

1. This drug is routinely used now for leprosy patients, and tests will soon start in using it against AIDS, cancer, and graft rejection. FTP, name this drug, once used to alleviate morning sickness, which caused thousands of birth defects.

ANSWER: THALIDOMIDE

2. The tenth man holding this title as abbot of the Tashilhunpo Buddhist monastery is Gedhun Choekyi Nyima, although Nyima was rejected by Chinese officials. FTP, name this Tibetan office, second in rank to the Dalai Lama.

ANSWER: PANCHEN LAMA

3. Nicknamed "Big Six", he won 373 games with the help of his "fadeaway". FTP, name this baseball player, who set a record with three shutouts in the 1905 World Series, a stalwart of the New York Giants.

ANSWER: Christy MATHEWSON

4. In 1994, he recanted a pledge not to seek office after age 70, and beat Charles Oberly to keep his Senate seat. FTP, name this co-sponsor of the 1981 tax cut, Chairman of the Finance Committee and senior Senator from Delaware.

ANSWER: William "Bill" ROTH

5. A proposed mine in Montana's Henderson Mountain could allegedly release tons of harmful pollutants into Fisher Creek. Such run-off could threaten, FTP, what first US national park only three miles away.

ANSWER: YELLOWSTONE National Park

6. In 1924, he successfully avoided a death sentence for his infamous clients Nathan Leopold and Richard Loeb. Thirty years earlier, he successfully defended Eugene Debs. FTP, name this lawyer, chief counsel for John Scopes.

ANSWER: Clarence DARROW

7. To avenge the "thousand injuries" its narrator suffered at Fortunato's hand, the drunken connoisseur is led off to taste some sherry. FTP, name this Poe short story, in which Montresor kills Fortunato by walling him into a wine cellar.

ANSWER: "The CASK OF AMONTILLADO" (ah-mon-tee-YAH-tho)

8. His 1665 Allegory of Painting is a self-portrait. FTP, name this Delft native, painter of Young Woman with a Water Jug, The Little Street, and The Kitchen-Maid, a contemporary of Rembrandt often considered one of the Dutch masters.

ANSWER: Jan VERMEER or Johannes VERMEER

9. Daniel Benzali plays Teddy Hoffman, a high-priced defense attorney in this TV courtroom drama. FTP, name this ABC series, which will play out a single trial over the course of the season, one of 1995's most acclaimed new shows.

ANSWER: MURDER ONE

10. Its seven principles include umoja, ujima, and imani, and its seven symbols include vibunzi, zawadi, kinara, and mazao. FTP, name this seven-day holiday, created by Maulana Karenga, whose name means "first fruits" in Swahili.

ANSWER: KWANZAA

11. Henrietta Leavitt discovered the link between their period and brightness, a relationship vital in determining cosmic distance scales. FTP, name this class of stars, noted for regular periods of up to fifty days of varying luminosity.

ANSWER: CEPHEID variables or CEPHEIDS

12. In July 1976, terrorists hijacked an Air France plane with eighty-three Israelis on board, but Israeli commandos later rescued all but three. FTP, name the city where this daring operation took place, a former capital of Uganda.

ANSWER: ENTEBBE

13. Connie seeks love with a servant, Oliver Mellors, after her husband, Sir Clifford, is paralyzed and withdraws into his books. FTP, name this novel, the object of a famous 1960 British obscenity case, written by D. H. Lawrence.

ANSWER: LADY CHATTERLY'S LOVER

14. A frozen corpse found on Mt. Ampato in 1995 may reveal unknown details of this people's religious life. FTP, name this Quechua-speaking people, whose capital was Cuzco and whose empire stretched from Ecuador to Chile.

ANSWER: INCAs or INCAn Empire or equivalent

15. In 1995, its board of directors rejected a takeover bid by its biggest stockholder, Kirk Kerkorian. FTP, name this company, whose former CEO Lee Iacocca joined with Kerkorian, the US's third-largest auto maker.

ANSWER: CHRYSLER

16. This Frenchman's 1803 Treatise on Political Economy states that capitalism is self-regulating and does not need government intervention to fight recession. FTP, name this economist whom Keynes would contradict, whose namesake "law" states that supply creates its own demand.

ANSWER: Jean-Baptiste SAY

17. In October 1995, SLORC officials forbade her from leading the National League for Democracy. FTP, name this Nobel Peace Prize winner, who in 1995 was released from six years of house arrest in her native Myanmar.

