Questions by Vince, Chris, and MJ, with special guest star Charlie

1. Biographer Richard Marius notes that this man's earlier anti-heretical writings undercut his effort to survive by silence and paints a less flattering view of his personality than the early biography by his son-in-law, Will Roper. Although the official reason for his execution was his refusal to accept the Act of Supremacy, this former Lord Chancellor had been on Henry VIII's enemies list ever since he refused to assent to Henry's divorce from Catherine of Aragon. Name this saint who drew on Plato's Republic for his 1516 classic Utopia.

Sir Thomas More

2. When Cal Ripken ended his streak, this man inherited the mantle as the major leaguer with the longest current run of consecutive games played, although he trails Cal by some 2,000 games. In his college days at LSU he was known by the nickname Joey, but shortly after his major league debut (and his stint in alcohol-related rehab) he reverted to his given name. This year he came close to duplicating his feat of 50 homers and 50 doubles and managed to keep his arrest total down, although don't go trick-or-treating at his house. FTP name this former Indians and current White Sox slugger.

[Albert Belle]

3. In 1911 he noted that Polaris was a Cepheid. In 1913 he became the first to estimate actual distance of some Cepheid variables; Shipley used his work in determining the shape of the Milky Way. His most important work lay unnoticed for ten years, mainly because he'd published it in a semipopular photographic journal in 1905. FTP name this Danish astronomer, whose observation of the relationship between the color of stars and their luminosity was discovered independently by H.N. Russell.

[Ejnar Hertzprung]

4. He taught psychiatry at the University of Strasbourg before becoming director of an insane asylum at Graz. He published a widely used psychiatry text, but he is better remembered today for his collection of case histories and for coining such terms as "paranoia", "sadism", and "masochism". FTP name the author of Psychopathia Sexualis.

[Richard Krafft-Ebing]

5. His family wanted the 1000-pound bronze statue of him smoking a pipe and wearing a fedora while sitting on a bench placed at his home, Rowan Oak, or on the campus of the University of Mississippi. Instead a magnolia tree was torn down to make room for it in front of the City Hall of Oxford, Mississippi. FTP name this Southern author of Sartorius, Intruder in the Dust, and As I Lay Dying.

[William Faulkner]

6. According to Bacchylides, he tried self-immolation on a funeral pyre, but was captured when his capital of Sardis was stormed by Cyrus the Great. He had formed a coalition with Egypt, Sparta and Babylon and had invaded Cappadocia. FTP name this king of Lydia famed for his proverbial wealth.

[Croesus (accept either /KREE sus/ or /KRO sus/)]

7. The "Exon" volume, kept in the cathedral chapter of Exeter, gives a detailed account of Wilts, Dorset, Somerset, Devon, and Cornwall, while the "Exchequer" volume covers most of the rest of England. For ten points, name this great book written by order of William the Conqueror.

Domesday Book

8. This species of enteric bacteria appear under the microscope as short rod cells and, when properly stained, retain a pink color. They are covered in flagella which makes movement and entrance into a host very easy. FTP, name this common bacteria whose harmful strains are found in tainted water supplies and mammalian feces and whose friendly, symbiotic strains can be found in the human gut.

[Escherichia coli or E. coli]

9. Called "Umbanda" or "Quimbanda" in Brazil, its liturgical language is Yoruba. The oldest of the gods, or orisha, is Obalata, and the highest order of priest is the omnipotent Babalawo. FTP name this syncretic religion blending ancient West African rites with Catholicism, whose name is derived from the Spanish for "saint".

[Santeria]

10. Field & Stream said it was "still of considerable interest to outdoor-minded readers...Unfortunately, one is obliged to wade through many pages of extraneous material in order to discover and savor these sidelights on the management of a Midlands shooting estate, and in this reviewer's opinion this book cannot take the place of R.J. Miller's Practical Gamekeeping." This was said in 1959 of Grove Press' reissue, which had to fight censorship efforts all the way to the U.S. Supreme Court. FTP name this novel about the heroine's forbidden lover affair with Oliver Mellors, written by D.H. Lawrence.

