is appointed the first female chief of the Cherokee Nation.

20) The Achille Lauro is hijacked.

10) On the death of Konstantin Chernenko, Mikhail Gorbachev becomes Premier of the Soviet Union.

ANSWER : _1985_

30 POINT BONUS

5. 30-20-10, Name the movie.

30) Senator Palatine campaigns for President with the slogan "We ARE The People."

20) Peter Boyle played The Wizard, Cybill Shepherd played Betsy and Harvey Keitel played Sport, a pimp.

10) Robert DeNiro plays the character holding the titular job and a young Jodie Foster plays Iris, a prostitute.

ANSWER : _TAXI DRIVER_

20 POINT BONUS

6. Identify these nineteenth century female American historical figures for ten points apiece.

a. She crusaded for the mentally ill to be taken out of prisons and into institutions of their own.

ANSWER: Dorothea _DIX_

b. After helping slaves escape through the underground railroad, she served as a nurse, scout and spy for the Union side during the Civil War.

ANSWER: Harriet _TUBMAN_

30 POINT BONUS

7. You will be given ten points apiece for the destination city based on the origin city and the travel directions for 15 points apiece:

a. I-55 South from Memphis, I-10 East until you reach the Atlantic Ocean.

ANSWER: _JACKSONVILLE_

b. Ontario-401 East from Windsor until it ends, then Autoroute-20 until it intersects with Autoroute-10.

ANSWER: _MONTREAL_

30 POINT BONUS

8. You probably remember Kasparov defeating Deep Blue in the most serious Computer Chess challenge yet. But do you remember the result of each of the six games? For five points each, give the outcome of each game -- win by Kasparov, win by Deep Blue, or draw -- in order, from the first game to the last.

(Note to moderator: All answers must be given before commenting on the correctness of any)

ANSWERS : DEEP BLUE, KASPAROV, KASPAROV, DRAW, DRAW, KASPAROV

30 POINT BONUS

9. LITERATURE BONUS: For ten points each, identify the following work by Gore Vidal.

This 1995 memoir shares its name with a term for "paper prepared for writing on and then wiping out again, like a slate"

ANSWER : _PALIMPSEST_ : A Memoir

This 1968 novel was an outrageous spoof of Hollywood, was itself adapted into a film that garnered much less acclaim than the original book.

ANSWER : _MYRA BRECKINRIDGE_

This 1992 novel was attacked on grounds that it was sacrilegious.

ANSWER : _LIVE FROM GOLGOTHA_

25 POINT BONUS

10. Everybody knows that the new Broadway musical "Rent" is based on "La Boheme". But for each character in Rent, can you tell the model character from La Boheme? For five points each name that Bohemian.

video artist Mark Cohen

ANSWER : _MARCELLO_

performance artist Maureen Johnson

ANSWER : _MUSSETTA_

cyberspace philosopher Tom Collins

ANSWER : _COLLINE_

pop songwriter/guitarist Roger Davis

ANSWER : _RODOLFO_

strung-out go-go dancer Mimi Marquez

ANSWER : _MIMI_

30 POINT BONUS

11. Name the element from some information about its name for the stated number of points.

(5) Its name means "water-maker"

ANSWER : _HYDROGEN_

(10) Named after the Greek Titan who stole fire from the Gods to give to man.

ANSWER : _PROMETHIUM_

(15) Named after the Greek who served his own son to the Gods for dinner; he received a unique punishment in Hades.

ANSWER : _TANTALUM_

20 POINT BONUS

12. For five points each, tell whether the given German leaders, led East or West Germany.

Willy Brandt

ANSWER : _WEST_ Germany

Erich Honecker

ANSWER : _EAST_ Germany

Helmut Kohl

ANSWER : _WEST_ Germany

Konrad Adenauer

ANSWER : _WEST_ Germany

30 POINT BONUS

13. A non-contiguous area of Russia occupies part of Poland's northern border. For five points each, name the other six countries which share a border with Poland.

ANSWER : _LITHUANIA_, _BELARUS_, _UKRAINE_, _SLOVAKIA_, _GERMANY_, _CZECH REPUBLIC_

30 POINT BONUS

14. Scientists this week announced the discovery of a new primate species. For fifteen points each, answer these questions about the discovery.

First, in what country was the species discovered?

ANSWER : _BRAZIL_

The species was classified as belonging to a group which has some of the smallest primates and are found mainly in the Amazon region of South America. Name these primates who live in small groups.