ANSWER: Aung San SUU KYI

18. Their largest remaining community numbers about 600 on the West Bank's Mount Gerizim. FTP, name this Jewish sect, whose only scriptures are the Torah, and whose members figure prominently in parables from the New Testament.
ANSWER: SAMARITANS

19. A wealthy and pretty young lady has a string of failures in her meddlesome attempts to play matchmaker until she marries her mentor, George Knightley. FTP, name this Jane Austen novel, named for its title character, Ms. Woodhouse.
ANSWER: EMMA

20. According to the Chronicon Helveticum, this legendary peasant of Bürglen instigated an anti-Austrian revolt in the Uri canton. FTP, name this hero, a Swiss man who allegedly was forced to shoot an apple from his son's head.
ANSWER: William TELL or Wilhelm TELL

21. He proved putrefaction and fermentation are caused by microbes, and in 1881 he developed an anthrax vaccine. FTP, name this scientist, who also developed a rabies vaccine and a namesake process of killing bacteria in milk.
ANSWER: Louis PASTEUR

22. The FBI is combing the Chicago area for "Robert V.", who may have attended a 1977 lecture at Northwestern. "Robert V." may be, FTP, what criminal, who's targeted mainly universities with his mail bombs.
ANSWER: UNABOMBER

23. Since division play began in 1969, this team has won the most division titles. FTP, name this baseball franchise, which has twice won three straight AL pennants, and which moved from both Philadelphia and Kansas City.
ANSWER: OAKLAND or A'S or ATHLETICS

24. In November 1995, the contents of his Paris apartment were auctioned, including his jacket from a 1966 production of Sleeping Beauty. FTP, name this dancer, who left the Kirov Ballet in 1961 to seek political asylum in Paris.
ANSWER: Rudolf NUREYEV

25. Mary Ann Mobley, Lee Merriweather, Phyllis George, Bess Myerson, and Vanessa Williams. These five women all won, FTP, what annual contest held in Atlantic City, won in 1994 by Heather Whitestone and 1995 by Shawntel Smith.
ANSWER: MISS AMERICA

26. Noted for his use of understatement and silence, his plays Landscape, Silence, and Old Times have little on-stage activity. FTP, name this playwright, whose works include The Caretaker, Party Time, and The Dumb Waiter.
ANSWER: Harold PINTER

27. After the destruction of Jerusalem in 70 AD, this region became the chief Jewish center of Palestine. FTP, name this area, bounded by the Jezreel Plain, Lebanon, Syria, the Jordan River, and a namesake inland "sea".

ANSWER: GALILEE

28. This nine-letter word meaning "experienced through sympathetic participation of another's experiences", is from the Latin for "substitute". FTP, name this adjective, whose first five letters form an Anglican priestly title.

ANSWER: VICARIOUS

29. After a mediocre stay at Zurich's Federal Institute of Technology, he got a job in Berne as a patent inspector, where he experimented on the side. FTP, name this physicist, who left his patent job after his 1905 "miracle year".

ANSWER: Albert EINSTEIN

30. In November 1995, this African country held its first multi-party presidential election. FTP, name this country, which had 75% voter turnout despite threats from Islamic militants and whose President Liamine Zeroual won reelection.

A: Democratic and Popular Rep. of ALGERIA or Al-Jumhuriya AL-JAZAIRIYA

25 POINT BONUS

1. In this Ibsen play, Dr. Wangel's marriage to Ellida is threatened by the return of a mysterious sailor from her past. For twenty-five points, name this play, in which the sailor's hold over Ellida is broken only after Wangel releases her from her marriage vows.

ANSWER: The LADY FROM THE SEA, or FRUEN FRA HAVET

20 POINT BONUS

2. FTP each, name these recent leaders of Chile:

- a. He was military dictator from 1973-89 A: Augusto PINOCHET Ugarte
- b. The socialist president toppled by Pinochet A: Salvador ALLENDE Gossens

30 POINT BONUS

3. Identify this Eighteenth Century composer, 30-20-10.

30) In his opera Xerxes, the title character tries to woo his brother's fiancée.

20) In 1715, he wrote Water Music for a royal celebration on the Thames.

10) His most famous work is the oratorio The Messiah.

ANSWER: George Frideric HANDEL

30 POINT BONUS

4. Answer these questions on Georgia for the stated number of points:

(5) Name its President, a former Soviet foreign minister.

ANSWER: Eduard SHEVARDNADZE

(10) Name the northwestern breakaway region occupied by Russian peace-keeping troops since 1993.