[Lady Chatterley's Lover]

11. It was the first music to be recorded onto a compact disc; indeed, legend has it the fact that it is exactly 72 minutes long gave us the length of the CD. Drawing on a text by Schiller, this 1823 work also features the first use of a choral movement in a symphony. FTP give the number of this Beethoven symphony that contained "Ode to Joy."
Beethoven's 9th Symphony
- 12.) Ferdinand von Wrangel begins his survey of the Siberian Arctic coast. Ft. Atkinson, the precursor of Omaha, is built. Ampere formulates the first laws of electromagnetism. James Monroe is reelected overwhelmingly. George III finally dies. And Congress passes the Missouri Compromise. FTP in what year?
[1820]
- 13.) Except for his participation in the Royal Society he was a virtual recluse who abhorred women; he died alone in 1810. His work on electricity would have been groundbreaking had it not lain unpublished for decades. But he did distinguish between 2 oxides of arsenic, demonstrate the existence of an inert gas later found to be argon, and prove that water was a compound. FTP name the discoverer of nitric acid, who in 1766 identified hydrogen as an element.
[Henry Cavendish]
- 14.) Mr. Murdstone; Mr. Creakle; Steerforth; Betsey Trotwood; Dora Spenlow; Agnes Wickfield; Mr. Micawber; Uriah Heep. All of these characters appear in, FTP, what Dickens novel?
David Copperfield
- 15.) Here you can see the largest standing fortress in Central Europe and play on a life-sized chess board right in the middle of town square. Here is the music festival won by the Von Trapps and the birthplace of Mozart. FTP name this historic city.
Salzburg, Austria.
- 16.) Near the end of his life, he wrote The Reasonableness of Christianity. He distrusted political and religious fanaticism, but his advocacy of tolerance did not extend to Catholics. Perhaps it's because the House of Stuart had been the covert target of his most famous work, published two years after the Glorious Revolution ousted it. FTP name this English philosopher, originator of the Social Contract theory and author of Essay Concerning Human Understanding.
John Locke
- 17.) He was a cast member of Fridays, the short-lived ABC answer to Saturday Night Live. In Weird Al Yankovic's film UHF he played the moronic janitor who wound up hosting a kiddie show. He also had bit parts in Problem Child and Airheads and a more substantial role in Unstrung Heroes. FTP name this perceptor of the goofy entrance as Cosmo Kramer on Seinfeld.
[Michael Richards]
- 18.) She lived only 47 years and died over 40 years ago, but this artist is hot today, with celebrities such as Madonna avidly buying up her work. Her surrealistic self-portraits, including one of her own miscarriage, brought her less fame in her lifetime than her 2 marriages to Diego Rivera, who also appears in some of her more noted works. For 10 pts. name this Mexican-born artist & cult figure.
[Frida Kahlo]
- 19.) He graduated from Stanford University in 1895 and began his career as a mining engineer. He served as US Food Administrator and as Secretary of Commerce. FTP name this man, who became President by defeating NY Governor Alfred E. Smith in 1928
Herbert HOOVER
20. In 1600, Sir William Gilber proposed that the Earth was a huge one of these, an effect possibly explained by a dynamo effect from the minerals in a liquid state contained in the outer core. Considering the Earth as one, its moment is 8.0 times 10 to the 22nd joules per tesla [8.0E22 J/T]. For ten points, name this type of material most often identified with iron.
magnet
21. It's the middle name of Lucie Arnaz and the first name of a Chattanooga named Daniels who was first runner-up in the Miss America pageant a few years back. It's also the first name of the actress Armfeldt, played by Glynis Johns in A Little Night Music. It's the title of a Neil Diamond song and a Jean Simmons film in which Marlon Brando plays Napoleon. And it's the first name of a Miss Washington, the beauty pageant contestant that Mike Tyson was convicted of raping. FTP what's the name?
[Desiree]
22. The Alien and Sedition Acts were aimed at silencing some of his supporters, most notably Philip Freneau. Critics claimed he had no morality and did not believe in God. His authorship of a statue on religious liberty was one of the three accomplishments he had listed on his tombstone, which made no mention of his Presidency. He was the first President to be inaugurated in Washington, D.C. and began the Library of Congress. FTP name our 3rd President.

Thomas Jefferson

23. His first play was A Wife for a Life and he also wrote The Last Will and Testament of an Extremely Distinguished Dog.