ANSWER : _MARMOSSET_

25 POINT BONUS

15. Just over a year ago, two influential politicians speaking in New Hampshire agreed to pursue campaign reform and shook hands to seal the deal. First, for five points for one or 15 for both, name the two politicians.

ANSWER : Bill _CLINTON_, Newt _GINGRICH_

At issue is large amounts of money from organizations or individuals, given directly to national parties which in theory, though not in practice, is not intended to benefit candidates specifically. For 10 points, give the two word term for these funds.

ANSWER : _SOFT MONEY_

30 POINT BONUS

16. Born in 1912, this British mathematician worked for the government as a code-breaker during the Second World War. He died, presumably by his own hand, in 1954 after his arrest for violating Britain's homosexuality statutes. For fifteen points, name him.

ANSWER : Alan _TURING_

For another fifteen points, name the mathematician who had received a teaching position at a New York college before opposition to his personal beliefs and lifestyle led to the withdrawal of the offered position.

ANSWER : Bertrand _RUSSELL_

25 POINT BONUS

17. The top two finishers at this year's Kentucky Derby are no longer competing after injuries brought about "retirement" for both of them.

First, for ten points, name the Kentucky Derby winner who was the first of the two to be "retired."

ANSWER : _GRINDSTONE_

Now, for fifteen points, name the horse which finished second to Grindstone by a neck at the Derby and was injured in the Belmont after what was described as a "bad step."

ANSWER : _CAVONNIER_

30 POINT BONUS

18. FTP each, given a city, name its primary newspaper.

Philadelphia

ANSWER : _INQUIRER_

Baltimore

ANSWER : _SUN_

Houston

ANSWER : _CHRONICLE_

30 POINT BONUS

19. Answer these questions about venerable stadia for the ten points apiece.

a. With the closing of the Aud in Buffalo, this stadium in Buffalo's division will become the second oldest arena in the NHL behind Maple Leaf Garden.

ANSWER: _PITTSBURGH CIVIC AUDITORIUM_ or _THE IGLOO_

b. With both Cleveland and Los Angeles out of the conference, this is the oldest stadium in the AFC.

ANSWER: _MILE HIGH STADIUM_

c. The team which plays there is considering a move, but for now, this building in the Pacific Division is in the oldest arena in the NBA.

ANSWER: _LOS ANGELES SPORTS ARENA_

30 POINT BONUS

20. For ten points each, identify the nation from a description of its flag.

Two horizontal bars, the top one is red, the bottom one green. There is a yellow five pointed star in the middle.

ANSWER : _BURKINA FASO_

Three horizontal stripes, the top and bottom are light powder blue, the middle one is white. There is a happy, smiling sun in the middle.

ANSWER : _ARGENTINA_

Eleven horizontal stripes, alternating red and white. In the upper left corner is a blue field with one white five pointed star.

ANSWER : _LIBERIA_

30 POINT BONUS

21. How much do you know about Captain Bligh and the legendary mutiny on the Bounty? For 10 points each name:

The island where they collected their target cargo of breadfruit

ANSWER : _TAHITI_

The leader of the Mutiny, played by Clark Gable in the 1935 film.

ANSWER : Fletcher _CHRISTIAN_

The island where Fletcher and the other Mutineers settled after leaving Tahiti, and where some of their descendants still live today.

ANSWER : _PITCAIRN_ Island

20 POINT BONUS

22. You would think the way Bill Gates is either deified or villified that Microsoft always comes out with market-busting software. However, Microsoft has had it's share of clunkers. Identify the poor-selling based on the clues for ten points apiece:

a. This program, the precursor to Excel, was never able to beat Lotus 1-2-3 in market share, and was never allowed a Windows version.

ANSWER: _MULTIPLAN_

b. This palindrome-named user interface was to be for those users who found even Windows too complicated to use, however, the dumbing of America seems to have been postponed.

ANSWER: _BOB_

30 POINT BONUS

23. Name the Scottish author based on works on a 30-20-10 basis:

30-Weir of Hermiston

20-The Strange Case of Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde

10-Treasure Island

ANSWER: Robert Louis _STEVENSON_

25 POINT BONUS

24. Given a mineral, give its ranking on the Mohs Hardness Scale, five points each and a five point bonus for all five.

Calcite

ANSWER : _3_

Topaz

ANSWER : _8_

Apatite

ANSWER : _5_

Corundum

ANSWER : _9_