ANSWER: ABKHAZIA

(15) Name the president whom Shevardnadze replaced in 1992.

ANSWER: Zviad GAMSAKHURDIA

20 POINT BONUS

5. Larry Bird and Magic Johnson were widely regarded as the best NBA players of their time. FTP each, name the colleges they attended, whose clash in an NCAA title game presaged future confrontations in the NBA finals.

A: INDIANA STATE Univ. (not Indiana), MICHIGAN STATE Univ. (not Michigan)

30 POINT BONUS

6. Launched in 1989, in December 1995 this satellite reached Jupiter. FTP, name this NASA probe, which will have eleven close encounters with Io, Ganymede, Europa, and Callisto through December 1997.

ANSWER: GALILEO

En route to Jupiter, Galileo snapped a picture of Dactyl, the first known moon of an asteroid. For twenty points, name this asteroid, name for a lover of Jupiter.

ANSWER: IDA

25 POINT BONUS

7. A silent screen legend, his films, such as The Navigator, Sherlock Jr., and Steamboat Bill, Jr., often featured thrilling stunts. For twenty-five points, name this silent comedy film actor and director, who broke into film in 1917 as Fatty Arbuckle's sidekick.

ANSWER: Joseph "Buster" KEATON, Jr.

20 POINT BONUS

8. Testimony in 1947 from an American admiral that German and Allied submarine tactics were similar may have won this Nazi leader a lighter sentence at Nuremberg. FTP each, name this Nazi admiral and brief successor to Hitler, and the American admiral, the US's first Fleet Admiral.

ANSWER: Karl DÖNITZ, Chester NIMITZ

30 POINT BONUS

9. FTP each, given a borough of New York City, name the county comprising it.

a. Brooklyn

ANSWER: KINGS County

b. Staten Island

ANSWER: RICHMOND County

c. Manhattan

ANSWER: NEW YORK County

30 POINT BONUS

10. In the 1900's, this specialist in Native American cultures was a curator of the American Museum of Natural History and taught at Columbia. For twenty points, name this anthropologist, author of The Mind of Primitive Man.

ANSWER: Franz Boas

FTP, this former student of Boas was born in Philadelphia in 1901 and was famous for her studies of preliterate societies of Oceania.

ANSWER: Margaret Mead

30 POINT BONUS

11. A war hero returns home, but he is killed at his bath by his wife and her lover, who happens to be his nephew. FTP, name the three persons thus described, all of whom die in Aeschylus's Oresteia trilogy.

ANSWER: AGAMEMNON, AEGISTHUS, CLYTEMNESTRA or CLYTAEMESTRA

30 POINT BONUS

12. In 1995, San Francisco's mayoral election pitted an incumbent against a former assistant HUD secretary and lesbian activist and a former speaker of the California State Assembly, who ended up winning the race. FTP each, name these three candidates.

ANSWER: Frank JORDAN, Roberta ACHTENBERG, William "Willie" BROWN

20 POINT BONUS

13. Named for a Korean river where UN troops fell ill in the 1950's, it includes the deadly Puumala, Marburg, and Sin Nombre viruses. For twenty points, name this viral class.

ANSWER: HANTAVIRUSES

30 POINT BONUS

14. After Napoleon's fall, Julien Sorel leaves the army for the church, but tries to advancement using seduction. For twenty points, name this colorful novel, in which Sorel is executed for the attempted murder of Madame Rênal.

ANSWER: The Red and the Black or Le rouge et le noir

FTP, name the author of The Red and the Black.

ANSWER: Stendhal or Marie-Henry Beyle

30 POINT BONUS

15. In 1995, two highly-prescribed drugs of recent years jumped over-the-counter. FTP each, name these two drugs produced by SmithKline Beecham and Merck, prescribed for ulcer patients and now touted for heartburn.

ANSWER: TAGAMET HB, PEPCID AC

FTP, name the leading prescription-only ulcer and heartburn drug made by Glaxo, which is expected to get over-the-counter approval soon.

ANSWER: ZANTAC

25 POINT BONUS

16. After attending the same high school as Ho Chi Minh, he joined Vietnam's communist movement. For twenty-five points, name this North Vietnamese statesman, the commander who captured Dien Bien Phu in 1954 and served as Defense Minister during the Vietnam War.

ANSWER: Vo Nguyen GIAP

30 POINT BONUS

17. For the stated number of points, name the University of Chicago economics professor and Nobel laureate:

(5) The first Chicago winner, he's a leader of monetarism.

ANSWER: Milton FRIEDMAN

(10) With Modigliani, he showed that capital structure does not affect value.

ANSWER: Merton MILLER

(15) He won for his studies of transaction costs and property rights.

ANSWER: Ronald COASE

20 POINT BONUS

18. A Belgian economics minister in the 1980's, in 1995 he was charged with bribery connected with defense contracts awarded French and Italian firms. For twenty points, name this statesman, who resigned as Secretary-General of NATO in the wake of the allegations.

ANSWER: Willy CLAES

20 POINT BONUS

19. In this satire of Tudor England, a woman is accused of witchcraft after a town's "rag and bone man" disappears. For twenty points, name this 1948 Christopher Fry play, in which the heroine is spared after the man returns.

ANSWER: The LADY'S NOT FOR BURNING

30 POINT BONUS

20. Founded in 790 by Jayavarman, this empire ruled much of Cambodia until being toppled by Thai and Vietnamese kingdoms. FTP, name this empire.

ANSWER: Khmer Empire

FTP, name the city that Yashovarman I established as the Khmer capital.

ANSWER: Angkor Thom (NOT "Angkor Wat")

FTP, name the largest temple structure within the city of Angkor Thom.

ANSWER: Angkor Wat

20 POINT BONUS

21. His seventeen movie include Ragtime, Maverick, and The Natural, and his albums include Good Old Boys and Land of Dreams. For twenty points, name this singer/songwriter, famous for the songs "Short People" and "I Love LA."

ANSWER: Randy NEWMAN

30 POINT BONUS

22. In mathematics, it is a number less than any finite quantity, yet not zero, and this set underlied many early attempts at the calculus. For twenty points, name this set of numbers, which are neither real nor complex.

ANSWER: infinitesimals

Infinitesimals can be used to solve the paradoxes of, FTP, which philosopher who appears in Plato's Parmenides.

ANSWER: Zeno of Elea

30 POINT BONUS

23. In November 1995, Poland elected a former communist to replace Lech Walesa as president. For fifteen points each, name the newly-elected leader, and the last communist president of Poland, whom Walesa replaced in 1990.

ANSWER: Aleksander KWASNIEWSKI, Wojciech JARUZELSKI

30 POINT BONUS

24. To bolster his navy, England's Edward the Confessor created the Cinque (sank) Ports, originally five but later seven towns which in exchange for royal privileges furnished ships and docks. FTP each, name any three of these seven "head ports", important staging areas for the Hundred Years' War.

A: DOVER, HASTINGS, HYTHE, New ROMNEY, RYE, SANDWICH, WINCHELSEA

30 POINT BONUS

25. Three of the twenty most populous cities in the US have no major league baseball, NBA, NHL, or NFL franchises. FTP each, name these cities.

ANSWER: COLUMBUS, MEMPHIS, EL PASO

30 POINT BONUS

26. Name this artist, 30-20-10.

30) Born in 1907, at age eighteen she was in a bus accident. During her long convalescence, she taught herself to paint.

20) Her self-portraits are noted for over-emphasis on her eyebrows and symbols of pain, such as thorn necklaces.

10) This Mexican painted Roots and The Wounded Deer.

ANSWER: Magdalena Frida Kahlo y Calderón or Frida Kahlo de Rivera

20 POINT BONUS

27. This Swiss-based cartel controls about 75% of the world rough diamond market, but that position is in danger as Russian producers threaten to leave the fold. For twenty points, name this South African-owned gem concern.

ANSWER: DE BEERS Centenary AG

30 POINT BONUS

28. Saleem and Shiva are born in the first hour of India's independence, but a hospital mix-up sends them home to the wrong families. For twenty points, name this 1981 Booker Prize-winning novel, in which Saleem and Shiva grow up to be bitter rivals.

ANSWER: Midnight's Children

FTP, name the author of Midnight's Children.

ANSWER: Ahmed Salman Rushdie

25 POINT BONUS

29. They are various collections of the words of Mohammed, often attributed as his commentaries on the Koran. For twenty-five points, what collective name, from the Arabic for "sayings", is given to these collections, a secondary source of Muslim scripture for which many different versions exist.

ANSWER: aHADITH

20 POINT BONUS

30. In November 1995, former tobacco executive Jeffrey Wigand was to have appeared on this weekly news show, until network officials pulled the piece due to liability concerns. FTP each, name this CBS staple, and its correspondent who took to the air to publicly condemn his network's actions.

ANSWER: SIXTY MINUTES, Mike WALLACE